Subject: AM Call -- Sept 6/16
Date: Tuesday, September 6, 2016 10:06:16 AM

Good morning,

Cambie Litigation: This case will be heard in court starting today.

Needle Cleanup: A program that picks up used needles and trash is scheduled to shut down in a week, primarily due to the organization's provincial gaming grant not being renewed this year. K. O'Brien to connect with Minister for Community, Sport, Cultural Development's office.

Fentanyl: An FOI Request indicated that a significant amount of fentanyl went missing from Royal Jubilee Hospital in 2015. S. Brown to provide MTL the information from the initial report.

Interior Health: A 91-year old woman died four days after being discharged at 9:30 at night and the family is questioning the treatment she received.

Obesity and Pregnancy: According to a recent study, some women are being "shamed" for obesity and pushed to not have children. K. Anderson to follow-up.

Announcements:

Tomorrow – News release on Social Determinants of Health
