BCCNP: British Columbia College of Nursing Professionals (now the British Columbia College of Nurses and Midwives)

CPBC: College of Pharmacists of British Columbia

NOTE Regarding 2019 Referrals: The federal Regulations for the Monitoring of Medical Assistance in Dying came into force in November 2018, coinciding with the establishment of the Ministry of Health's MAiD Oversight Unit. The higher number of referrals in 2019 compared to other years reflects both the learning curve for practitioners adapting to the new regulations as well as the ongoing development of best practices in BC's approach to oversight.
