FYI you also have attached:

- Summary plan of the stakeholder calling (1 page)

Jonathan –

Pursuant to our quick chat at the start of the Wildfire call, I understand MSF and MGH will be connecting tomorrow regarding consent and how EAO is thinking of putting the term to use under their revitalized EAO process.

Below is what I have (in italics) from Scott Bailey, ADM at EAO, on the approach they are considering. My thoughts/comments are below that.

Please don't hesitate to reach out to me if you wish to discuss. I will send a companion piece to this in a few days – we are taking another look at our 'matrix' that maps this to UNDRIP – will share when complete.

Jonathan – my thoughts/comments back to Scott are as follows. They are generally brief.

- Generally, this is totally on the right track and terrific work – so thanks for this. No substantive issues with the process proposed.
- There are two pieces that we think could benefit from some further discussion or consideration. I'm not suggesting we'll end up in a different place, but two flags:

Debbie,

I am sorry that I can't take part in this call-in simply because 45 minutes is not enough time to help address the concerns of the approximate 22 communities facing the wildfire dangers.

If the Premier is really concerned then perhaps he should either visit our communities or at the very least provide sufficient time and resources to help the impact BC First Nations!

Subject: Re: Conference call with Premier John Horgan re: Forest Fires

Debbie,

I am sorry that I can't take part in this call-in simply because 45 minutes is not enough time to help address the concerns of the approximate 22 communities facing the wildfire dangers.

If the Premier is really concerned then perhaps he should either visit our communities or at the very least provide sufficient time and resources to help the impact BC First Nations!

Larry Nooski
Chief
