Good Morning

I had a question about members wearing the Pink Shirts in the house today, answer is no they cannot.

Only the person making the two minute statement can wear the pink shirt during their statement.

Hi Scott,

- 1) When you did the Sto:lo meeting in Vancouver last Friday, did you eat breakfast and dinner at home? I know that lunch was provided and technically you are allowed breakfast and dinner as you were on travel status, just need to know if you had those meals out or at home, if at home, I won't claim them, if out I will claim them!
- 2) There is a dinner meeting next week March 6th for Doug/Tony/Jessica/Geoff Meggs and I'm wondering where you would like to have this dinner, as I need to make a reservation?

Some additional questions on this that aren't in the QA have come in from a reporter. I am passing the draft responses along so that you can show the minister as well, in case he is asked anything about the agreement in the halls. Can someone please print this email for him, and make sure he still has the QA for reference?

I will add these Qs below to the QA, but wanted to make sure he'd seen before he heads to Cabinet. I saw Vaughn Palmer was talking about the negotiations on CKNW this morning, so he could ask the minister about it.

Request

How did these negotiations come about? Who approached who first? Did the nations approach the province, or vice versa?

- The Province, BC Hydro and the Nations recognize the importance of seeking to resolve disputes through collaborative processes.
- A dialogue between the parties in the fall of 2018 created the possibility of a negotiated pathway to resolution.

Does this mean that the province is reconsidering Site C, or that there will be some sort of settlement with the nations?

- No, BC is not reconsidering Site C. This does not impact planned construction timelines.
- If successful, the parties would reach an agreement that would reset the relationship and settle the on-going litigation regarding Site C.

What format will the negotiations take?

- The parties will be seeking to achieve a resolution through structured, interest-based negotiations. The precise format and structure of the dialogue remains confidential.

Is there a limit to how much any settlement would be, based on the Site C budget?

- Given the early stage of the negotiations, the scope of any potential agreement remains to be seen and will be informed by an assessment of the issues involved.

See Q&A, IB.

Just following up on the below, there are Budget tickets left if you want your 2 tickets. I have a request in from Jessica Wood for 2 tickets, but want to make sure you don't want them and make sure it's ok if we offer them up to them?

Thanks,
Connie Roberts

Good afternoon,

Government MLAs and Ministers have been allotted one seat each for a guest to sit in the House on Budget Day, Tuesday, February 19th, 2019. Note that this is for Budget Day, not Throne Speech guests.

Please provide the name of the guest your Minister/Member has confirmed will be attending to the Office of the Minister of Finance. Seats are assigned by name and placeholder names will not be able to be accommodated. Please submit your guest's name no later than end of day February 8th to Heidi.Reid@gov.bc.ca

Assigned tickets will be available for pick up by the guest beginning at 11 AM on Budget Day in the Rattenbury Room (139). For security reasons, the building will be on lockdown. Guests should enter through the front main doors of the Building. Guests will need to provide ID to pick up their ticket.

Guests must pick up tickets by 1:00 PM at the latest and be seated before Question Period, which starts at 1:30 PM. We will not be able to accommodate late arrivals.

There will be a reception immediately following adjournment of the House in the Lower Rotunda on the main floor of the Buildings that everyone is welcome to attend.

Please let the Minister of Finance's office know if you have a guest with special needs so that arrangements can be made accordingly.

Thank you,

Heidi Reid

Finance advised that this is due to weather and you are able to keep the vehicle over the weekend (just not drive it) and drop it off in Vic on Monday (Family Day) when you drive down.

Shall we do that for you?
