That the lands are unceded territory

Sahibzada, Rafiullah ENV:EX 10:05 AM:

they are the legal owners

McMurchy, Brooke EMPR:EX 10:10 AM:

will we have access to this ppt afterwards?

Webb, Karley CSNR:EX 10:10 AM:

yes

McMurchy, Brooke EMPR:EX 10:10 AM:

great, thanks!

Cross, Elaine ENV:EX 10:17 AM:

What was the land base that was agreed to by the Nisgaa in the modern treaty?

Jackson, Vickie ENV:EX 10:19 AM:

Wikipedia says 2,000 sq. km

Cross, Elaine ENV:EX 10:19 AM:

Great - thanks!

Williston, Patrick ENV:EX 10:19 AM:

A terrific resource for understanding history from the Gitxsan perspective is Neil Sterritt's book "Mapping My Way Home".

Dunae, Vanessa EMPR:EX 10:22 AM:

Thanks Patrick good recommendation and available in 971 section of local libraries

Jackson, Vickie ENV:EX 10:25 AM:

Why is the term, "distinct societies" so important?

Tamblyn, Jillian ENV:EX 10:34 AM:

In treaty areas would there be the same high legal threshold to justify infringement

Tillmanns, Angeline ENV:EX 10:34 AM:

Are there any examples of when the Crown has shown that infringement is justified?

Stepaniuk, Daryl R ENV:EX 10:38 AM:

Even though the justification test doesn't need to be used unless there are declared rights - should we still not be documenting the justificatory rationale in decision making?

Stepaniuk, Daryl R ENV:EX 10:39 AM:

kk

Stepaniuk, Daryl R ENV:EX 10:40 AM:

thanks

Hardy, Lisa M ENV:EX 10:45 AM:

Are we required to know information that other Ministries have gathered regarding infringement communities have shared with those consulting.

Hardy, Lisa M ENV:EX 10:47 AM:

ok thanks

Bennett, Scott ENV:EX 10:48 AM:

I thought it was the Delgamuk decision in 94 that originally triggered the duty to consult?

Doll, Andrea ENV:EX 10:53 AM:

in terms of change of control, does this outright apply to all types of authorizations? Some authorizations have more 'wiggle room' for changing operations. e.g. EMA permits require discharge limits etc which can't be interpreted differently between companies

Hardy, Lisa M ENV:EX 10:54 AM:

thanks!

Doll, Andrea ENV:EX 10:55 AM:

ok thanks

Jackson, Vickie ENV:EX 10:58 AM:

Would the first part of consultation then be to define these terms?

Elmayer, Kai IRR:EX 11:05 AM:

Debbie, societies continue to evolve. Can you expand on how we as Crown can appreciate this idea in our approach to engage with indigenous partners today?

Elmayer, Kai IRR:EX 11:07 AM:

you covered it nicely tx

Stepaniuk, Daryl R ENV:EX 11:10 AM:

Bad timing for this Q, but before we get too far from it – I continue to hear the notion that we consult on “Statutory” decisions – can you provide clarity and scope those types of “decisions” that may trigger the duty to consult? Even simply looking at the scope of the Judicial Review Procedures Act (what constitutes a Gov action).

Cross, Elaine ENV:EX 11:10 AM:

Maybe off-point, but how do hereditary leaders vs. elected leaders factor into consent?

Stepaniuk, Daryl R ENV:EX 11:16 AM:

Answered it now more fully - thanks - I was just looking to clarify the scope of "Crown Conduct" - as in EPD - we have some types of actions that go beyond the "standard" statutory decision making. Codes of Practice/Regulations (Public Notification Regulation) and the EMA links.

Stepaniuk, Daryl R ENV:EX 11:18 AM:

Thanks!

Tamblyn, Jillian ENV:EX 11:28 AM:

what about the failure to act. With for example a species at risk and recovery and the inability of an indigenous community to then harvest the species and transfer knowledge and proactice ceremonies.

Tamblyn, Jillian ENV:EX 11:29 AM:

There isn't an approval for an industrial use

Tamblyn, Jillian ENV:EX 11:31 AM:

thx

Bennett, Scott ENV:EX 11:31 AM:

has short vs long term been defined?

Tamblyn, Jillian ENV:EX 11:35 AM:

What if the response/accomodation is a moving target

Stepaniuk, Daryl R ENV:EX 11:54 AM:

consultation vs collaboration - love it - thanks for bringing this to us Debbie!

Webb, Karley CSNR:EX 11:55 AM:

please ensure you complete the survey in the meeting invite! Thanks Debbie! Thanks all!

Webb, Karley CSNR:EX 11:55 AM:
