Hi Ann Marie,

MMM's office has confirmed this meeting now on Jan. 29th, from 9-10:00 am. Their office is aware that MSF needs to leave this meeting by 9:45 am, in order to get to his next meeting off-site.

Matt, this means that the pre-brief for the Wet'suwet'en will need to be shortened to 15 min., so starting at 9:45 am. Do you have the location yet for this meeting?

Thanks,

Connie Roberts

Not confirmed yet, EMPR is working with all our offices on this. With schedules tight the timing of a meeting doesn't work for everyone. MMM's office is working on it.

Hi James and Leslie,

Upon further consideration, I have update the TOC list below. There were a couple on there that I don't think will come up in QP or the halls – they will probably need to be added at some point, as we move ahead with stakeholder engagement, for instance, but for now they aren't necessary. I have also updated some of the wording of the headings to ensure they are clear.

I am attaching our materials, titled with corresponding numbering so they will be in the right order. You will notice for a couple of the topics, there is more than one document, so I have labelled them a, b, c as appropriate to indicate the order they should go into the binder in.

I haven't included the other ministries' messaging for now. I will connect with Sam to compare what he has to what we have for those, and then will forward you the appropriate materials sometime today.

Thanks,
Sarah.

Hi all – Can you please put this in the minister’s calendar for 4:30pm? Thanks!

Date: Feb. 11, 2020
Show: CBC Radio The Current
Host: Matt Galloway
Dial-in: s.22 [REDACTED]
Time: 4:30 pm (they’ll be ready by 4:25 pm)
Length: 7-8 minutes
Format: one-on-one interview, pre-taped, live to tape (you can listen to Chief’s interview before you start).
Topic: Wet’suwet’en dispute, nation-wide protests

Details: This will be a three-part segment, with a pre-taped interview with Hereditary Chief Namoks coming on first to set the stage. Then your interview will run. Then Peter Grant will come on to give a legal overview and history of governments engagement with Indigenous peoples.

Some questions: How does the province deal with and reconcile the dilemma of a court ruling that a project is legal to proceed and has the consent of elected leadership, with a Supreme Court decision (Delgamuukw) that gave title to hereditary chiefs – how as government do you balance that? How do you reconcile this situation with the province’s commitment to UNDRIP? Why are we seeing these protests across the country?

Subject: CBC RADIO - Interview request for Premier Horgan

Hi Don,

I’m Mrinali, a producer at Cross Country Checkup on CBC Radio ONE – Canada’s only national call-in show, reaching more than 600,000 weekly listeners.

I’m just following up on a similar email I sent to Lindsay Byers.

Would Premier Horgan potentially be available for a LIVE interview lasting 5-8 minutes between 4-6 pm ET / 1pm - 3pm PT on Sunday, Feb 16? It can be done by phone, WhatsApp or SKYPE. The topic of our show this week is: the reaction to the BC pipeline protests. The focus of our interview is: the B.C. government's stance on the Wet’suwet’en nation demonstrations and blockades across Canada.

If an interview can be accomodated, please send me a contact we can reach the Premier at.

See below for more details about the show.

Cross Country Checkup on CBC Radio ONE is broadcast live simultaneously through six time zones across the country every Sunday afternoon, between 4-6 pm ET on CBC Radio One, and is available via our podcast, SiriusXM satellite radio channel 169, and around the world on Facebook Live.

Thank you,
Mrinali

Hi all – here is the final issues note, for your reference.

We may want to add another tab to the QP binder for this one? I have been getting a lot of questions from media about Delgamuukw, as the Wet'suwet'en hereditary chiefs are referencing it frequently.

Thanks,
Sarah.

Hi James,

Attached are the KM/QA put together for today for the premier when he is out.

Below are the approved KMs for MMF, who as you know will be the lead spokesperson. He will likely redirect or suggest people take further Qs to the RCMP.

- As we've stated in the past, the police work at arms length from government and we do not direct their operational decisions.
- RCMP have indicated they will be using the least force possible to enforce the court ordered injunction.
- Maintaining public safety is my top priority and we hope for a peaceful resolution for all parties involved.

I will be passing any media we get over to PSSG. Looks like our minister is in a meeting with a nation most of the day, which is great.

I'll keep you posted if any developments arise you should be aware of.

Thanks,
Sarah.

STATEMENT

For Immediate Release
January 22, 2020

Ministry of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation

Minister's statement on meeting with Office of the Wet'suwet'en

SMITHERS – Minister Scott Fraser has issued the following statement:

“We had a respectful conversation with representatives of the Office of the Wet'suwet'en. In the meeting we mutually committed to safety as a shared priority. It's unfortunate that the West'suwet'en Hereditary Chiefs were unable to meet with us today. The most important part of any relationship is listening to one another and that was my only goal by being here today. We will continue to search for ways to continue dialogue and to attempt to achieve a peaceful and safe resolution.”

FYI, we can shorten the pre-briefs, if MO wants. We have the rooms as of 7 AM. I offered the Chiefs the Alpine Room in case they want to caucus ahead of the meeting.

Doug is flying over Sunday night (he'll connect on to James's Van-Smithers flight) and will come back on the same Tuesday night flight as MSF/James. Doug will also stay at the Hudson Bay Lodge.

I'll send you any materials I get, though I suspect a proper package may come together over the weekend.
