

MINISTRY OF ABORIGINAL RELATIONS
AND RECONCILIATION
BRIEFING NOTE

November 4, 2014
Ref. No. 35648

File: 280-20

- I Prepared for the INFORMATION of Honourable Rich Coleman, Minister of Natural Gas Development
- II ISSUE: LNG First Nations' negotiations update.
- III BACKGROUND:

The Ministry of Aboriginal Relations and Reconciliation (MARR) continues to engage in negotiations with First Nations directly impacted by LNG proposals, including facilities, pipelines, and production. s.16

CN/ED _____	s.16
ADM _____
DM _____

V KEY MESSAGES:

- Negotiations with First Nations continue. s.16
- A number of First Nations is championing development of the LNG industry in BC and the Province is working with these First Nations to support their efforts. s.16

Page 04 of 16 to/à Page 14 of 16

Withheld pursuant to/removed as s.16

Ref. No. 35648

- The Ministry of Aboriginal Relations and Reconciliation (MARR) continues to engage in negotiations with First Nations directly impacted by LNG proposals, including facilities, pipelines, and production.^{5.16}

V KEY MESSAGES:

- Negotiations with First Nations continue. ^{s.16}
- A number of First Nations is championing development of the LNG industry in BC and the Province is working with these First Nations to support their efforts.