Dear Mr. Wilson:

This correspondence is to confirm your services as the LNG – Buy BC Advocate for a sixth term effective February 24, 2016 until February 24, 2018. The term of re-appointment is subject to approval of an order in council.

Remuneration will be $150,000 per year for the period of February 24, 2016 until February 24, 2018. Your bi-weekly rate of pay will be $5,749.48. You will not be eligible to participate in any employer paid health and welfare benefit programs, employer pension plans, long term disability, or group life insurance programs.

Should the assignment conclude prior to February 24, 2018, any outstanding prorated remuneration will not be payable. There are no severance provisions being offered or implied.

For purposes of consultation and strategic direction you will be accountable to me in my capacity as the Minister of Jobs, Tourism and Skills Training and Minister Responsible for Labour. For administrative purposes you will be accountable to Ms. Athana Mentzelopoulos, Deputy Minister of Jobs, Tourism, and Skills Training and Intergovernmental Relations Secretariat.

Any travel conducted in the course of this assignment will be reimbursed at the Group 3 rates as noted on the following link:

For the term from February 25, 2016 to February 24, 2018, the LNG-Buy BC Advocate Gordon Wilson will continue to focus his work on connecting B.C. businesses, including Aboriginal businesses, with procurement opportunities from LNG activities, and more specifically:

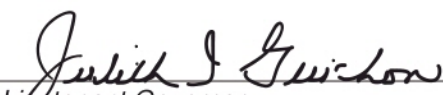

- Build upon the work accomplished in fiscal year 2015/16 and provide leadership on the following two projects:
 - Local Benefits Dashboard Project

As a follow-on to the 2015 Contractors Forum, work with proponents and their prime contractors to encourage engagement with B.C. businesses and work with industry to track and report on local business participation, including Aboriginal businesses, in major projects.
 - Aboriginal Business Development Project

As a follow-on to the 2015 Aboriginal Business Forum, and in response to First Nations businesses, work with a First Nations community to fully analyse ways by which their businesses can prepare for major project work and ensure that First Nations benefit from that engagement. Use the outcomes of this analysis to assist First Nations on a broader scale realize the benefits negotiated in their impact benefit agreements.
- Where possible and practical, work with agencies across the federal and provincial governments to promote coordination and collaboration in efforts related to business development for both Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal businesses.
- Continue working to identify and assist in the removal of impediments to industry growth and in the communication of factual information pertaining to LNG.
- Broaden program offerings in the area of supplier development to meet the needs of B.C. businesses to be competitive in global supply chains.
- Continue to pursue arrangements with business associations, local chambers of commerce, and economic development offices to promote the LNG-Buy BC program and assist B.C. companies in understanding the procurement practices of project proponents and their major contractors.
