Hi Amanda,

Tried to call you to discuss but you were tied up and now I'm tied up in TB....

I was hoping to set up some time with MBR (in his capacity as Vice Chair of Treasury Board) to review a Ministry of Finance minor item (15 minutes should suffice).

We would upload materials to his iPad (a day or two in advance) and provide him with a verbal brief on the item. He would then have the opportunity to ask TB staff any questions he may have.

I know his time is at a premium but would be optimal if we could have the meeting before the Dec 7 Treasury Board meeting if at all possible so we can report out his decision for ratification at that meeting.

We can do in person or by phone whatever he would prefer.

Thank you Kathie.

If the Minister has an opportunity to do so, it would be helpful if he could have a phone conversation with Minister Bains expressing the Province's support and commitment - before the Holidays if possible. It would also be helpful if he had a similar conversation with Pacific Caucus Chair Randeep Sarai.

Let me know if this would be possible.

Thanks again.

Hi Bill

Thank you very much for your email.

I totally concur that moving the visit to January is a wise idea.

Just to let you know, there is a Trade Mission to Asia that Premier and Ministers will be participating in during the last two weeks of January.

Thank you again for updating me and I will advise the Minister of the change.

If I don't get to see you before the holiday season kicks off, I would like to wish you all the best and looking forward to a successful 2018 for everyone!

Thank you again.

CKNW/Liza Yuzda:

The reporter mentioned the trade mission to Asia and indicated surprise that MBR was in SF – I clarified that it was actually Minister Donaldson in Asia, regarding forestry.

Reporter wants to hear about the SF TIR, specifically:

QUESTIONS

- Why now?

- How much is this costing?
- Are you trying to woo Amazon?
- What's the rationale for TIRs? Is it a part of the minister's mandate?
- How many TIR's are there?

August 16, 2017

Dear Mr. Chow,

2017 TCCCA Annual Gala: VIP Invitation

On behalf of Taiwan Chambers of Commerce in Canada (TCCCA), I would like to formally invite you to attend our “2017 TCCCA Annual Gala” banquet on November 26, 2017, 5:30 PM to 9:30 PM at Sutton Place Hotel Vancouver (845 Burrard Street, Vancouver, BC).

TCCCA is a non-profit organization established in 1995, it is the most representative Taiwanese business organization in Canada, with members residing in cities across the country. It is made up of Taiwan Chamber of Commerce in B.C. (TCCBC), Taiwan Entrepreneurs Society Taipei/Toronto (TESTT) and Quebec Taiwan Business & Cultural Association (QTBCA).

The goal of this event is to bridge the gap between business communities in Taiwan and Canada, as well as facilitate Taiwanese-Canadian businesses cooperation. Therefore, we hope this Gala Event will bring Taiwan and Canada communities from different cities together.

Attached is our VIP invitation. Please let us know if you are available to participate in 2017 TCCCA Annual Gala by contacting us at info@tccca.ca. We look forward to your response.

Thanks!

Hi Monica,

Plse see attached. The BC-GuangDong Business Council will be the lead organization. Depending on the itinerary, the event can be a lunch or dinner.

Hi Geoff, the gift to GD can be a good tree from which we grow our lumber or BC jade carving, along with aboriginal art work. I believe the Council had worked with our Trade/Invest Rep in GuangZhou on previous occasions. Both William and Jeannie had just left Guangzhou after the World Conference of Cantonese Speakers.

William Ma is helping to organize the similar conference in Vancouver Convention Centre in May 2018. Expected attendance 2,500 to 3,000.

Subject: Premier 2018 trip- Guangzhou community dinner

Hi Geoff,

Mr. Fred Mah of BC-Guangdong Business Council called me and said that he had been in conversation with JTT ministry staff (Raymond Zhu) who said that the only evening to do a community dinner is the 2nd evening. However, this evening is taken up by a dinner hosted by the GD Gov't, which is being planned as a small affair. (1st evening we arrived Guangzhou airport about 7pm; 3rd evening in Beijing).

Fred has suggested that we open up this evening to business people from the BC community. They will pay their own costs and be responsible for organizing themselves, with BC-GD Business Council as the lead organizer.

If this is still worthwhile for the premier (I do think so), we need to send a gov to gov letter to Guangdong Foreign Affairs to indicate our desire, so that the Business Council may approach the appropriate channel in GD to start organizing. Please let me know.

George

Thanks for this. I tried forwarding this to my leg mail but the portion from Joseph at 11:43 keeps missing. Wonder why!

No problem.

Also some previous comments of the MLA quoted in Sing Tao and Ming Pao back in March, 2017:

Joseph

Ming Pao March 28, 2017

TW:

- 90% of the targeted work has been completed, e.g. of the 15 Chinese historic sites, five monuments have been installed; other monuments will be completed this year.
- The two remaining tasks: continue to install monuments and publishing the Celebration Book;
- The $1 million budget is nearly used up;
- Original plan was to invite architect Joe Wai to work on the Vancouver Chinatown monument but unfortunately he passed away a few months ago and this has affected the design work; but the monument will still adopt his design concept.

Sing Tao March 28, 2017

TW:

- On the Celebration Book, need to ensure the people selected are representative of the community and to ensure no important components are left out so this work is rather complicated. Province is hoping to complete the Celebration Book in 2017.
- Asked if a change of government might affect the project's completion, she stressed that the project is nearly complete and $1 million budget is almost used up and she is confident the remaining work can be finished this year.
