The City Square Mall across from City Hall would work. Can you advise and confirm if the upper coffee shop area might work for the Minister as it is less crowded? Would the Minister mind if my 2 vice-presidents join us at this discussion? They are Catherine Clement and Terri Mew.

Thank you for your consideration.

Good evening Stephanie,

Yes, I would be very pleased to meet with Minister Chow for a meeting this Friday. Would he mind if we pick a location near the Canada Line in the downtown area? I can hop a Canada line train anywhere along the Terminus, City Centre or Roundhouse station. A nearby coffee shop or restaurant would be good. However, if Minister Chow prefer to be in Chinatown, we can consider going to Goldstone coffee shop on Keefer Street.

Please let me know his preference.

MBR: "On this visit we demonstrated to our key contacts in these markets that B.C. is committed to enhancing our trade relationships and bringing new investment to the province," said Minister Ralston. "Increased exports mean more jobs, and this mission will help create more business opportunities across B.C."

MGC: "Holding in-person meetings with key decision makers is an excellent way for us to raise B.C.'s profile as a stable place to do business," said Minister Chow. "Following this mission, I expect B.C. will continue to see increased trade and investment with

Japan and Korea.”

2) From Joe Leung of Victoria Yue Shan Society, he recommends these societies with a history of establishment of 100+ years:

- Chinese Freemasons Society, contact Thomas Chan
- Chong How Society (Forerunner of YueShan Society), contact Joe Leung
- Hook Sin Tong Benevolent Society, contact Alan Lowe
- Hoy Shan society
- Lee's Society
- Lung Kong Society

I don't know whether the last three societies occupy historical buildings. Perhaps Cllr Thornton-Joe can give some insights.

Good morning Minister Chow,

You are cordially invited to attend the opening of the Yucho Chow Exhibition on May 4, 2019 at the Chinese Canadian Military Museum located at 555 Columbia Street (2nd floor). Yucho Chow was a Chinese Canadian photographer who lived and worked in the early part of the 20th century and his legacy of capturing in photographs of the marginalized residents of Vancouver is little known. It is a part of the history that our museum strives to preserve in our community.

We will be extremely honoured if you would accept our invitation to attend this exhibition. Hard copies of this invite are also being sent to your offices at your constituent location and legislature.

I look forward to your favourable reply.

Hi Stephanie,

We meet with a few Chinatown groups yesterday, CBA, Chinese Cultural Centre etc. They told us that they are producing their own feasibility study as well. We are wondering how does that compare with the province's study. Just want to touch base on the progress of the museum.

HI Minister,

As a follow up to Honorary Consul Mr. Mir HUCULAK request for a lunch meeting, can you confirm if you would still like this to happen if he is also joining this meeting on April 5th at 10:00AM with Ms. Natalia JATSKEVYCH, President of the Ukrainian Canadian Congress. If so, maybe you can have coffee/lunch with Mir at 11:00AM directly after that meeting?

Also, as the meeting on April 5th will be Holodomor focused, would you like PS Kahlon to join this meeting?

Good afternoon,

Just a heads up that we have been working on scheduling a meeting with Kathy Kinloch, chair of the EETF and she has requested that MBR attend this in person meeting as well.

We are currently waiting for Kathy's schedule but wanted to find out if MBR is interested as well. I will send over some dates once we hear back.

Attendees:

- MLA Weaver and Green Caucus staff Evan Pivnick and Sarah Miller
- Kathy Kinloch, EETF Chair
- JTT MA John-Michael McColl and JTT staff TBC by John-Michael
- Donna Sanford and/or Caitlin Copage, CASA Secretariat

Thanks

Meagan

Hi Hailey and Amanda,

This meeting will be cancelled for tomorrow. If MBR is still interested in joining, we will look into re-scheduling in a few months from now.

Best,

Alyson

Minister,

I received a call from caucus asking that you review a release that they sent to you through your leg.bc.ca email last night. They are hoping to send the review out this morning.

Let me know if you need them to resend the email.

Thanks,

Maria
