Subject: 146898 Incoming Invitation to Visit OSI Maritime Systems

Dear Minister Chow:

I would like to thank you for taking the time to speak with me at the ABCMI Business Opportunities Conference held on November 14th, 2019.

OSI Maritime Systems, based in Burnaby, was a sponsor of the event and had an exhibit on the floor. As a company, we have been a member of ABCMI from its inception and it has been rewarding to watch the organization's enormous growth and gain attention from world-class businesses.

Growth is a common theme within the Westcoast marine industry, as it was in our conversation - we discussed the impact of the National Shipbuilding Strategy and the marine industry in general.

OSI is a global provider of naval electronic charting applications and military integrated bridge systems to over 20 NATO and Allied navies worldwide.

While the global portion of our business is significant, the National Shipbuilding Strategy has and will play an important role in the continued growth of OSI Maritime Systems. OSI has been awarded contracts to provide integrated bridge systems to the Joint Support Ship, Arctic Offshore Patrol Ship, and Canadian Surface Combatant projects – and, there is no better way to promote homegrown naval technology globally than through the use of it by the Royal Canadian Navy.

Further, the National Shipbuilding Strategy and the subsequent localized economic benefits are most apparent in job growth. Since 2011, OSI Maritime Systems has grown from approximately 40 employees to over 200 in Burnaby; our office space has increased by five times; and manufacturing and production by more than eight times.

Minister Chow, in our conversation, you had expressed an interest in visiting OSI to see our technology, development, products, and production activities first hand. As such, I would like to invite you personally to come to OSI Maritime Systems in Burnaby, to meet our diverse staff, and witness the impact of the National Shipbuilding Strategy on a local and genuine success story.

At your convenience, we would be happy to host you.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions and we welcome the opportunity to meet again.

Best regards,

Simon Wills

Summary: the Court has ordered the injunction to continue, with the police enforcement clause. The Court concluded:

"[231] In the face of the Interim Injunction order, the defendants refused to voluntarily comply with the order and enforcement action by the RCMP, as well as ongoing RCMP presence, was required to ensure compliance.

[232] Other incidents since the Interim Injunction, including the KM 44 Blockade and the establishment of new protest camps, also tend to suggest that an enforcement order remains necessary in this case. The defendants have made numerous public statements that they intend to continue to engage in such self help remedies in order to prevent the Pipeline Project from being constructed and their conduct continues to suggest that they will not respect an order of this court.

[233] I am satisfied that the facts of this case and the interests of justice warrant the inclusion of enforcement provisions in the order."

Thank you all for your quick replies, I know this is short notice.

So far 3:30pm today works best for everyone to call in, except for Minister Bains and I am not sure about MLA Beggs.

Kaylee, does 3:30pm work for MLA Beggs for a call?

Jack/Jenelyn – Could one of the MA's take the call today at 3:30pm on behalf of Minister Bains?

Thank you all!!

Is there a time after Treasury Board tomorrow that would work in your schedule? We can also make Friday work as well.

Good morning Minister,

Can you please speak to Minister James while you see her today in TB; and let her know that you are speaking at the RBC meeting at 3:02PM? Because of this, you'll need to leave a little earlier than planned (Leave is currently approved from 3:00-4:00PM). Heidi won't see her all day and has asked that I get you to talk to her directly. Let me know if there are any issues with this.

Hi Minister,

Would you like to go to this event on Thursday, December 5th at 11:00AM.
Logistically it's overlaps slightly with the start of Treasury Board but if you like can request Leave for 15-30 minutes from 11:45-12:00/15-ish.

As noted below, you are receiving this invite as a member in your community will be a recipient.

Let me know if you accept of regret.

Thanks!

Amanda Robb
