Subject: eOIC: 9 OICs posted for signature - please

Hello and Happy Friday,
There are nine OICs on Minister Bains' iPad for signature by 3:30/4:00 today if possible please. If Minister Bains is tight for time all I need today is the PREM staffing and other ones from Cabinet could be signed at his convenience over the weekend if need be.

I am a little worried about the ENV OIC as it has a very large attachment and sometimes they can cause syncing problems. All looked good when I posted though.

Attached, updated INs to include the new lines.

These include:

- We have every faith that the Commission will achieve $15 as quickly as possible, while providing businesses with the certainty of scheduled, gradual and responsible increases that allow them to plan and absorb the increased minimum wage costs.
- I will leave it to the wisdom of the Commission, through their research and consultation, to tell us what is reasonable and feasible for target dates, but the element of timing is less critical than the absolute commitment to getting to our goal of at least $15/hour and we are absolutely committed to reaching that $15 goal.

If pressed:

- The promise of $15 will be met, we are holding true to our promise, but we must also hold true to our agreement with MLA Weaver and that means the target date of achieving that promise needs to be determined by the Fair Wages Commission.
- This is a minority government and working with other parties means we must be willing to compromise sometimes while holding true to our values; I think that's what people expect of their leaders.
- We're unwavering in our $15-an-hour minimum wage commitment and the Fair Wage Commission is going to get us there.

Hi Jane

Please find attached the draft minutes from the September 19th HWG for Minister Robinson's and Minister Bain's review and signature.

Realize the timing for this with UBCM is difficult but please return by 2:00 pm today if possible. An email from the Minister or you (ie 'Minister has reviewed and approved) confirming their approval is acceptable if an e-signature is not possible.

Happy to discuss with either Minister should they have questions.

Many thanks and again my apologies on the timing.
