Contravention was found at a routine inspection conducted on March 11, 2016 by Inspectors ORR and JOHNSTON. Licensee was not operating in accordance with the terms and conditions of his licence. The licensee allowed patron participation (dancing).

Section of the Act, Regulation, or T&C Guide Reviewed at the Meeting:

Contravene term & condition - Patron participation entertainment endorsement, s. 12 Act

Minimum Monetary and/or the Minimum Suspension for a first contravention of the above cited section of the Act or Regulation is 1-3 day suspension of licence for each contravention or a $1000 - $3000 monetary penalty for each contravention.

Commitment/s made by the Licensee:

The licensee must ensure that he follows each component of the Terms and Conditions Guide for licensees at all times with an emphasis on the following terms and conditions:

Entertainment and games: The type and hours of entertainment and games offered must not distract from the primary purpose of the service of food

What you may offer at your restaurant: Any entertainment you offer must conform to local bylaws and be suitable for viewing by minors. It must also conform to any restrictions imposed by the general manager on hours or type of entertainment allowed (these restrictions, if any, will appear on the face of your licence). Television, recorded music, and live radio/television broadcasts are permitted in food primary establishments, as are computers that offer Internet access and video games, card games and, board games provided they do not alter the primary focus on the service of food and if they can be played while customers are seated. You may show movies, provided the primary focus of your establishment does not shift from the service of food and the movies are shown in accordance with the Motion Picture Act and its Regulations. You may not show movies that are restricted, adult rated, or not rated.

You may offer contests and draws, provided:

- you do not charge an entry fee (except if the draw is a licensed ticket raffle)
- anyone in your restaurant is entitled to enter the contest, without having to order something to eat or drink
- you do not offer or give liquor as a prize
- winners are not required to be present to collect their prize
- your event does not involve the consumption of liquor, and
- it does not alter the primary focus of your restaurant which is the service of food.

You may offer patron non-participation entertainment (such as musicians or comedians) until 1:00 a.m., but you must apply to the general manager to offer patron-participation entertainment (such as dine and dance or karaoke), which is usually permitted until midnight. Your local government must support your application for patron-participation entertainment. If you have a patron-participation entertainment endorsement, entertainment may continue until 1:00 a.m. on January 1st, provided it is not prohibited by local bylaws.

What you may not offer at your restaurant: Games that require the patron to get up from the food service area – such as darts, shuffleboard, foosball, billiards, pool, video arcade style games, basketball, ice or roller hockey, curling, and bowling – and which are likely to shift the primary focus of the establishment away from the service of food are not permitted in the licensed portion of the restaurant (you may, however, offer these games in an unlicensed area). Games of chance, including card games, are permitted for amusement only – payoffs or prizes of any kind are not permitted.

Also not permitted are:

- any form of gaming (except for licensed raffle tickets)
- tournaments • liquor manufacturer/agent theme nights
