Marlene:

See note below from John Mazure providing additional information regarding 430321 BN just referred to your office in CLIFF.
As mentioned over the phone John is at offsite meeting all day without a computer and unable to send emails from his iPhone.

Thanks for addressing this and please advise if you require further clarification.

As per John Mazure:

The short answer is with respect to regular compliance audit, GCGC has a good record; however GPEB from time to time undertakes reviews based on a risk-based analysis of issues, including reviews of those related to AML (e.g., handling cash) and the results from those reviews at River Rock casino have identified deficiencies.

Richard,

Attached electronically are the Guidelines as well as the correspondence that you provided today. I am also providing you with hard copies.

The individual mentioned the “off the record” comments in the letter and provides bullet points of what the Committee should be provided.

I note that those points are covered in the nomination form that is provided to the Committee (Resume Section and Narrative Section) and I wonder if he might not be aware of the complete information that is provided to the Committee.

Once you have had an opportunity to review, we can meet to discuss. In the meantime, I will canvas the Advisory Committee Members for dates for the Meetings.....many thanks.....

Mar, I am attaching my version of the decision. I would be grateful if you could ask the expropriation lawyers to check to make sure that they do not have any concerns with this version and if so, please attach my electronic signature and send it.

Thanks,

RF
