

From: Minister, AG AG:EX
To: Normand, Nicole AG:EX
Subject: Please log for Reply Direct - with a referral to CCU - AG MO Asking LSB s.13,s.14,s.16
s.13,s.14,s.16
Date: Monday, December 10, 2018 5:10:42 PM

-----Original Message-----

From: s.22
Sent: December 9, 2018 8:15 PM
To: Minister, AG AG:EX <AG.Minister@gov.bc.ca>
Subject: s.22 kidnapping

Today I am ashamed to call myself Canadian . The fact that my Country can grab and hold a woman hostage as your Office has done sickens me. Your Office is a lap dog to the US, you have disgraced this Country just to please a bully nation.

The whole world understands that the reason for this is that the USA is is concerned that ,without any real proof the 5G network will allow information to be passed to China .

This is so two faced of a country that has been shown to spy not only on there enemy's but friends and allies . Your Office has disgraced itself in many people's eyes . You should feel the same shame as I feel . However I really doubt this . Your too concerned with pleasing your masters to the south of you .

s.22

Sent from my iPad

s.22

Email: s.22

Dear s.22

Your email of December 9, 2018, received by the Attorney General of British Columbia, has been referred to me for response on his behalf.

I note your concerns regarding the arrest and detention of s.22 in Vancouver. The Attorney General does not direct police in their operational decisions, nor does he have a mandate to investigate complaints about police actions or decisions. If you wish to pursue a complaint in relation to police actions, the appropriate process is to first contact the police detachment directly and provide specific details in relation to the circumstances surrounding the matter. Contact information for police forces in British Columbia is available from the Ministry of Public Safety and Solicitor General website at:

www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/justice/criminal-justice/policing-in-bc

In the event that you are not satisfied with the way your concerns have been addressed at the detachment level, you have the option of filing a formal complaint with the Civilian Review and Complaints Commission for the RCMP (the Commission). The Commission is a civilian body, independent of the RCMP, and has jurisdiction to investigate complaints against RCMP members. That office can be reached at the following address:

Civilian Review and Complaints Commission for the RCMP
National Intake Office
PO Box 88689
Surrey BC V3W 0X1
Telephone: 1-800-665-6878
Facsimile: 604-501-4095

More information about the Commission and the public complaints process is available at the following website:

www.crc-cetp.gc.ca/

Extradition applications are conducted for the applicant state by the Government of Canada rather than the Government of British Columbia.

Therefore, you may wish to communicate your views to the Honourable Jody Wilson-Raybould, Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada. She can be reached at the following address:

The Honourable Jody Wilson-Raybould, PC, MP
Minister of Justice and
Attorney General of Canada
House of Commons
Ottawa ON K1A 0A6
Telephone: 613-992-1416
Facsimile: 613-992-1460
Email: Jody.Wilson-Raybould@parl.gc.ca

Information about extradition and mutual legal assistance between states can be accessed at the following Government of Canada website:

https://www.canada.ca/en/services/policing/justice/extradition.ht ml

I trust this assists. Thank you for writing.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Chapman
Barrister and Solicitor

on behalf of

James N. Harvey
Assistant Deputy Attorney General

LSBCU/Drafter: Mittag/Approvers: Dann, Chapman/ol/ADAG 557048