Reporter

Mark Gillespie, Reporter
WhiskyCast
mark@whiskycast.com
856-952-3866

Deadline: Tuesday, July 3, 2018 4:30 PM

Request

The reporter would like to schedule a phone interview with Minister Eby or Mark Hicken today to discuss the Hicken report, next steps, and whether the recommendations will be implemented.

The reporter is available until 4:30 p.m. today to conduct the interview. The interview would be 8-10 minutes. The reporter will also accept background or a statement.

Recommendation – provide statement

Statement from Attorney General David Eby:

"The recommendations provided by the Liquor Policy Advisor and the panel reflect an industry consensus that will be helpful in improving efficiency and business relations between government and the liquor industry. Work will now begin with colleagues across government to analyze the fiscal, labour, and health impacts of each recommendation individually before government implements any changes as a result of the recommendations.

"I am impressed with the thorough work that the advisor and panel have presented and I am looking forward to making changes to improve the manufacturing, retail, labour, and customer experiences within British Columbia's liquor industry."

Subject: Letter from RCMP
Date: Tuesday, July 3, 2018 11:15:00 AM

Former Minister responsible for Gaming Rich Coleman has mentioned several times to the media that he received a letter that told him to disband the integrated casino policing team. Could you please see if we still have a copy of it, and whether anyone recalls such a letter? Should be from around 2009.

D.

“Coleman: I think maybe pushed a little harder on my end. I accepted the letter from the chiefs of police and heads of the RCMP to disband that group because it wasn't effective. And maybe given it a little better shot back at them and say let's go another year or two. But the IIGET which was the next iteration has been successful because I think they learned from those lessons and did it better the next time around. People can be critical. Politicize things but I think you have to recognize that there are people working in our public service and our law enforcement trying to do the best job they could. In this case it was a period of time it didn't work so well but it's been fixed.

Further to your e-mail. See below

A BC Code of Ethical Conduct focussed on the performance of Provincial Contractors for MLA's, administrators, and supervisors with explicit rules on preventing conflicts of interest could be undertaken by the BC Law Institute. Their current review of the BC Labour Standards is a worthy model, especially their focus on inequality and the position of "precarious workers" in part time jobs. Incorporating the BC Code within the Provincial Labour Standards would be a marvellous achievement.

All employers starting with the Province must recognize that ethical behaviour and contracting out are two wings of worker performance. The economy cannot fly without recognizing social responsibility by all employers and employees.

Strict adherence to a rigorous code of ethical conduct and social responsibility should be the minimum performance expectation as a condition of employment in providing Government services. A campaign donation bill is also needed.

I have been contacted by Mr. Maxwell from your Ministry.

I do not wish to cause repercussions for my sources who are or were local employees. s.22

Campaign finance rules, time limits on contractor hiring of retiring Ministry staff with privileged information, ongoing Ministry consultation with employee representatives, and a code of ethical conduct with teeth backed up by legislation would do something to promote public confidence in contracting out.

The first step in my view would be an independent public interest administrative review which surveys current and former contractor employees, Regional Transportation Advisory Committees, as well as Ministry employees charged with identifying conflicts of interest, protocol enforcement, and responsiveness to the public.

Doing something about it is another matter, but a vital one given Seniors Care issues.

While there is a litany of abuses to pursue, I do not wish to litigate specifics. The workers past and present are the experts.

I do not wish to pursue this matter further. Anyone with local experience can set Mr. Maxwell straight. Right now MLA's explain it all away with references. " But he's a good guy!" It's not the answer to plummeting public confidence in services.

It is, but your draft response makes it clear that it has been addressed:
"It is my understanding that the BC Prosecution Service has been in direct communication with you regarding this matter, and that the appropriate agencies outside of the Ministry of Attorney General have been contacted and a reception plan is now in place."

Is there more that should be done?

Hi Gala,

Thanks for the talk this morning. Please find attached the letter and proposal that was sent to the Attorney General and Legal Services Society regarding legal aid for independent legal advice for individuals when they are detained under the Mental Health Act.

As Sam Godfrey and I had discussed, independent legal advice for detainees would be a fast, straightforward, and non-controversial legislative change which other provinces already have in their Acts that ensures that the legal aid will be protected by legislation into the future.

I have discussed this with staff at the Ministry of Mental Health and Addictions, but with it being a legal aid issue, I think it would be productive to have a meeting with staff at the Attorney General along with any other relevant people to discuss implementing this change.

Please feel free to let me know if you have any questions,

Hi Tanera,

The MO has received an FOI request for: All records exchanged between the BC government including GPEB and BCLC and the AG's office, and Ontario's AGCO, regarding the independent review of money laundering concerns at GCG's River Rock Casino.[see reference by the AGCO's Ray Kahnert.] (Date Range for Record Search: From 09/20/2017 To 05/18/2018)

Reference: "As a result of information that was reported last fall about operations at River Rock Casino in British Columbia, the AGCO and the OPP Bureau within the AGCO were in touch with BC's Gaming Policy and Enforcement Branch (GPEB), the RCMP, and officials from GCGC. Following these preliminary inquiries, the AGCO commenced a regulatory review of GCGC's regulatory obligations in Ontario. As to your follow-up question, please note that a review in these circumstances is consistent with longstanding AGCO practices in regulating the gaming industry in Ontario. Reviews are routinely commenced on a rotational basis for all casino operators in Ontario. In addition, reviews can be conducted to determine whether reports about an operator's activities have any factual support. A review of GCGC had been scheduled for 2019. The timing of the review was moved to 2018. The AGCO's current review of GCGC's regulatory obligations in Ontario includes areas such as Standard 1, specifically as it relates to: organizational governance structure and capabilities; and Management oversight, monitoring and accountability. Please see Registrar Standards - See Standard 1 Page 14. The review also includes the broad-based requirements related to the prevention of unlawful activities at gaming sites and supporting obligations under federal anti-money laundering (AML) legislation. See Registrar Standards - See Standard 6 Page 35 We are aware of revocation of the registration by the BC Gaming Enforcement and Policy Branch of a former employee of Great Canadian Gaming Corporation you referenced. However, it would not be appropriate for the AGCO to offer any other comment on this personnel matter. We expect that a draft report on the AGCO regulatory review will be provided for internal review in the coming weeks."

Please note that GPEB is also in receipt of this request. If there are any other program areas that should receive this request, please let me know as soon as possible.

Hello,

I've uploaded this rush OIC to PLOS in the "July 11 – Cabinet" folder, under "AG OIC – EAB FAC OGAT appointment – s.22".
Cliff is 549671. It is due to Cab Ops today.

Please note: This is the 4th version of this OIC, which now includes the cross-appointment to the FAC. (effective July 19, 2018, by OIC 302/2018 under the Constitution Act, the appointing authority of the FAC rests with the AG.)

CABRO has asked me to confirm that the AG would be available to speak to this at the July 11th Cabinet meeting. Please confirm.

Hi Anton, congratulations on your new role - hopefully we will meet in the fall.

I am following up on some queries that my constituent s.22 has with respect to the PR referendum – these are good questions and I wanted to make sure he had a thorough response. Any help you or your staff could provide would be appreciated.

Thanks,

Tracy Redies

MLA Surrey White Rock

His questions are:

BC mail in referendum questions:

1) What measures and safeguards will be used to prevent mail-in ballots (that are to be used in the upcoming Electoral Reform referendum) from being fraudulently* created (and or illegally altered) and submitted??

* Such as:

a) Submitted ballots that represent persons with rights to vote- but that have chosen to not vote- with their ballots marked without their consent (by other person(s)) and submitted to Elections BC without their consent (by other persons);

b) Submitted ballots that represent persons with rights to vote, but that do not indicate what these persons actually voted, because these ballots have been intercepted before being received by Elections BC- and "replaced" with ballots indicating the opposite of what the person named on the ballot actually voted...

2) If recount(s) and or court verification of the Referendum results are needed, what procedures and safeguards will be used (previous to, during, and after voting) to ensure that recounts and court evaluations of ballots can occur and be properly conducted- based on verifiable facts (Bona-fide ballots)??

3) What are the reasons why the NDP have decided that the referendum is not to be conducted simultaneously with the upcoming BC municipal civic elections (on October 20-2018)??

4) How is the use of a mail in ballot process justifiable, considering that it will be far more likely to be subject to malfeasance than the customary way most BCers vote: at the ballot box??

Hello,

The Minister signed a Min Order on June 6, 2018 appointing “Maria Tsurumi” as a part-time member of the EST (Min Order attached).

Unfortunately it was discovered that her name was spelled incorrectly and that it should be “Maia” rather than “Maria”.

For ease, and because it’s not confidential at this point, I’ve attached the amended order here for the AG’s approval.

Many thanks!

Hi Derrick

Registrations for this ACLP event are coming in robustly today and we are confident that the space available at Dentons on the 26th will be filled to capacity.

John Ritchie and I had conceived of this event as an informal discussion involving Dr. German and Minister Eby of the Recommendations made by Dr German and follow up actions by the government of BC arising out of Dr. German's Dirty Money Report.

John and I had conceived that this discussion between Dr German and Minister Eby on the 26th would be conducted in a seminar format under Chatham House Rules.

This is the way that earlier TI Canada Vancouver Discussion Group sessions of the ACLP have been offered in the past.

We contacted our list of ACLP past event registrants who were extended invitations to attend the event on the 26th.

But we are wondering whether Minister Eby would prefer another format that would involve sending invitations to media as well to attend?

We are very grateful to Minister Eby that he has agreed to participate in this ACLP session and we want to make sure that the Minister's preferred format for this event is congruent with our organizational efforts.

One strategy to organize this event might involve opportunities for media to conduct live interviews Minister Eby and Dr. German before and/or after the event on the 26th?

Pursuant to this organizational concept for the event, media members could certainly attend the seminar. But the cameras and microphones would not be running during the event itself. And under Chatham House Rules, there would be no attribution of the remarks of the two discussants nor the registrants in the audience made during the session itself.

Do you have time today to set up a phone call to discuss this issue of media participation? We want to make sure that the way the ACLP event on the 26th is organized in a way that is consistent with the Minister's wishes and expectations for the session.

John Ritchie is off to China today for 10 days but I am available at your convenience to talk through how the Minister's desired format with respect to the July 26 ACLP will be implemented.

I look forward to discussing this with you

Cheers, Joe

THE ANTI-CORRUPTION LAW PROGRAM

<image002.jpg><image004.jpg><image006.jpg>

On behalf of the Anti-Corruption Law Program (ACLP), which is a joint program under a collaborative working partnership of the Peter A. Allard School of Law at UBC, the International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) and Transparency International Canada (TI Canada), we are pleased to invite you to attend our twelfth ACLP education event. The topic of the ACLP event will be a discussion of "Dirty Money" the recently-issued report on money laundering in BC casinos. Leading the seminar discussion will be the Honourable David Eby, QC, Attorney General of British Columbia, and the author of the Report, Dr. Peter German. The two distinguished discussants will provide insights into the findings in the Report and the next steps to be taken to address illegal money laundering practices in BC.

On September 28 2017, The Hon. David Eby, QC, Attorney General of BC, appointed Dr. Peter German to conduct an independent review of British Columbia's anti-money laundering policies and practices in Lower Mainland casinos, including an examination of what connection, if any, the issue has with other areas of B.C.'s economy, as well as to recommend actions to address money-laundering in B.C. On March 31, 2018, Dr. German submitted a 250-page report (entitled 'Dirty Money') to the Attorney General. The Report, which was released publicly on June 27, 2018, includes 48 substantive recommendations for changes to the policies and practices in the current legal regime governing the gaming industry in BC. The Government has accepted all of the Report's recommendations and is moving to implementation.

Details of the event are as follows:

Date and Time: July 26, 2018, 4:00 pm to 7:00 p.m.

Location: Offices of Dentons LLP, 20th Floor (Reception floor), 250 Howe St., (near Waterfront Station), Vancouver.

Cost: There will be no charge for this event. We greatly appreciate Dentons' generous donation of both meeting space and refreshments.

Relevant pre-reading materials, including a digital version of Dr. German's report, will be emailed to registered participants one week in advance of the meeting. This should contribute to improved understanding of the topic of discussion, and encourage informed dialogue among participants. Also please note that we expect that attendance at the event will qualify you for 3 Law Society of BC Continuing Professional Development (CPD) credits if you are a lawyer practicing in BC.

It will be important to know the names and email addresses of participants well in advance of the meeting, to allow us to email reading materials to registered participants, and to plan for meeting space and refreshments. Please register by clicking on the following link. Attendance will be limited to 50, so please register soon to avoid disappointment.

Please follow the link below to register. Registration is free, but space is limited.

Deadline Thursday, July 5, 2018 4:30 PM

Request

The reporter has several questions concerning the cannabis eligibility news release that was issued this afternoon. He would like to know:

- 1) Private cannabis stores have recently opened up on First Nation land near Chilliwack. What is the ministry's reaction to these stores opening early?
- 2) Will the same stores be allowed to apply for a licence once the application process begins?

Background

Recommendation – provide information on background

Private cannabis stores have recently opened up on First Nation land near Chilliwack. What is the ministry's reaction to these stores opening early?

Any cannabis retail store currently operating is illegal. It is up to local law enforcement authorities to decide whether to take action against these stores. Upon legalization, existing dispensaries will have to close, unless they obtain a licence from LCRB. However, unlicensed retailers won't be shut down overnight. We anticipate that as more legal retail stores open up across the province, enforcement activity will ramp up against illegal dispensaries that continue to operate.

A new Community Safety Unit, within the Ministry of Public Safety and Solicitor General, will have the authority to deal with all illegal sales outside the provincial regulatory framework. Cannabis enforcement officers will be able to enter illegal cannabis retailers without a warrant, and will be able to seize illegal product and records. They will also have the authority to impose administrative monetary penalties based on the value of illegal cannabis.

Will the same stores be allowed to apply for a licence once the application process begins?

Having operated an illegal dispensary will not, on its own, exclude applicants from being considered for a licence. All applicants will be assessed using the same evaluation criteria, including rigorous background checks and local government support. Persons who have operated dispensaries prior to legalization will not receive preferential treatment in the provincial application process.

The reporter would like to schedule a phone interview with Minister Eby or a ministry representative to discuss reports of cheating at play, fraud, or money laundering that took place at Kelowna Playtime Casino. She has obtained reports of cheating through 2017 FOIs.

The interview would be 8-10 minutes. She is available until the end of the week to conduct the interview. She will also accept a statement.

Background – The information the reporter is referring to is an FOI package that included a series of sec. 86 reports that listed various occurrences including cheat at play and money laundering. The Ministry cannot comment on them specifically as they are part of an ongoing investigation.

Recommendation – provide statement from the Ministry or interview about German report more generally

Statement from the Ministry of Attorney General:

“Government cannot disclose information about the file in question because it is related to an ongoing investigation. In general, gaming service providers report suspicious cash transactions for activities such as cash passing between patrons, small denomination buy-ins followed by irregular play, and failure to provide source of funds documentation for buy-ins of $10,000 or more in one or more transactions within 24 hours – which is the result of an interim recommendation from Peter German that was implemented in January. That information is sent to the Gaming Policy and Enforcement Branch (GPEB) in a Section 86 report which can trigger an investigation.

“The “Money Laundering – SCT” occurrence is a dual reporting category on Section 86 reports that can be used by casino operators to flag suspicious cash transactions and does not necessarily mean money laundering occurred. When that occurrence is reported to GPEB, investigators with GPEB and/or police will open an “SCT/Money Laundering” investigation to determine what happened.

"While Dr. German's recent report focused on the Lower Mainland, the recommendations he has made, and that government have accepted, will impact B.C.'s casino industry as a whole."

Background – The information the reporter is referring to is an FOI package that included a series of sec. 86 reports that listed various occurrences including cheat at play and money laundering. The Ministry cannot comment on the specific report the reporter has singled out as the regional director of compliance in Kelowna has confirmed that it is part of an ongoing investigation.

Recommendation – provide statement from the Ministry

Statement from the Ministry of Attorney General:

“Government cannot disclose information about the file in question because it is related to an ongoing investigation. In general, gaming service providers report suspicious cash transactions for activities such as cash passing between patrons, small denomination buy-ins followed by irregular play, and failure to provide source of funds documentation for buy-ins of $10,000 or more in one or more transactions within 24 hours – which is the result of an interim recommendation from Peter German that was implemented in January. That information is sent to the Gaming Policy and Enforcement Branch (GPEB) in a Section 86 report which can trigger an investigation.

“The “Money Laundering – SCT” occurrence is a dual reporting category on Section 86 reports that can be used by casino operators to flag suspicious cash transactions and does not necessarily mean money laundering occurred. When that occurrence is reported to GPEB, investigators with GPEB and/or police will open an “SCT/Money Laundering” investigation to determine what happened. It is up to police to determine whether or not money laundering has occurred.

“While Dr. German’s recent report focused on the Lower Mainland, the recommendations he has made, and that government have accepted in principle, will impact B.C.’s casino industry as a whole.”

Request

The reporter would like to know:

- 1) Can an individual or a company have more than one cannabis licence?
- 2) If not, are individuals or companies limited to a maximum of eight stores?
- 3) Several companies have plans for 15 stores. Will they have to scale back?

Background

Recommendation – provide background

- The Province is not placing a cap on the total number of non-medical cannabis retail stores that can operate in B.C.
- However, an individual or company cannot have more than eight cannabis retail store licences if they are the sole licensee, or significant shareholder (defined as 20% or more of the voting shares).
- There will be one licence for each individual cannabis retail store.
- Detailed eligibility information can be found here:

Subject: RE: Questions with respect to the PR Referendum

Good morning s.22

Thank you for your questions regarding mail-in ballots for the 2018 Referendum on Electoral Reform.

Elections BC is dedicated to providing a transparent and secure voting process for British Columbians that protects the privacy of the voter and the secrecy of their ballot. Conducting referenda using mail-in ballots allows Elections BC to provide an efficient, transparent, and accessible voting experience for all eligible British Columbians.

Bill 6, given Royal Assent by the Legislative Assembly during the fall of 2017, determined voting for the 2018 Referendum on Electoral Reform would be conducted by mail-in ballot. This process was developed further in the regulation to the Electoral Reform Referendum 2018 Act. The voting package return period between October 22 and November 30 for the referendum provides voters with an extended voting period to receive and complete their voting packages, and participate in the democratic process. The recent 2015 Metro Vancouver Transportation and Transit Plebiscite and the 2011 HST Referendum were also conducted by mail-in ballot.

While Bill 6 was being debated in the Legislative Assembly, the Attorney General stated that the reason government chose to conduct the referendum by mail and not in conjunction with the municipal elections was to encourage voter turnout.

Elections BC's ballot package design includes safeguards to ensure that a ballot package cannot be completed or submitted by a third-party. The certification envelope containing the returned ballot includes a shared secret – the day, month and year of birth of the voter. This must be provided by the voter along with their signed certification that they are the voter named on the envelope and have not voted previously in the referendum. If a voting package is returned without this field being completed correctly, or without the signed declaration, the voting package will remain unopened. This approach was used successfully during the 2011 HST Referendum and the 2015 Metro Vancouver Transportation and Transit Plebiscite. Further, it is an offence under the Electoral Reform Referendum 2018 Regulation for an individual to vote when not entitled to or in another individual's name, subject to significant penalties on conviction.

Voters can mail completed ballot packages directly to Elections BC, or securely deposit them at Referendum Service Offices, or Service BC offices throughout the province. Both of these methods minimize any potential risk of a ballot package being tampered with while enroute to Elections BC. As I am sure you are also aware, tampering with mail sent via the Canada Post Corporation is a federal criminal offence, and Canada Post has established robust procedures and checks to prevent mail tampering. Further, during preparations for counting, ballots are considered based on a set of regulated criteria. Any ballots that physically differ from the official ballots provided for the referendum will not proceed to counting.

As an additional safeguard, official referendum ballots are produced on specialized printers that permits them to be read successfully during counting. A counterfeit ballot would not meet these parameters, which would result in intervention by Elections BC referendum staff.

All of the original ballots received by Elections BC during the 2018 Referendum on Electoral Reform, as well as the opened, unopened or resealed certification envelopes and secrecy sleeves will be securely stored for a retention period of one year. If a recount or court verification were required, the original ballots would be used.

If you have any additional questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards,

Good afternoon Wolfgang,

Attached is a Power Point Presentation for the Minister's review and approval. This deck will be used for all consultations with UBCM executive on possible updates to the Traffic Fine Revenue Sharing arrangement. Cabinet has directed both the AG and SG as co-lead ministries on this file, hence the need for approvals from both DMs/Ministers. This has been approved by A/DAG Peter Juk QC and DSG Mark Sieben, and is being sent to SG Mike Farnworth simultaneously for approval. This has also been approved by both GCPE shops.

The requested deadline for approval is next Thursday July 12, as the first presentation is scheduled for the UBCM executive meeting on Friday, July 13. Thanks very much and please let me know if you have any questions.

I'm not actually sure what dates have been proposed for the meeting? Gala and I had discussed that it might be useful to invite some relevant personnel from the Ministry of Mental Health and Addictions and the Legal Services Society to the meeting so I would need to canvass their availability as well for the proposed dates. Hi Gala,

Thanks for the talk this morning. Please find attached the letter and proposal that was sent to the Attorney General and Legal Services Society regarding legal aid for independent legal advice for individuals when they are detained under the Mental Health Act.

As Sam Godfrey and I had discussed, independent legal advice for detainees would be a fast, straightforward, and non-controversial legislative change which other provinces already have in their Acts that ensures that the legal aid will be protected by legislation into the future.

I have discussed this with staff at the Ministry of Mental Health and Addictions, but with it being a legal aid issue, I think it would be productive to have a meeting with staff at the Attorney General along with any other relevant people to discuss implementing this change.

Please feel free to let me know if you have any questions,

Subject: Enforcement powers - BC Human Rights Commission

Dear Attorney General Eby and Ms. Mulligan:

Thank you once again for taking some time to meet with me during the CASHRA conference in Yukon a few weeks ago. I appreciated the opportunity to provide you with some insights on the important role of human rights commissions in a direct-access human rights complaints system. I am encouraged that BC will be part of ongoing initiatives to better implement and coordinate human rights protection across Canada, including at the CASHRA table. I am also encouraged that you are contemplating inclusion of promotion and inquiry functions within the Commission's governing statute.

I am writing today to follow up on our conversation about enforcement powers. As I mentioned, the Ontario Human Rights Commission (OHRC) has the power to both intervene in matters before the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario (HRTO), and file "Commission-initiated" applications at the HRTO. I understand that you had some concerns about the new Commission becoming overly reliant on the use of such powers at the expense of its promotion role. From my perspective, however, these powers have been essential to ensuring compliance with recommendations and also in situations of persistent systemic discrimination that are not amenable to individual complaints or proactive resolution by respondents.

I am providing a few examples below to give you a sense of how the OHRC has managed to both judiciously and effectively use its enforcement powers.

- Talos v. Grand Erie Board of Education re: loss of benefits for workers aged 65 and over (see attached facta and the decision here: <https://www.canlii.org/en/on/onhrt/doc/2018/2018hrto680/2018hrto680.html?resultIndex=7>)
- Jahn v. Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services re: use of solitary confinement on people with mental health disabilities (see HRTO Order on consent here: <https://www.canlii.org/en/on/onhrt/doc/2018/2018hrto60/2018hrto60.html?autocompleteStr=2018%20hrto%2060&autocompletePos=1>)
- Moore v. British Columbia (Education) re: accommodation of disability in education (see attached joint factum of the OHRC and other human rights commissions and the SCC decision here: <https://scc-csc.lexum.com/scc-csc/scc-csc/en/item/12680/index.do> )

I trust this is helpful. I look forward to continuing to assist to strengthen BC's human rights system.

Sincerely,

Hi Derrick,

See attached for the veterans' licence plate engagement survey questions and web copy for your review and approval. This has been approved by Rob, Jeff Groot, and Richard Fyfe.

We are looking at running the engagement from mid-July to late August/early September—do you have a preference on precise dates? We are also planning to issue an IB to coincide with the engagement launch, and can share the draft for approval next week.

Thanks,

Cadence

We are sorry that the Honourable David Eby, Attorney General cannot attend. Is there a possibility however, if we could receive a written letter/note from him that we could display at our event? I have copied my Executive Assistant, Lori Douglas who could assist with any wording, etc of the letter.

Hi Tanera

We are hoping to organize a small dinner after the ACLP event on the 26th for myself, John Ritchie (event organizers), and Peter German and Minister Eby (event speakers) at a quiet restaurant in downtown Vancouver to debrief the ACLP event and talk generally about anti-corruption educational and research initiatives .

Would you know whether Minister Eby's schedule would allow him to join us for such a dinner occasion?

Thanks Joe

HI Everyone

We need to finalize the wording of the announcement of the July 26 ACLP event as presented by the TI Canada VDG and to send out the notice this afternoon.

Three issues still need to be settled:

1. Will Minister Eby attend?

2. We need to confirm whether this will be a later afternoon (4:00pm – 7:00 pm) or a lunch and learn (11:00-2:00pm) session

What is your preference Peter and Derrick?

3. Final wording of the notice of the event

What are your thoughts about the wording of the notice Peter and Derrick?

John Ritchie has sent around some draft working which I have copied below

I have made a couple of changes to confirm that we will go with the Dentons venue limited to 50 registrants

We can move to KPMG if we hit 50 quickly and there is momentum of registrations that indicates we should move to KPMG which can handle 100 persons

"Event Title: "Organized Crime, Casinos and Money Laundering "

On behalf of the Anti-Corruption Law Program (ACLP), which is a partnership of the Peter A. Allard School of Law at UBC, the International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) and Transparency International Canada (TI Canada), we are pleased to invite you to attend our twelfth ACLP event.

The theme of the event will be the recently-issued report on money laundering in BC casinos. In September 2017, The Hon. David Eby, Attorney General of BC, appointed Dr. Peter German to conduct an independent review of British Columbia's anti-money laundering policies and practices in Lower Mainland casinos, including an examination of what connection, if any, the issue has with other areas of B.C.'s economy, as well as to recommend actions to address money-laundering in B.C. In April 2018, Dr. German submitted a 250-page report ('the German Report') to Mr. Eby that includes 48 substantive recommendations for changes to the policies and practices in the current legal regime governing the gaming industry in BC. Following government review, the report was issued to the public on June 27, 2018.

The resume of Dr. German, who is president of ICCLR, is attached to this notice. Dr. German will speak on July 26 to a meeting of Anti-Corruption Law Program (ACLP) participants and special guests about the findings from his review and his opinions regarding next steps to address illegal money laundering practices in British Columbia. (If Mr. Eby will attend, we will need to revise this sentence.)

Details of the event are as follows:

Date and Time: July 26, 2018, 4 pm to p.m. (to be confirmed. Could also be 11 am to 2 pm)

Location: Offices of Dentons LLP, 20th Floor (Reception floor), 250 Howe St., (near Waterfront Station), Vancouver.

Cost: There will be no charge for this event. We greatly appreciate (Dentons ) donation of meeting space and coffee. (If this will be a lunch and learn session, we should specify that participants should bring their own brown bag lunch)

Relevant pre-reading materials, including a digital version of Dr. German's report, will be emailed to registered participants one week in advance of the meeting. This should contribute to improved understanding of the topic of discussion, and encourage informed dialogue among participants. Also please note that we expect that attendance at the event will qualify you for 3 Continuing Professional Development credits if you are a lawyer practicing in BC.

It will be important to know the names and email addresses of participants well in advance of the meeting, to allow us to email reading materials to registered participants, and to plan for meeting space and coffee. Please register by clicking on the following link . Attendance will be limited to 50, so please register soon to avoid disappointment.

We look forward to welcoming you all to the meeting."

If we don't hear back from you by the end of the day today (July 4) we will schedule the event for 4:00-7:00 pm at Dentons and we will not mention anything about Minister Eby's participation at this point in time

This of course can change if Minister Eby can participate and we will just send out a new notice to that effect

Looking forward to hearing back from you ASAP

Joe Weiler

At the Bartalk Editorial Board meeting this week, I suggested two articles for our spring Access to Justice issue:

- 1) your view on Access to Justice, and
- 2) who is David Eby?

I hope that is good with you. Someone is going to contact you to see if you can write the Access to Justice article. I volunteered to write the Who is David Eby article, but will see if that article goes ahead.

Hi David

I thought someone else from Bartalk was going to follow up with you on this, but I have been asked to do so. Is this something you would be able to do? It is the August issue and we would need the article by the end of May.

Hi David

At the Bartalk Editorial Board meeting this week, I suggested two articles for our spring Access to Justice issue:

- 1) your view on Access to Justice, and
- 2) who is David Eby?

I hope that is good with you. Someone is going to contact you to see if you can write the Access to Justice article. I volunteered to write the Who is David Eby article, but will see if that article goes ahead.

1) How long are the paperwork-related delays for people seeking divorce?

- 2) At what stage of a divorce will people use the ODA?
- 3) Will the ODA save government money? If so, how much?

Recommendation – Provide background

1. How long are the paperwork-related delays for people seeking divorce?

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Government does not track delays but it is normal for people to make several trips to the registry to file paperwork successfully.

- 2) At what stage of a divorce will people use the ODA?

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->People seeking a divorce will use the ODA at the beginning of the divorce process. The ODA will help them fill out the necessary paperwork, which they can print out and take to a court registry for filing.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Once the required forms have been completed and filed at a Supreme Court registry, it can take three to four months to have a divorce finalized.

3. Will the ODA save government money? If so, how much?

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->The ODA is expected to help utilize staff resources more effectively. Instead of a Deputy District Registrar (DDR) helping the same person four times at the counter, there will likely be only one interaction. This will give the DDR more time to assist clients with more difficult matters or simply assist court users more quickly.

Hello,

We have received a follow up question from Global on this matter:

Reporter / Outlet / Contact: John Hua / Global News /
John.Hua@globalnews.ca

Deadline: Today – 4 p.m.

Request: Global is asking if BCLC was made aware of an alleged complaint from a River Rock employee, to BC RCMP, that River Rock staff were stopped by management from monitoring the activities of a loan shark in 2006. (We asked for specific information, such as a specific time frame or date, in order to support a search of our incident database but Global was unable to provide).

Suggested response (on background via email):

- We conducted a search of records to the best of our ability based on the general information that you provided, and did not locate any records regarding the allegations outlined in your email.

Thanks,

Good afternoon,

We have received a media request from Global News for an on-camera interview regarding the Dr. Peter German report.

Reporter / Outlet / Contact: John Hua / Global News /
John.Hua@globalnews.ca

Deadline: Today – 4 p.m.

Request: Global is requesting an interview with BCLC regarding its work to deter organized criminal activity and money laundering in B.C. casinos. Global alleges that a “key figure” from the RCMP during the mid-2000s has come forward and alleges that “BCLC knew about organized crime activity and money laundering... and did not do enough to intervene.”

Suggested response (on background via email):

- BCLC will work with Government on recommendations contained within Dr. Peter German’s report, which provides an important road map for the multiple organizations involved in combatting money laundering in British Columbia.
- Dr. German’s report has broadened and deepened our collective understanding of the threat posed by organized crime, ~~not just to our casinos, but also to other critical areas of our economy.~~
- BCLC and its employees recognize the risk that money laundering poses to casinos, and have continued to take action to increase controls as new threats emerged.
- We do not have a spokesperson available for an on-camera interview, but are happy to assist with any specific questions you may have.

Thanks,

Good mornings.22

As Elections BC is a non-partisan Office of the Legislature, I cannot speak to the determinations made by the Attorney General. I would suggest you contact that Ministry if you would like further information regarding Bill 6.

I can provide you with some basic information on voter participation from recent vote-by-mail events as well as the 2014 local general elections.

As mentioned in my last email, Elections BC conducted both the 2015 Metro Vancouver Transportation and Transit Plebiscite and the 2011 HST Referendum by mail-in ballot. The 2011 referendum saw a turnout of 52.66% of registered voters, with 1,613,102 of the 3,063,170 voting packages mailed-out being considered at the close of voting. During the 2015 plebiscite a similar proportion of registered voters in the Metro Vancouver area voted with a final turnout of 48.62%.

Many of the municipal and local governments report voter turnout on CivicInfo BC. The jurisdictions reporting ballots cast in the 2014 local general elections, captured on CivicInfo, averaged a 33.5% voter turnout, with the city of Surrey receiving a 31.55% turnout.

The information I have provided can be located at:

Good morning s.22

Thank you for your questions regarding mail-in ballots for the 2018 Referendum on Electoral Reform.

Elections BC is dedicated to providing a transparent and secure voting process for British Columbians that protects the privacy of the voter and the secrecy of their ballot. Conducting referenda using mail-in ballots allows Elections BC to provide an efficient, transparent, and accessible voting experience for all eligible British Columbians.

Bill 6, given Royal Assent by the Legislative Assembly during the fall of 2017, determined voting for the 2018 Referendum on Electoral Reform would be conducted by mail-in ballot. This process was developed further in the regulation to the Electoral Reform Referendum 2018 Act. The voting package return period between October 22 and November 30 for the referendum provides voters with an extended voting period to receive and complete their voting packages, and participate in the democratic process. The recent 2015 Metro Vancouver Transportation and Transit Plebiscite and the 2011 HST Referendum were also conducted by mail-in ballot.

While Bill 6 was being debated in the Legislative Assembly, the Attorney General stated that the reason government chose to conduct the referendum by mail and not in conjunction with the municipal elections was to encourage voter turnout.

Elections BC's ballot package design includes safeguards to ensure that a ballot package cannot be completed or submitted by a third-party. The certification envelope containing the returned ballot includes a shared secret – the day, month and year of birth of the voter. This must be provided by the voter along with their signed certification that they are the voter named on the envelope and have not voted previously in the referendum. If a voting package is returned without this field being completed correctly, or without the signed declaration, the voting package will remain unopened. This approach was used successfully during the 2011 HST Referendum and the 2015 Metro Vancouver Transportation and Transit Plebiscite. Further, it is an offence under the Electoral Reform Referendum 2018 Regulation for an individual to vote when not entitled to or in another individual's name, subject to significant penalties on conviction.

Voters can mail completed ballot packages directly to Elections BC, or securely deposit them at Referendum Service Offices, or Service BC offices throughout the province. Both of these methods minimize any potential risk of a ballot package being tampered with while enroute to Elections BC. As I am sure you are also aware, tampering with mail sent via the Canada Post Corporation is a federal criminal offence, and Canada Post has established robust procedures and checks to prevent mail tampering. Further, during preparations for counting, ballots are considered based on a set of regulated criteria. Any ballots that physically differ from the official ballots provided for the referendum will not proceed to counting.

As an additional safeguard, official referendum ballots are produced on specialized printers that permits them to be read successfully during counting. A counterfeit ballot would not meet these parameters, which would result in intervention by Elections BC referendum staff.

All of the original ballots received by Elections BC during the 2018 Referendum on Electoral Reform, as well as the opened, unopened or resealed certification envelopes and secrecy sleeves will be securely stored for a retention period of one year. If a recount or court verification were required, the original ballots would be used.

If you have any additional questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards,

Daniel Posey

Hello Tanera & Hon. Attorney General Eby,

The team here at Unbounce are looking forward to your visit on Friday. Thank you for setting aside time out of your very busy schedule to come talk with a room full of tech employees.

Our office is located at 401 W. Georgia Street, 4th floor. The closest available parking spots are street spots directly on Homer a few blocks around the library. If you require secure bike parking, please let me know. I will meet you in our building lobby shortly before noon. My cell is 604-773-7662 if anything comes up.

As far as format goes, would you be up for giving an informal 15-20min talk around your journey, how you got into politics and what you're currently focused on?

Our employees have been quite keen and pre-submitted questions below for you and I'm sure they will have more in person. Please let me know if you have any questions about us Unbouncers. Also, we'll ordering in lunch – do you have any pizza preferences?

Many thanks,
Erika

1. A lot of "startup" innovation comes from challenging norms, especially in areas of regulation (Uber, AirBnB etc). A governments position "generally" seems to be to enforce regulation which often limits areas of disruption and/or progress as a business. What is your view on the balance of regulation vs innovation as it pertains to Vancouver's tech sector?

2. With the publication of the report on money laundering and BC casinos, the extent of our money laundering problem has been brought to light. Now that we have greater insight into BC money laundering operations, does the Province intend to use this information to combat BC's human trafficking problem, a crime inextricably linked with money laundering? On a more macro level, will the publication of this report influence how the Attorney General's Office will combat areas of crime that depend on money laundering to flourish?

3. How do you balance your duties as MLA with your role as AG?

4. What's your take on the last provincial election -- i.e. in your opinion, why could neither major party secure a majority government?

5. Tell us a bit about what it's like working/negotiating with Andrew Weaver and the Green Party as part of a coalition? What are the biggest challenges? Has the NDP had to make any large concessions as part of a greater agenda/platform?

6. Do you believe the BC Liberals will experience any political consequences as a result of the money laundering report?

7. The Federal government will likely be updating PIPEDA within the next year-18 months (beginning with new breach notification obligations this coming fall). If/when this occurs, does the BC government plan to update PIPA to conform with the updated Federal requirements?

8. Your bio mentioned the promotion and protection of human rights. Will you speak about that experience?

9. BC suffers from a shortage of family doctors, and our clinics are overwhelmed. We pay high taxes for health care, but don't always have full access to adequate treatment. Do you have any ideas on how to fix the problems in our health care system? Does the Province?

10. Do you believe the upcoming Federal legalization of marijuana, and its corresponding regulations, will impact BC's marijuana industry?

Hi Tanera,

This was logged for an AG draft email response - yesterday, the AG returned the draft to me and indicated he would like to meet with this writer.

I have changed the log to a meeting request. I have also indicated in the log that the AG will not be signing the draft that was prepared.

Just reaching out to seek his support or insight into a critical need we have on our Gang Reduction Program. It is funded by NCPC and it is going to end in September at a time where youth and families are in crisis. We are applying for federal funds which if successful will help us from April 1st onward but we have a six month gap and we are reaching out to all possible avenues. We have met with Minister Farnworth and also do get some support provincially through Civil Forfeiture Grants. We need support in the way Surrey does because the gang issue is fluid between the two communities. Will appreciate any conversations Mr. Eby can have with Minister Farnworth to support us in this or other avenues he may be able to consider. Please find attached info on the program and our situation.

Request

The reporter is writing an article on the MOU recently announced between Canopy Growth and the BC LDB. Questions below. The reporter will accept background information.

Recommendation – provide information on background

1) Why Canopy?

- The LDB is committed to being as inclusive of as many licensed producers (LPs) as possible, and will engage with any federally licensed producer that is able to provide appropriate supply of quality cannabis product.
- All LPs that the LDB entered into MOUs with demonstrated that they could provide appropriate supply of cannabis product at the time of legalization, and were subject to the same negotiations and criteria.

2) What boxes needed to be checked in establishing a partnership of this kind (i.e. what were the criteria that were non-negotiable for Minister Eby)?

- In order to engage with the LDB as a supplier of non-medical cannabis, licensed producers were required to hold a cultivation licence, with intent to secure a sales licence prior to legalization, and be able to demonstrate product availability, assortment, and pricing that fit into the LDB's model to meet the needs of the B.C retail market.

3) There have been concerns that there will be a run on cannabis as soon as legalization occurs, resulting in an inability of LPs to keep up with demand in the months following Oct. 17th. Is this a concern for the AG's office? And was this a consideration in establishing the partnership with Canopy?

- The LDB is planning to procure cannabis product in three month increments based on the number of retail stores that are anticipated to be operating at the time of legalization.
- The LDB will continually update its forecasting and work with LPs across B.C. and Canada to ensure there is adequate supply to meet the needs of the province and will replenish as necessary.

4) Dozens of small-to-medium-sized (still illicit) cannabis producers have been frustrated by a lack of any kind of framework to enter into legal distribution in B.C./Canada. While this process is not the purview of AG Eby's office, these growers are his constituents, and fear that favouring large-scale LPs like Canopy will both fail to take advantage of the economic diversity provided by smaller cannabis producers who can offer "artisanal" products and services, and have the knock-on effect of perpetuating black market sales within communities of consumers who might shy away from purchasing cannabis from large corporations. Moreover, they say the framework for market entry -- managed by Health Canada -- is simply unfair, in terms of its disposition to the success of big business. Does Attorney General Eby have a plan for these smaller producers? Or to lobby Health Canada to create more robust channels for their participation in the legal cannabis market?

- During consultations with the Government of Canada, B.C. requested they consider a micro-cultivation license within their proposed legislation to facilitate the participation of small-scale producers in the legal cannabis industry.
- In March, the federal government released a series of regulatory proposals that includes:
  - A micro-cultivation licence that will authorize the cultivation of a plant canopy area no more than 200 square metres (approximately 2,150 square feet); and
  - A micro-processing licence that will authorize the processing of no more than 600 kilograms of dried cannabis (or equivalent) per year, or the entire output of a single micro-cultivation licence.
- Micro-processors can engage with the LDB the same way as any licensed producer, as long as they hold the relevant federal licences.
- The LDB is committed to an open market and will continually review its product assortment going forward and beyond legalization to be as inclusive of any licensed producer, both big and small.
- The LDB has developed its product assortment with the key aim of being as competitive with the illicit market as possible. The strains available to retailers and online customers range in quality, from value to ultra-premium, all at competitive prices.

5) There is some concern amongst small-scale cannabis producers that the current licensing channel for cannabis microprocessors forces them into agreements with companies like Canopy by requiring that they have a full-time staff member with a masters degree in chemistry. For many small growers, this is an expense they can't afford, and they feel as though their only option is to enter into an agreement with an LP as a wholesaler, limiting their ability to grow, and/or profit in a meaningful way from their current production.

- This question should be referred to the federal government.

6) I've heard from some of those growers who feel it's unusual for a provincial government to announce partnerships with such large business interests in an emerging market when a clear pathway to that same market for small business (which comprises more than half private sector employment in BC) has not yet been made clear. They've also pointed out that some of the LPs on the list supplied by the BCLDB do not yet have distribution licenses.

- The MOUs announced yesterday form the basis for supplier agreements which will be conditional on the producer having all the licenses required in place before we purchase product.
- The LDB would have signed an MOU where we had reason to believe the producer would have that in place before go-live. If the applicable licenses are not in place, we will not buy product.
- The LDB has entered into agreements with both large and small producers, from across the country to ensure equal opportunity for all licensed producers to enter the retail market.

The reporter says that drivers in Fort St. John are unhappy because their windshields are being chipped and cracked by gravel and tar that has not been properly cleared from the highway. Normally, contractors are sent to sweep away excess tar and gravel from the roads. However, this reporter says that this hasn't happened this year.

In the past, drivers in Fort St. John have paid a $200 deductible to repair their windshields. The reporter would like to know if ICBC will grant exemptions in this case, as highway crews are responsible for the damage.

Recommendation – Provide background

- In these cases, ICBC will attempt to recover costs where possible from the contractor.
- If ICBC is able to recover costs, as a customer service, ICBC will also attempt to recover the cost of deductibles for customers.
- With ICBC's comprehensive coverage, there is no deductible to have your windshield repaired. However, if your damaged windshield is deemed unsafe and not appropriate to repair, you will need a replacement and a deductible will apply.

Hi all,

You might remember me as the co-chair of the CBABC Civil Litigation (Vancouver) Section from this past year. Minister Eby spoke for us on January 29, but we may have missed having him sign off on the speaker authorization form, attached (typically the CBA has speakers sign these at the event or earlier). Could you kindly ask Minister Eby to execute and return this to me?

On another note, I will be returning as the Section's Chair next year and would be happy to extend an invite to Minister Eby to speak for us again on a topic or topics of his choosing? I know that the Section has a great many lawyers who are very interested in hearing from him and matters relating to the development of the law in BC.

Thanks again,

Cameron R. Wardell

Request

The reporter's colleague witnessed an incident in a BC Liquor Store in Vancouver where a shoplifter was "slammed" and "punched" by store security. The shoplifter bit one of the guards leaving teeth marks and bruising. The reporter is writing about this incident and would like to know:

- 1) How many BC Liquor Store security guards have been investigated by the regulator for excessive use of force in 2017 and so far in 2018?
- 2) How many have lost their licenses?
- 3) Are the two guards who detained the woman in the incident the reporter referred to (which took place July 9 around 7:30 p.m. at the Seymour and Cordova BCL) being investigated?

Background – The reporter's questions can only be answered by the security company that LDB contracts to provide a security presence at some stores. LDB's director of Corporate Loss Prevention has said that the LDB is satisfied with the service that Securigard provides. Regarding the incident, the shoplifter in question is a known offender to security guards and has done this many time before. Securigard has said they acted appropriately, however, in future situations, they may encourage guards to wait for the police to arrive instead of forcibly detaining a shoplifter.

Recommendation – provide Securigard’s contact information

The reporter is working on a story about the Online Divorce Assistant and would like to know (questions below):

Recommendation – Provide background

1) Why did the government decide to start this online tool?

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Paperwork for initiating a divorce is often filled out incorrectly resulting in multiple trips to the registry.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->The ODA will help guide users through the process to initiate an uncontested divorce, where no children are involved.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->The service is also intended to help reduce the stress on couples seeking a divorce.

2) How does the government feel the tool will help speed up issues in the family court arena, which can be fairly fraught with delays?

- At this time the ODA is only available to British Columbians without children who want to file for an uncontested divorce.
- With fewer incorrect forms being filed, users won't have to keep going to the registry.
- Government is looking at expanding the service to include joint filing divorces in cases that involve children.
- We will be monitoring the use of the system closely over the next few months to get feedback from users.

3) The tool offers a very quick resolution process. Are there any concerns it may lead to more complicated issues not being addressed properly?

- The service does not offer any type of resolution process.
- It is designed to assist users complete the necessary forms to initiate an uncontested divorce where there are no children involved. The legal process when filing for a divorce has not changed.

4) Are there any other areas of the justice system that the government is considering using similar tools for?

- The ODA service is the first of its kind in B.C. and will provide the foundation for other service oriented initiatives aimed at improving services to the public.
- Government is currently looking at other services that could benefit from this new type of approach. You can expect more announcements in the future.

Request

The reporter's request relates to how many retail cannabis stores a person or company could own in B.C.

The reporter previously received a statement that said "an individual or company cannot have more than eight cannabis retail store licences if they are the sole licensee, or significant shareholder (defined as 20% or more of the voting shares)."

He would like to know if a person can have a 19% interest in 8 stores/licences and then a 19% interest in a separate set of 8 stores, and so on, and so on.

Deadline Tuesday, July 17, 2018 3:00 PM

Request

The reporter's colleague witnessed an incident in a BC Liquor Store in Vancouver where a shoplifter was "slammed" and "punched" by store security. The shoplifter bit one of the guards leaving teeth marks and bruising. The reporter is writing about this incident and would like to know:

- 1) How many BC Liquor Store security guards have been investigated by the regulator for excessive use of force in 2017 and so far in 2018?
- 2) How many have lost their licenses?
- 3) Are the two guards who detained the woman in the incident the reporter referred to (which took place July 9 around 7:30 p.m. at the Seymour and Cordova BCL) being investigated?

Background – The reporter's questions can only be answered by the security company that LDB contracts to provide a security presence at some stores. LDB's director of Corporate Loss Prevention has said that the LDB is satisfied with the service that Securigard provides. Regarding the incident, the shoplifter in question is a known offender to security guards and has done this many time before. Securigard has said they acted appropriately, however, in future situations, they may encourage guards to wait for the police to arrive instead of forcibly detaining a shoplifter.

Recommendation – provide Securigard's contact information

- The Liquor Distribution Branch (LDB) contracts Securigard as a third party to provide security and theft prevention at some BC Liquor Stores. The Branch has no performance issues with the service provider, and to date has not received any complaints regarding the conduct of their Loss Prevention Officers who work at BC Liquor Stores related to these allegations.
- We are concerned about this allegation and are taking steps to gather more information about this incident.
- For information about Securigard and their employees, please contact the company directly:
  - Kelsey Yates (Brand and Marketing Manager): 604-685-6011 or 604-830-7630
- Questions about the security industry regulation should be directed to the Ministry of Public Safety and Solicitor General: 250-213-3602

Derrick;

I want to extend this invitation to the Minister and yourself to be involved in a public and stakeholder event in Kamloops on July 25th. I apologize for the short notice. The information is in the attachment and it also coincides with our Board meeting the following day in our Kamloops head office.

This would offer the opportunity for the Minister to meet with community stakeholders (Mayor and Council, business leaders, etc), BCLC Board and staff, as well as the public.

Please take a look and let me know if you need anything further. We hope you both can make it.

Best regards,

Jim

In September of 2017, the Province (represented by the ministries of Attorney General and Public Safety and Solicitor General) signed the attached Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Aboriginal Justice Council (AJC) to jointly develop an Indigenous Justice Strategy (IJS) in recognition that improvements need to be made to the way in which the justice system interacts with Indigenous people. The MOU set a 2 year time frame to develop the strategy and plan for its implementation. Under the MOU, government provided the AJC with $400,000 in capacity funding to assist their participation in the development of the strategy.

The focus of the strategy is to be as follows:

- <!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]--
>Reconciliation with Indigenous people;
- <!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]--
>Decreasing the overrepresentation of Indigenous people in the justice system;
- <!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]--
>Improving the experience of Indigenous people within the justice system;
- <!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]--
>Addressing violence against Indigenous people, especially women and girls;
- <!--[if !supportLists]-->5. <!--[endif]--

>Engagement with Indigenous communities and organizations in a respectful and culturally appropriate manner;
<!--[if !supportLists]-->6. <!--[endif]-->Improved access to justice services by Indigenous people; and,
<!--[if !supportLists]-->7. <!--[endif]-->Designing services that provide Indigenous people with culturally relevant, flexible and user-focused processes.

The parties also recognized that movement on some items were more urgent, so the MOU identifies that actions to improve justice system outcomes for Indigenous people need to be taken prior to the finalization of the IJS. Given that recognition, the parties have agreed on the following priority action areas.

1. Development of the Indigenous Justice Strategy (overarching initiative)
2. Indigenous Justice Centres
3. Gladue
4. Diversion/Alternatives to Criminal, Youth, Family Courts
5. Reduce Administration of Justice Charges, Sentences, Jail Time
6. First Nations Courts Expansion
7. Develop Incarceration Supports for Indigenous Prisoners/Families

With respect specifically to Gladue – the issue is being addressed on multiple fronts.

- Government has increased funding this fiscal year to LSS to allow them to increase the number of Gladue reports they can produce. Last year they were able to produce 131 reports; the target for this fiscal is 250 – 300 which is an increase of approximately 100% over the previous year. The money LSS has received is not a specific amount for Gladue reports, rather it is a broader envelope of funding within which there is funding for more reports.
- In addition, government has allocated $700,000 this year to engage the AJC and justice system partners in business process mapping of the current process, policy development, and explorations of options to assist advocates or others in identifying Gladue information for the court.

It is a key principle in the Indigenous Justice Strategy to effect justice system change in partnership with Indigenous people. We have increased funding to improve the existing system while we work with Indigenous people and organizations to improve over the medium and longer term.

In the spirit of reconciliation and improving the experiences of Indigenous people with the justice system, government is working diligently with our Indigenous partners to address the issues that are agreed priorities.

HI Everyone

We need to finalize the wording of the announcement of the July 26 ACLP event as presented by the TI Canada VDG and to send out the notice this afternoon.

Three issues still need to be settled:

1. Will Minister Eby attend?

2. We need to confirm whether this will be a later afternoon (4:00pm – 7:00 pm) or a lunch and learn (11:00-2:00pm) session

What is your preference Peter and Derrick?

3. Final wording of the notice of the event

What are your thoughts about the wording of the notice Peter and Derrick?

John Ritchie has sent around some draft working which I have copied below

I have made a couple of changes to confirm that we will go with the Dentons venue limited to 50 registrants

We can move to KPMG if we hit 50 quickly and there is momentum of registrations that indicates we should move to KPMG which can handle 100 persons

"Event Title: "Organized Crime, Casinos and Money Laundering "

On behalf of the Anti-Corruption Law Program (ACLP), which is a partnership of the Peter A. Allard School of Law at UBC, the International Centre for Criminal Law Reform and Criminal Justice Policy (ICCLR) and Transparency International Canada (TI Canada), we are pleased to invite you to attend our twelfth ACLP event.

The theme of the event will be the recently-issued report on money laundering in BC casinos. In September 2017, The Hon. David Eby, Attorney General of BC, appointed Dr. Peter German to conduct an independent review of British Columbia's anti-money laundering policies and practices in Lower Mainland casinos, including an examination of what connection, if any, the issue has with other areas of B.C.'s economy, as well as to recommend actions to address money-laundering in B.C. In April 2018, Dr. German submitted a 250-page report ('the German Report') to Mr. Eby that includes 48 substantive recommendations for changes to the policies and practices in the current legal regime governing the gaming industry in BC. Following government review, the report was issued to the public on June 27, 2018.

The resume of Dr. German, who is president of ICCLR, is attached to this notice. Dr. German will speak on July 26 to a meeting of Anti-Corruption Law Program (ACLP) participants and special guests about the findings from his review and his opinions regarding next steps to address illegal money laundering practices in British Columbia. (If Mr. Eby will attend, we will need to revise this sentence.)

Details of the event are as follows:

Date and Time: July 26, 2018, 4 pm to p.m. (to be confirmed. Could also be 11 am to 2 pm)

Location: Offices of Dentons LLP, 20th Floor (Reception floor), 250 Howe St., (near Waterfront Station), Vancouver.

Cost: There will be no charge for this event. We greatly appreciate (Dentons ) donation of meeting space and coffee. (If this will be a lunch and learn session, we should specify that participants should bring their own brown bag lunch)

Relevant pre-reading materials, including a digital version of Dr. German's report, will be emailed to registered participants one week in advance of the meeting. This should contribute to improved understanding of the topic of discussion, and encourage informed dialogue among participants. Also please note that we expect that attendance at the event will qualify you for 3 Continuing Professional Development credits if you are a lawyer practicing in BC.

It will be important to know the names and email addresses of participants well in advance of the meeting, to allow us to email reading materials to registered participants, and to plan for meeting space and coffee. Please register by clicking on the following link . Attendance will be limited to 50, so please register soon to avoid disappointment.

We look forward to welcoming you all to the meeting."

If we don't hear back from you by the end of the day today (July 4) we will schedule the event for 4:00-7:00 pm at Dentons and we will not mention anything about Minister Eby's participation at this point in time

This of course can change if Minister Eby can participate and we will just send out a new notice to that effect

Looking forward to hearing back from you ASAP

Joe Weiler

The reporter is looking for background information on the order for the Attorney General to produce a copy of the Cabinet submission that was used to formulate the government's response to the 2016 Judicial Compensation Commission's report.

The reporter would like to know:

- 1) Will the Attorney General comply with this order?
- 2) Does government have background material on which two recommendations Minister Eby rejected and which 8 recommendations he accepted?

3) Is there any background material which simplifies the issue?

Background

On September 18, 2017 the Attorney General re-tabled the report in the Legislative Assembly and on October 25, 2017 the Legislative Assembly adopted government's proposed response to the report.

The Provincial Court Judges' Association of British Columbia took the provincial government to court in December 2017 for rejecting recommendations for salary increases made by the Judicial Compensation Commission (JCC).

Sam Cooper is publishing a story next week on how the Great Canadian Gaming Corporation might not have properly registered a partnership for vetting with its casino cruise in Asia. Great Canadian allegedly partnered with Cheng Yu-Tung on a casino cruise in 2001. However, there are no records showing that Great Canadian partnered with Cheng or that this was registered for the regular vetting process for “suitable partners” tied to BCLC. In response, Global is putting together a TV version of the story that would air the same day Sam's story publishes (either Monday or Tuesday).

The reporter would like to schedule a pre-taped on-camera interview with Minister Eby tomorrow to discuss Sam's story and potential actions the minister might take in response. The interview would be 5-8 minutes long. The reporter is available to conduct the interview any time tomorrow between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. Global is able to send a camera to the minister's location.

Subject: FOR APPROVAL: Border declarations on cannabis

Hello,

LDB employees have expressed concerns about recent media reports where business people remotely connected to cannabis are being turned back, or banned from entering the United States. Many are turning to managers and seniors leaders for guidance on how to disclose their employer information if asked. LDB executive has been in discussions with the Cannabis Secretariat and AG's Ministry and learned other arms of government are facing similar issues.

LDB has prepared the employee message (below) and key messages for external use, in response to Executive Management Committee feedback. Please review for concerns. LDB would like to distribute to employees tomorrow (Wednesday). It has been approved by LDB and Cannabis Secretariat and is also with PSSG MO for review.

FOR MO APPROVAL:

EMPLOYEE MESSAGE

Good morning,

Over the past several days and weeks there have been reports in the media about people who work in the cannabis industry – directly and indirectly – facing problems or barriers as they cross the border from Canada into the United States (US). Despite the pending legalization of non-medical cannabis in Canada, and its legal status in states such as Washington and Colorado, cannabis remains an illegal substance federally in the United States.

The incidents reported in the media and their potential repercussions are of significant concern to us at the LDB. Many of us are traveling to the US with our families this summer, or enjoy shopping south of the border on a regular basis, and want to continue doing so while feeling safe and secure.

Representatives from the provincial government have escalated their concerns to the appropriate representatives of the federal government. The Government of Canada is currently in discussions with its U.S. counterparts on these matters. We will keep you updated as information becomes available as we continue working to add cannabis to our line of business.

Regards,

(Signatories are all members of EMC)

KEY MESSAGES (for media, external use)

- The Liquor Distribution Branch is paying close attention to stories and accounts emerging at the Canada-US border, as people who work in the cannabis industry – directly and indirectly – are prevented from entering the United States.
- We have also heard from longtime employees concerned about how this new association with cannabis will impact them and their families.
- The federal government is engaging its U.S. counterparts to address this issue, and we will keep our workforce updated on any developments.

Request

The reporter would like to confirm details about the two videos of CCTV casino camera footage that were shown at the Peter German press conference last month.

Video #1: https://news.gov.bc.ca/files/AML\_video.mp4

- 1) Is this footage from River Rock?
- 2) Is a date available for this video?
- 3) The first man in a red shirt who is shown in this video - how much cash did those two plastic bags he dropped at the teller hold roughly?
- 4) Are there any other details about the people dropping off the cash?
- 5) Is the video downloadable?

Video #2: <https://news.gov.bc.ca/files/2018-06-27-Anti-Money-Laundering.mp4>

- 1) Is this footage from River Rock?
- 2) Is the person dropping off the cash the same one featured in Video #1? Any details about this person?
- 3) The date on the bottom corner of this video is shown as 14-06-09. Is that Sept. 6, 2014 or June 9, 2014?
- 4) Was this the transaction that Minister Eby estimated involved $300,000 to $500,000 in cash?
- 5) Do you know if the person in this video also brought in his/her cash in plastic shopping bags like the others? (Wondering if there's any chance we could see a min or so of the CCTV footage preceding where this video starts).

Recommendation – provide information on background

- This video footage was provided to media as a visual example of what activity associated with money laundering may look like. The images were captured by security cameras in B.C. gambling facilities.
- The Gaming Policy and Enforcement Branch (GPEB) is unable to provide more detail beyond what has already been shared publicly.
- Both videos are now available for download at <https://news.gov.bc.ca/17511>.

Request

As the Legislative Assembly rejected the Commission's recommendation respecting judges' salaries for the years 2017/18 through 2019/20, the reporter would like to know how much judges will be paid and if government made a salary counter offer.

Update:

The reporter is on page 7 of the government response. She would like to know if the following statement is accurate:

"The government rejected the Commission's recommendation that judges salaries be increased by 11.48 per cent to $281,251 by April 1, 2020. It also rejected a recommendation to reimburse judges for participating in the compensation commission process.

In his motion, Eby proposed an increase to judges' salaries of 7.02 per cent over three years to $270,00 by April 1, 2019."

The reporter is confused by the numbers in the second paragraph on page 7 which cite a 15.21% increase and a 10.6% increase.

Recommendation – Provide background and have Neil Reimer contact the reporter for further explanation. Neil is available this afternoon.

• The second paragraph on page 7 of the government's response reflects the increases in salary that were recommended by the 2016 compensation commission based on the prior year's salary (fiscal year 2016/17) the commission had at the time it was in operation.

• However, at the time government and the Legislative Assembly were considering the 2016 commission's report (approximately one year later), they were also reconsidering the previous 2013 commission report following litigation over that prior commission process, and in particular considering retroactively increasing judges' salaries for fiscal year 2016/17.

• Pages 4-5 of government's response describe this situation.

• The calculation of the different percentage increases reflects what was known about judges'

salaries at those two different points in time: what the base salary for judges was when the Commission made its recommendations vs. what the new (retroactively-applied) base salary was when the Assembly was considering the Commission's report.

The reporter would like to schedule a pre-taped on-camera interview with Minister Eby today. As one of the reasons Minister Trevena gave for the months long lead time in bringing ride hailing to BC is that ICBC needs time to create insurance products for drivers, the reporter would like to discuss how ICBC will tackle that and why that process would take so long if there are models in other major cities.

The interview would be 8-10 minutes. CBC is able to send a camera to the minister's location any time this afternoon.

Great Canadian sent the reporter a statement over the weekend stating that they did not register the partnership as it did not require registration with GPEB or any other BC-related gaming regulatory body. However, during the reporter's interview with Minister Eby on Friday, the minister said that there are no exceptions in cases like this and any business or investments made by Great Canadian should have been registered and vetted.

The reporter would like a comment or statement from Minister Eby on what he thinks of this recent update.

Background

REQUEST:

Sam Cooper is publishing a story next week on how the Great Canadian Gaming Corporation might not have properly registered a partnership for vetting with its casino cruise in Asia. Great Canadian allegedly partnered with Cheng Yu-Tung on a casino cruise in 2001. However, there are no records showing that Great Canadian partnered with Cheng or that this was registered for the regular vetting process for “suitable partners” tied to BCLC. In response, Global is putting together a TV version of the story that would air the same day Sam's story publishes (either Monday or Tuesday).

The reporter would like to schedule a pre-taped on-camera interview with Minister Eby tomorrow to discuss Sam's story and potential actions the minister might take in response. The interview would be 5-8 minutes long. The reporter is available to conduct the interview any time tomorrow between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. Global is able to send a camera to the minister's location.

The exact quotes from the minister that the reporter is referencing is:

“It’s critically important that the regulator have a full set of information in order to be able to do the job of ensuring there’s no affiliation with people involved in organized crime or in shady dealing. Any service provider, whether its Great Canadian or anyone else, needs to register all business dealings with the regulator so they can be checked out.”

GPEB advises that the section in red incorrect – service providers typically only report substantial business dealings that relate to gaming. Many businesses have both gaming and non-gaming interests.

Recommendation – provide statement from Minister David Eby

“For clarification, any service provider needs to notify the Gaming Policy and Enforcement Branch (GPEB) of any gambling-related business that may have a material impact on gambling services within B.C. The case in question is from more than 15 years ago, before the Gaming Control Act was enacted in 2002. Today, all companies that operate in the gambling industry within B.C. must be registered by GPEB, without exception. GPEB does not have legal authority to register companies that are not conducting gambling business in B.C.”

Hello – heads up on a possible issue that may hit media. An ICBC customer is suggesting that ICBC was harassing Muslims and she may bring this to the attention of CBC.

I've flagged for ICBC and can share key messages and further background once developed. I suggest that responses on this topic should come from ICBC unless we receive a question specifically directed to the minister.

Here is the summary we received from CITZ (complaint came via Service BC):

<!--[if !supportLists]>• <!--[endif]>A customer attended Service BC s.22 to renew her driver's licence.

<!--[if !supportLists]>• <!--[endif]>Customer had a head covering, which she confirmed was for religious reasons (a standard Hijab). This information was also in her ICBC profile.

<!--[if !supportLists]>• <!--[endif]>The Customer Service Rep processed the request for a renewed driver's licence per the normal process.

<!--[if !supportLists]>• <!--[endif]>On July 23, customer returned to Service BC s.22 with a letter from ICBC requesting that she go back to Service BC to submit a form (DLIO form) confirming that her head dress was for religious purposes.

<!--[if !supportLists]>• <!--[endif]>Customer suggested ICBC was harassing Muslims and that she may bring to the attention of CBC

<!--[if !supportLists]>• <!--[endif]>The Government Agent in s.22 has not had this experience with ICBC previous; especially since the head covering was recognizable and the customer's face was not obscured.

<!--[if !supportLists]>• <!--[endif]>Service BC has flagged the situation for the A/ICBC Manager in Abbotsford (Corrlee Opdahl) .

Best,

Cadence

- 2) Are there plans to incorporate the changes they are suggesting?
- 3) Any other comment from ICBC or the ministry?

Background

Recommendation – provide statement from Minister David Eby
“The significant reforms our government is implementing to ICBC will help people get better faster, help address ICBC’s challenging financial situation, and help make insurance rates more affordable for B.C. drivers.

“Regulation drafting is underway. As part of the process, we are consulting key stakeholders, including medical professionals.

“I have met with the Trial Lawyers Association of BC to discuss their recommendations and, in doing so, I re-confirmed government’s stated intention to narrow the definition of minor injury (recommendation #2). Beyond that, government has been clear that medical professionals will be able to do their jobs (recommendation #6). Customers—not ICBC—will choose their treating medical professional, and these professionals will determine the diagnosis for a customer’s injuries. This diagnosis will help determine whether the injury meets the minor injury definition.

“Finally, our government has been clear that these changes have been developed with the goal of putting patient care first (recommendation #9). We’re shifting the focus away from maximizing payouts, to a care-based insurance system – where taking care of people injured in a crash is the top priority.”

Subject: Update: customer complaint re: ICBC letter

Hi Derrick,

This has come to a positive resolution. ICBC's Director of Driver Licensing Customer Service has now talked to the customer and the conversation went very well. She said that she understands that mistakes happen and appreciated that ICBC reached out to her directly and provided an apology and an explanation. ICBC let her know that they will going to express courier her photo cards to her and follow up to ensure they have arrived.

For reference, here is more background info and a summary of the issue from ICBC. They are also preparing an issues note, which we will share once ready.

Background:

- Digital photo images taken at DLOs are key in helping us establish the identity of our customers.

- In addition to ICBC, public agencies such as law enforcement and airports, thousands of private businesses rely on the security features and integrity of the information that appears on our photo cards
- ICBC's policy when capturing images is to balance complying with regulatory provisions and respecting individual rights.
- As one of our security features we use facial recognition technology to aid in reducing identity fraud and theft and enhance security for our photo cards. Headwear in some cases can interfere with the effectiveness of facial recognition technology.
- ICBC affirms our customers' right to accommodation regarding their religious expression.
- Human Rights precedent has defined that applicants may wear head covering that does not interfere with FRT as long as it is worn in conjunction with religious practice, or is needed as a result of medical treatment.

Summary of issue:

- The customer visited the s.22 on June 29 to renew her driver's licence and BC Services card.
- She was wearing a hijab. The Customer Service Representative (CSR) asked it was being worn for religious reason and the customer said yes.
- If the customer is wearing head covering that is unfamiliar the procedure is for the CSR to take the photo and ask additional clarifying questions.
- During this process the CSR started to complete an online form that is used when the headwear is unfamiliar.
- When "Head Covering" is clicked online it prompts the CSR to ask three specific questions:
  - What is your religion or religious belief?
  - What is the religious significance of your head covering?
  - What religious obstacle or consequence will flow from a requirement that you be photographed without your religious head covering?
- In this case, the CSR selected "Other" and therefore did not prompt the 3 questions, however the CSR did ask the customer if the head covering worn was for religious purposes, the customer confirmed this was the case and the CSR noted this in two DL note systems and on the web form.

- The form triggered a review by ICBC's Driver Licensing Integrity & Oversight department who then sent the customer a letter asking that she come into a driver licensing office to complete the questions.
- That was done and is where the customer raised this issue.
- The use of the DL photo with the headwear was approved.
- ICBC's Director of Driver Licensing Customer Service will be contacting and apologizing to the customer today and informing her that her DL photo has been approved.
- ICBC is reviewing the procedures for clarity for all employees serving customers wearing head covering that may be associated with religious belief.

Hello – heads up on a possible issue that may hit media. An ICBC customer is suggesting that ICBC was harassing Muslims and she may bring this to the attention of CBC.

I've flagged for ICBC and can share key messages and further background once developed. I suggest that responses on this topic should come from ICBC unless we receive a question specifically directed to the minister.

Here is the summary we received from CITZ (complaint came via Service BC):

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->A customer attended Service BC (s 22) to renew her driver's licence.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Customer had a head covering, which she confirmed was for religious reasons (a standard Hijab). This information was also in her ICBC profile.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->The Customer Service Rep processed the request for a renewed driver's licence per the normal process.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->On July 23, customer returned to Service BC (s 22) with a letter from ICBC requesting that she go back to Service BC to submit a form (DLIO form) confirming that her head dress was for religious purposes.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Customer suggested ICBC was harassing Muslims and that she may bring to the attention of CBC

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->The Government Agent in (s 22) has not had this experience with ICBC previous; especially since the head covering was recognizable and the customer's face was not obscured.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Service BC has flagged the situation for the A/ICBC Manager in Abbotsford (Corrlee Opdahl) .

Best,

Cadence

If someone from this office could please communicate with me I would appreciate that.

ICBC has created an undue delay for my business through their culpable error in losing my team members official s.22 documents and translation earlier this year.

We had his new documents submitted to the ICBC office in Victoria for approvals last week. We were advised by the DLO there will be "at least a 30 day delay" in getting authorization for my team member to take his class 1 learners licence test.

I want to be clear that we notified this team member he would be awarded this job promotion back in May. He was licenced and took his airbrakes course back then. I have capital equipment ordered which is now being delivered next week. Once delivered I will begin to incur direct financial costs and lost opportunity which can be easily quantified.

Not having this team member, who meets all criteria on document MV2939 (102013), able to secure his learner's permit, complete training, and begin working productively as a class 1 driver will cost him and our company financially.

I repeat:

ICBC has created an undue delay for my business through their culpable error in losing my team members official s.22 documents and translation earlier this year.

This has been verified by multiple employee's of ICBC including local supervisors/managers at the Metrotown branch.

We cannot wait 30 days as stated. Not when ICBC made the error and the team member is qualified with verifiable documents.

Please contact me for more information in order to provide assistance or direct me to the appropriate person who can.

We are a longstanding BC employer with roots dating back 106 years in this Province. I recently had a business need that required the hiring of a class 1 driver.

This man is from s.22 Now starts our problems and the roadblocks with ICBC that will start costing my business lost revenue within a couple weeks.

Our team member submitted his s.22 credentials to the Metrotown ICBC office. He now has a valid BC class 5 licence. We sent him to driving school and he now has an air brake endorsement.

When we signed him up with s.22 to take class one lessons he first needed to get a class one learner. He was stopped at this stage by ICBC. They would not allow him to proceed. In fact they had LOST his s.22 credentials. I find this completely outrageous. We are now at a full stop.

I have equipment coming in two weeks and completely capable driver.

The reporter would like to know how many Gladue reports have been requested by year in B.C. since the initial year they began to be tracked to the present. The reporter believes this to be 2005-2018.

Background

s.13

Recommendation – Provide background

The ministry does not track how many Gladue reports are requested province wide. The Legal Services Society is the primary agency that funds the preparation of Gladue reports and could likely respond to the question as to how many requests they have received and processed for funding.

- Prior to 2018, the funding that the Legal Services Society (LSS) has had for the preparation of Gladue reports for legal aid clients was provided by the Law Foundation. Until this year, LSS has worked to produce the number of Gladue reports that its budget could allow. Moving forward, government has supplemented that funding. We increased capacity to produce 250-300 formal Gladue reports during the 2018/19 fiscal year, an increase of approximately 100% from the number that LSS was able to produce in 2017/18.

Andrew Wilkinson, leader of the official opposition,

As you know, Dr. Peter German released his independent review of anti-money laundering practices last month. Our government is acting quickly to implement Dr. German's recommendations.

As we proceed with the work of finding the best ways to implement the recommendations I am taking this opportunity to write to you with a specific request.

Former Minister Rich Coleman has recently said that the previous government did "everything we could" to crack down on money laundering. In that light, I am requesting that the Official Opposition support our efforts in fighting this criminal activity in British Columbia. It is our government's desire to continue to aggressively pursue measures to counter money laundering, but to do so in a manner that does not duplicate unsuccessful efforts from previous governments.

In order to do this work in a manner that makes the most effective use of limited public resources, I am writing directly to seek your support of this effort by obtaining agreement from the members of the previous government to waive cabinet privilege on all documents relating to money laundering.

The information found in these documents would contribute to our efforts in finding ways to comprehensively end such criminal practices in BC casinos and throughout BC's economy through avoiding failed measures already attempted by previous administrations. From your perspective, such a release would also assist the public in understanding how the previous government handled this situation.

If you are amenable to this proposal, please indicate your willingness to help and we will proceed with an official request to Former Minister Mike De Jong, who is the designated representative of the previous government.

I look forward to your response.

Yours truly,

Deadline ASAP

Request

The producer would like to know B.C.'s policy on importing beer from Alberta. The producer has spoken with several Alberta breweries who say it's difficult to get their products on B.C. shelves.

Background – We have received similar requests in the past and used the below response. LDB confirmed that it is still accurate.

Recommendation – Provide background

- All manufacturers that wish to sell their product in British Columbia must have it registered with the Liquor Distribution Branch (LDB). More information about the product registration process can be found here.
- Once a product is registered with the LDB, it is available for purchase via wholesale by individual Licensee Retail Stores (private liquor stores) or government BC Liquor Stores if they choose to do so.
- The LDB is not involved in the purchasing decisions made by private liquor stores on which products they choose to buy.
- Category managers for BC Liquor Stores decide which products government retail stores will sell. Manufacturers that wish to have their product sold in BC Liquor Stores must submit a listing application. Here's the process:
  - Manufacturer/agent submits listing application
  - Application is assessed based on a number of factors, including:
    - Does the product add anything to the selection we currently carry in that category

- Does it align with what our customers are looking for
  - Quality, value, accolades, market demand
  - New or niche product
  - Packaging and format appropriate for style
  - Reliability of supply and supplier performance
  - Adherence to LDB corporate social responsibility standards
- Category manager makes a recommendation
- Director of merchandising reviews the recommendation
- Applicant is notified via a letter approving or denying the application with a brief explanation
- We also have a local market program whereby store managers are allowed to select a small assortment of craft beer that they feel is representative of their region/community.
- There is no cost to apply for product registration or listing with the LDB, nor does the criteria for approval change based on where it originates.

Hello Tanera,

We are in the process of finalizing the agenda for the 29th, but I can provide you with some further details.

It would be wonderful if Minister Eby could aim to arrive at the Allard Hall at around 9 15am on the 29th for coffee with the Dean and the other guests, which include Elder Larry Grant from Musqueam, the Coastal Wolf Pack dancers, and Craig Ferris from the Law Society of British Columbia. Everyone will then walk from the law school to Barnett Hall to begin the welcome ceremony at 10am.

We will gladly provide Minister Eby with a parking pass for the day.

The ceremony will take place from 10am-12pm. We have not confirmed the time for each speech yet, but I will update you as the agenda is finalized. Minister Eby will have between 5 and 8 minutes for his remarks.

Please let me know if there is any other information I can provide at this point, and I will be sure to keep you updated as the agenda is finalized.

Best,

Emma

Hi Tannera,

We are thrilled that Minister Eby can attend.

The welcome is closed to the media and Minister Eby will speak for approximately 5-8 minutes to an audience of approximately 200 first year students and 40-50 faculty and guests. There will be a mic, podium, and a projector available. We have not confirmed the other key participants yet, but I can notify you as we hear from them. There will be parking available, we will be in touch with parking pass information closer to the event. The on-site contact will also be confirmed closer to the event, but you can reach me at this email or at 519-860-8486 (cell) in the meantime.

There will be a chance for the Minister to meet the other speakers before the welcome for coffee at the Allard School of Law; we will let you know about the timing of this closer to the event as well.

Feel free to contact me with any further questions, and I will be in touch throughout the summer.

Good morning Emma,

Thank you for the attached letter and invitation for Attorney General David Eby to attend and participate in the Peter A. Allard School of Law Orientation Week on August 29th, 2018. Minister Eby would be happy to attend and participate. I just have a few question for you...

Will media be invited?

How long would you like the AG to speak for?

Any logistics to be noted (mic, podium etc)?

Are there any other key participants confirmed to attend?

Can you advise the approx. size of the audience?

Any parking logistics to be noted?

Are you able to provide an on-site contact for the AG?

I am sorry for all these questions, I just like to ensure the Minister is well-prepared before he speaks at an event. I understand this event is still a little ways away so if need be, we can follow up at later date once the details have been confirmed.

Best regards,

Subject: Anti money-laundering - next steps

Good afternoon:

I'm pleased to report that Minister James and Minister Eby have agreed to co-ordinate the next steps on money-laundering along the lines proposed in the attached note. I would appreciate the assistance of the deputies and their staff to finalize terms of reference and next steps for each ministry's work in time for an early fall announcement.

Thank you

Geoff
