Email: db@bht.com

Dear Mr. Bennett:

I am writing to confirm your re-appointment to the Attorney General's British Columbia Supreme Court Rules Committee (Rules Committee). I thank you for your ongoing commitment to the justice and public safety sector and the citizens of British Columbia.

Consistent with the Terms of Reference, membership on the Rules Committee is at the discretion of the Attorney General for a term of five years. Your current term of appointment will commence today, December 16, 2016 and conclude on December 15, 2021. Following this, you may be reappointed for a subsequent term.

My vision for the justice and public safety sector is that it be fair, sustainable, protects people, and has the public's confidence. In order to attain this vision, reform of the Supreme Court Rules must be driven by the guiding principles of access to justice, consultation, efficiency, early resolution, accompanied by feedback and learning. I look forward to your ongoing work with the Rules Committee in the advancement of this vision.

Again, I thank you for your contributions.

Yours very truly,

Suzanne Anton QC
