Good Morning Derrick,

Please listen to this VM when you get the chance. So this fellow wouldn't stop calling until he speak to the AG and he wouldn't put his concerns into writing either.

Well, wondering if someone could give him a call on behalf of the Minister or what do you suggest about this caller concern?

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – January 17, 2019

Surrey Board of Trade Focuses their Hot Topic Dialogue on the RCMP or a Municipal Police Force in Surrey on January 29

-what does Surrey need for its public safety infrastructure?

The Surrey Board of Trade, as a city building business organization, continues their Surrey Hot Topic Dialogue Series in 2019.

The hot topic dialogue on January 29th will be Surrey's transition to a municipal police force from the current Surrey RCMP.

"The Surrey Board of Trade offers this forum to dialogue on this topic and contribute ideas to the business organization's advocacy agenda," said Anita Huberman, CEO, Surrey Board of Trade.

"We want to seek the input of our panelists and those from the audience on what would have better outcomes for public safety in Surrey."

This Surrey Hot Topic Dialogue will bring up key discussion points regarding:

1. The costs and benefits of a municipal police force
 2. The costs and benefits of keeping the RCMP
 3. Transparency of existing transition process
 4. Provincial Government approval process
 5. Training and infrastructure required for a municipal police force
- ..and more.

Panelists include:

- Kash Heed, former BC Solicitor General and Public Safety Minister as well as a Chief Constable of the West Vancouver Police Department
- Fraser McRae, former Assistant Commissioner and Officer in Charge of the Surrey RCMP
- Bob Rolls, former Deputy Chief Constable of the Vancouver Police Department. Mr. Rolls will reference his work on the Richmond Policy Study
- Mike Larsen, Chair Department of Criminology at Kwantlen Polytechnic University (KPU)

Dear Mr. Eby

On March 26th, 2018 Indigenous Legal Studies at the Allard School of Law is hosting a Gladue panel to mark 20 years since the Gladue decision. The intention of the panel is to bring awareness and to create dialogue around where we are 20 years post Gladue.

We would like to invite you to speak, specifically, to share about the work currently happening in BC to support meaningful implementation of Gladue.

The event is scheduled from 12:30-2 on March 26th, at Allard.

We hope you may be able to join us. If you have any questions, I can be reached at the phone number or email address listed below.

Hello David,

I hope you are well? I am following up on our conversation at the CBA-BC Aboriginal Lawyers Forum Holiday Banquet a couple of weeks ago. You agreed to come speak to the Indigenous law students, if you recall? I am organizing both monthly Wednesday evening fireside chats and monthly lunchtime talks & wonder what your availability would be for the month of February? Available dates for the Wednesday evening are Feb. 14 & 28th (5:30-7:30).

The lunchtime talks can be more flexible and would no doubt draw a larger audience.

Please let me know what you would prefer, and we can work on a date that fits.

Thanks so much,

Hi Raj,

Happy New Year! I hope this message finds you well. I am not sure if you are still working with AG Eby. We would like to invite him to be a speaker at an upcoming event.
The Canadian Human Rights Commission with the International Commission of Jurists (ICJ) will be hosting an event on the margins of the Council of Canadian Administrative Tribunals (CCAT) Symposium. Our event will be on May 28th in Montreal and will focus on the role of Human Rights

Commissions and Administrative Bodies in Preserving the Rule of Law. The panel will discuss whether these bodies are at risk (and the impacts). We anticipate the audience will include members of various tribunals, commissions, as well as academics and civil society reps.

We would like to invite Attorney General Eby to be the keynote speaker for the event. Ideally he would speak to why the BC Government decided to re-establish the human rights commission, what the government heard about the importance of having a Commission during its extensive public consultations, and how this informed the drafting of the legislation for the new commission. Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact me by phone or email. And grateful if you could redirect this message to Mr. Eby's office if you are not in his office!

Thanks very much,

Elizabeth
