Good Morning Honourable Minister Eby,
It's hard to believe that almost a year has passed since we met with both you and Samantha in Ktunaxa territory!
I realize Shannon previously followed up with Samantha regarding the Justice proposal you requested back in October 2018; are you able to provide us with an update of where that proposal sits?
A few weeks ago, our team had the opportunity to tour various corrections facilities and a healing centre in Alberta. In addition to the tours, they met with directors and even had an opportunity to chat with a few First Nations inmates about their experiences/ideas. Needless to say, our interest in Aboriginal Justice within the Ktunaxa territory hasn't waned!
Looking forward to hearing back from you as soon as possible.
Thank you,

Melanie

Good morning Celia.

I can advise that the BCFNJC has requested an invite be offered for the Ktunaxa Nation to speak with them about this initiative at their next in-person meeting on September 13, 2019. My office will be extending that invite and we will keep your office apprised of the outcome.

Sincerely,
Colleen

Good morning,

I am not certainty that funding was/is available. Kurt mentioned a while back that there may be funding.

Thank you,

Good morning Celia.

I was unaware that funding was available for this proposal, but will enquire with Kurt s.22
s.22

I have followed up with MMHA, through Matthew Kinch on behalf of Nick Grant, and they are open to exploring collaboration on this initiative.

We have a Leadership Circle meeting this morning with the BCFNJC (10am-12pm), and I will add this to their Agenda for discussion around possible inclusion in IJC work, in case funds are available. As you may know, last year s.12

s.12

I will provide a further update after Kurt's s.22 so I can ascertain more about the potential funding that may be available.

All my Relations,
Colleen
