Hi Lori

Regarding the Premier's comments today he indicated that he would disclose the reasons a prohibition could not be implemented if that was the decision and also said that he is obtaining legal advice.

His statements may have waived solicitor client privilege over the legal advice. If so any legal advice about the legal vulnerability of a prohibition would be disclosable as a roadmap for someone wishing to challenge the prohibition in court.

Happy to discuss at your convenience.

Copying Barbara Carmichael and Julie Williams as they are overseeing this work.
