Dear Kelly,

On behalf of the Honourable Selina Robinson, Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing, I am following up on your request to meet the Minister to discuss the Empty Homes Tax.

Unfortunately, the Ministers schedule is very limited due to a high volume of meeting requests, she is unable to meet at this time.

Thank you kindly for the invitation.

Dear Minister Robinson,

Thank you for this email. The city is well aware of our situation and, in fact, a city councillor put a motion forward to have the vacancy bylaw amended. However, Mayor Roberts declared the motion out of order and thus disallowed the motion to be addressed by either council or the public. I will send you a link to a piece that CTV aired.

It is my understanding that the provincial government is responsible for property and civil rights. As such, I am still requesting to meet with you.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
Kelly Hayes

Therefore, as discussed in your correspondence of February 19, 2018, with Kara Woodward, Director, Local Government Policy, Research and Legislation Branch, I encourage you to continue to engage with the City of Vancouver to ensure that they are aware of your situation. The City is in the best position to address the specific circumstances you describe as they consider the implementation of this new tax.

In follow up to my email of January 30th and following a discussion with Kara Woodard, I was hoping I might be able to meet with Min. Robinson, even for 10 or 15 minutes today? I have flexibility outside of noon to 1300 hrs, but would arrange to cancel that appointment if need be.

Hi Christine

If okay with MSR and you, let's leave both times in her calendar for now. Estimates are a moving target and the ministries preceding MAH might go faster or slower than expected so prefer to save both dates until the beginning of April if okay with you.

Thanks
Brenda

Hi Christine and thanks for the heads up. Pls put a hold on the Minister's calendar for that time on the 18th. There are a couple of decision items on the agenda for the April 17th meeting so just want to double check moving the one day isn't a concern. Should be able to confirm by Monday.

Hope you have a good weekend

Hello,

Just being proactive and looking ahead. It looks like MSR is going to be in Estimates on April 17 from 130-630pm. We have HWG that day, wondering if we should move it now to avoid any issues? April 18th Wednesday from 130-330pm looks open to move it to?

What is your thoughts on this?

Thanks!
