Subject: Modular Housing 838 Ewen Ave, New Westminster

Dear, Minister Selina Robinson, MP Peter Julian, MLA Jas Johal, City of New West Mayor and Council, Naomi Brunemeyer BC Housing, Shayne Ramsay BC Housing, Danielle Scott BC Housing, Rajvir Rao BC Housing

I am writing this letter to show our steadfast support for the modular housing for homeless women and the location at 838 Ewen. I was elated to hear that our community was going to be a part of something so beneficial and life altering for other people. A group of community members have talked about making a plan to help welcome the women into our community and offering our support wherever they might need it. We want them to know they are welcome and they are members of this community and we are excited to meet them. It really is the perfect location for such a project. Easy access to the community centre and library, a short bus ride to the skytrain, Walmart is only a few blocks away and a beautiful park to have quality of life which they are greatly lacking.

I'm so disheartened to read and hear the push back and discrimination from other community members. I'm aboriginal, I come from a massively marginalized demographic. The majority of my life I've had other groups of people vocally and loudly and sometimes violently voice their opinions about how my life should be governed, about what my rights are, about where I can live, how I should live, how I should talk and what I should think. Most people now know this is unacceptable behaviour, it's not PC, it's something to be ashamed of. Yet when it comes to poor people or the homeless all sense of humanity goes out the window and discrimination is not only welcomed, it's expected. Fear takes over and stereotypes and assumptions based on those fears drive hysteria. There is no reason to fear these women. If you look at all the other sites where these housing projects are operating there is no increase in crime, there is no harm to children or other community members, there are no piles of fentanyl or needles laying about. What you see are people changing their lives, safely living and healing their trauma.

I'm urging you to tune out their poor-bashing being displayed so proudly in Queensborough, it does not deserve a voice no matter how loud they get. If you take their statements and replace the word homeless with any other marginalized group, such as Aboriginal, Black or disabled, and say them out loud you will feel like a disgusting human being spreading abhorrent hate and intolerance, because it's exactly what it is and it needs to be stopped.

You cannot allow people with this mindset to shape our world or our policies to openly discriminate against something they find unpleasant. Poor bashing is an injustice and discrimination as destructive and debilitating as sexism and racism.

In any public debate there are opposing sides, but there is never room for discrimination. Entertaining their petition even for a second implies one group of people can control the destiny of another based on nothing more than economic status. We cannot be a part of normalizing discrimination in any form.

You have the support of many people in this community, you have the support of even more people outside of this community, we want this project, we want to help these people and more importantly we need this project, homelessness is out of control. The only thing the City of New West and the province should be considering the alternate sites in Queensborough for is additional modular housing projects to help more homeless people.

Sincerely,

s.22

Subject: BC Coalition Meeting Report & News Release

Dear Minister Robinson and Minister Simpson,

It is an honour to share with you the attached BC Coalition to End Youth Homelessness Provincial Meeting Report which provides a visual record of the day's activities and outlines "next steps" identified at the meeting.

Your generous support for this event and your gracious participation enabled us to engage government, community and youth representatives in thoughtful discussions of priorities that need to be considered and address as we move towards the vision of a provincial plan that ensures every youth has a way home.

It was so valuable and important to have had both of you join us! Hearing your support for addressing youth homelessness was the highlight of the day for many. The efforts you have made in such a short amount of time has made significant differences on the front-line and given hope to many who are struggling to address the many issues that place youth at increased risk of exploitation and homelessness.

As you know, the goals for this meeting were to identify steps toward the realization of our goal to end youth homelessness in BC and to begin working together with provincial representatives to establish a provincial plan by January 2019.

Fred and I would like to request an opportunity to meet with both of you to discuss outcomes of this meeting and next steps that will ensure every youth in BC has a way home. We realize that your schedules are very busy, but our hope that we can identify a meeting time in June.

Also attached is a media release that we are planning to send out on Monday, June 11 to coincide with the release of the report. This is intended to highlight that the provincial meeting was a milestone in government engagement with BC communities and youth voices towards a provincial plan to end youth homelessness. It is also intended to express our gratitude to both of you for your support in making this issue a priority and making this important event possible.

Warm Regards,

Deadline June 7 @ 1:00 PM

Request

The reporter would like to know more details about a meeting that BC Housing attended last Friday about low-income housing initiatives in Penticton. The reporter would like a statement on the general topic(s) of the meeting, how the meeting went and if the meeting produced any results regarding the modular housing proposal for Penticton.

Suggested Response

The meeting called by Penticton's housing sector on June 1 was held in response to the recent decision by Penticton City Council not to proceed with the proposed location put forward by BC Housing and its partners for the 52-unit modular housing project.

The objective of the meeting was to understand the rationale for city council's decision and to determine what steps both BC Housing and the city could take to ensure the project would continue to proceed at another location in the community.

It was unanimous at the meeting that the community desperately needs this project to proceed as there is a significant population of people in Penticton who are experiencing homelessness. BC Housing staff will be meeting with the City of Penticton today to find an agreed upon location in Penticton that is large enough to support the development.

Hi Daniela,

Ministry staff have made two additional edits since you last signed off on the info bulletin. You may want to re-review, though I have no concern with the changes.

The changes are:

- Changing 'on top of' to 'in addition to' in the second paragraph,
- And, adding the line, 'This funding is specifically for the KLO Transmission Main component – a critical part of the broader Kelowna Drinking Water Integration Project'

I also did two interviews for the same show (but with another host) and they went well. I know both BC Lee and the owner of LS Times so feel free to let me know if you have any questions.

Hi,

A number of you have already let me know your Member is unable to attend – thank you. As this is not a whipped conference call – a leave request is not required. However, if you could still let me know if your Member is unable to participate and if a staff member will be on this conference call on their behalf.

Thank you,

Hi Ayesha -

I was just talking with Dylan about this earlier today - our officials are reviewing the response today and so I had told him I'll be in a better position tomorrow to connect on next steps. Do you know whether it would be the 26th or 29th you would be looking at for the signing if we can work it out?

Hey Craig,

Hope you're well. I wanted to follow up with you on the BC Bilat and see if you were able to confirm if the officials had received the communications from CMHC and we're satisfied with the responses. We would really love to sign the Bilat on this coming trip and think it would be a great opportunity for both of us.

Happy to chat if you'd like. Thank you,
Ayesha

Hello Craig!

Wow, your Minister is popular! A very large staff contingent from Housing Central was in attendance at the CHF Canada AGM that she attended on Friday, June 8th and were so impressed.

I have been asked, if it is practice of your office, to get a copy of the speech that she gave? I think both BCNPHA and the CFH of BC want to highlight their attendance at the conference and perhaps reference the Minister's speech in upcoming publications to our members.

If this is something your office does, it would be great.

Greatly appreciated,

Hello Daniela,

We have just received details about this gas tax completion event, so attached is an EP for MLA Doug Routley to attend and speak if desired on June 18th in Ladysmith. (The Town was not aware they ended to go through UBCM for gas tax announcements, which is why we received this late). No confirmation of a federal rep yet, but the event would go on either way. This new facility received $570,224 from the federal Gas Tax Fund in 2014.

DRAFT

Good afternoon,

It is with great pleasure and great honour that I formally invite you to be partners with the Government of B.C. as we announce an exciting initiative to create new, affordable, rental housing for Indigenous peoples across the province of British Columbia, both on- and off-reserve.

On June 18, we will formally announce the launch of the new provincial Building BC: Indigenous Housing Fund that invites proposals from Indigenous organizations, First Nations, and non-profit and for-profit developers wanting to partner with Indigenous organizations and First Nations to build the housing that people need. Attached, please also find the background information that BC Housing has shared with your organization. On this date, we will also announce that all new housing funds created as part of Budget 2018 will be open to Indigenous organizations and First Nations for housing on- and off-reserve.

I know the lead-up to Indigenous Peoples Day is typically a busy time for you. It is my hope that you, as an esteemed leader, can find time to join us for the celebration announcement at the Prince George Native Friendship Centre on June 18th. We would be pleased to offer you a speaking role and provide more information as needed.

Martin and Robert, Craig is the senior staffer for Minister Robinson and has a long history in municipal issues. I'll let you guys take it from here.

Hello Daniela,

The new 99 B-Line canopy bus shelter at Commercial-Broadway Station opens on June 25, 2018. A permanent queueing system is also included as part of the canopy, along with leaning and hand rails to improve customer comfort and help maximize pedestrian flow during peak and non-peak periods. Customers are going to be thrilled about this improvement (60 ft of coverage in the rain!) and TransLink anticipates media interest. The budget for the canopy project is $1.25 million which is a part of the $740 million Public Transit Infrastructure Fund (PTIF). PTIF is funded by the Government of Canada at 50% and the Province of British Columbia at 33% and TransLink at 17%. The City of Vancouver also contributed value-in-kind of $200,000 towards sidewalk restoration services at the canopy location.

TransLink plans to develop a video which includes a timelapse of customers using the new permanent queueing system featuring the new shelter (similar to this one which received very positive reaction in 2014), and video quotes from federal, provincial and municipal partners. The final video will be pushed out on TransLink social channels, and will be referred to on the webpage.

Is there interest in PS MA participating in this video by providing a quote? We will see the final before it goes public. This is a bit of a rush request and they would need the quote by early next week if you think this would be a good fit for PSBM.

Thank you,

Kate

Michael, Sean, Joy + Mack (on behalf of Ms Ma).

Below is the final session proposal to UBCM. Ms Ma's participation is being confirmed with her Ministry.

UBCM will get back to us by July 20th. I was advised by BC Gov staff that the session would have greater potential if it comes from a local government so Michael is the primary contact -- I hope this is fine Michael.

The session description along with panel would be fine tuned in late July/early August. Sean Galloway from the City could, in fact, present on behalf of the City rather than Michael.

Cheers,

Alex

SESSION TITLE

Hidden Housing Solutions: Affordability and Climate Action

DESCRIPTION

City of North Vancouver and Hollyburn Family Services Society are tackling affordability and climate change in challenging demographic and housing conditions.

Half of BC homes are single detached, mostly occupied by 1 or 2 people, predominantly solo seniors and empty nesters. Many want to downsize but have few options.

The City is enabling 3 units on single-family lots, more liveable ground floor units, laneway housing, and lock-off suites in townhomes.

Hollyburn is matching house-rich/cash-poor seniors to share homes to reduce living costs and social isolation.

Doubling home occupancy halves GHGs/capita.

The City and Hollyburn will share lessons on a panel moderated by local MLA Bowinn Ma (to be confirmed). Renewable Cities will show how scaling up could create 100,000 affordable units across BC, cutting 250,000 tonnes of GHGs/year.

PANEL

- Alex Boston, Executive Director, Renewable Cities, SFU Centre for Dialogue
- Michael Epp, Director of Planning, City of North Vancouver
- Joy Hayden, Special Projects Manager, Hollyburn Family Services Society
- Bowinn Ma, MLA, North Vancouver (TO BE CONFIRMED)

CONNECTION TO CONFERENCE THEME (Communication, Collaboration, Cooperation)

The policy and program development process underpinning these solutions requires thoughtful communication with stakeholders and the public. Collaboration and cooperation with diverse local stakeholders has been necessary to optimize solutions and has been essential between local governments and the Province to enable such opportunities to exist in BC. If pursued, scaling similar solutions across BC would require unique collaboration and cooperation and effective communication amongst local governments, diverse provincial players and social service agencies.

Can we also get approval for her to speak with Shayne Ramsay? If so, I will get that lined up as well.

Mr. Hansen will be in the city on Monday, May 28th, and is very much hoping to connect at the Minister's convenience.

Please do let me know if this is a possibility.

Kind Regards,

Hello Daniela,

Attached is a copy of the news release that BCA is going to be sending to the media on Wednesday, June 27th to encourage property owners to check out what's happening with sale prices in their neighbourhoods. This is part of their annual campaign to educate people about how July 1st is their valuation date that is used to generate the annual assessment notices.

In addition to this news release, they're aiming to do a brief social media campaign to compliment their education efforts.

Please let me know if you have any flags/questions.

Thank you,

Hello Craig,

Please see attached the KM/QA doc I've prepped for MBR's interview with Brenda on Spice FM on Monday. Most of it is the approved messaging we already have, I added some of the stories we've heard and also the current status.

The highlighted pieces are with BCH for input, mostly updated numbers and some KMs on keeping the strip clear.

I'll re-send once I get that info, just wanted to send to you now to have a look and see if there's anything else you'd like included.

Hi Daniela,

Yes, a longhouse would meet the CCR program outcome of improved access to and/or increased quality of cultural, recreational and/or community infrastructure for Canadians, including Indigenous peoples and vulnerable populations as it addresses the cultural component and potentially community infrastructure (depending on the use). Further, eligibility under ICIP requires the project to be for public use and benefit. Projects will be assessed on a case-by-case basis with the information presented in the application.

Note that the CCR outcome also is part of the Rural and Northern Communities program.

Subject: Modular videos
Date: Tuesday, June 26, 2018 11:03:36 AM

Hi Minister,

Draft videos for the modular program can be viewed here:

<http://truenorthentertainment.com/bch2018-mh>

Sound/picture quality will be better on final videos, as these are review sample quality.

They are doing one longer video, and two shorter for BC Housing – one thing we will be asking them to do is to focus at least one of the two short ones on residents rather than staff (right now both are staff). Overall though, I think these are powerful ways of showing the benefits of the modular program.

Can you let me know if you have any changes you'd like made, or any concerns? Once finalized, we will add the Building BC branding to the videos, and then they will get them ready for sharing more widely.

- Through the Building BC: Rapid Response to Homelessness program, the Province is proposing to build 30 new homes with 24/7 support services in Port Alberni for people experiencing homelessness.

Dear Hon. Robinson,

It was wonderful to hear the good news that BC is committed to invest in improving Indigenous housing off and on-reserve

Congratulations on your advocacy and support of this urgent need!

I am optimistic about this positive step in reconciliation, and would like to know if there will be opportunities to get involved on the research side or in the visioning exercise of housing.

I am an architect and Associate Professor at University of Toronto, and I have been working in the area of architecture's relationship to modern Indigenous way of life. This has been collaborative work with Indigenous partners, and involves novel consultancy methods. Some of the research on architecture and community design has been published in my book Many Norths: Spatial Practice in a Polar Territory. And some of the research on architecture we conducted in Nunavut is in the national touring exhibition we organized titled Arctic Adaptations.

I hope that you might put me in touch with anyone who you think might provide further information about how my design-research team could be involved.

10,000 square-foot Killarney Seniors Centre now officially open
Almost two decades after the dream was launched by a dedicated group of South-East Vancouver seniors, the long-awaited Killarney Seniors Centre opened today with a community celebration attended by hundreds of seniors, family and friends. The 10,000 square-foot, LEED Gold certified centre provides opportunities for socializing, healthy meals, and physical activity. It has five multi-purpose rooms, a roof-top patio, lounge with fireplace and TV, commercial kitchen and accessibility features including an elevator, hearing loops, auto door openers in washrooms and distress buttons.

The new centre is attached to the existing Killarney Community Centre, situated in a neighborhood that is home to fully a third of the City's 27,000 seniors. While there are seven seniors centres west of Cambie Street, Killarney is the first community facility dedicated to serving the growing population of seniors in South-East Vancouver.

"As we open this modern and vibrant facility, we are making good on our commitment to provide the seniors in southeast Vancouver with a place to socialize, exercise, relax, share meals together, and have access to a broad range of programs so that they can lead fulfilling lives," said Vancouver Park Board Chair Stuart Mackinnon.

Funding for the $7.5 million centre came from the Government of Canada, Government of British Columbia, and City of Vancouver. The Vancouver Park Board provided the land. The Southeast Vancouver Seniors Arts and Culture Centre Society has been a key supporter of the project.

More than 2,000 seniors currently use the Killarney Community Centre. The number is expected to grow by 15 percent with the new facility.

Once the programs are up and running in August, the new Killarney Seniors Centre will offer:

- Instructor-led recreation programs and drop-in recreation activities
- A hot lunch program with a restaurant-quality kitchen
- Off-site excursions and outings
- Special events
- A variety of support services for seniors

Programs running in the centre already this summer include bingo, cribbage, sewing, art, choir and exercise programs. New programs such as pet therapy and Latin dance will be added in the fall.

A Colombia Institute report says municipal services are becoming increasingly important in providing the support seniors need to live in the community and are usually the first line of defense in maintaining good health.

Quotes from funding partners:

"Our government is committed to providing opportunities for seniors to participate in meaningful programs that contribute to their overall wellbeing and encourage personal growth. We are proud to announce the opening of the Killarney Seniors Centre, which will bring much-needed programs and support services to seniors in southeast Vancouver. This new facility will ensure that Vancouver's seniors continue to thrive," said Minister of National Defence Harjit Singh Sajjan.

"It is vital that we continue to make investments in infrastructure that keep our communities livable for everybody. With a beautiful new centre, seniors in Killarney have a place that supports a healthy, connected and interactive lifestyle for years to come," said MLA Vancouver-Kensington MLA Mable Elmore.

Hi Danny,

Bowinn left a box with her new cell phone at VCO's reception tonight because we need to send it back to Victoria for a few adjustments. Can you let me know tomorrow whether you found it? When I hear from you, I'll get a courier to get it back here (or see if I can find it a ride).

Thanks!

I can do that. But can we keep the slips on one page rather than cutting them in half? The reason is because they don't go through our printer's feeder properly. It means I have to manually scan the documents one page at a time.

Request

Reporter is doing another follow-up story on Maple Ridge council's rejection in May of the supportive housing complex on Burnett Street. One of the criticisms is the lack of verifiable, quantifiable statistics that show the efficacy of the Housing First approach.

Does BC Housing have any numbers from any supportive housing project in B.C. that shows that people are progressing out of these facilities into market housing?

Another criticism is there is no tracking of individuals through the supportive housing system to determine if they are having successful outcomes. Is this in place in any part of the province?

Apart from the statistics provided in the handout at the open house this spring, does BC Housing have any other statistics particular to Maple Ridge?

The City of Maple Ridge has asked also for a more health-care focused operational model for any supportive housing project in Maple Ridge, with details explaining how a facility would function. Is BC Housing considering a new model that would match this?

Subject: Regent Hotel evacuation - update

Good afternoon Mayor and Council,

I am pleased to advise that, as of earlier this afternoon, all of the residents of the Regent Hotel have been relocated to alternate housing. As you will recall, the Chief Building Official issued an order on June 20 directing that the building be vacated by the end of day today.

The majority of the 92 individuals who were living in the building on June 20 have moved to the Jubilee Rooms; the renovated SRO that was purchased by BC Housing to provide alternate accommodation for individuals in the Regent. In all instances, tenants have moved to safer and more appropriate accommodation than their previous circumstances at the Regent.

The Regent will now be closed and secured and is considered an active construction zone. The Chief Building Official has ordered the owners to install temporary shoring inside the building to mitigate the serious structural deficiencies that necessitated the move out. That order establishes a deadline of July 14 for that work and City inspectors will be monitoring compliance.

Staff have made initial contact with the owners regarding the purchase of the Regent and Balmoral Hotels and will be undertaking those discussions shortly. We will keep you apprised of any developments in that regard.

The successful evacuation of the Regent and transition for residents to alternate housing reflects an immense amount of effort and coordination by staff from across many City departments, VPD, BC Housing, Vancouver Coastal Health, Atira and Raincity. I am very proud of the sensitivity and dedication that our team has demonstrated in carrying out this complex undertaking.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,

Paul

Sound/picture quality will be better on final videos, as these are review sample quality. They are doing one longer video, and two shorter for BC Housing – one thing we will be asking them to do is to focus at least one of the two short ones on residents rather than staff (right now both are staff). Overall though, I think these are powerful ways of showing the benefits of the modular program.

Can you let me know if you have any changes you'd like made, or any concerns? Once finalized, we will add the Building BC branding to the videos, and then they will get them ready for sharing more widely.

Thanks Andrew – really appreciate the quick turn-around on this.

Yes, the Minister was interested in a tour, and will in fact be up in Prince George on July 9th – would that afternoon be an option for Dr. Wimmers? If so, a briefing note in advance would definitely be appreciated.

Thanks,

Craig

Subject: Proposed tour of Wood In

Craig,

I understand the Minister has an interest to tour the Wood Innovation Research Lab in Prince George:

<https://www.unbc.ca/engineering-graduate-program/wood-innovation-research-laboratory>

I have been in touch with the research chair Guido Wimmers:

GUIDO WIMMERS, Dr. Tech, Dipl. Ing., Arch (NL), MRAIC, LEED AP

Chair, Associate Professor

Master of Engineering, Integrated Wood Design

UNIVERSITY OF NORTHERN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Phone: 250-960-5241(Reception)

Email: guido.wimmers@unbc.ca

Dr. Wimmers would be pleased to host a government delegation at the convenience of the Minister to suit her schedule. He is mostly available through to Sept 10. I would be pleased to send an introductory email to connect you with him.

We could prepare a briefing note in advance of the tour to provide some background on the building and BC government contributions, along with a description of the wood innovation research and benefits to students.

Hi Matt,

Can you work with Bowinn's LA/CA to lock this up? I think I already confirmed her availability but best to double check. This would be in her capacity as MLA for the area.

Thanks.
