These are great.

I agree that it is the residents' stories that need to be told rather than the staff stories.

Hi Minister,
Draft videos for the modular program can be viewed here:

Sound/picture quality will be better on final videos, as these are review sample quality.
They are doing one longer video, and two shorter for BC Housing – one thing we will be asking them to do is to focus at least one of the two short ones on residents rather than staff (right now both are staff).
Overall though, I think these are powerful ways of showing the benefits of the modular program.
Can you let me know if you have any changes you'd like made, or any concerns? Once finalized, we will add the Building BC branding to the videos, and then they will get them ready for sharing more widely.

FYI – if you haven't sent the other note to MMM/MSS yet, you might want to flip it to them this afternoon as the City will be putting out an info bulletin (below) with much of that information about the move.

Hi Selina

Here is an electronic copy of the report that we presented to Minister Sims. There will be a compass article about this, likely Wednesday. The Minister's office is aware that an article (and the report) will be released to the membership.

Cheers,

Wendy
