Hi Matt,

Thanks for taking my call. I will await further info re: a possible Gibsons site, but for the moment, I hope you can provide clarification regarding funding for Sechelt.

The Oct. 31st Press Release (link below) implies that the Shelter in Sechelt will be opening up 20 additional Extreme Weather shelter spaces, but RainCity has not received confirmation of this yet.

Temporary and extreme weather response shelters open in B.C.

- Are they getting funding to open up 20 additional temporary spaces- as the press release implies?
- Or... is that funding just for the on-going permanent shelter spaces (20) that they already have?

The weather is terrible and the need is urgent. Additional spaces in Sechelt are possible immediately- they just need confirmation.

Any help you can provide would be appreciated. ☺

Would programs be able to reach out to the Mayor of Sparwood regarding then Community, Culture, and Recreation Fund? Contact info is below:

I just passed the information on to Mayor Wilks. He would very much like someone to contact the Sparwood Director of Recreational Services.

Subject: Media inquiry into 467 Lampson St, Esquimalt
Date: November 20, 2018 1:45:18 PM

Hey Mitzi,

Our office wanted to flag with you that CFX 1070 reached out to us to comment on a rental building in your riding (467 Lampson St, Esquimalt) that was recently bought and served with eviction notices.

Below is the question sent to us and our suggested response. I wanted to share with you in case they approach you as well.

Reporter Josh Hylden, Producer
CFAX 1070
josh.hylden@bellmedia.ca
250-920-4616 c: 250-893-6167

Request

Reporter is looking for information on an apartment building in Esquimalt (467 Lampson St) was recently sold and all of the 39 units were served eviction notices. The new owners encouraged residents to take buyout of $1500 and move out before February when renovations to the building will begin. In the marketing of the building on CBRE website, it was mentioned that “rents for the generous sized suites could be increased either through occurring re-rents or through a renovation.” <http://www.cbrevictoria.com/467-lampson-street-esquimalt-bc.php>

This looks like a “use renovation to maximize your ROI.” Is it legal to market the potential profitability of a rental building through the use of renovation-based evictions?

More info (including an image of the eviction notice distributed to tenants) can be found on this Reddit thread:
https://www.reddit.com/r/VictoriaBC/comments/9ym33u/speaking_of_renovictions/

Suggested Response

We expect everyone to act within the law and in good faith. B.C.'s Residential Tenancy Act currently requires landlords to follow specific rules before ending a tenancy in order to do extensive renovations or to demolish a rental unit.

The tenants don't have to agree to the buyout, and if they get an eviction notice they could file a dispute with the Residential Tenancy Branch. A landlord must act in good faith if they plan to end a tenancy for landlord's use or to do major construction or major renovations or repairs.

Good faith means the landlord has honest intentions and no ulterior motive. The landlord must honestly intend to use the rental site for the purposes stated on the notice to end the tenancy. This requirement applies to purchasers who request a tenancy be ended so that they or a close family member can occupy the rental unit, as well as those who end a tenancy because they are planning to do major renovations or repairs.

Concerned tenants are encouraged to call the Residential Tenancy Branch, where staff can answer any questions and provide information on their rights and responsibilities under the Residential Tenancy Act.

Government has increased penalties for landlords acting in bad faith to 12 months rent to be paid to the tenant.

Hey Mable,

We are aiming to have an event for the opening of the 98 units of temporary modular housing at 5077 and 5095 Heather St, Vancouver in late December/possibly early January. Lu'ma Native Housing Society is the operator. The location is in Vancouver-Langara. I am wondering if you would be interested in speaking at the event as the government spokesperson?

Lu'ma is still finalizing staffing and their move in schedule so we only have a window of time to work with right now. If you are interested staff can reach out to your constituency office to find a date that works for all parties.

Hey Johnathan,

Attached is an OIC for MSF's review. s.13

Can you have him review and see if he has any flags?

We weren't given much time to flag these OIC's with the affected MLA's so the sooner MSF can review the better.

Thanks!

Hey Ryan,

There is a version of the consent form used by MLA offices that does not require the constituent to sign. It's on the BC Gov website here. <https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/governments/services-for-government/information-management-technology/privacy/agreements-contracts#mla-consent>

Makes things a bit easier since I know wrangling constituents in to the office to sign consent forms can sometimes be a hassle. I know some of the other ministries like MCFD use different consent forms, however.

Subject: RE: Constituent concerns regarding Housing
Date: November 19, 2018 12:42:02 PM

Hey Nubwa,

Affordable rent is typically defined by the Canadian Mortgage and Housing Corporation's definition. Affordable rent is defined as costing less than 30% of a household's before tax income. There isn't a universal rent or formula used by housing providers in BC. Some units charge a fixed rate and others charge based on rent geared to income. When a provider is charging rent geared to income it usually means 30% of that person's income.

Regarding the projects recently announced in your riding I do not yet know for sure what the unit breakdown will be. With that said it would be unusual for a subsidized housing provider not to provide any units built with accessibility in mind.

Hello Matt,

Thank you for providing that information to our office. It was much appreciated.

I'm hoping you can help me with the following questions from constituents:

- What is considered affordable rent? Is it based on a fixed rate such as the minimum wage?
- Are there geared-to-income, wheelchair accessible suites?

Once again, thank you for your help earlier.

Hi Matt,

I recently had a constituent reach out who is concerned about renovictions in Victoria. They've seen a lot of announcements going towards the building of new housing, but are worried that without grants or other financial assistance for current older apartment buildings, they will be forced out for new development.

Do we have any messaging on this?

Thanks!

The event takes place at Argyle Manor. As your Ministers are all South Island MLA's we are hoping they and you may have input as to local stakeholders they think should be invited.

Hey Ian,

Would you be able to provide any background on Lions Grove Estate? It sounds like they had a contract with BC Housing and have since moved off of it. If so are the residents getting letters to apply for SAFER?

Hi Matt,

Can you pass along some info for me regarding subsidy's with BC Housing? I've had 2 calls now with questions regarding what is going to happen. Apparently BC Housing is no longer subsidizing at Lions Grove Estate and one other place, but I didn't grab that name yet. Where did the subsidy go? What are these people supposed to do now that they will not be receiving the subsidy? Some help on this would be appreciated.

Thanks

I'll need a signed consent form to get that information. Ward will have the template for it. Typically with casework you'll need to fill one out for all ministries so the information on your constituent can be disclosed.

And welcome to the team!

Hi Matt,

This appears to be a BC Housing building. They have forwarded to the region and asked them to call staff to discuss further. They want to stress that if asbestos is present, then the construction company (and BC Housing!) would be taking very obvious and serious precautions. Most asbestos is found within flooring tiles or insulation and would not be disturbed by replacing a carpet. Undisturbed asbestos is not a health risk.

They will get back to you with the details when they have them. But want to know if it's easier if they follow up with the tenant directly? I will get us a call summary or a copy of the email. Thoughts?

Hey Matt,

I think Laura already talked to you about this constituent back in April. They are just following up about being on the waitlist. I don't think there is much more that can be done, based off of the notes that Laura left for me.

Were any changes made to their application to increase their chances of finding subsidized housing?

Thank you,

Hi Vanessa,

Could you please ask the MO to obtain MLA support for the following MLA's. Attached are draft documents as reference.

Currently, we have this item listed on the November 21st cabinet meeting which means MLA support is required by Tuesday.

I'm hoping we can move it to November 28th as we don't have the tagged order yet. If we can move it, then support is not required until Tuesday, November 6th at noon.

Chris, could you please confirm that we can move this to the November 28th cabinet meeting.

Thank you.
Christine

Hey Ian,

One more casework issue before the weekend!

I don't think there will be much to do with this one. s.22 is inquiring about legislation that, it appears, was introduced over 20 years ago that stated farm land can only be designated farm land if it is being used to farm.

I do not know if this would even fall under our ministry. Any insight you can give?
