Hi Roseanne,

MJD is wondering if any of the Surrey Caucus members might want to join her at this firefighters event? We've been invited to give opening remarks but we are balancing a number of competing priorities and it's possible she won't make it. If she can't give remarks I'll know by Friday and if that's the case would a Surrey caucus member be interested to bring greetings on her behalf?

Kate,

Further to our discussion, here is the link for the event. MLAs can register through this web page. As mentioned, we have 20+ Liberal & Green MLAs attending this special event...and normally Minister Darcy is there with a good contingent of NDP MLAs. I have checked and there are no NDP MLAs registered [cut off is Wednesday at 5 pm] as of yet, beside Minister Dix who is the emcee for the event. If you can pass this to Judy...and see if she can drum up some interest that would be great. It might just be that a lot of the new MLAs are unaware of how much it means to the care aide award winners to have so many MLAs there in attendance.

Let me know if you have any questions.

PS The LG is making a special appearance this year as well!

Hi Roseanne,

Absolutely we can accommodate. Do you know what time the caucus meeting is?

Meaghan, since the House is not sitting that week, can we hold the Working Group meeting prior to the caucus meeting, possibly in the same location as everyone will be there for the caucus meeting?

Let me know if you think this is a solution.

Regards,
Monica

Hi Monica. Meaghan suggested I get in touch with you to see if we can get the Dec 5th Mental Health and Addictions Working Group (MHWG) meeting moved from that day. We are trying to organize a caucus meeting and given all the other things happening, including Premier's availability, the Dec. 5 day is our best bet. Hoping that we can confirm this quickly.
