Hello, Lorne,

Please accept my apologies but we have searched high and low and have found no evidence of the letter from Isabela. Under the circumstances, the best I can do at this point is include Minister Judy Darcy in this correspondence with the hope we can resolve something in the coming months. I will follow up with her this week and bring her up to speed. Again, please accept my regrets that we can't attend the Courage to Come Back awards and best wishes for a successful evening.

Geoff

I hope you're enjoying the sun!

I was able to reach Isabela Zabava, the executive director of Coast Mental Health, and obtain a copy of the letter previously mailed directly to the Premier in Victoria (attached). I suspect it fell between the cracks and may not have been forwarded to the appropriate ministry.

It would be wonderful to have something pledged at the event on Thursday with, perhaps, anything additional if warranted announced later upon a more extensive review.

Geoff, your guidance once again would be appreciated. Thanks again for your time on this matter. I will miss you at the event!

If attending, Will you be partaking in a "skit"?

Good Morning,

Press Gallery Night is Tuesday May 15th @ the Union Club ballroom.
Doors open at 6:30 pm, and the event starts around 7 pm - wrap up by 9-9:30 pm.

This is a whipped event MLAs will need to ask for Leave if they can't attend.

Please have your MLA contact Ed May at Caucus if they are planning a skit, Ed will inform the Press Gallery

The Whip's office will collect the $20.00 fee, please have your MLA drop by the Whip's Office with cash only please!

Please note this is for MLAs ONLY – no staff to attend

Thanks
Teresa

The Press Gallery would like to invite you to our MLA/gallery skit night, Tuesday May 15 at the Union Club ballroom. Doors open at 6:30pm, and the event starts around 7pm and should probably wrap up by 9-9:30pm.

The MLA/gallery event is an annual tradition that goes back more than 100 years at the legislature. It's where we let off steam from the session, mingle across party lines, and poke fun at ourselves in a good-hearted way. It is an off-the-record event, and your attendance confirms that you agree to that.

Everyone is welcome to prepare a skit or two. We will also have audio-visual equipment to play videos. Please let your caucuses know what skits you are doing, so they can tell the gallery and we can organize an itinerary for the night.

Food will be served, though not a full dinner. We will have a roast beef and bun carving station, a vegetarian risotto station, as well as a selection of vegetarian & meat appetizers. There will also be a cash bar.

As in past years, there is a small fee of $20 per person to help offset part of the cost of the event. Please pay your caucus representatives, who will pass it along to us. Please also RSVP to your caucuses.

Hope you can all make it, and we look forward to seeing you there!

Please find below the record of our conversation from Wednesday and an email sent to me by Philippa Douglas of Karis Society. I hope by connecting both her and your ministry we are all able to make a difference in the lives of women in British Columbia. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Hi Norm,

I would imagine our main issues for consideration would be a general concern around recovery for women in the province. The biggest barrier to women and specifically mothers, in seeking recovery from addiction and specifically residential recovery programs is the fear of losing their children/ who will care for their children while they focus on their healing. A woman may want help for herself, but without anyone to look after her kids she will more likely remain in her circumstances until it's either too late or ministry has got involved and the children are removed from her custody at which point she will have more of a barrier to regain custody and this also increases her level of anxiety which negatively impacts overall mental health.

There are only 2 residential recovery programs for women in BC with one in the pipeline I believe (but I do stand to be corrected). I am not talking about private centers which are not always financially viable for many women needing help.

The second issue would be funding. Karis provides recovery focused counseling which includes private/ one on one counseling; group therapies; extended help for families and women with children and we also provide amenities such as shelter; food for babies and the women and many extended opportunities such as help with budgeting, fitness, nutrition etc...

Essentially we are a non-profit organization and by providing all the benefits mentioned above we are supporting the government/ province as these women do not access these services through government channels.

If we were able to obtain funding per bed/ individual and the costs related to these women, even if it were just a percentage or specific number of women per year, that would be an incredible support for our work.

Thank you so much for reaching out.

Kind regards
Philippa

So at this point don't clear off anything for Wednesday and Thursday.

Subject: Recovery Day Video for FB

Hi Judy

Here's a draft for FB post. Once you approved the text I will then post on FB and attach the video.

I am delighted to announce that - for the first time ever - the BC Government is contributing $50,000 towards activities to mark 2018 as the Year of Recovery! The joyful Recovery Day Festival in New Westminster, a national Recovery Capital Conference and other events across BC will celebrate the remarkable achievements people have made in their own healing and bring people together to share their stories and support each other's recovery journey.

Hi Raymond,

When Ravi organized a round table at his constituency office several weeks back, you were taking notes and were going to write them up so that they could contribute to our findings in the engagement process. Can you please forward them to me as soon as possible.

Also, you were going to ensure we have the list of participants so that we can re-connect with them. This is also urgent because we will be organizing an engagement session with the South Asian community soon.
