My package does not include draft speaking notes so I haven't seen those yet. Have they been sent?

Hello Grand Chief. Happy New Year!

My apologies for not getting back to you sooner but I just got back home after a vacation.

Thank you so much for your invitation. Unfortunately, I have a prior commitment on Sunday and will not be able to make it.

Look forward to working with you in 2019!

On behalf of the Sto:lo Grand Chiefs, I am inviting you to attend a ceremony to honour and bless our Matriarchs. Please find attached the poster setting out the invitation.

You may be aware that the Sto:lo are keen to reclaim the jurisdiction for children and families. The pathway to rebuilding our Nation requires the strengthening of our families and communities and to keep our children safe and within their extended families. In my short lifetime, I witnessed the Matriarchs take decisions about keeping children safe and within the family. This is our path and we want to begin this journey with sacred ceremony.

We would be most honoured if you would join us.
