Crew was pumping the flow back to another location. This is the first time they had starting pumping. Someone then noticed a problem. Caller believes a clamp came off, but he's not sure as there's nobody at the site right now. The water went down a bank, followed a trench and went into the trees. Spill is off lease.

Response:

Worker stopped the leak when he noticed it, but unknown how long they had been pumping. No cleanup as it just went into the bush. Roy Northern Environmental will be on site in approx 2 hours to determine how far it travelled.
