Good morning Vickie,
We are happy to keep the meeting tomorrow, and provide you with an update.
Kind regards,
Evelyne

My preference is to have the meeting as I indicated with the last postponement.

As I mentioned in past meetings, developing (approving) this concept paper without us is unacceptable. We are doing our best to use avenues that are amicable to all parties however these delays and approach to developing the concept paper are very concerning to me.

Dear Vickie and Anthony,

We apologize but we will have to postpone the meeting planned for tomorrow afternoon. The objective of the meeting was to walk you through the concept paper and answer questions but unfortunately, the concept paper is still under approval on our side. Instead of rescheduling the meeting at this time and risk having to postpone it again, we propose to get back in touch with you as soon as we are able to discuss the paper to find a date and time that will work.

Apologies again and we hope to be able to get back in touch with you soon.

Best regards,

Evelyne
