Subject: RE: Invitation to The Federation of Community Social Services of BC Social Policy Forum in February 2018

Importance: High

Good morning Valerie,

Thank you for your positive response for Minister Simpson and Brenda to attend the Social Policy Forum.

Please see the information below with regards to the plan for day two (highlighted), as well, I have attached the Social Policy Forum mapping and the 4 discussion/working groups.

1. Inclusive and culturally safe workplaces
2. Attraction and retention
3. Supervision and training
4. A coordinated system of social care

The plan for the day is to have three, 90 minutes sessions; with the 4 discussions ongoing during each of those times. Currently, the timings are: 9-10:30am; 11-12:30pm; and 1:30-3pm, with a chance to share the ideas at the end of the day as a complete group.

We would welcome Minister Simpson to attend the entire day to move about between the sessions, but also understand if he can only attend a portion of the day.

"WHAT WE'VE GOT PLANNED..."

Learning, Dialogue, Action

Our government has made a promise to ensure that British Columbians have access to the services they need. And with the majority of social services in BC being provided by community-based organizations, there is a growing need to pay attention to the issues facing the community social services sector and the opportunities to strengthen the community sector.

As such, we have designed this conference to bring people together, to model collaborative approaches to problem-solving, and to facilitate learning, dialogue, and action.

Day one of the conference will focus on learning and information. Guest speakers and experts will present on topics such as leadership, compensation, policy development, and community planning before Q&A sessions and networking opportunities.

Day two will empower participants to translate that learning into action. Working sessions (hosted by graduates of The Federation's Leadership 2020 program) will use participatory, collaborative methods to engage participants in creating action plans to address the key issues identified earlier in the conference. Participants will leave with a new network of allies, new approaches to problem-solving, and practical steps to address the issues that matter to them.

The big picture

The planning and preparation for this event involves taking the first steps of what will become a 5-year framework for creating and building a stronger and more sustainable community social services sector in British Columbia.

From setting priorities and gathering info to reporting and progress updates, learn how your participation fits into the bigger picture of what we've got planned.

Working Groups

On day two of the conference, participants will break into these working groups once again. Your group may decide to focus on one particular issue or may divide into smaller subgroups focused on more detailed aspects of an issue (i.e., pensions or procurement or recruitment of new workers).

We're inviting key stakeholders and decision makers to join the working groups so this will be an excellent chance to share your ideas and help inform the changes you want to see in our province. Conference participants are encouraged to show up ready to solve problems, engage in dialogue, and stretch their thinking about what is possible for our sector."

Please let me know if there is anything else that I can assist with or clarify.

Kind Regards,

Tisha

Please Join Us March 13th for a Policy Discussion

Basic Income Guarantee and Health: BIG Promise or a BIG Problem?

On Tuesday, March 13th from 9:00 am to 11:30 am - please plan on joining the BC Alliance for Healthy Living at the downtown Vancouver Public Library for an engaging discussion on the prospects of a Basic Income Guarantee as a policy lever to reduce poverty and improve health outcomes.

The health implications of poverty place a terrible burden on people, families, communities and the healthcare system. With a new Poverty Reduction Strategy in development, now is the time to consider new approaches and learn from other places. The idea of a Basic Income Guarantee is gaining attention but still has mixed reviews and many unknowns.

The discussion will include presentations from experts who can explain the evidence in support of a Basic Income Guarantee as well as why it has faced opposition. We'll hear about Ontario's pilot projects that are currently testing Basic Income Guarantee in three Ontario communities to see the difference it makes in the lives of real people. We'll also hear about some of the challenges with the current Income Assistance system.

Panelists include:

- Dr. Kwame McKenzie, CEO of the Wellesley Institute and Special Advisor to the Ontario Basic Income Pilot
- Dr. John Millar, Member of the Minister's Advisory Forum on Poverty Reduction
- Jenna van Draanen, Board Member, Basic Income Canada Network
- Margot Young, Professor in the Allard School of Law at the University of British Columbia

Participants will be encouraged to share their own expertise on poverty reduction and insights on Basic Income Guarantee. We invite you to join in the conversation!

Hi Trish,

Sorry for the short notice. But, I was wondering if you were planning to attend the Burnaby/New West community meeting on Monday. As you know, I am away and I was hoping you could speak on behalf of the Minister's Advisory Forum in my stead.

Lorraine was hoping for a few comments about: "your role on the Minister's Advisory Forum and the importance of the work".

Thanks,

Good Afternoon,

Please find attached materials in preparation for the Richmond community meeting Thus. Jan 25.

Of note:

-As with previous meetings, please ensure to connect with the event organizers at the beginning of the community meeting to confirm any MLA attendance and Elder names which may impact the territory acknowledgement.
-Something that will likely come up is the rising property taxes in the lower mainland causing small businesses to shut down. They're also having a hard time finding labour and have been asking for changes to the temporary foreign worker program (which is federally run). I've attached the IN on that.

Thanks

Hello both;

In our recent meeting, the Minister indicated he would be interested to see a copy of the United Way's submission to the Federal Minister of Families, Children and Social Development on the Social Innovation and Social Finance Strategy consultation.

He thought he might be able to reinforce the recommendations on federal strategies to promote the uptake of social purpose business in his upcoming meeting with the Minister.

Here it is, attached. It is sent from the United Way of Canada, and thus references a number of other topics. Section 2, page 9 onwards is most relevant. Note also letters of support from the City of Vancouver and Canadian Business for Social Responsibility in the appendix.

If possible, we would love to hear back if the recommendations on social purpose business were raised and discussed, and the nature of the discussion.

Best wishes,

Coro

Hi Shane,

After much to-ing and fro-ing (and consulting with Dawn), Jayne and I have figured two options for Prince George. Dawn believes very strongly that you or Mable should attend that community meeting, so here are our two choices:

- 1) Keep the Feb 7th date, and send Mable – but knowing that she would then miss her engagement at the Kelowna labour council, and other commitments in Kelowna at that time; or
- 2) Move the meeting to Saturday, Feb 17th, which you would be free to attend.

We are inclined to move the date, and Dawn was okay with that even though it's been advertised already, if it means one of you will be there (preferably you).

Wanted your input before we call Molly and ask SPARC to change the date.

Thanks

Leah

Sheila suggests that the agendas are going to be full enough that keeping the Weds every two weeks is probably a good idea. Please let me know.

Hi,

Recommend the Minister call this reporter today. If he isn't available, we can pull together a statement and some more detailed background info.

Date/Time: January 8

Deadline @ End of Day Today

Media: PG Citizen

Reporter: Stu Net, 778-836-9480

Topic: Poverty Reduction

Request: Would like to speak to the Minister about the poverty reduction engagement sessions. The BC poverty reduction coalition is meeting in PG today and would also like to understand their role in the advisory forum.

Suggested Response:

- We established an Advisory Forum composed of people who have experience with poverty issues through their work or lived experience. This is a different group than the Poverty Reduction Coalition, though some of the Coalition organizations are represented on the Forum.
- As we develop the Poverty Reduction Strategy I will meet with the Forum members to discuss ideas and get their perspectives on what we are hearing through the consultation process.
- It's important that the strategy incorporates the diverse voices and ideas from everyone in our province.
- To help us with that we will be meeting with Indigenous Groups, local governments, business leaders and the disability community. I want to hear about their experiences and how we can make life better for people in our province. I also meet regularly with a panel of experts and academics.
- There are a number of ways the public can get involved and help shape the Poverty Reduction Strategy.
- There is a public meeting in Prince George on February 7, it's one of 20 community meetings that will take place between now and the end of March.
- I hope that many people will attend and share their ideas on how to reduce poverty in Prince George and the Province.
- If people can't attend they can share their thoughts online at engage.gov.bc.ca

Subject: Social Enterprise Strategy for BC

Dear Honourable Shane Simpson,

It is exciting to see movement and intention for an inclusive economy that benefits all British Columbians, and the leadership that the Minister of Social Development and Poverty Reduction is taking to make this happen. We believe that social enterprise and social impact ventures provide a key solution in enabling an innovative and inclusive economy. I have attached a letter which shares our ideas about how social enterprise and social impact ventures can support Ministry priorities.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Marika Albert

Here's the email they sent originally. It's just with us, though it went to the generic inbox so maybe Sheila has also seen it. I can pass it along to her though.

Was that what you meant by checking the status?

FYI. I believe we're still working on finding a date to meet with these folks and the Business Council together.
