Hello Valerie, I apologize for the delay in responding to your email. We at MNBC have hired a new CEO who will begin work in her position on February 19th, 2019. As she will be handling our Provincial files we would like to postpone a meeting with Minister Simpson until she is settled in her position. Minister Simpson likely knows Vera Leblanc from her work with the City of Surrey and other initiatives. I have pasted a short bio below for the Ministers information. Lissa

The appointment of Vera LeFranc is a reflection of the desire of Metis Nation BC to continue implementing our plan, working together with our Chartered Communities and Métis people on our mission of building a proud, self-governing, sustainable Métis Nation that helps to make a difference in the lives of Métis people in British Columbia.

Vera LeFranc s.22 grew up on Haida Gwaii and lived in the Okanagan before ultimately moving to the Lower Mainland. With connections to northern and interior British Columbia, Vera brings a unique combination of skills and experience to her new role as the CEO of Metis Nation BC.

With a degree in Business and Liberal Studies from Simon Fraser University, Vera brings a solid mix of business sense and a passion for social justice and reconciliation to her work.

From 2014 to 2018 Vera was an elected City Councilor with the City of Surrey. She spent the majority of her career working in the non-profit sector, focusing on anti-violence, employment, poverty reduction, crime prevention, housing and homelessness, and community economic development.

Vera led the Surrey Urban Aboriginal Leadership Committee in the completion of a population profile and a social innovation strategy to ensure the full economic, social and cultural participation of the Indigenous people who call the City of Surrey home.

For the past decade, Vera has worked with Vancity Community Foundation and the Surrey Homelessness & Housing Society to distribute almost over $5 million in funding to organizations working with Surrey's most vulnerable. As well, Vera has led the team that administers over $10 Million in Homelessness Partnership Funding annually to organizations working across the region to reduce homelessness

Good Morning and Merry Christmas to you all. I am hoping this message can be passed on to Minister Simpson.

Last week in Ottawa the Metis National Council of which MNBC is a member held sessions on homelessness, housing and poverty reduction. As we move forward on our Self Governance with Canada we anticipate that the Province of BC will be invited to the table on many issues including the above listed. As we near the holidays it is my intent to set up a meeting with Minister Simpson in the new year and some of our key staff to begin further discussion. It is very important for MNBC to be included in the poverty reduction strategy moving forward so we may look after the nearly 90,000 self-identified Metis people in BC.

Hello Adriana.

Attached is a copy of the verdict from the Coroner's Inquest into the death of Deanna Renee Desjarlais. The jury made recommendations that Minister Simpson must respond to.

I have drafted a response. Please review it and let me know of any changes you recommend. I will then forward the response to Molly Harrington for her review, prior to it going to the Deputy for sign-off.

Molly is hoping to have the Deputy approve the response on December 19th, so if possible, please send me Correspondence's feedback by the 17th.

Thank you for your help. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Hello Shane,

I don't know if you remember me, however I took a photo with you at the start of my Work-Able internship. I have created a blog called Full Access which started this month see links bellow:

<https://gwww.gov.bc.ca/groups/accessibility-bc-public-service/blogs/2018/1203/living-disability>

<https://kmops.gov.bc.ca/MinistryNews/Lists/Posts/Post.aspx?ID=161>

The blog will be a monthly entry focusing on different people within government who have a disability. It provides the chance for them to talk about their story and barriers they may face. I find continuous discussion will help people's understanding. So far seven people have reach out to me, willing to discuss their story. Some of the people don't want their name attached so I will edit that part of the story out.

I was thinking we could get together over coffee maybe in April and I can show you some of the stories and comments that stood out. It would provide a great opportunity to discuss my experience thus far with Work-Able as well. Let me know what date and time would work for you to meet again. Thank you for your time and have a great holiday and new year.

P.S the next posting for the blog will be on January 15th .

Subject: Jumpstart: Accessible Playgrounds

Hi folks,

I just had a chat with some folks from Jumpstart (Canadian Tire affiliate charity) to chat about their accessible playgrounds program. They are looking for funding support for a large accessible playground in Vancouver.

<https://jumpstart.canadiantire.ca/content/microsites/jumpstart/en/inclusive-playground-project.html>

I pointed them in the direction of the Community, Culture, and Recreation Infrastructure Program (Application deadline: Jan 23) but I wanted to put the project on your radar as well.

Let me know if you have questions.

I anticipate sending out the materials on Tuesday, January 15, if it is possible to obtain approval for the agenda from your office by end of day Monday, January 14.
