Quote approval for tomorrow.

"Comprehensive and patient-centred care is a much-needed service that connects patients with a network of health-care professionals, making sure their primary-care needs are met," said Shane Simpson, MLA for Vancouver-Hastings. "The REACH Urgent and Primary Care Centre is an exciting step forward for the community of East Vancouver and will make a big difference in the lives of residents, including my family."

Shane,

My name is Mandi Sellers and am the CEO of ICLD (Indigenous Community of Leadership & Development). Shuel-let-qua Jim aka Cynthia Jim (my business partner) and I would greatly appreciate a meeting to discuss Indigenous grief & trauma. We work with only Indigenous communities and see the grief & trauma first hand. We are searching to find solutions to support the peoples we work with and are hoping you could provide some guidance.

We would greatly appreciate your time and will work to accommodate your time and availability.

Subject: MSS available this Saturday?

Good morning Jeff,

Just wanted to check in with you regarding Minister Simpson's interest and availability for an event we have this coming Saturday, February 29. Minister Dix would like for MSS to join and say a few words. It's the grand opening of the REACH UPCC in Vancouver's Grandview-Woodland neighbourhood. MSS was there with the Premier, MAD, and MMM to announce it last year.

Can you advise if this is something MSS would like to do? The opening will take place for one hour between 12pm-2pm. And of course, we will have SNs prepared for your Minister if he wishes to join.

With thanks,
Thuy

DABC is getting funding to be a legal clinic. MDE might be doing an event on the 28th or later in March.
