More info:

Sorry, but need to clarify the time – its actually 5:10 BC time!

And fyi, if you're watching – it's a 'combined' race so she'll be racing against time, not the other competitors – she needs 20 seconds or under....

In case you or your Ministers would like to know (and tweet!), Minister Stilwell will be racing this evening at 6:10 in the 100m qualifying.

You can livestream it at: <http://athletics.ca/championnat/olympic-paralympic-trials/#sthash.WSLonYXh.dpbs>

Or you can download the CBC sports app and watch from there.

Please find attached the topics we will discuss. They are by no means set in stone, so if the Minister wants to add anything that we may have missed that maybe relevant to this report and our target audience by all means let me know, and of course if there is anything he doesn't wish to speak about I completely respect that as well.

Kind regards

Gavin,
OK, so I have spoken with the MA and it looks like Tuesday is the day it will happen, however the time cannot be verified yet as he has a meeting with another minister that will likely upend his entire day, so the time will be sorted and I will let you know as soon as I can. Minister Coleman will be in his constituency office in Langley, so that's where the interview will take place. The address is:
Please confirm with me is this will work for you and I will pass along the time and address once we confirm.

Thank you for your email. We have actually never done any phone interviews that's why we travel to British Columbia to meet in person with the different Ministers and business personalities, this gives us time to show the Minister the newspaper and examples of the reports we have done around the world as part of the interview. Could you please see if the Minister could meet me for 30 minutes either here in Vancouver or in Victoria.

Ministry of Natural Gas Development and Deputy Premier Honorable Rich Coleman

Vancouver, 27th June 2016 Dear Minister/Deputy Premier, I am writing to request a meeting with regards to an in depth report on British Columbia that will be published in China's leading English language newspaper, China Daily and in Chinese on the China daily website news portal www.chinadaily.com.cn<<http://www.chinadaily.com.cn>>.

The objectives of the report are to examine British Columbia's expanding and evolving engagement with China. Chinese firms and institutions have dramatically expanded investment across various sectors and the potential for more two way investment is significant. We would like talk about the significant opportunities for investment in Canadian natural gas and LNG and how British Columbia is positioning itself and developing its resources to serve the global marketplace.

China Daily, one of only 9 official news outlets in China, is firmly established as the leading English language news organization in China reaching 1.9 million readers daily. The readership comprises China's political elite and business executives. China Daily has brought together in excess of 500 respected and professional journalists from China and around the world to enable in depth and up to the minute reporting from across the globe in print and online. China Daily is printed from 24 locations around the world and is available on newsstands in 190 countries, including Canada. I remain at your disposal to answer any questions you may have. I am most easily reached on s.22 or of course, via email.

Yours faithfully,

Gavin Hooper

Subject: Rich's questions

Hi Jennifer,

Thank you for the meeting Friday it was great.

In response to Rich's questions regarding who has previously funded the Collaborative (with it's $10 million/year budget), it has always been funded solely by the Shared Care Committee at Doctors of BC. This last year of the Collaborative (2016/2017), it was jointly funded by Shared Care, the Specialist Services Committee, and by the Joint Clinical Committee at Doctors of BC.

The Collaborative is set to end March 2017, which we all know is awkward timing, and with an additional 1 year of funding, we would hopefully be able to complete the Local Agreements, where we identify Pathways to Care locally, regionally, and provincially, and have signatories sign off in each community that these are in fact the Pathways to Care for child and youth mental health and addictions. This would be an amazing feat for BC! And unprecedented in Canada!

We will be able to get $5 million again from Doctors of BC, but we do need an additional $5 million to continue the Collaborative past 2017.

Rich had asked about a formal proposal, so we are currently working on preparing one we can send in to you within a day or so.

Subject: Help needed!

Hi Keivan,

I am being unjustly renovicted and I need your help.

You spoke with my friend s.22 today regarding this matter ...and I sent you an email a few days ago detailing to you my concerns. Long story short, I am being renovicted from my apartment as a way for the landlords to skirt by our rental increase laws. They are planning renovations that do not require vacant possession, and have served me with a two month renovation notice that requires me to leave my home at the end of August.

I filed for a dispute resolution hearing that will occur on August 3rd at 9am over a conference call. I handed the landlord the papers and informed him of the date and time the day after I filed.

I would love to bring this matter to Minister Coleman and would greatly appreciate it if he could be an advocate for me in this matter. What is happening to me is wrong and I know it is affecting hundreds if not thousands of people in Vancouver right now. This renovation law needs to be brought to government and it needs to be changed. It is being used by foreign investors to remove Vancouver residents from their homes in order to skirt the legal 2.9% increase and charge much more rent. In my case...I was offered a suite that isn't nearly as nice as mine, with no added amenities at a nearly 40% rental increase. This is absurd and it needs to be stopped.

My number is s.22 .. I would greatly appreciate a phone call and any help you can provide in this matter.

Thank you so much!

Sincerely,

ps

I attached my letter that I wrote to them below for your review of my history with this issue and the building. Thank you again!

Subject: Maintenance request

To the management of s.22

My name is s.22 and I live in unit s.22. I am writing to book repairs for my suite that are long overdue and have become a health hazard.

When I first moved in in 2013, I noticed wood rot in my cabinet below the sink. It was odorous and there was visible moist wood. I noticed a similar issue in the cabinet right beside it, only in this case the wood surface was actually bowed and slightly collapsed from the damage. I wrote a maintenance request form describing the problem, that is in the buildings possession, and after having management look at it nothing was done. Months later there was water leakage below my sink that created a puddle. I wrote out a request form, and the leakage was mended...but the overall issue of wood rot was still not addressed. At this time I also asked about the wall in my kitchen that has a visible repair and raised bump in it, and was told this was due to a water damage issue that occurred years earlier.

A few weeks ago I looked under my kitchen sink and noticed the wood rot had gotten much worse. I removed everything and saw that a small piece of the sink had fallen out of the wood, leaving moist wood fragments scattered around. I looked up and realized the wood rot was not just on the cabinet floor, but in the entire sink unit...not only this, but the cabinet floor had also collapsed and bowed like it did in the other cabinet described. This is no longer just a maintenance concern, but a health one. The probability of mold and the possible collapse of the unit is of serious concern to me.

When I had my walk through of the apartment in 2013, they were doing renovations in the kitchen and I'm assuming they didn't take in the severity of the wood rot problem. This has been an ongoing issue from the moment I moved in, and one that should have been addressed before I did...as the building has been aware of it for the over 3 years I've been here.

The sink and cabinet unit need to be completely replaced, and the cabinet beside it needs to at minimum, have the bottom shelf replaced. I would like to have a date for the repairs set within the next two weeks as I'll need to find somewhere to stay during that time.

This building has always been wonderful to me when it comes to repairs and I am truly grateful for that. I look forward to your response and resolution of this problem. I have been so happy here at the s.22 and have been very proud to call this my home.

Thank you!

Sincerely,

VANCOUVER HOMELESS CAMP

Topic: A homeless camp of about 50 people has been set up on a city-owned vacant lot at 58 West Hastings St. in Vancouver since July 9th.

- We are monitoring the situation closely and addressing the shelter needs of any homeless campers.
- Our outreach teams are attending the camp on a regular basis and offering shelter options to campers who are in genuine need of housing.

DTES Investments:

- Close to $70 million was invested in the Downtown Eastside last year to support almost 4,000 housing units for the homeless. This includes:
 - 540 permanent year-round homeless shelter spaces;
 - Over 3,000 subsidized or supportive units; and
 - 360 rent supplements to help people access rental housing in the private market.

July 13, 2016

Background:

About 50 people have been camped out on the vacant lot in the downtown east side in Vancouver since Saturday, July 9th.

There are about 47 tents set up featuring three specific populations: protestors, a group of people moving in from a private-sector SROs (this was an issue at the Oppenheimer Camp) and people in genuine housing need.

The campers are demanding that the City transform the site into social housing and that the City also provides porta-potties as well as wash stations. Their demands were not met by the Mayor on July 12th when the Mayor met with the campers.

Outreach teams are focusing on most vulnerable at site and those in need of housing.

HOUSING MATTERS BC

Housing Investments in Vancouver

In 2014/15, the B.C. government provided over $148 million to support affordable housing for more than 27,000 low-income individuals, seniors and families in Vancouver.

New Affordable Housing

- Since 2001, close to 7,600 units of affordable housing have been developed or preserved in Vancouver.
- More than 760 units are in development or under construction.

Homeless Supports Overview

Last year, over $125 million was provided to support more than 6,400 housing units for the homeless or those at risk of homelessness across Vancouver, including:

- 740 permanent year-round homeless shelter spaces, close to 630 of which are provided through the Emergency Shelter Program (more than 130 of these are for women only).
- Close to 5,000 subsidized or supportive units for homeless or at risk individuals.
- And approximately 730 homeless rent supplements.

Additional temporary shelter spaces were also available in Vancouver, including:

- 200 temporary HEAT shelter beds that continue to receive provincial funding until more supportive housing is built.
- Additional shelter spaces are available during extreme weather in several communities.

Homeless outreach and shelter workers across Vancouver connected people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness to housing, income assistance and a range of support services.

The B.C. government is investing close to $300 million in a partnership with the City of Vancouver to build more than 1,500 new supportive housing units for those who are homeless or at risk of homelessness. Most of the developments are now open (see sidebar).

New Affordable Housing Highlights

Since 2006

- Former Remand Centre (2015) – Affordable housing for low-income adults and at-risk Aboriginal youth.

- The Empress (2013) – Interim housing for women who are homeless or at risk in the DTES.
- Dave Pranteau Aboriginal Children's Village (2013) – Affordable housing for Aboriginal foster families, youth transitioning out of foster care and low-income families.
- Imouto House (2013) – Modified container housing for women who are homeless or at risk in the DTES.
- St. John Hospice (2013) – For individuals in need of end-of-life care.
- Linden Tree Place (2013) – Assisted living for seniors and persons with disabilities.
- Skwachàys Healing Lodge (2012) – Affordable housing apartments for those who are homeless or at risk of homelessness and healing lodge apartments for Aboriginal individuals and their immediate family who need to travel to Vancouver from rural and remote communities.
- Aboriginal Mother Centre (2011) – Affordable housing for Aboriginal mothers and children at risk of homelessness.
- Hasting House (2011) – Shelter and housing for men and women who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.
- Covenant House (2010) – Transitional housing beds with support services for homeless and at-risk youth.
- Woodwards (2010) – Affordable rental units for low-income singles, families and persons with disabilities.
- Kindred Place (2009) – Supportive housing units for people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness and those recovering from alcohol and drug dependencies.

Single Room Occupancy (SRO) hotels

- The B.C. government acquired 24 SRO hotels in Vancouver, 20 of which are in the Downtown Eastside (DTES) and surrounding vicinity – protecting approximately 1,400 affordable housing units in Vancouver.
- The Province is investing $143.3 million into the SRO Renewal Initiative to renovate 13 SROs under a public-private partnership. This includes $29.1 million from the Government of Canada through the P3 Canada Fund. Lifecycle and facilities maintenance services will also be provided for these 13 SRO's for 15 years.

Since 2001, the B.C. government has developed or preserved more than 4,000 units for those who are homeless or at risk of homelessness in Vancouver.

Support for People with Disabilities and Seniors

The B.C. government provides support to more than 12,000 seniors' households in Vancouver through a range of housing options, including:

- More than 2,900 households receive Shelter Aid for Elderly Renters (SAFER) benefits. The program was expanded in 2006 and enhanced in 2014 to better meet the needs of low-income seniors. With the new enhanced benefit, the average monthly payment is expected to increase from approximately $150 to $180.
- More than 2,600 seniors live in supportive and assisted living units in Vancouver.
- There are more than 6,400 affordable homes for independent seniors in Vancouver.
- The Home Adaptations for Independence program offers financial assistance for home adaptations to help eligible low-income seniors and people with disabilities improve accessibility and safety in their home.

More than 2,600 new units of housing for seniors and people with special needs have been created in Vancouver since 2001.

Families

The B.C. government provides support to more than 6,500 low-income families in Vancouver through:

- More than 1,300 low-income working families receive rent assistance to keep the cost of private market rental housing affordable (the majority receive monthly benefits from the Rental Assistance Program).
- Over 5,200 low-income families live in subsidized housing.
- There are 75 provincially funded spaces available for women and women with children who are at risk of violence.
- There are more than 1,200 units of designated Aboriginal housing in Vancouver.

Approximately 800 units for families have been created in Vancouver since 2001.

New Homeless Supportive Housing Since 2006

- Kettle on Burrard (2014) – 141 units of supportive housing for individuals who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.
- Marguerite Ford (2013) – 147 supportive apartments for people who are homeless or at risk.
- 1249 Howe Street (2013) – 110 supportive housing units for homeless or at risk individuals.
- Sanford Apartments (2012) – 62 supportive housing units for people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.
- Pacific Coast Apartments (2012) – 96 supportive housing units for people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.
- Coast Dunbar Apartments (2012) – 51 supportive housing development for adults living with mental health challenges who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.
- First Place (2012) – 129 supportive housing for people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.
- Karis Place (2012) – 90 supportive housing for people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness, and for seniors or people with disabilities.
- 1005 Station Street (2012) – 80 supportive housing units for people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.
- Sorella (2012) – 108 supportive housing for women who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.
