Hi Amanda thanks for the email.

That's great that Chief Karen Ogen will be able to take part on the mission.

I've passed your note along to some of my colleagues who will reach out to you on the itinerary side of things, and I'm happy to chat about the Comms.

I'm leaving to China in advance of the rest of the delegates tomorrow but could chat with you later today if that would be helpful.

Hi Sam,

I hope you're well.

I'm writing on behalf of Chief Karen Ogen of the Wet'suwet'en First Nation as I work closely with the Chief in a strategic communications capacity.

The Chief was invited, and has been approved, to join the Trade Mission leaving this Friday to China. Since the confirmation of her participation is coming in quite late in the planning process, we want to make sure that opportunities still exist for her involvement, and if there is a plan that would be useful for the Chief to be aware of.

We were hoping to connect with someone from the Premier's office in the next few days who will be organizing the trip, to ensure the Chief is able to be apart of key meetings and to discuss strategic opportunities in regards to LNG.

We may be doing some PR around this opportunity and it would also be quite advantageous to ensure our messaging lines up. I'd be very interested in speaking to the comms lead on this, if possible.

As you no doubt can appreciate, time is of the essence and we truly appreciate your attention on this request - even if it's simply connecting me with the right person to speak with.

Kind regards,
Amanda Munro

Premier's Statement on whale watching tragedy

VICTORIA – Premier Christy Clark issued the following statement on the tragic capsizing of the Leviathan II, a whale watching tour boat near Tofino:

"Yesterday, a whale watching vessel carrying 27 passengers and 3 crew members capsized near Tofino. Canada Coast Guard, the RCMP, and WestCoast Inland Search and Rescue responded quickly – but tragically, five lives were lost. Another individual is still missing.

"My thoughts and my prayers and those of all British Columbians go out to the families and the loved ones of those that were lost or injured.

"Emergency Management BC has been in close contact with the Canadian Coast Guard, the Joint Rescue Coordination Centre and Tofino's Emergency Operations Centre, as they ensure all available resources are available for ongoing search and rescue operations, and for the victims.

"I understand there was tremendous cooperation amongst all the communities, agencies, emergency personnel and the Ahousaht First Nation, who worked together to respond.

"My thanks to all those involved in the rescue and the response and for their efforts during this tragic incident."

Subject: Chief Karen Ogen meeting request re: China Trade Mission

Hi Sam,

I hope you're well.

I'm writing on behalf of Chief Karen Ogen of the Wet'suwet'en First Nation as I work closely with the Chief in a strategic communications capacity.

The Chief was invited, and has been approved, to join the Trade Mission leaving this Friday to China. Since the confirmation of her participation is coming in quite late in the planning process, we want to make sure that opportunities still exist for her involvement, and if there is a plan that would be useful for the Chief to be aware of.

We were hoping to connect with someone from the Premier's office in the next few days who will be organizing the trip, to ensure the Chief is able to be apart of key meetings and to discuss strategic opportunities in regards to LNG.

We may be doing some PR around this opportunity and it would also be quite advantageous to ensure our messaging lines up. I'd be very interested in speaking to the comms lead on this, if possible.

As you no doubt can appreciate, time is of the essence and we truly appreciate your attention on this request - even if it's simply connecting me with the right person to speak with.

Kind regards,
Amanda Munro

Hi:

I'm wondering who will be responding to questions raised by the NDP in the house about the absence of any records sent or received by Deputy Minister John Dyble or exchanged between him and the deputy health minister over two years, dealing with the health firings case. How is that possible? My deadline is 4:30 p.m.

B.C. and Guangdong, China collaborate on climate change

GUANGZHOU, CHINA – The B.C. Government is opening doors in China for B.C.'s clean technology companies with the signing of two significant climate change and clean energy-related agreements.

Now on her third trade mission to China, Premier Clark and Guangdong Governor Zhu Xiaodan have signed a significant memorandum of understanding (MOU) that identifies climate change and low carbon development as areas of future cooperation.

The MOU aims to expand and strengthen cooperation between B.C. and Guangdong on climate change and low carbon development, specifically in the areas of:

- Advancing trade and investment in low carbon technologies
- Expanding use of clean, renewable energy resources
- Enabling low carbon, sustainable transportation technology and fuels
- Constructing energy efficient, low carbon buildings
- Promoting low carbon waste handling
- Advancing research, development and deployment of promising new low carbon technologies
- Developing market-based mechanisms, such as carbon pricing and trading systems

"B.C. is recognized as a world leader in addressing climate change," said Premier Clark. "There are many areas where B.C. and Guangdong companies can collaborate – from fuel cell technology to natural gas and other related products, this MOU will expand B.C.'s strong ties with Guangdong by creating new markets and opportunities for trade and information-sharing between our two provinces."

In Shenzhen, Minister of International Trade Minister Wat met with Shenzhen Party Secretary Ma Xingrui to sign two MOUs – one on low-carbon development and clean technology cooperation; the other on trade and investment cooperation.

Specifically, the MOU on low-carbon development and clean technology will open up a collaborative framework for discussion, information exchange and activities that expand and strengthen cooperation in the areas of low carbon development and clean technology.

The MOU on trade and investment cooperation will help to expand and strengthen cooperation in trade promotion and two-way investment between B.C. and Shenzhen, in areas such as clean technology, information and communications technology (ICT), digital media and natural resources.

Building on these developments for B.C.'s clean technology sector, Premier Christy Clark and Environment Minister Mary Polak will travel to Paris, France to attend the United Nations COP 21 Climate Change Conference. This global platform will provide Premier Clark and Minister Polak the opportunity to engage with nations from around the world on important climate issues and profile B.C.'s climate leadership actions, including the creation of the Province's new Climate Leadership Plan.

Trade missions are a critical part of British Columbia's BC Jobs plan strategy to diversify international trading partners and secure new investment, and help propel economic activity and job creation throughout the province.

Quick Facts:

- B.C.'s clean technology industry consists of more than 200 companies employing approximately 6,400 people and generates $1.7 billion in revenue.
- The global market for clean technology and services is expected to grow to $3 trillion by 2020.
- B.C. was the first jurisdiction in North America to introduce a broad-based, revenue-neutral carbon tax and to have a carbon-neutral public sector.
- British Columbia has expanded its trade and investment network in China and Hong Kong, with trade and investment representatives located in Beijing, Shanghai, Guangzhou and Hong Kong.

For the first time, the Royal BC Museum opens an exhibition in a Chinese Metro station

VICTORIA, BC - In a first for a Canadian museum, the Royal BC Museum has opened a travelling photography exhibition, Guangzhou to British Columbia: The Chinese Canadian Experience, 1858 to 1958, at a major metro station in Guangzhou, China.

The exhibition, inside Yuexiu Park station, depicts how the gold rush in BC's Fraser Canyon sparked a long and enduring relationship between Guangzhou and BC, a relationship that encompassed the challenges of migration, the heartbreak and successes of settlement and the overcoming of discrimination by the Chinese in BC.

The exhibition runs from October 28 to November 28, 2015.

"The early Chinese Canadian pioneers depicted in this photo exhibition all have a story to tell and these photos bring their stories to life," said Premier Christy Clark. "This year, we are celebrating 20 years of sister province relations with Guangdong Province, and this photo exhibition is an important part of cultural exchange between our two provinces."

"These compelling images speak to the false hope and struggle of early migration to Canada from Guangzhou," said Prof Jack Lohman, CEO of the Royal BC Museum. "'Gold Mountain' was less lucrative than anyone could have imagined, but a number of these stories do end well with success in future generations outshining all other migrant narratives. The Royal BC Museum's photographic collections are important witnesses to the herding and discrimination of early settlers from China."

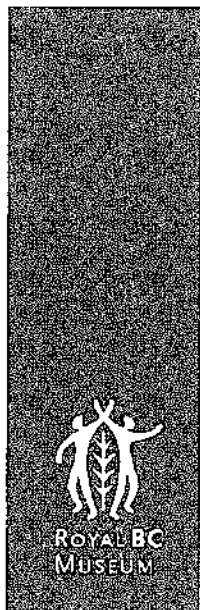

The photographs describe a lengthy narrative that began in 1858, an important year for Guangzhou. That year, with the city occupied by the French and the British, word of a gold rush in Canada convinced many migrants to journey to British Columbia.

The rise of photography coincided with this emigration, and the results, over a century, are depicted in the exhibition images: awe-inspiring images of both Guangzhou and British Columbia, of people, landscapes, cityscapes and work environments.

Yuexiu Park is one of the Guangzhou Metro Corp.'s central stations, with more than one million people travelling its corridors every month.

The metro exhibition sets the stage for a much larger exhibition, Gold Mountain Dream! Bravely Venture into the Fraser River Valley, from November 5 to December 20, 2015, at the Guangdong Museum of Chinese Nationals Residing Abroad. Gold Mountain Dream! is a travelling version of the popular Gold Rush! feature exhibition, closing November 1, 2015, at the Royal BC Museum.

Don Bourdon, Royal British Columbia Museum Curator of Images and Paintings, curated the Guangzhou to British Columbia exhibition.

The exhibition was created in partnership with the Guangzhou Metro Corporation, and with the support of the Government of British Columbia, the Francis Kermode Group and the Royal British Columbia Museum Foundation.

About the Royal BC Museum

The Royal BC Museum explores the province's human history and natural history, advances new knowledge and understanding of BC, and provides a dynamic forum for discussion and a place for reflection. The museum and archives celebrate culture and history, telling the stories of BC in ways that enlighten, stimulate and inspire. Looking to the future, the Royal BC Museum will be a refreshed, modern museum, extending its reach far beyond Victoria as a world-class cultural venue and repository of digital treasures.

Royal British Columbia Museum opens major new exhibition in China

GUANGZHOU, China - Premier Christy Clark and Prof Jack Lohman, CEO of the Royal British Columbia Museum, today opened a major new exhibition in China exploring the first Chinese migration to Canada.

Gold Mountain Dream! - created by the Royal British Columbia Museum in collaboration with the Canadian Museum of History - tells the personal stories and sacrifices of Chinese migrants in the 1850s as they landed on British Columbia shores in search of gold. It is a fascinating account of adventure, heartbreak and social upheaval.

"This important historical exhibition reflects the deep cultural ties between British Columbia and the people of Guangzhou," said Premier Christy Clark. "People from this great region made extreme sacrifices to help build our province. Those cultural and economic ties continue to endure."

Gold Mountain Dream! Bravely Venture into the Fraser River Valley will be displayed at the Guangdong Museum of Chinese Nationals Residing Abroad in Guangzhou, China, as part of a series of cultural exchange activities to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the twinning relationship between BC and Guangdong Province. The exhibition is from November 5, 2015 to [insert close date].

"The Royal BC Museum is deeply honoured to bring this important exhibition to Guangdong Province," said Lohman. "It brings to life our shared history to a new generation and is a fitting tribute to the courage and tenacity of our ancestors."

Lohman said the exhibit depicts what life was like for new Chinese migrants as they landed in the booming city of Victoria then travelled up the Fraser River to the gold fields. The exhibit documents these pioneers and their stories of determination, grit and perseverance as they helped shape a province and build a nation.

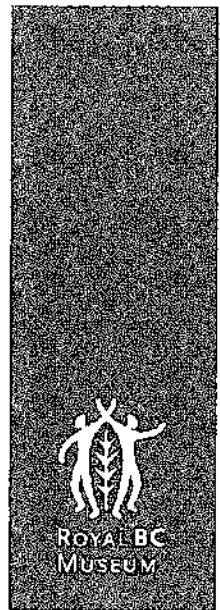

Through archival photographs and detailed storytelling, Gold Mountain Dream! tells the story of how everything changed during this fevered era, as class and racial barriers were broken down and people seized the extraordinary opportunities that glittered before them.

Gold Mountain Dream! is made possible through the generous support of the Government of British Columbia, the Francis Kermode Group, Tourism Victoria and the Royal BC Museum Foundation. The B.C. government contributed $200,000 to this exciting project with $100,000 of the funding coming from the Chinese Historical Wrongs Legacy Initiative.

About the Royal British Columbia Museum

Major Chinese arts and culture company commits to Vancouver office

BEIJING, CHINA – Poly Culture Group, China's largest art and cultural company, has signed a memorandum of understanding (MOU) to establish its North American head office in Vancouver, signalling that HQ Vancouver is well on its way to meet or exceed its target of attracting two international head offices to B.C. by 2017.

Premier Christy Clark witnessed the signing between HQ Vancouver and Poly Culture in Beijing while on her third trade mission to China joined by Minister of International Trade Teresa Wat.

Under this MOU, Poly Culture intends to use Vancouver as its headquarters for expanding at least three lines of business in the North American market, including performance and theatre management, art business and auction and cinema investment, creating opportunities for two-way cultural exchange between B.C. and China

"Not only will Poly Culture's expansion into North America create jobs for British Columbians, it will bring added richness to our province's multicultural arts scene," said Premier Clark. "The fact that Poly Culture Group has chosen Vancouver shows confidence that our province, which has the second largest Chinese Canadian community in Canada, is perfectly situated as a strategic base to promote Chinese cultural industry in North America."

Wat met with Poly Culture on her last trade mission to China in March 2015 to begin the conversation on establishing a presence in Vancouver. HQ Vancouver will now work closely with Poly Culture in its transition into the North American market and is supporting its efforts by recommending programs and opportunities in B.C. and helping Poly Culture reach out to local partners in cultural and other related industries.

"As North America's Asia Pacific Gateway, Vancouver is the ideal location for Asian companies looking to establish their regional head offices," said Yuen Pau Woo, president, HQ Vancouver. "PolyCulture's arrival will benefit BC cultural industries by opening opportunities on both sides of the Pacific."

Also in Beijing, Premier Clark, Wat and representatives from HQ Vancouver met with Beijing Performance and Arts Group (BPAG) to build on the Letter of Intent it signed with HQ Vancouver in September 2015 to establish a North American performance base in Vancouver. This meeting provided an opportunity to encourage the company to explore future opportunities in British Columbia and reinforce its confidence in Vancouver and partnership with HQ Vancouver.

BPA consists of 15 performance groups and has produced and hosted large performances including events at Tiananmen Square, 'China's Three Tenors' concerts, and operas at the Bird's Nest (National Stadium) featuring tenor Andrea Bocelli.

"I fully and sincerely commend both HQ Vancouver and staff in the B.C. Ministry of International Trade for their excellent work in identifying and following through on potential candidates for head offices in Vancouver," said Wat. "We are already seeing great results, and this is a perfect example of the team work required for this project – from my work to promote Vancouver in meetings with business representatives in Asia, to the great work of the Ministry and support from HQ Vancouver."

HQ Vancouver is a public-private partnership that works to support a B.C. government commitment to attract major Asian and international firms to invest in British Columbia and locate their North American presence in our province.

In May 2015, HQ Vancouver attracted its first international head office to B.C. when China Fibre Optic announced that its subsidiary, F-Pacific Optical Communications, would establish its head office location in Vancouver.

Head offices generate a number of direct economic benefits, including the creation of local, well-paying jobs, increased contribution to the tax base, and growth of indirect businesses services.

Trade missions are a critical part of British Columbia's BC Jobs plan strategy to diversify international trading partners and secure new investment, and help propel economic activity and job creation throughout the province.

Quick Facts:

- Poly Culture Group is a subsidiary of China Poly Group Corporation, a state-owned corporation, which has operations in military and civilian trade and business, investment and exploration of mineral resources, civilian explosive materials and blasting, real estate development and culture and arts businesses.
- HQ Vancouver is a collaborative project between the Province of British Columbia, the federal government through Western Economic Diversification (WD) and the Business Council of British Columbia (BCBC).
- HQ Vancouver has three key goals:
 - Attract five international head offices to B.C. by 2020 – two by 2017 and commitments from another three by 2018.
 - Attract investment totalling $100 million.
 - Create 500 new jobs in the province.

Trade mission to China focuses on clean energy and cultural ties

VANCOUVER – Supplying China’s growing demand for clean energy technology and celebrating B.C.’s strong cultural ties with China will be the major highlights of Premier Christy Clark’s third trade mission to China, which she embarks on today.

Premier Clark, along with International Trade Minister Teresa Wat are leading a delegation of approximately 200 business and community members, making this one of the largest trade mission delegations in B.C. history. Participation has been driven by the growing opportunities in China and the celebration of the 20th anniversary of sister-province relations between B.C. and Guangdong.

As China becomes more urbanized, it is reducing its dependence on coal and is moving towards alternative energy sources. Premier Clark will be promoting B.C.’s expertise in natural gas and climate change and clean energy solutions in various meetings with companies and organizations like the National Energy Administration and China Sinopec and in government-to-government meetings with representatives from Guangdong and Shenzhen.

“This trade mission is about acknowledging our strong historical and cultural ties with China, while looking to what the future holds as China shifts to a low carbon economy,” said Premier Clark. “We have the knowledge, expertise and resources to help China transition towards cleaner energy solutions. This trade mission is a great way to show Chinese business and government representatives what we can offer, stimulating clean technology and energy export opportunities for B.C. businesses.”

B.C. clean tech companies such as Ballard Power Systems, which is a member of the trade mission’s business delegation, have begun making significant inroads in China. Ballard has recently announced two deals to provide 10 fuel cell engines and enough fuel cells to support approximately 300 buses for the City of Foshan’s urban transit system. Foshan Vice-Mayor Xu Guo said in a statement the $6-million deal will help the city of 7.2 million people transition to clean mass transit technology.

As part of its transition to new energy sources, China wants to double the usage of natural gas by 2020, and B.C. is prepared to meet that demand. Chilliwack-based IMW Industries, the world’s largest manufacturer of non-lubricated natural gas compressors and related technologies, is already capitalizing on the opportunities when it signed a one billion RMB (US $167 million) equipment purchase agreement with China Gas in 2013 to supply up to 416 natural gas compressors and related technologies for the construction of up to 310 natural gas stations in China over three years.

In recognition of the 20th anniversary celebration in Guangdong, British Columbia has proclaimed Nov. 1-7, 2015 as British Columbia-Guangdong Sister Province Week.

Trade missions are a critical part of British Columbia's BC Jobs plan strategy to diversify international trading partners and secure new investment, and help propel economic activity and job creation throughout the province.

Quick Facts:

- B.C.'s cleantech industry consists of more than 200 companies employing approximately 6,400 people and generates $1.7 billion in revenue.
- The global market for clean technology and services is expected to grow to $3 trillion by 2020.
- B.C. was the first jurisdiction in North America to introduce a broad-based, revenue-neutral carbon tax and to have a carbon-neutral public sector.
- British Columbia has expanded its trade and investment network in China and Hong Kong, with trade and investment representatives located in Beijing, Shanghai, Guangzhou and Hong Kong.
- In September 2014, Guangdong Governor Zhu Xiaodan and Premier Christy Clark signed an Action Plan to mark the 20th anniversary of sister-province relations between B.C. and Guangdong.
- B.C. opened a trade and investment office in Guangzhou in February 2009 that is currently staffed by six trade and investment representatives.
- In September 2014, Guangdong chose Vancouver as the home of its first trade office in Canada.
- The B.C. Government provided $200,000 in partial funding for the "Gold Rush! El Dorado in British Columbia" exhibition. $100,000 of the funding is part of the $1 million allocated to the Chinese Historical Wrongs Legacy Projects and the other $100,000 is from the Ministry of International Trade.

ADVICE FOR THE MINISTER

COMMUNICATIONS PLAN

Ministry of International Trade

Government Communications and Public Engagement

Last updated: Oct. 26, 2015

Subject: Trade missions to China and Vietnam

Background: From Friday, Oct. 30- Saturday, Nov. 7 Premier Christy Clark and Minister Teresa Wat will lead a trade mission to China. When the Premier returns to BC, Minister Wat will continue on to Vietnam, returning on Wednesday, November 11.

The China program will center on the 20th anniversary celebration of BC -Guangdong sister province relations. This anniversary represents an important milestone in diplomatic relations, and provides an opportunity to leverage additional business opportunities in this key region of China. Both provinces have agreed to increase trade initiatives and to expand areas of economic cooperation. Furthermore, promotion of activities related to the 20th anniversary celebrations is one of Minister Wat's mandate items.

As well the China program has significant opportunities to showcase the cultural ties between the two jurisdictions, and BC's strength in clean technology and technology.

A delegation of approximately 200 business and community members will join the mission, making it one of the largest trade mission delegations in B.C. history

From Nov. 9 to Nov. 10 Minister Wat will continue on to Vietnam to capitalize on BC's growing trade relations with that country, which is a member of the Association of South East Asian Nations. This will be Minister Wat's second mission to the ASEAN market (the first mission was to Indonesia in March, 2015) but her first mission to the emerging market of Vietnam.

This will be Premier Clark's third significant trade mission to China since 2011 and Minister Wat's third mission to China since 2014.

China – China has emerged as B.C.'s second largest trading partner due to a long-term, focused effort to develop cultural and economic relationships, and promote B.C. products in China. Highlights of the trade mission in China:

- Signing a climate change MOU with the Guangdong Reform and Development Commission
- Opening the Royal BC Museum "Gold Mountain Dream" exhibition at Guangdong Museum of Chinese Nationals Residing Aboard.
- MOU between Vancouver HQ and Polyculture to establish a head office in Vancouver.
- $3M agreement between Ballard Power Systems and Tangshan Railway Vehicle Company, Limited (TRC) to develop a new fuel cell module for mass transit.
- Participation in the Hong Kong Terry Fox Run

Vietnam - BC exports to Vietnam have risen significantly, from $49 M in 2010 to $107 M in 2014. This year's exports are on track to rise at least 20%, with seafood products experiencing the highest levels of growth.

Vietnam is member of the Association of South East Asian Nations which ranks fifth among destinations for B.C. goods exports. It is also a member of the proposed Trans-Pacific Partnership which will provide BC exporters with greater access to this market. Minister Wat will be the first provincial trade minister to visit Vietnam since the TPP deal was concluded on Oct. 5.

Highlights of the two-day visit include:

- Minister's attendance and keynote at the annual Canadian Food Festival in Ho Chi Minh, the largest city and business centre in Vietnam.
- Opening of Ho Chi Minh location of Scentuals Body Care of Coquitlam, producers of Canadian-made organic skin care products.
- Tour of Dan D Pak factory in Vietnam, owned by a Richmond entrepreneur who built his business empire after coming to Canada as a refugee.

Purpose:

The purpose of this plan is to ensure that communications efforts around the mission effectively align with government's jobs plan and trade and investment objectives and the promotion of activities related to the 20th anniversary celebration of the BC-Guangdong sister province relations.

Communications efforts will also position the Premier as the primary ambassador for the province's international trade initiatives. As well they will:

- reinforce B.C.'s economic and cultural ties with Guangdong
- promote further investment into the province, and
- demonstrate to BC business and stakeholders that the province is assisting in helping them export from the province.

In Vietnam communications efforts will position Minister Teresa Wat as a leader in opening trade doors in the ASEAN marketplace As well they will:

- Position the province in a leading position to take advantage of a Trans Pacific Partnership trade deal, once it is ratified. (Potentially sometime in 2017)
- Emphasize BC's efforts to diversify our economy both in terms of markets and products exports

Goals/Objectives:

1. To promote that B.C. is open for business, with goods and services that meet the needs/demands of the growing economies of Asian economies.
2. To promote the value of cultural and economic ties which have grown as a result of the BC-Guangdong sister province relations.
3. To communicate activities during the mission that show growing interest for BC goods and services and the associated job creation potential.

4. To communicate governments efforts to diversify our economy both in terms of markets and sector growth. Specifically the themes of technology and innovation and agri-foods will be prominent on the mission.
5. To build on the success of previous trade missions – showing how B.C. is leading Canada in its Asia-Pacific investment strategy.
6. To build awareness of the importance of other ASEAN markets in BC's trade and investment strategy.
7. To showcase success stories that show B.C.'s international trade strategy is working.

Potential Challenges:

- Need newsworthy announcements to sustain media interest in the mission.
- Media coverage of the mission activities could be overshadowed by current domestic issues including federal election results.
- There will be competition for media attention and comparisons with other BC and Canadian delegations in the market at the same time. For example, Ontario's premier, Kathryn Wynne is leading a China mission during the first week of November. Vancouver Mayor Gregor Robertson will be leading a delegation of Clean Tech companies to Guangzhou during the second week of November.

Recommended solutions:

- Continue to communicate the mission's success by linking successful and relevant trade and investment deals that occur after the mission end.
- Build a library of stories about companies who are successfully doing business between BC and China and Vietnam.

Key Audiences:

- BC Media, including business and trade publications
- Investors
- Exporters
- Entrepreneurs
- Trade organizations/associations
- Mission delegates
- MLAs

Key Messages General:

- Trade and investment in Asia is critical to ensuring we grow our economy at home in B.C.
- We know that by creating new opportunities in Asia we create more jobs for B.C. families.

- Through the BC Jobs Plan, we are attracting first new dollars into the province, with increased investment and more exports to new trading partners in Asia and beyond – creating more long-term jobs for hard-working British Columbians.
- This mission is about creating new government-to-government relations and building on existing relationships we have strategically established in priority markets.

Guangdong:

- B.C. has a long-standing cultural connection with Asia and we must leverage our many family, cultural and business connections to strengthen our trade relationships, attract new investment, and create jobs.
- B.C.'s cultural ties with Guangdong run deep. Most Canadians of Chinese descent (around 500,000 in B.C.) come from Guangdong and there are about 20,000 Canadians who live in Guangdong.
- Twenty years ago, we formally solidified our relationship by signing a sister agreement with Guangdong.
- Today, our trading relationship with China has grown to the point that China is now our second-largest export market, and there is no doubt this is because we have nurtured our historic and cultural relationships.

Vietnam:

- We are eager to build new ties and expand our trade relations with ASEAN countries and that includes Vietnam
- We know Vietnam wants to do business with BC: BC exports to Vietnam have risen rapidly and now reach $104M (2014) - up from $49M in 2010.
- That number is projected to jump – as much as 10 per cent this year – with BC seafood products leading that growth.
- We need to be actively working at our relationships at a government level and business-to-business level to realize that growth.
- Together, ASEAN markets rank fifth among destinations for B.C. exports and we see opportunities increasing in the years to come as ASEAN economies continue to grow.
- B.C. exports to the ASEAN region have grown from $503 million in 2011 to $852 million in 2014 – an increase of 69% over three years.

Strategic Approach:

The approach to communications for the trade mission involves the use of social media, media availabilities and news releases to promote the events and deals taking place on the trade mission.

We will also promote success stories of B.C. businesses doing business in Vietnam and vice versa and, where appropriate; link these accomplishments to the B.C. government's work to connect B.C. businesses with businesses in Asia.

A photographer in both countries will send us photos so they can be uploaded to newsroom.

A landing page will be created by GCPE newsroom for Premier's trade missions.

Local media will be invited by the Guangdong Foreign Affairs Office (FAO) to specific events in China. The usually invite five to six local leading media, including Southern Daily and Guangdong TV station to government meetings and other events. Most likely they will request an interview with PCC, so time slots for interviews will need to be added to the trade mission itinerary.

So far, the Guangdong TIR office has received request from Guangzhou Metro Media Company and Guangdong Joyful under Guangdong TV.

Locations:

1/ Park across from municipal hall. Good signage, platform staging of level gravel.

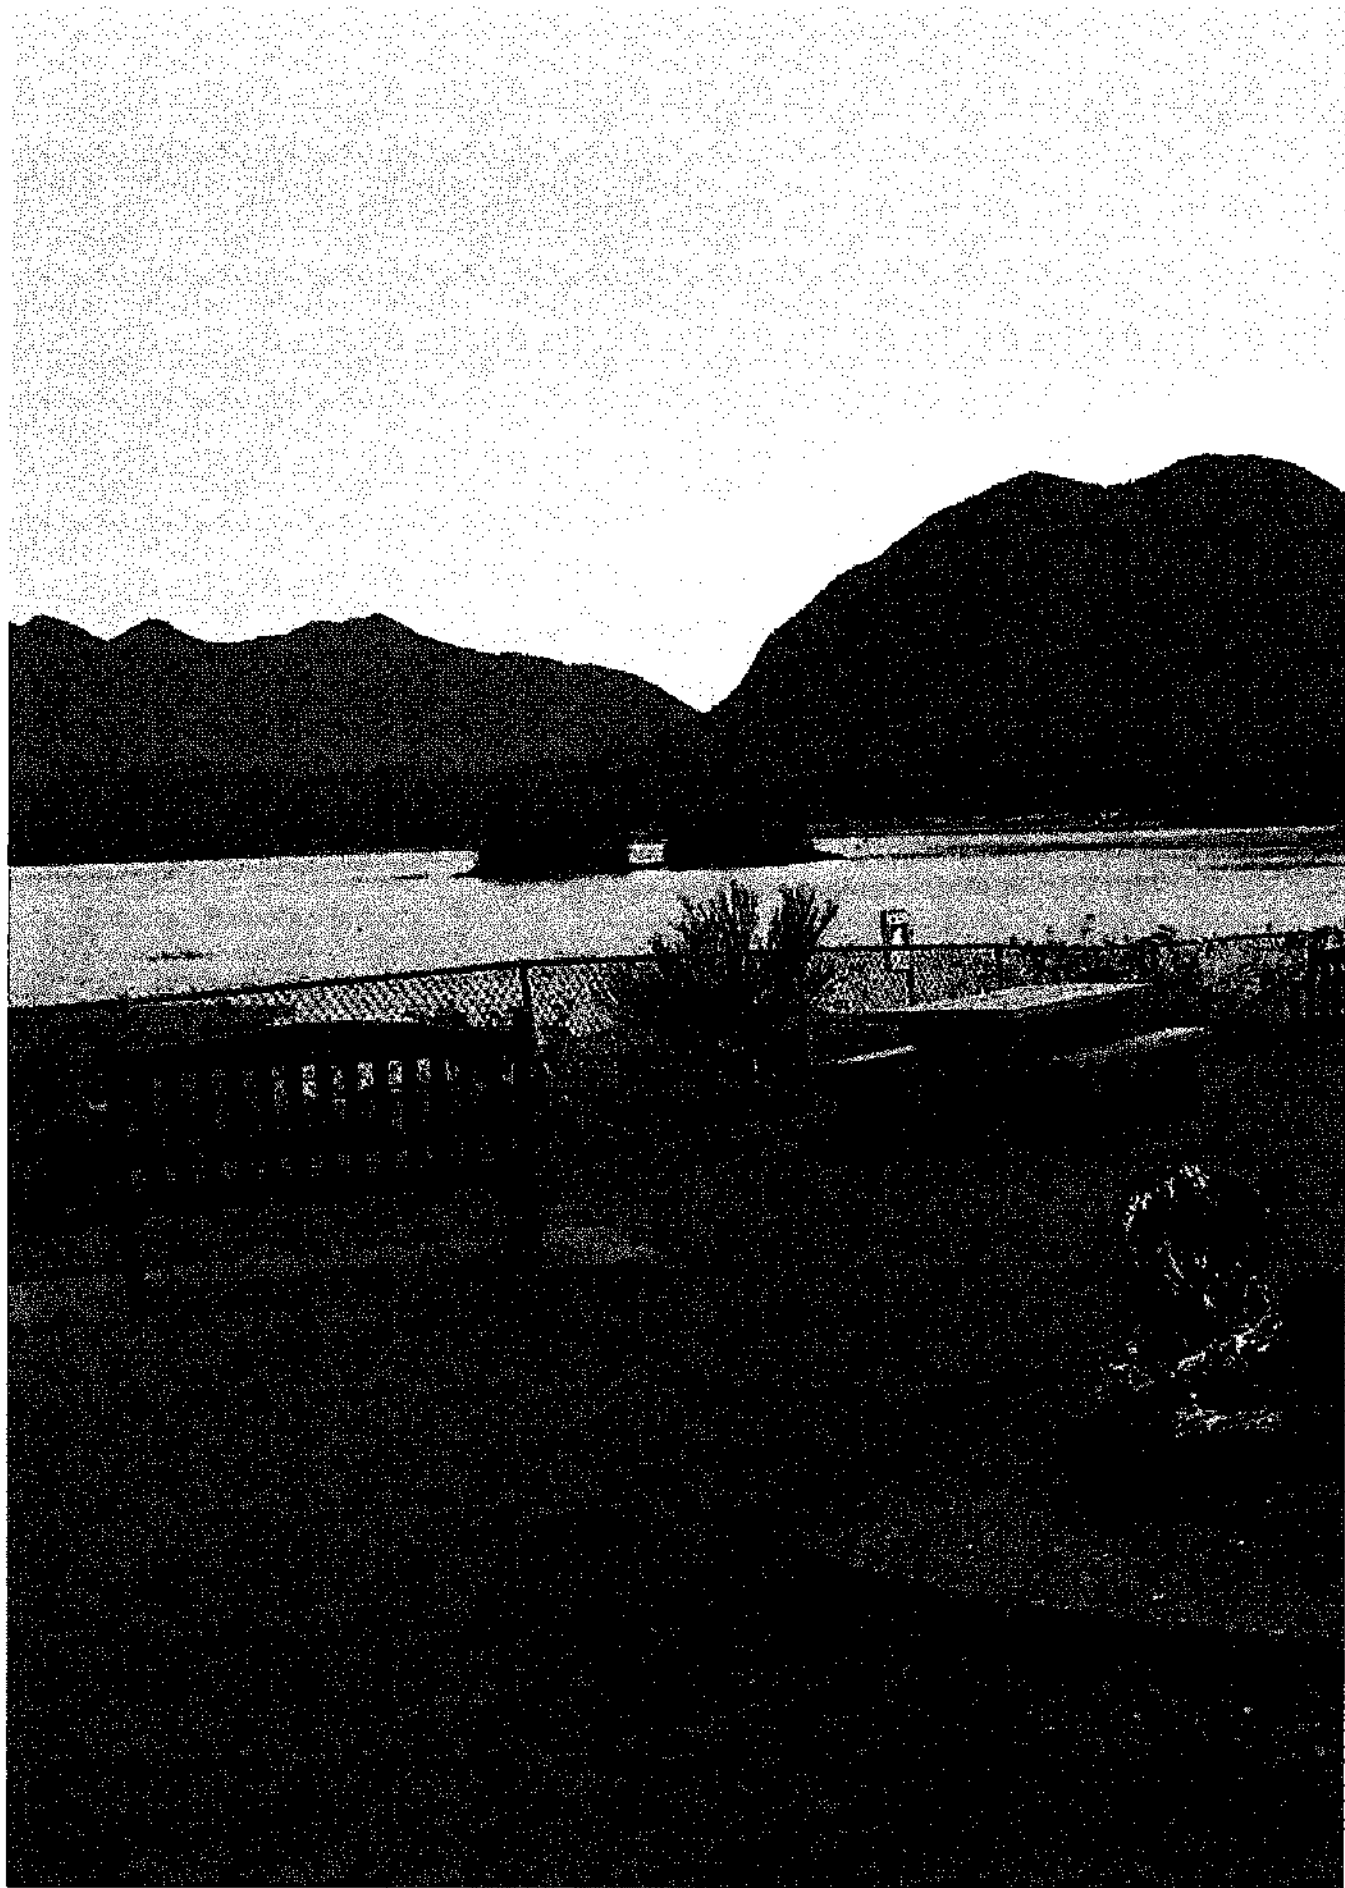

2/ Anchoring park by ocean west marina . Grassy and level, back drop of working harbour.

3/ Public docks. Connects with ocean scape as back drop. Media cans already stationed there

All three downtown. Arrival by float plane best logistically best as no cars avail and only one taxi in town
- not ideal choice of transit either for PCC

Here is the draft MA Linda

Matt – Tofino council has been shortened this morning so will last 10-1045 a.m. today – so the chamber could be available (we would need to double check but should be good) from 11-12 if we want to hold the availability there.

We have notified the mayor that the media availability has been postponed.

Let me know once we have a time and we can plug into the MA and then get final confirmation on location (which will hinge on the time).

Thanks,
Andy

Hi Stephanie,

The Premier did have a COF call yesterday, though I don't know if the new PM designate was on that call. You'd have to ask his people.

Our Premier will be going to Paris, but we're travelling into the interior today and so unfortunately won't be able to do anything with Don.

Good morning Sam, I hope you're well.

I'm seeing the premiers held a teleconference with prime minister-designate Trudeau yesterday regarding plans for the Paris climate summit in December-is this correct and does Premier Clark plan on attending?

If so, we'd love to have her on today to discuss this and other related topics.

This would be live, one-on-one with Don, and take roughly 5 minutes.

Please kindly let me know whether this request can be accommodated.

Normally we organize year enders in Vic near end of session, but last couple years we've also done some from Van.

We'll figure something out for you guys, you probably won't need to go to Vic though. I'll be in touch when I start setting them all up.

Jordan and Barinder,

I hope you don't mind reaching out directly, but wanted to share with you both the draft release we are in the process of finalizing with TELUS, and the working program we have for the 6th.

I wanted to at least get the ball rolling on approval of a quote or participation in the release from the Province's perspective, and ensure we were aligned. I am dealing with officials in BC and here, but just wanted to ensure you were in the loop – particularly as it relates to the Press Release. I need your guidance to ensure we get it approved.

Itinerary is below.

Hi Carolyn,

Please see the release below. Great material for our wrap up NR.

Don't think we need a separate NR but we should do a call around once this is sent to the major papers and outlets in Vancouver (mainstream and second language) to ensure they have it.

We should have pics and video to include as well.

Subject: Program and Press Release for November 6

Jordan and Barinder,

I hope you don't mind reaching out directly, but wanted to share with you both the draft release we are in the process of finalizing with TELUS, and the working program we have for the 6th.

I wanted to at least get the ball rolling on approval of a quote or participation in the release from the Province's perspective, and ensure we were aligned. I am dealing with officials in BC and here, but just wanted to ensure you were in the loop – particularly as it relates to the Press Release. I need your guidance to ensure we get it approved.

Itinerary is below.

To Whom It May Concern,

I work for CBC radio, for the national morning radio program, The Current. This coming Monday, November 2 on the Current, we'll be looking at suggestions in a recent report from B.C.'s privacy commissioner about some B.C. government workers deleting emails. We're going to look at the questions this raises about protecting the public's right to hold politicians accountable for their actions. This issue was echoed recently in The Vancouver Sun by Vaughn Palmer, when he wrote that Premier Clark `ventured no explanation for why the top bureaucrat in the government had not a single document associated with the biggest human resources debacle in the modern-day history of the public service`.

I'm writing to ask for someone from the B.C. government to record a comment with CBC's The Current about the concerns raised in Elizabeth Denham's report. We would run the comment as part of our planned coverage on Monday morning.

I'm asking that someone respond to this request by 3 pm Pacific Time on Friday, October 30. if we do not hear from someone from this office by this time, we will have to make an on-air mention that you declined to comment on this story.

Thank you,

Gentlemen,

We have 2 media requests from CBC to go on their day shows. Are you ok with MAV participating?

Geoff

1. Date/Time: Oct. 22 – 10:52 a.m.

Deadline @ asap

Media: CBC Radio BC Almanac

Host: Gloria Macarenko

Producer: Michelle Eliot, 604-662-6982, michelle.eliot@cbc.ca

Topic: OPIC report

Background: Would like to know if Minister Virk can go on for a few minutes at 12:05 today to talk about OIPC's report. Format would be live with host Gloria Macarenko. Plz note: they are looking for a columnist to go on following for open line but that has not been confirmed.

2. Date/Time: Oct. 22/11am

Deadline @ asap

Media: CBC - On the Coast

Host: Stephen Quinn

Dial-in#: 604-669-3733

Producer: Jessica Linzey, 604-662-6923, Jessica.linzey@cbc.ca

Topic: OIPC Investigation

Background: Host would like to speak to MAV for 7 minutes, one-on-one. No other guests are booked on this topic thus far.

Questions: Seeking general interview about the report and what government is doing in response to it.

Just some small suggestions...

On km's , start with three over arching messages...theyre three buckets that your key messages support

Commissioner Denham's report is comprehensive, and she has outlined remedies for her findings through her recommendations

British Columbians need to be confident that their govt is open and transparent.

Govt does successfully process a vast majority of foi requests and we will continue to strengthen and improve our performance

As well, that first message should be the beginning of the answer to any questions about penalties to individuals...as in what are you going to do to x.? That is one of the findings but i would ask you to read the full report as commish denham prescribes remedies for all of her findings. We will act on her recos with the help of dl ..and in fact we have already done x

On the q that deals w s.22 remember, beyond the i can't comment on personnel matters there also has to be a statement of mav's expectations of staff. I can't comment on personnel but let me be clear, i expect all staff to follow proper procedures on foi, honour their oaths, and abide by their standard of conduct

Cardario is Haakstad's successor, correct?

I see she was also placed under oath by Denham in the ethic outreach investigation.

also, wondering about the choice of loukidelis, given his role, with whitmarsh, in crafting the escape hatch in the basi/virk case.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

October 22, 2015

Dear Colleagues,

I know you share my sense of duty to British Columbians to ensure we lead a government that is open and accountable.

To that end, I have asked David Loukidelis to help us strengthen our processes and training around Freedom of Information, and give us advice on the best ways to implement actions in response to the Privacy Commissioner's recommendations.

Until Mr. Loukidelis completes his work, I am further directing my Cabinet Ministers and all political staff, to keep all the emails they send, regardless of whether they are transitory or not.

There can be conflicting views on how the rules have been applied over the decades. We and our staff do our utmost to follow the regulations around Freedom of Information to the best of their understanding. But, we also need to recognize that technology, as well as public expectations are evolving.

We can, and should, take this additional step to give our citizens greater confidence that their government is open and accountable.

Sincerely,

Christy Clark
Premier

Looks good Laura...a couple of things. I don't like the first line of the letter saying they're sharing the concerns of Surrey residents. "Thank you for your letter of September 23rd" is sufficient I think. Also want to make sure the arrest and charge numbers have been updated to reflect latest charges.

Finally, you might want to re-phrase the last paragraph to...'confident police are doing everything possible...but we all know police need our support as well. That's why I'm joining with police Investigators and Surrey residents who have asked for witnesses and people with information to step forward.'

I'd drop the word community from that paragraph. You could also add a line "I hope that you would join with me in supporting police investigators and residents who have called for witnesses...etc"

I crafted a separate letter for Elizabeth as a Party Leader and a BCer; are you okay with this:

Dear Elizabeth:

Congratulations on your re-election as the Member of Parliament for Saanich-Gulf Islands. I know this is a great honour for you and you are looking forward to working closely with the new Federal Government.

I also want to commend the many Green Party candidates who put their names forward and stood for election. One of the great things about our democracy is that it enables citizens to really think about issues and concerns, and it gives them the opportunity to choose a candidate that they feel best represents their values and their vision. As Canadians, we are blessed to live in a country where people's voices are not only heard, but respected, and where we enjoy a political system that values democracy in all levels of government.

I have written to each of the Green Party candidates who ran in BC ridings. I wanted to laud them for their willingness to stand for public office, to serve their constituents and to bring forward the Green Party vision for our country.

Again, congratulations and best wishes to you as you represent all the citizens of Saanich-Gulf Islands in the years ahead.

Subject: Do you know if Premier Clark will be in Paris on Sept 7th?

Dear Ben,

We are organizing an event for sub-national governments with high GHG ambition on one of the main stages in the main UN venue that afternoon.

We expect several Governors/Premiers and Mayors to attend from North America and from developing countries. A theme we hope to explore on the panel, in addition to the high level of ambition among participants, is the economic benefits of a low carbon future.

I know you are far along in your provincial climate plan process and I hear good things about where it is headed. Assuming the climate plan is completed and comes out in the strong place everyone expects, would Premier Clark be interested in participating.

She could outline its ambition and intent.

Ben, I'm sorry we haven't met. I understand from Merran Smith and others that you are the best person to contact.

I look forward to meeting in Paris.

Best wishes,

Michael

Dear Ben,

We are organizing an event for sub-national governments with high GHG ambition on one of the main stages in the main UN venue that afternoon.

We expect several Governors/Premiers and Mayors to attend from North America and from developing countries. A theme we hope to explore on the panel, in addition to the high level of ambition among participants, is the economic benefits of a low carbon future.

I know you are far along in your provincial climate plan process and I hear good things about where it is headed. Assuming the climate plan is completed and comes out in the strong place everyone expects, would Premier Clark be interested in participating.

She could outline its ambition and intent.

Ben, I'm sorry we haven't met. I understand from Merran Smith and others that you are the best person to contact.

Attached are two draft NRs for mission.

I'd particularly like to know if we are on the right track for the departure NR in terms of content. I feel it is too long; perhaps we should chop the cultural/gold exhibit theme in the interest of keeping it more focused. (FYI: We also need the green light from Guangdong that this will be signed and they are ok with it being announced ahead of the signing.)

I'm attaching the Terry Fox NR for approval.

I should be sending you a Poly Cultural head office one shortly; it's in ministry approvals.

RBCM assures me that they will be sending their Gold Exhibit NR soon and I'll share that when I see it.

Kind regards, Carolyn

Hi Ben,

Are you free for a call later today? To discuss the visit by Premier Gallant.

There is desire from him, as per previous conversations with you Premier to do something public regarding s.16

Could be along the following:

I wasn't able to attend the Resource Dinner last evening but I am told that the Premier made note of the place and role of the Independent Power sector – thanks very much.

Perhaps we can speak more tomorrow about how to build upon this with the Climate agenda

I expect you are caught up with other matters – but just FYI given interest

Two validators lined up for tomorrow – a third is likely (just confirming this aft):

- Parent has been lined up that is helping to facilitate changes to child care subsidy process – and can speak to how helpful the changes will be for parents and how collaborative the process of working with staff has been
- Local citizen (and small biz owner) who uses the online special occasion license to host customer events at her Victoria-based nail spa and uses it for her family events
- A gentleman who was going thru a divorce was very frustrated at process of finding documentation he would need. He contacted government to complain and was brought into the tent to facilitate change, so documentation was readily available in one location. In process of finalizing this one.

Hi Sam,
I'm seeking comment from Premiers across Canada about their intention to attend the UNFCCC COP21 in Paris this fall.

Prime Minister-delegate Justin Trudeau announced he will attend the climate summit with all of the Premiers.

I am seeking comment from Premier Christy Clark on whether or not she plans to attend.

I can be reached at 250 858 1329.

Cheers,

Subject: Punjab Situation - Statement

Hi guys,

As discussed... Here is a summary of the situation in Punjab, India. Gurpreet please fill in any details I may have missed:

- A torn up copy of the Sikh holy scripture, the Guru Granth Sahib, was discovered in a village in the Faridkot district of Punjab. This occurred early last week.
- The desecration of the Guru Granth Sahib angered many Sikhs in Punjab, India and around the world. Protest were started in Punjab once this situation became public.
- The Punjab Police fired shots at one of the protests and as a result two people were killed and some others were wounded.
- The killings of the protesters have further angered the Sikh community. Rallies and gatherings have taken place around the world – including in the Lower Mainland over this past weekend.
- In Punjab protesters are holding blockades on highways, bridges demanding action on those who desecrated the Guru Granth Sahib.
- Now, in the past week there have been at least five reports of copies of the Guru Granth Sahib being desecrated.

Subject: Punjab Situation - Statement

Hi guys,

As discussed... Here is a summary of the situation in Punjab, India. Gurpreet please fill in any details I may have missed:

- A torn up copy of the Sikh holy scripture, the Guru Granth Sahib, was discovered in a village in the Faridkot district of Punjab. This occurred early last week.
- The desecration of the Guru Granth Sahib angered many Sikhs in Punjab, India and around the world. Protest were started in Punjab once this situation became public.
- The Punjab Police fired shots at one of the protests and as a result two people were killed and some others were wounded.
- The killings of the protesters have further angered the Sikh community. Rallies and gatherings have taken place around the world – including in the Lower Mainland over this past weekend.
- In Punjab protesters are holding blockades on highways, bridges demanding action on those who desecrated the Guru Granth Sahib.
- Now, in the past week there have been at least five reports of copies of the Guru Granth Sahib being desecrated.
- Situation is escalating and a few federal candidates have sent out statements... See link below.

Hi Ben

After some back and forth its confirmed – the signing will take place at BC Hydro on Dunsmuir St. October 21 10:00 – 10:30AM. We had to move it from Victoria to Vancouver to accommodate Minister Bennett's schedule.

I know Premier is normally in Victoria on Wed – might she be able to join us at the Signing before she heads to Victoria? We have a nice signing jacket for her.

It would be appreciated if she could attend – great "Green Energy" platform

We will have a live audio link between Vancouver and the press theatre in Victoria. I will open up the press conference in Vancouver and start by throwing the line over to Shane, who will be in the press theatre with you guys. He will moderate questions on your end, and then once that's done, I'll end by taking some questions from reporters in Vancouver.

Since you guys will have a chance to ask questions from Victoria, I'll try to keep questions in Vancouver to those outlets that do not have representation in the gallery.

You should have a session with MCO in your calendar's for 2:00 today. Attached is the IN based on the statements released last week.

FYI below is the transcript of the CBC Early Edition segment with Hansen and Sihota from this morning.

No new information/angle, but here is an overview:

1. Reference to government not pursuing repayments
2. Reference to the fact that wineries aren't offering to repay
3. Reference to a slow uptake to wine in grocery model

Hi there – as discussed, here are a set of letters:

- For newly-elected MPs

- For a newly-elected PM
- For a re-elected PM

Obviously we will need to adjust slightly depending on the outcome (especially letter to newly-elected PM).

Let me know what changes/adjustments/other needs you may have.

Thanks

Good morning Sam and Ben,

I just had a quick question for you. I was just wondering if you have any bureaucrats on today's conference call about refugees. I'm hearing federal and provincial immigration officials are discussing the Syrian refugee crisis today.

Let me know if BC is participating!

Cheers,
Kiran

it's phrased to capture not only the story but the issue of the firings.
And it seems improbable that she didn't send a single email on the subject for a week when her name and the issue was exploding in the news like that...

Did you get the one pager I sent. This is a one pager outlining what could be announced pre Paris.
Our modelling at the Climate Team shows that this type of package will have almost no impact on the GDP.

Subject: Business Council Summit - Junior Achievement

Hello Ben and Michele,

I believe Greg has spoken to each of you on this idea, but I wanted to confirm it with you before we pursued it with Junior Achievement. Premier Clark will be giving the closing remarks at our summit on November 19. The event will entail a forward looking conversation moving BC's economy towards 2035.

We would like to arrange for a young person, perhaps a Junior Achievement alumni (university aged or senior in high school) to offer a brief thank you to the Premier after her remarks. The message would provide a reminder to the Summit attendees about what we are talking about and who will be inheriting the economy we are working towards. We will work with them to arrange the comments in advance.

Please let me know if you have any questions or thoughts on this. I intend to reach out to JA later this week to begin the process of finding the right individual to take on this role.

Thank you
Cheryl.

Premier's Statement on whale watching tragedy

VICTORIA – Premier Christy Clark issued the following statement on the tragic capsizing of the Leviathan II, a whale watching tour boat near Tofino:

"Yesterday, a whale watching vessel carrying 27 passengers and 3 crew members capsized near Tofino. Canada Coast Guard, the RCMP, and WestCoast Inland Search and Rescue responded quickly – but tragically, five lives were lost. Another individual is still missing.

"My thoughts and my prayers and those of all British Columbians go out to the families and the loved ones of those that were lost or injured.

"Emergency Management BC has been in close contact with the Canadian Coast Guard, the Joint Rescue Coordination Centre and Tofino's Emergency Operations Centre, as they ensure all available resources are available for ongoing search and rescue operations, and for the victims.

"I understand there was tremendous cooperation amongst all the communities, agencies, emergency personnel and the Ahousaht First Nation, who worked together to respond.

"My thanks to all those involved in the rescue and the response and for their efforts during this tragic incident."

I'm of two minds on it. Gerald Butts helped put that in place for McGuinty...and it was effective in driving changes through health and education.

The downsides are the obvious top down Issues around alienating ministers or civil service

The upside is working something through a bureaucracy which doesn't get it, or is tired, or is still operating on the old govt's priorities

We also do it to an extent, though not in name, and through ministers (for example, through Cabinet working groups on cross-ministerial priorities: FN, LNG, skills training etc)

ACKNOWLEDGE:

ZHU Xiaodan, Governor of Guangdong Province

Hon. Teresa Wat

Ben Stewart

Thank you for welcoming us...

To this wonderful banquet.

It feels like home to me.

That's because so many of the citizens I serve in British Columbia

Come from Guangdong. They have family here.

Their history is here.

And we have a history together...

The 20 year sister province relationship ...and everything
we've achieved together:

- There are five pairs of sister cities in our two provinces, and two sister ports.
- In 2009, we opened a Trade and Investment Office in Guangzhou.
- Last year, Guangdong chose Vancouver to host its first trade office in Canada.

That's in addition to promoting trade and investment, educational exchanges, joint health responses to infectious diseases, and working together on environmental sustainability issues.

The 20th anniversary is an opportunity to celebrate past accomplishments. And it's an opportunity to build an even brighter future together.

Increasing trade with Guangdong and China is a major component of my plan to grow BC's economy.

As your sister from across the Pacific...

I know we have what Guangdong and China need to grow stronger... From energy to resources to brain power.

I also know this: BC can only change the world by partnering with you...

When you grow stronger, you lift the world with you.

Enjoy the evening...

Let's celebrate...

And tomorrow, let's keep working together to build a stronger future

FYI in the interests of giving a heads up - Council will hear from speakers and likely make a decision tonight. Minister stone could get questions tomorrow on Uber and taxis in general. We start hearing speakers at 6 PM

Hi,

Good session with Tim Flannery yesterday. I think he created some enthusiasm, optimism, renewed interest.

re: the meetins with Premier --- I was talking about one, with Tzep and I. Have you found a date that works?

The second question I had was, can we have a meeting with the members of the cabinet and some of/all of the Climate Leadership Team. Not us going to a cabinet meeting, but a meeting with the members of the cabinet.

I have the one pager almost done that I mentioned a few weeks ago. Will try to send today.

Also, any insights about Paris dates? I've been talking with Michael Northrup about the event he's organizing. Happy to discuss...

Recommendation / Response: GCPE to respond

- Due to scheduling conflicts, Premier Clark is unable to attend the inaugural Summit of North American Governors and Premiers this October.
- However, Darrell Pasloski, Premier of the Yukon, is attending on behalf of Canada's premiers.

If pressed about scheduling conflict:

- The premier is embarking on a trade mission to Asia during this time.

Hi:

I'm wondering who will be responding to questions raised by the NDP in the house about the absence of any records sent or received by Deputy Minister John Dyble or exchanged between him and the deputy health minister over two years, dealing with the health firings case. How is that possible? My deadline is 4:30 p.m.

Good morning Sam and Ben,

I just had a quick question for you. I was just wondering if you have any bureaucrats on today's conference call about refugees. I'm hearing federal and provincial immigration officials are discussing the Syrian refugee crisis today.

Let me know if BC is participating!

Cheers,
Kiran

Thanks Sam!

Looping in Kiran to discuss possibilities next week--today is my last day :) :(

Shoot me a note next week and I'll see if we have some time.

Have a good weekend.
