Background

s.12,s.13,s.14,s.16,s.17

s.12,s.13,s.14,s.17 . At this point, BCH is exploring options to maintain the overall project schedule through contract acceleration.

The work associated with receipt of the Federal Authorizations is a public milestone. Not meeting this milestone can be expected to become a high-profile public issue. There would likely be public commentary that Site C is behind schedule

s.12,s.13,s.14,s.17

Key Messages:

- Receiving the Federal Authorizations is critical to the Site C project as it allows the next stage of dam construction.
- BCH appreciates the efforts of Fisheries and Oceans Canada and Transport Canada executives and staff to complete the First Nations consultation on the Authorizations.
- BCH understands the legal obligation of the Federal Ministries to complete due diligence and meet legal requirements.

s.12,s.13,s.14,s.17

-Not meeting this milestone will likely become a public issue and raise questions about the project being behind schedule s.12,s.13,s.14,s.17

-BCH appreciates the efforts of the Federal Government to keep to its goal of providing the Authorizations as quickly as possible.
