Hi Ina. We suggest the designer not use the coat of arms but rather the shield.

Link to our symbols page is here <http://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/governments/celebrating-british-columbia/symbols-of-bc>

Please be in touch with Genevieve if you or the designer need more information.

Hi Lucy,

Ina Gjoka called with a request from Premier Clark. She is having a dress made by Vancouver designer Chloe Angus with First Nations art work on it for the upcoming royal visit. I gather this same artist made a green top that PCC has worn several times this past year.

Premier is now requesting that a blanket be made by the same artist to be gifted to TRH when they visit BC. The designer is needing an emblem, such as the coat of arms to be added to the blanket. Ina wanted to check with our office to ensure this is done correctly.

Office line for Ina is: 250-387-1715. Cell: s.17

It is my understanding that we will also be giving an outfit/shawl to her highness as well. Need to confirm if this is a gift from chloe Angus or the province.

Hi Adam. Thanks for this. It looks beautiful. Can you please have them invoice our office instead of the premier directly unless this is a personal gift from the premier. Are we giving a spirit wrap as well?

Please clarify if these are personal gifts from the premier or are part of the official gift from the premier on behalf of the province, i.e. along with the paddle from Haida Gwaii and the children's books.

Thanks.

Good morning Lucy,

Attached is the draft work of the blanket which will be given as a gift as well as a quote. They did not have a photo of a spirit wrap but I believe it will be similar to the shawl that the Premier has.

Please let me know if there are any issues or if you have any questions.

ACKNOWLEDGE:

The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge
Prince George and Princess Charlotte
Governor-General David Johnston
Lieutenant-Governor Judith Guichon

In just two days, Their Royal Highnesses have seen a glimpse into British Columbia's diversity.

From downtown Vancouver, to Bella Bella and the Great Bear Rainforest.

A unique and diverse province also faces unique and diverse challenges. And Their Royal Highnesses have also observed some of the ways British Columbians are facing them.

And on behalf of all British Columbians, it's my privilege to present gifts that reflect the province.

1- For the entire family, a BEAR SPIRIT BLANKET, which I hope will remind you of your upcoming visit to Haida Gwaii.

2- For the Duchess, a BEAR SPIRIT WRAP, a collaboration between First Nations artists and Chloe Angus Design.

3- For Princess Charlotte a mini BEAR SPIRIT WRAP.

4- And for the Duke of Cambridge and Prince George – BEAR PRINT BOWTIES.

The Bear design in these was provided by Clarence Mills, a Haida artist.

The bear is a symbol of strength – and family. Because for thousands of years, that is where the peoples of the coast have found their greatest strength.

And even though we may live halfway around the world...
I believe that it something we have in common.

This sentence was awkward so I changed it to the following. Also Prince William in paragraph two needs a space added. With these changes, good to go. No quote added please.

Angus has also collaborated with Heiltsuk First Nation artist KC Hall on a Spirit Blanket commissioned by the Chief, Marilyn Slett and a Spirit Blanket commissioned by the Premier through a partnership with First Nation artist Clarence Mills.

Hi Anish,

Sorry to bother you again, I know you are extremely busy and probably exhausted after the week of the Royal tour. I just wanted to follow up on whether we have the all clear for the attached press release as I have some very helpful, though perhaps somewhat intense, PR ladies waiting to hear from me.

If you would prefer that I follow up with Jordan instead can you please pass along his contact information?

Thank you. Please feel free to give me a call with any questions or concerns at 604 224 2456. I will give you a call in couple of hours to follow up as well.

Dear Chella,

We need to hold on this as I need approval from the Palace. I have cc'd our comms people on this email and they will be looking at and will get back to you once approved.

Hello Anish,

I am the publicist for Chloe Angus and I am hoping that you can confirm/approve the following for our media alert:

1. Chloe Angus is exclusively dressing the Premier for her formal engagements during the Royal Visit
2. Chloe Angus has been commissioned to create 5 gifts (3 are one of kind gifts) for the Royals to be gifted by the Premier from the Province.
3. The Premier has been a long time supported of Chloe Angus

We will send the media alert to you for final approval once it's finished this weekend.

Thank you!

Yours Truly,

I don't know anything about this, so I'm going to bow out of approvals.
