Good afternoon,

Please prepare this to go provincewide, including ethic, at 9am Sunday.

Premier Christy Clark issued the following statement on Eid al-Adha:

"Tonight, Muslims in British Columbia and around the world celebrate Eid al-Adha, or the Feast of the Sacrifice, that marks the end of Ramadan.

Friends, families, and communities celebrate with special meals, prayers, and acts of charity.

"Eid al-Adha and those who celebrate it are another example of the diversity that makes us the envy of the world - peoples from different backgrounds and beliefs, living and thriving in peace.

"On behalf of all British Columbians, I wish everyone celebrating Eid al-Adha a happy and healthy festival.

"Eid Mubarak."

Hi Robin,

Sorry to bug you - as discussed the statement refers to Eid al-Adha but should say Eid al-Fitr. Can you fix the online version?

Cheers,
