Does the Premier plan to do media calls after he's also met with the Commerce Secretary (either today or tomorrow)?

Reason I ask is the show airs on Saturday, so it would probably be better to talk at least after that conversation.

Let me know.

Yes, totally doable.

Might push for an extra minute or two, but totally get that he will be on a schedule.

The studio number will be 613-288-7013<tel:(613)%20288-7013><tel:(613)%20288-7013>.

David Cochrane is hosting this week.

Can you give me a sense of who he will have met with tomorrow? Just for BG purposes.

I've attached my recording of the call - but it is not the best quality and the first part of the conversation is cut off. Hope it helps.

Anything more you need from me at this time? Do you have an itinerary/list of speakers for the event?
We are bringing a podium, would you like a podium sign? Generic one with simple BC logo?

I need to set up two phone interviews for next wee, one with the Honourable Rob Fleming and the other with the Honourable Scott Fraser. These are our introductory profile Q&As to introduce the minsters to the public and ask some questions about who they are and how they are going to accomplish their mandates.

I anticipate each will take 20 minutes at the very most.

Tuesday is an ideal day for me, or Wednesday.

Hi Ed,

We'd like to profile both Judy and Selina in upcoming issues
of Metro
given their new portfolios and relevance to Vancouver.
Wondering if we can arrange for some interviews with them? I'm in this afternoon at 604-648-3214 and
Thursday as well.
They both don't have to be today,
but I'd love to chat
with them.

Let me know what their schedules are like.

Thanks,

Matt

Hello Jen!

I am with the correspondence office and we have had a couple requests from the press. Do you have someone we can send these to or should we direct media queries to you? Thanks for your help! Nothing super pressing so far, just a couple asking questions about the Premier's recent trip to the US. Cheers!

Good afternoon;

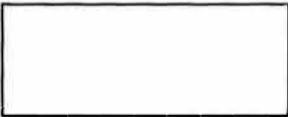

Bloomberg TV Canada is doing a show this Monday, August 31 on the 'Fentanyl Crisis' and how it's sweeping from the West to the East.

I was hoping the Premier could join our host Rudyard Griffiths for a 7-8 minute segment on this topic.

We could do the interview from a studio in Vancouver or by skype.

Please let me know as soon as possible if John Horgan is able to join us.

Thanks,
Amanda

To whom it may concern

My name is Grant Bachand; I am the News Director of CFUR 88.7fm and the Host of Prince George Up Close with Shaw TV. I would like to see if the Premier would be interested, next time he is in Prince George, doing a public filming of Prince George Up Close at the University of Northern British Columbia. The audience would consist of students, and people from Prince George.

I would like to discuss the priorities of the new government, public education, resource development and projects in BC. I would be happy to format the questions and send them to you before hand. We thought this event would happen in September or October. However, we would be glad to work with you on the time of the event

If this is of interest to the Premier, I would like to discuss logistics, format, and structure. Mr. Horgan has been on Prince George Up Close before in the past. It would be great to do a follow up with him from our episode we recorded earlier last summer.

Please let me know your thoughts. My cell phone is 250-640-8666.

Thank you

Statement from BC Liberal Party Leader, Christy Clark

July 28, 2017

Today, I informed my caucus colleagues of my intention to resign as leader of the BC Liberal Party effective Friday, August 4.

Serving as Premier and serving the people of British Columbia for the past six and a half years has been an incredible honour and privilege.

I am so proud of everything our BC Liberal Team has accomplished. From working to make British Columbia Canada's leading economy and creating more than 200,000 new jobs, to helping thousands of single parents go from welfare to work through the Single Parent Employment Initiative, to British Columbia's gift to the world, the protection of the Great Bear Rainforest.

I am certain that British Columbia's best days lie ahead. Because British Columbians can, through hard work, determination, and perseverance, achieve anything they set their minds to.

Hey Jen,

For some reason we never received the media availability email from the Premier's office to either my account or the general NL one.

Can you forward it to me? And when you get a sec make sure swoodford@newcap.ca and nlnews@newcap.ca are on the mail out list?

We just switched over to Newcap (new owners) so maybe the change in email addresses played a part in this.

Cheers,

Hello,

This is Petrina D'Souza from DARPAN Magazine, a South Asian lifestyle magazine based in Surrey.

In our September/October issue, we would like to include an exclusive interview with Premier John Horgan and talk about his new role, future plans, and top BC issues.

We would need to do an interview via phone or email before August 15 and will need some hi-res images for the article.

We recently featured Green Party leader Andrew Weaver in our DARPAN's 10 column in the July/August issue.

Please direct me to the right person to take this request forward.

Kindly acknowledge this email.

Thanks for the offer Jen...

I hope you can understand that by tomorrow morning at 9:30, John Horgan's brief visit to Prince George will be yesterday's news.

You have already assured us that he will not be speaking to ANY media during his Prince George visit today...so I suppose we'll have to accept the situation.

If our competitors wants to talk to the Premier about yesterday's news tomorrow...that's up to them.

We would like to have the chance to talk to the Premier on camera sometime soon. There are many issues in the north that need to be addressed from natural resource extraction policies, the softwood lumber agreement, and land claims just to name a few. We would appreciate it if he could build some time into his next visit for us.

Cheers...

Hello,

Following up on our conversation about Premier Horgan's visit to Prince George: As the Premier will not have time for a media availability today as he will be occupied visiting people displaced by the wildfires and emergency management operations, I'd again like to offer the opportunity for a phone interview tomorrow at either 9:30am or around 3pm. These call backs are being offered to other media in the region as well.

If you are interested, please let me know and I will set it up.

Hello,

Premier Horgan will be visiting Prince George late this afternoon to meet with people displaced by the wildfires and emergency personnel. As the visit is quite late in the day, I would like to offer to set up a call back interview from the Premier on Tuesday to discuss the trip. Would 10 minutes at about 9:15 am work?

Please let me know.

Hi there,

I believe this could be from the CP interview this morning. It seems to me there needs to be a correction- the ministry is reviewing the effects of the foreign buyers tax but we support it and have no plans to cancel.

Are you able to check in with the minister to see what she said and find out if a clarification is possible?

Thanks,

Just received this:

Hi Jen,

We've had the premier's oped on our home page and I put it out on twitter and facebook. Hope you used social media too. I watched the news clip this morning of the meeting with Trudeau. We think running the piece in print on Wednesday is too long after the news. Going online gave us a good advancer on the trip and put us ahead of the curve. I think we should stay there. We'll have many opportunities over the next four years to run the premier's opeds —ones that won't be overtaken by events — and I look forward to them.

And how about that Petronas news?

Hope you are not too disappointed.

Thanks, Jen. Derrick,

Let me know what you need and what you'd like to do... Saltman will ask about both MoTI priorities and those that overlap with TransLink if she interviews Minister Trevena before Minister Robinson or PS Ma. These types of pieces also tend to spark follow-up requests, especially if the minister says something new.

Think these are the main topics that the Sun would be interested in and Minister Trevena will need to be prepped on:

- Tolling
- Pattullo replacement
- GMT – Richmond/Delta reports
- Ferries
- Ridesharing (and whether before 2017)
- TransLink
- Surrey and Broadway line
- General transportation priorities

I can update the scan...

Hi there,

While Minister Trevena is not doing much media this week, I think we should set up a requested ministry profile interview in the Vancouver Sun for her. Derrick has indicated Thursday could work. We should look at setting up a comms/ policy briefing before the interview as well, as she will need to be tight on her answers. If you'd like me to be a part of that, I am happy to come.

If your ministry could touch base with the reporter and set up a time that works for you, that would be great.

I will be writing a story about Pacific Northwest LNG deciding to not proceed with its project. Was wondering if the Premier had any comment on this. The previous Liberal government had wanted LNG to be a focal point of economic growth.

Does this decision mark a setback for province? Did Mr. Horgan try to get Petronas et to change their minds?

I am reachable via email, it's best way to reach me today, paul.vieira@wsj.com

I'm the Globe and Mail's Washington correspondent, and wondering if the Premier will have time for an interview with me when he's here tomorrow.

It would be great to get a sense from him of how his meetings here go, and what he hears from the people he's speaking with.

Yes 3.55 pm tomorrow works for me. Thank you.

Also, if there is anything you can tell me (either on the record or on background is fine) about what happened in his meetings today would be much appreciated. I basically want to get a sense of what you guys hear from Ross this afternoon, in particular. My sense is that there's reason for optimism on softwood, but would be good to get a clearer idea what he tells you.

Does the Premier plan to do media calls after he's also met with the Commerce Secretary (either today or tomorrow)?

Reason I ask is the show airs on Saturday, so it would probably be better to talk at least after that conversation.

Let me know.

I don't have an application for a new card for you. Did you fill one in? We don't currently have any cards we can use. I have asked for the first set of cards I ordered to be rushed and they should be here by the end of the week.

Thanks,

Can someone on your side please help Lisa out here? There is a deadline of 12pm to fix this. As well, it might be a good idea to have a comms director or ED reach out to the reporter about using the Ministers' title – the language is not particularly respectful.
