Hi Layne,

I wanted to connect with you for your information and to share with the staff our process regarding FOI requests and canvassing for records.

When Office of the Premier receives a request for records made under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, Alison will send a "call for records" email to those who could possibly hold records responsive to a request with a date to respond by. Once the search has been completed, staff are to either respond to Alison with a "no" to confirm no records were found, or provide the records as per the instruction on the email. Upon reviewing the records, I may connect with the staff responsible concerning disclosure etc.

Please feel free to contact me directly if you or anyone has any questions about this process, what is considered responsive, or FOI in general.

Thank you,

Good but not consulting staff on date, rather consulting colleagues. Too early to speculate on timing. Today we should acknowledge Christy Clark's service to the province.

Letter as follows:

To

Manu Das (Manavendra Musini)

President.

ISKON Vancouver.

Greetings from the B.C Government Caucus

On behalf of the B.C. Premier John Horgan and the New Democrat Government Caucus I am pleased to send our warmest greetings to ISKON, International Society for Krishna Consciousness.

ISKON has, been a vital source of community to Vancouver Hare Krishna devotees, and ISKON's programs in recent years in providing services and help to all communities. In addition, the organization has been an excellent bridge between people of different faiths and beliefs. ISKON is a great ambassador for the Hare Krishna movement. We roundly applaud the work ISKON has carried out in working with its congregation, expanding services and continued outreach with other organizations.

In changing times, we recognize the important and unique work that local organizations do in connecting their communities. This work is crucial and important as we move towards a more just, equal and multicultural society. We value the dedication and hard work of ISKON in enriching Canada's diverse society.

We send best wishes as you celebrate Shri Krishna Janmastami and Jagannatha Ratha –Yatra for 2017. We also look forward to many more years of continued growth and cultural prosperity.

Yours sincerely,

As discussed, we have a few potential sessions for consideration including:

- Monday, July 31st: 11:00am to noon
- Monday, July 31st: 3:30pm to 4:30pm
- August 1st: Noon to 1:00pm
- August 1st: 3:30pm to 4:30pm

If the above times don't work for you, let me know and we will find another time that does.

We have space reserved at s.15 which can accommodate 10. Alternatively, we are available to attend the Legislative Buildings.

The attendees will include the Chad Hoskins (Senior Director for Information Access Operations) and myself.

Regards,

David

Good but not consulting staff on date, rather consulting colleagues. Too early to speculate on timing. Today we should acknowledge Christy Clark's service to the province.

Further to our conversation about this event, I understand via DW that PJH may need to be back in Victoria late morning. Inasmuch as Coalition Co-chair Duncan Davies will not be available for the early meeting it would be politic if the premier might call him to provide some debrief prior to this event. We will so advise COFI who had raised this concern.

Sage or Layne, it would also be politic, as you have noted, for Bob Matters to be informed, prior to receiving a COFI invite, that his attendance is being requested by PJH. I understand they will process invites as early as tomorrow 10ish, hence a call ASAP would be best.
