Apologies for this Elizabeth. I'm away starting on Friday, so won't have an opportunity to talk to you directly. I have a few thoughts on the draft agendas that got shared electronically via ipad.

As noted in an earlier email, I think the s.12 might be bumped back from the Aug 23 agenda.

Don, Doug Caul, Christine and myself had a good review of the IRR file earlier this week, including plans for the Cabinet meeting and the Sept 6 gathering. All looks to be in hand.

On the Sept 13th meeting, I think both s.12 items need to go to a subcommittee before arriving at Cabinet. s.13 And perhaps biting off the issue through a series of Cabinet meetings instead of trying to deal with that daunting list all at once might make it more manageable?

I have spent much of this week telling Ministers' offices that things need to go to committees before they go to Cabinet, so I think there will be more attention to that. And I have been talking to both Minister Darcy and Robinson's office about using their working groups effectively. Have not yet had the same conversation with the childcare folks.

Hi Doug,

Greetings from s.22

I think the submission reflects our discussion, but I think it's a bit too wide ranging for the purpose next week. Several of those issues would be a significant Cabinet discussion all on their own. I've attached the document with a few comments that I added, but when I got near to the end, I realized there were some confusing (to me) sections about decisions and near term actions, which seemed to overlap.

Then the rest could perhaps be put in a section advising Cabinet you will be returning in the near future with some significant decisions regarding:

s.12,s.13

And the discussion of those items will be informed partly by what happens Sept 6-7

The information I have sets out an ELUC scheduled for Sept 11, items TBC.

The current cabinet schedule has that meeting being reported out on Sept 20.

I will let Elizabeth MacMillan at CabOps know about our conversation and the desire to have it reported out to Cabinet sooner rather than later, but that timing seems like it might be doable.

Robb and I both saw this last Friday on Elizabeth MacMillan's forward looking Cabinet list. I think it reflects your Deputy's early plans and thoughts on scheduling. I have pasted below an email she sent to cab ops laying this out.

None of this is set in stone, and it's more important to get it right than get it fast at this point, so I would treat it as an item that is still to be firmed up.

Hi Suzanne – been a long time – I believe we crossed paths at Competition, Science and Enterprise many years ago.

Anyway, under the Budget Transparency and Accountability Act, Ministers with actual ministries have to meet their budget appropriation targets (i.e., “don’t overspend your budget”) to get their ministerial hold-backs. Since Ministers of State do not have financial targets, non-financial qualitative targets are established via Treasury Board Regulation, which these ministers have to demonstrate having met by reporting out to Cabinet by March 31, 2018. These “Expected Results” simply reflect the content in their respective mandate letters.

Attached are 2 TB regs that we plan to have Minister James sign on August 14 as they have to be done before the September budget date. The Ministries (JTT and CFD) tell us that both their DMs are OK with language, as are the MoS’s themselves.

Anyway, we always run these by the PO before we get the Chair of Treasury Board to sign. Doug Foster thinks you are the appropriate contact, but let me know if you would like be to deal with someone else.

Please let me know if there are any concerns or questions.

Apologies for such short notice. We've finally managed to nail-down an hour each tomorrow by phone & telepresence with:

The House Leader and Chief Legislative Counsel to discuss LRC preparations, @ 9 a.m. by teleconference.

The Chair of the Working Group on Child Care to discuss the functioning of the working group and the first meeting agenda (tues Aug 29), @ 2:30 by telepresence.

Please let us know if you would like to participate and if so, by way of this note, I'll ask Michelle to fwd conference line info (for HL mtg) and a ph number we can dial you at to link you into the telepresence call.

Thank-you

Good afternoon Geoff

In case you haven't been provided any background information on the subject of our meeting I have taken the liberty of providing some material that we used during the election that you might find useful. The purpose of the meeting is to provide you an update, make sure there is a minister responsible for this file, request the involvement of Don Wright and that a senior official is assigned the file, create a joint working group to scope out the negotiations as soon as possible and discuss the capacity funding required and to be repayable from the deal if necessary. We would also be looking forward to a meeting with the Premier and the Minister responsible as soon as possible. Enjoy your long weekend and I look forward to our Tuesday meeting Regards.

Don

FYI. I think things are mostly sorted out. Still talking with Doug Foster on some final items, mostly to do with the PO.
