Hi Mira,

Can you please advise if PJH will sit on the UNDRIP and Government Commitment/Mandate letter panels? FNLC has requested this. Other potential panel members include:

- Emergency Management panel: Minister Eby (PSSG), Parliamentary Secretary Rice (responsible for EMBC), Minister Claire Trevena (Transportation), Minister Doug Donaldson (FLNROD), Ron Ignace (Skeetchesen), Fred Seymour (Tk'emleps) and Anne Louie (Williams lake) and Charlene Belleau (Esketemc). From FNLC staff advise Ed John and Judy Wilson were very involved.
- UNDRIP Panel: Premier, Minister Scott Fraser (MIRR), Minister Katrine Conroy (MCFD), Minister David Eby (AG), FNLC?
- Govt Commitments/Mandate Letters: Premier, Minister Scott Fraser (MIRR), Minister Melanie Mark (AEST), Minister Adrian Dix (HLTH) ??

Hi, Caelie and Kenn –

I'm writing to follow up on a meeting the Premier had on Friday with the First Nations Leadership Council. In the meeting, the subject of the recent issue on fish farms was raised. The Premier told Bob Chamberlain (Elected Chief Councilor, Kwikwasutinuxw Haxwa'mis) that there would be a provincial response. I understand from Caelie that there has been some discussion of this already. Can you please let me know if there is any planned response between your two ministries? I understand from Bob that he has been speaking to the media and there will be a piece on this in the Globe tomorrow.

s.22 so will be less responsive on email, so keep Layne in the loop on this.

Thank you,
Mira

Subject: FNLC Meeting Notes

Please see below notes from the FNLC meeting (held today, August 25).

Geoff, please let me know if you have questions about the note below and/or follow up to it.

Sage, I have cc'd you re messaging for the FNLC (Danielle was at the meeting but I think the points are worth noting) as an FYI.

Kate, PJH signaled a strong interest in the Walk for Reconciliation. Please advise if that is confirmed.

The overall tone of the meeting was very positive; all Council members expressed genuine excitement, hope and optimism about the new government. Many mentioned our commitment to UNDRIP in the mandate letters (of particular note: our mention of infrastructure and housing on reserves). There was repeated discussion of frustration felt at the federal level. There was a concern expressed by several Council members about challenges they have had with the civil service. They were quite specific in their feedback. The Premier listened, took note and talked about giving people an opportunity.

Some points to note:

- Chief Ed John made a special mention of FN's role in the softwood lumber agreement – this was of particular interest to the premier vis a vis private land
- The premier committed to a provincial response on the current fish farm issue (and a follow up meeting with Bob Chamberlain). I will follow up with MGH and MLP's MA's about this
- There was a strong urge for the Premier to be at the Walk for Reconciliation on Sept 24 (I strongly support this and will follow up)
- Discussion on wildfires and FN's not having the resources to manage the crisis. A suggestion was made that there be a meeting in the Fall to look back at the wildfires to determine what could be done differently in the future. I will follow up with Leila Farmer to initiate a discussion with MMF and PSJR.
- The Premier received a very warm response on our grizzly bear announcement
- One point of particular importance is with respect to the budget. They were very pleased to get a heads up about the type of budget this will be (and won't be) and strongly urged us to reiterate that at the FNLC, particularly given the timing of both.
- There was a suggestion that MIRR help get food to the Interior (berries, etc) for canning in response to the wildfires. I will follow up with Leila Farmer.
- The response to the premier's message of the province being under "new management" was very well received

Overall, it was a very positive meeting.

Chiefs Reception – Coastal Gaslink

Date/Time: 5:00pm-7:00pm, September 6, 2017
Location: s.15

TransCanada is hosting a reception for indigenous leaders attending the First Nations Leaders Gathering that are involved with the proposed Coastal Gaslink project.

TransCanada and CGL representatives will be making a few remarks about the success and accomplishments to date; have invited LNG Canada to also attend and make remarks - and welcome participation by Provincial Minister(s) or Senior Officials to attend and/or make remarks as well.

Geoff, Judy and Leila –

Below are notes in advance of our meeting tomorrow with the FNLC council. They come after a long call with Don Bain. I hope to review these with the Premier right before the meeting, but Geoff please feel free to pass them on directly if you see fit.

Leila, please share the format with Minister Fraser.

Point to note: the LC is having a pre-meeting in the morning; they will be making a financial ask in the meeting

Format of the meeting:

- i. The Premier should open the meeting by suggesting we start with a prayer (ask LC member to provide a prayer – they will decide amongst themselves who does it). This should be done before welcoming people.
- ii. Round of introductions
- iii. Premier should then give opening remarks – time to talk about upcoming gathering
- iv. Round of remarks from a LC
- v. Minister Fraser – discuss gathering (invitation of youth; share that caucus and Green Party, Ellis Ross, Dan Ashton have all been invited)
- vi. Premier to close – thank people

I have attached talking points from GPCE for review.

Subject: Check in

Una, Maura -

There are moving parts on some of our hires because of timing and other issues. Before I get back to calls, can we have a check in to make sure we are all on the same page with who is going where? 9:30/45 would be ideal for me today.

Thanks,
M

Hi Judy –

Two things:

Would it be possible to ask Joyce if she has capacity to help Maura and I with hiring admin in the weeks ahead. Maura can especially use help processing paperwork for the Administrative staff.

Second, I want to make sure that the ^{s.15} is booked for the FNLC meeting on Friday. I will be staffing the Premier but don't feel like I have the best handle on the logistics in the office.

Thank you,
Mira

Thank you.

Please see the notes below and add anything you think is missing. I admit to doing this^{s.22} |, so my apologies for any obvious oversights.

Goals/Philosophy

- To identify the best political staff to support all of you
- To hire people that both reflect but also understand the diversity of the province
- To follow our Premier's goal of identifying, supporting and empowering future leaders in our party
- To recruit people from all elements of our party

Objectives

- Hire a minimum of 2 MA's per Minister, and an EA

Process

- Engaged an HR professional and the PSA in this process to determine core competencies for the positions, a thorough interview process and assist with salary recommendations
- Recruited heavily from all sectors – we personally called people, particularly those who would not know how to apply, from equity seeking groups, people with significant networks all over the province and asked them for their strongest suggestions of people. We consulted and worked with the party
- Based on all of this, we received close to 500 resumes for political staff
- Did screening calls with over 200 of those people
- Interviewed close to 100 people in Victoria, Vancouver and over skype
- Our thinking was all about building a team of political staff: people with experience in politics, rather than a specific area of policy expertise. Our goal was not to hire for one Ministry or another but rather to hire a team of people who will work with all of you, the Ministries, the Premier's Office and one another
- We aspire to develop a team that provide exceptional support to all of you but also people who learn and grow together

The Hires

- We were overwhelmed in the possible way by the number and kind of people who applied. We had people from all over Canada. People who applied with cover letters written in their own Indigenous languages. We had people who have been involved in the party for decades and others who are recent immigrants and refugees, new to the country and party.
- We are proud of the people we are putting forward. And really hope they will help all of you – and us – move our governments agenda forward

Next Steps

- Get people started!

Hi Mira,

Shelley found this information from the transition binders. It does show the complement of staffing for each office. Ministries have changed names and responsibilities now but it probably hasn't affected too many budgets.

Next step, is to see if there is a breakdown of the individual salaries. But, looking at the salary bands in these notes should give you a ball park range.

Dear Premier,

On behalf of the United Way of the Lower Mainland, Canadian Labour Congress – Pacific Region, Vancouver District Labour Council and New Westminster and District Labour Council, we are pleased to invite you to be the keynote speaker for our jointly held 24th Annual Labour Appreciation Night, set for Thursday, November 30, 2017. The event will take place from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00p.m. at the Hilton Vancouver Metrotown, 6083 McKay Avenue, Burnaby.

The agenda includes each of the hosting bodies presenting an award to an individual trade unionist on behalf of the Labour movement in recognition of outstanding contributions in the area of community service. 2017 award recipients include BC Federation of Labour President Irene Lanzinger, who will receive the United Way of the Lower Mainland's Joe Morris Labour Community Service Award, MoveUp Secretary-Treasurer Lori Mayhew, who will receive the New Westminster & District Labour Council's Labour Community Service Award and BC Employment Standards Coalition Co-Chair David Fairey, who will receive the Vancouver and District Labour Council's Syd Thompson Award.

This popular evening is a key event in the labour calendar in BC and your presence will add to its success. This will be a significant Lower Mainland event for the labour community and we are expecting over 400 trade unionists and friends to attend again this year.

We understand the complexities of your schedule in the months to come and the work ahead for the province. We hope you will consider this event as a highlight of the fall season. We would appreciate a response to nicolah@uwlm.ca or 604-268-1329.

Sincerely,

Subject: PJH at FNLG

Hi Geoff –

My apologies in advance for writing while you are away. We have some quick decisions to make on the FNLG that I would welcome your thinking on.

First off, we have invited BC Federal ministers. PMJT is in Vancouver that week so the Ministry has come back to me asking if he should be invited. Given that he is in Vancouver, I think we would be wise to invite him. I will follow your direction on this.

Second, I have gathered significantly more information on the 1:1 meetings for PJH at the FNLG. The meetings are 15 minutes each. In the past they have worked as follows:

- The Premier accepted a total of 28 meetings. Three meetings (15 mins each) were done in a row followed by a 15 minute break. Typically, the COS or special advisor sat in on the meetings, along with a scribe and a timer. The Ministry provides a scribe and a timer, but in the past the PO have used their own staff as a scribe. I would welcome joining in these meetings.
- In some cases, the COS and DM took meetings on behalf of the Premier.
- The Ministry will provide written briefing notes and/or an in-person session if requested
- In the past, the Premier has not attended break-out sessions but did attend the Plenary's (start and end of the day)

Decision/Recommendations:

- Will PJH accept this number of meetings? My view is that he should. They could be merged when appropriate but the advice of the ministry is that because meetings are so short, it will make it more difficult to manage.
- Does PJH want Ministers with him in certain meetings? I can share the list of requested meetings in order for PJH to make this decision. If he would like Ministers with him, I need to tell the Ministry that ASAP for scheduling reasons.

Thanks very much, Geoff.

Hi Mira ,
s.22

I am writing you in the hopes that if you are not the right person in Premier Horgan's office you can direct me to that person. I work with Rogers Communications who as you may know own the Toronto Blue Jays. The Blue Jays have a Foundation, Jays Care Foundation whose mission is to use baseball to teach life skills and create lasting social change for children and youth in marginalized communities across Canada. As part of that they have just launched a social media campaign #SportTeaches that engages individuals and groups from across Canada to join a collaborative conversation about sport for development. The goal of the campaign is to foster a conversation surrounding the life skills learned through sport and the importance of physical activity for youth. A goal is also to raise awareness of Jays Care which has invested over 900,000 in sports infrastructure for youth in BC alone (I have attached those details).

Jays Care would very much like to engage Premier Horgan this year in #SportTeaches. This year's campaign builds on a similar week-long campaign last year titled #TeamJaysCare which received engagement from 51 politicians across the country, including five provincial premiers.

This is somewhat time sensitive – what we are asking for is simply for the Premier to tweet:

Proud to support @jayscare and #SportsTeaches. Sports has played a huge role in my life

I know you must be soooo busy and I apologize for the short notice. So if you can help make this happen – or refer me to someone who can... I would really appreciate it...

Subject: Re: 20170828-FNLG Joint Press Conference_Speaking Notes_PJH_DRAFTCM

This is great. Thanks, Danielle.

A couple of notes: FNLC specifically asked for a heads up about the budget. I think we should add that somewhere in his speaking notes. Also, I would like to see the line "under new management" in there if at all possible.

Thanks!

Hi there,
If you are receiving this email, I'm hoping you can help. Your Minister may not yet had their official photo done. Don Craig has been reaching out to try and schedule these daily.
Example of the official portraits:

The First Nations Leadership Gathering takes place Sept. 6- 7 and we need to lock down the program, which includes your Minister's portraits - no later than Aug. 30 in order to meet print deadlines.

Could you please make sure your Minister has a photoshoot booked with Don Craig on Monday or Tuesday?

If they don't, could you please provide us a high res version of the photo you would like us to use in its place?

Outstanding portraits:

- Minister Lisa Beare - TCA
- Minister Adrian Dix - HLTH
- Minister David Eby - AG
- Minister Melanie Mark - AEST
- Premier John Horgan (may be in the works)

To see your Minister's existing portrait please visit the cabinet page.

made some minor changes. looked pretty standard.

some things to note:

Eid al Adha / (also spelt Eid ul Adha) is marked as the date at the conclusion of the Hajj. Hajj is the pilgrimage to Mecca, which is one of 5 central mandatory deeds (if affordable and healthy) to perform for Muslims. It is a major deal, it would be insane for them completing the Hajj if they got a letter from the Premier congratulating them on completing the Hajj. Here is a travel agent that sets up Hajj packages http://naasirtravel.com/wordpress/?page_id=100 - I'd contact them to see if you guys could get a list of people who completed the Hajj this year, and see if the travel company wants the Premier to send them a letter.^{s.13}

s.13

Also, here is the PM's statement from last year.

<http://pm.gc.ca/eng/news/2016/09/12/statement-prime-minister-canada-eid-al-adha> - also pretty standard stuff.

Hi Evan

Geoff asked me to connect with you about the hires for issues management. We want/need to move forward on them very quickly. Do you have a minute today that we can discuss who they are and the salary ranges we are discussing? I will then leave it to you to discuss with Matt.

Looks great. I would soften the contrast piece some – not everything was unilateral – and also not sure we need to really be there in this meeting. One note at the end: make sure the notes make it clear he is opening up for discussion and listening.

Thank you!

Hi,

I've made one change – see attached. It's related to the 10 federal principles – we haven't formalized our position yet, that's a discussion for Cabinet.

Aside from that, this looks great. Thanks Danielle!

Thanks,
Leila

Hello,

Attached is a prep document including background and key messages for PJH to prepare for the meeting with the FNLC on Friday.

Please have a look and let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

The Ministry comms plan for the FNLG includes more details on a variety of issues. I can ask for the latest version for the Premier if he would like more detail, but I think the hope is that Minister Fraser would cover those pieces in the meeting.

Thank you,

Danielle

Hi Mira,

Doug Caul, Matt and I are going through the list of PJH meeting requests^{s.13}

s.13

We need to nail down his schedule

the quickest (by Friday preferably) so we can schedule all the other Ministers.^{s.13}

s.13

For the meeting requests that PJH isn't taking, will there be someone else in the PO to take them? (ie. Don Wright, Geoff Meggs, someone else?) In previous years that's how it has been handled, Kim Henderson or someone else in the PO took some meetings.

Thanks,

Maura, Una –

Please see the notes below and add anything you think is missing. I admit to doing this ^{s.22} so my apologies for any obvious oversights.

Goals/Philosophy

- To identify the best political staff to support all of you
- To hire people that both reflect but also understand the diversity of the province
- To follow our Premier's goal of identifying, supporting and empowering future leaders in our party
- To recruit people from all elements of our party

Objectives

- Hire a minimum of 2 MA's per Minister, and an EA

Process

- Engaged an HR professional and the PSA in this process to determine core competencies for the positions, a thorough interview process and assist with salary recommendations
- Recruited heavily from all sectors – we personally called people, particularly those who would not know how to apply, from equity seeking groups, people with significant networks all over the province and asked them for their strongest suggestions of people. We consulted and worked with the party
- Based on all of this, we received close to 500 resumes for political staff
- Did screening calls with over 200 of those people
- Interviewed close to 100 people in Victoria, Vancouver and over skype
- Our thinking was all about building a team of political staff: people with experience in politics, rather than a specific area of policy expertise. Our goal was not to hire for one Ministry or another but rather to hire a team of people who will work with all of you, the Ministries, the Premier's Office and one another
- We aspire to develop a team that provide exceptional support to all of you but also people who learn and grow together

The Hires

- We were overwhelmed in the possible way by the number and kind of people who applied. We had people from all over Canada. People who applied with cover letters written in their own Indigenous languages. We had people who have been involved in the party for decades and others who are recent immigrants and refugees, new to the country and party.
- We are proud of the people we are putting forward. And really hope they will help all of you – and us – move our governments agenda forward

Next Steps

- Get people started!

Hi Maura,

This is good information, Maura, thank you. I obviously moved too fast to get information after Mira and I were talking about the process. As you say thankfully we are on the same page. So, there is no need to revise what I sent. I will gracefully bow out as my "helpfulness" is just causing more work all round :)

Obviously you should continue until this process is finished and tap whomever you need to get the work done. The Admin staff in Vancouver will be asked to help, just provide them directly with instructions. I'll let Danny and Joyce know that you will be contacting them.

And, if there is anything you want me to do, I promise to wait to be asked.

Thanks.

Hi all,

Thank you for this Judy.

I didn't realize you were working on this as well so I drafted a memo this morning and I have all that forms we need from the PSA for raising the OICs and the confirmation of employment letters.

On my Friday morning call with the PSA I told them to expect a large volume of hires this week and asked them to prepare a one page visual chart of the on boarding process so we would have that going forward.

In addition to MAs they are on boarding approximately 15 administrative assistants and I will be sending a note to you and Geoff shortly recommending the hiring of up to 10 administrative coordinators this week.

Thankfully we are on the same page, I just have a few additional thoughts for your consideration below.

Maura

Next steps:

- Ministers are notified of Ministerial staff team prior to individual offers being extended - Chief of Staff
- Offers, including assignment and salary, are extended to individuals (we will develop a scripted message for salary rationale, a Q and A plus notes on individual and rationale for assignment) I would recommend that we deal with transitional MAs first. Chief of Staff

- Once a position is accepted, the PSA will be notified immediately so they can plan for raising the OIC, knowing their exact start date will be a critical piece here (we have a tracking sheet provided by the PSA) Also they can't start work until the OIC is final.

I'm happy to continue liaising with the PSA on moving this through if need be.

- Administrative support staff can then send individuals an on boarding package which should include the OIC form, confirmation of employment form, standards of conduct for political staff, and information on pension and benefits (I'm hoping that Vancouver admin staff working with Judy can handle this piece as they've been involved so far and we now don't have any admin staff working directly on this in Victoria) The turn around on this will need to be fast as some people may not want to give notice in their current position until they have a signed confirmation of employment letter. The PSA will need the completed employment form from the individual before they can generate the letter and all letters will need to be signed by the Chief of Staff.

- We also need to decide how to inform candidates who aren't selected which I think may be best accomplished by individual calls as we may need to tell some that we will consider them in the future or that they have a better fit somewhere else in the organization.

- Other next steps include the scheduling of orientation sessions for new staff, the scheduling of oath swearing, and working with existing transitional staff on their transition into that office, including briefings on existing systems (communications, correspondence, etc) and briefings by Ministry staff.

- Other outstanding issues include moving expenses and in travel status while they transition to Victoria. Because we are asking people to move here very quickly they may need temporary accommodation. For example, given the lateness in the month they may not be able to rent here until October 1 and at this point won't be able to vacate their current residence until October 1 as well. The PSA has confirmed that both moving expenses and in travel status are available but we need to consider the impact on Minister's office budget and what level of expense is considered appropriate within the range available. I think we need to decide on this before we start calling people as it will be part of the Q and A.

- Finally, we may need to consider vetting their social media again. We did this for transitional MAs and had to ask one individual to remove a post, not for content reasons but for tone.

Mira and I talked about this on Friday and there is another step in the process that she will discuss.

Attached is a draft outlining the steps. It will be updated as soon as I get the information from PSA.

This means we can have Maura and Sage/Kate do interviews on Wednesday in Victoria and 2 tracks of interviews going on Thursday in Vancouver (Maura/Kate, Mira/Una) and two tracks Friday (Mira/Sage; Una/Kate).

This should really help us get through a significant number of people.

Hi David –

I hope you are well and had a good weekend. I don't seem to be able to print in our office and I'm hoping someone may be able to help me with this today.
Any ideas?

Many thanks,

Hi Danny -

Below are times I am available to conduct interviews next week.

Monday 1-4pm
Tuesday 12 - 4pm
Wednesday 11-5pm
Thursday 9-3pm

Kate and Una, can you confirm your availability for Vancouver interviews?

Susan, Danny is doing scheduling of interviews from the s.15 If anyone of the people you screened yesterday are ready to proceed and are based in Vancouver (or can be conducted by Skype), please pass along the names to him.

I'll follow up with additional names of people to interview before Monday.

Thanks!

Hi Maura -

Re next week: Kate is able to be in Victoria Monday-Tuesday (if needed) for interviews. If it's only^{s.22} on Monday, then one of us can join by phone.

Una is able to be in Victoria on Thursday as needed.

We are working through the master list here and I suspect will have at least 20-30 to interview in Vancouver next week.

Let us know what you are thinking for interviews next week.

Thx

Hello,

Do you two have time for a brief call regarding the FN LG event? Perhaps tomorrow?

I'm helping with the messaging and communications roll-out and I wanted to run a couple of ideas by you about the media event.

I have time tomorrow between 11am and 2pm, and 3 and 5.

It will take 15 minutes at the most.

Thank you!

Hi Layne,

I'm looking for your advice on how to seek leave for Minister Darcy from the BC First Nations Gathering on Thursday, September 7th from 8:30 to 1:30pm.

Minister Darcy has been asked to speak to 450 attendees at the Recovery Capital Conference at 8:30am in New West that day. Her address will be followed by Dr. João Goulão from Portugal. Dr. Goulão has become the face of Portugal's drug policy reform movement and was part of the expert panel that developed the initial recommendations for the 1999 Strategy, which included the decriminalization of drugs. Minister of Health Jane Philpott is in Portugal learning more about this initiative.

There is also an opportunity for Minister Darcy to meet with stakeholders from 11:00 to 12:30pm that same day. Approx 50 attendees are invited by City of New West Mayor Jonathon Cote to meet with Dr. Goulão, other local city mayors and key leaders of community organizations. The goals of the stakeholder meeting are:

1. Establish a contextual understanding of Recovery Capital within the provincial and national systems of care
2. Explore international experiences and perspectives of recovery including Portugal's Ministry of Drug Dissuasion successes of low overdose mortality rates
3. Acknowledge challenges and shortfalls of implementing international evidence-based models into the national and local healthcare system contexts
4. Facilitate open dialogue to influence, and mobilize strategic focuses to effectively impact and improve mental health and recovery
5. Provide a platform to engage recovery stakeholders' energy and commitment to address Canadians' complex mental health and addiction issues

As well, Minister Darcy will be spending time at Recovery Day activities in New West on Sept 9th. She'll be addressing the attendees at 2:45pm, then participating in the 3:00pm province-wide "Moment of Silence" for those we have lost to Mental Health and Addictions. Minister Darcy suggests the Premier may want to attend this event as some 8,000 people attended last year and they expect a far greater turnout this year. The streets will be lined with over 65 Mental Health and Wellness Booths, making this Canada's largest addiction recovery event.

These events are pivotal in raising awareness of the need of our new Ministry of Mental Health and Addictions.

If you could please advise how I'd go about seeking leave and also inviting the Premier to attend on Recovery Day I'd appreciate it.

Thanks Layne.

2. New Confirmations
s.22

As you can see, I have also confirmed most people's start dates and salary levels.

A few key missing pieces:

1. Ministry of Finance – Both MA and EA s.22
2. Ministry of Health – EA position based in Victoria
s.22 will know by end of day which to pursue)
3. Ministry of Education – EA
4. Ministry of Citizen Services – s.22

I am establishing an understanding of the context/situation for communications on this issue.

I am contacting you in your formal capacity because I expect that is most appropriate, although you were on my list to consult before your appointment was announced.

I look forward to connecting!

Congratulations all 'round!

I am getting in touch on behalf of my client, UBC Campus and Community Planning. CC&P has engaged me to develop a communications strategy related to planning for future rapid transit to the Point Grey campus.

It is very early in my assignment and I am first aiming to gather input from key individuals throughout Vancouver and BC.

As someone who has been so active in the City and the Province, your input would be extremely valuable.

Would you be willing to have a brief (maybe 15 minute) conversation with me to discuss thoughts around future rapid transit to UBC?

I hope to hear from you!

Kind regards,

B.C . Premier statement on Eid al-Adha

VICTORIA – On the holy occasion of Eid al-Adha, B.C. Premier John Horgan made the following statement on behalf of the New Democrat Government Caucus.

“On behalf of the New Democrat caucus, we extend our whole-hearted and warmest greetings to the Muslim community as the annual Eid al-Adha celebration approaches. All British Columbians who practice the Islamic faith look forward to this holy occasion, and we wish all who celebrate a joyous and reflective Eid Mubarak,” said Horgan.

“The Muslim community works beside others offering assistance to people in need, now and throughout the year. That help is given to people of all communities and faiths and is deeply appreciated. Your service helps build stronger, more compassionate communities.

“The teaching and lessons of Eid al-Adha are reflected in the many great contributions made to our province by the Muslim community. This is a wonderful time to acknowledge Eid al-Adha and also to remember the important contributions Canadian Muslims have made to society.

“As Muslims celebrate Eid al-Adha in a renewal of faith, we join with you in wishing for a most wonderful and bright future.

“Eid Mubarak.”

Hi Shawna,

Thanks for the note. Regarding your bullets:

- Great news that the Premier is attending Walk for Reconciliation!
- EMBC has already started planning regional engagement sessions with impacted First Nations for the fall. These sessions are tentatively scheduled for October 16-20 in Prince George, Williams Lake and Kamloops areas. MIRR (and BCWS) will be participating in these sessions.
- I agree the idea of sending food to the interior is worth following-up on. I'll find out who to connect with on this.
- Does the response to fish farms you're working on involve the meeting request from Chief Bob Chamberlin?

I have a few items for you:

- During the meeting, the Premier was asked about the opioid crisis and the tripartite agreement with the federal government. He said he would connect with Minister Dix on this. Do you know if this has happened?
- I think follow-up will be an important part of the gathering. We should, at some point soon, turn our minds to what we want that to look like.

Thanks,
Leila

A few items FYI:

- The Premier will be attending the Walk for Reconciliation
- I really liked the idea of a wildfire review in the Fall as to how FN's communities were equipped (or not) for response. Do you want to work on this with MMF and PSJR?

- What did you think about the idea of food being sent to the Interior? I thought that was worth following up on. I'll leave it in your hands.
- I'm working with Caelie Frampton and Kenn McLeran on a fish farms response. I'll keep you in the loop on it.

Hi,

Thanks Maura - super helpful.

I have attached a draft phone interview script for review. The intro is changed and it has been shortened to 7 questions - including the final question where they can add info about themselves. It can be further shortened if it still looks too long. The script would need to be slightly adjusted for those interviews where the Minister hasn't put forward a recommendation (Ministers HB/AD)

I think the next step is to firm up our availability so that Danny can start the scheduling.

I am available all day Sunday and Monday (as well as Wednesday and Thursday). Depending on others availability, and the availability of the candidates, I think we should be able to finish the bulk of them by Monday.

There are pros and cons to doubling up and to going solo:

- ? two interviewers: two perspectives / two note takers / greater consistency
- ? one interviewer: more calls done in a shorter period of time

From a process point of view, I think it is better to have two interviewees - but if time is the greater priority (and I fully understand why it could be) then one interviewer would be the way to go.

If we do proceed with one interviewer, I would like to be able to do mine from the ^{s.15} and phone as I think that given the candidates won't know me, it will help to contextualize the conversation for the candidate. Logistically, that makes Sunday calling trickier for me as I wouldn't have access to the office.

What do you think?

Thanks

Una

Hi,

I have attached an Excel sheet listing only the EAs and summarizing if we need to call the EA or if they have already been interviewed.

It looks like there are 2 s.22 that do not need interviews. If we go with either s.22 for MDE then that would reduce the list to 17 that need calling.

Here is a list of action items that I believe need to be done:

- * create script / questions for call (UNA)
- * obtain contact info for all preferred EA's (is there an Admin staff person who could do this?)
- * review other lists for EA's to fill spots where no-one has been identified. I think only 2 ministers are in this situation (MAD and MHB)
- * Identify who will be making the calls
- * Have an Admin (Danny?) schedule the calls

Let's chat about this tomorrow and see if we need to add other tasks / concerns,

Thanks!

Rob,

I saw the note that went around and asked caucus members to not take meetings at FNLC but I had some already requested and accepted in my role as PS.

The DM for EMBC has already arranged these and is providing support for me there. Minister Farnworth is in agreement that I take these meetings so wanted to give you a heads up to expect some to be coming through in my calendar.

Hi,

Below is a draft email / letter to the interviewed candidates who did not receive offers in the initial round of hiring. I am proposing that it come from Geoff -so would be interested in your thoughts on that. Also - am not sure about including numbers for applicants and interviews - so again would like your thoughts on that. And as always - I offer this for critical appraisal and suggestions.

Thanks so much,

Una

Dear,

We are writing today to update you on our hiring process and to thank you again for your interest in working with the government and in helping move forward a progressive and inclusive platform.

As part of this process, the government received expressions of interest from over 200 talented and committed individuals and in our first round of hiring interviewed close to 100 of them. In every possible way we were impressed and encouraged by the quality of candidates interviewed and by the breadth of skill and experience that they represented.

We have now moved forward with the selection process for the Ministerial Assistant positions, and although you were not included in that group, we would like to assure you that your file and application remain open and as other vacant positions are rolled into the hiring process you will most definitely be considered for those.

We are appreciative of, and grateful, for your willingness to meet with the interview team and to share so generously your time and your professional experiences with them.

Thank you again for your interest in working for the government.

Yours truly,

Geoff Meggs
Chief of Staff

Based on that let's try to start scheduling for Sunday and Monday.

Maura - If we do Sunday and Monday calls together - would you be able to start the call and join me and the candidate in?

Or is there an easier way to do it?

Note: I am only free until 4:00 on Sunday - but good for day and evening on Monday.

Danny will also need the EA job description to send to the candidates.

Thanks!

Hi,

Thanks Maura - super helpful.

I have attached a draft phone interview script for review. The intro is changed and it has been shortened to 7 questions - including the final question where they can add info about themselves. It can be further shortened if it still looks too long. The script would need to be slightly adjusted for those interviews where the Minister hasn't put forward a recommendation (Ministers HB/AD)

I think the next step is to firm up our availability so that Danny can start the scheduling.

I am available all day Sunday and Monday (as well as Wednesday and Thursday). Depending on others availability, and the availability of the candidates, I think we should be able to finish the bulk of them by Monday.

There are pros and cons to doubling up and to going solo:

- two interviewers: two perspectives / two note takers / greater consistency
- one interviewer: more calls done in a shorter period of time

From a process point of view, I think it is better to have two interviewees - but if time is the greater priority (and I fully understand why it could be) then one interviewer would be the way to go.

If we do proceed with one interviewer, I would like to be able to do mine from the ^{s.15} and phone as I think that given the candidates won't know me, it will help to contextualize the conversation for the candidate. Logistically, that makes Sunday calling trickier for me as I wouldn't have access to the office.

What do you think?

Thanks

Una

Hi,

I have attached an Excel sheet listing only the EAs and summarizing if we need to call the EA or if they have already been interviewed.

It looks like there are 2 ^{s.22} that do not need interviews. If we go with either ^{s.22} for MDE then that would reduce the list to 17 that need calling.

Here is a list of action items that I believe need to be done:

- * create script / questions for call (UNA)
- * obtain contact info for all preferred EA's (is there an Admin staff person who could do this?)
- * review other lists for EA's to fill spots where no-one has been identified. I think only 2 ministers are in this situation (MAD and MHB)
- * Identify who will be making the calls
- * Have an Admin (Danny?) schedule the calls

Let's chat about this tomorrow and see if we need to add other tasks / concerns,

Thanks!

I think this is a great framework. A couple of thoughts: we should not send this out until truly all MA positions have been offered (a few people have not yet been reached). Also, I wonder if we should provide links to various departments (GPCE, PSA) for job postings. Maura, I'll follow your lead on that.

Great to know. I'll work to confirm the meeting tomorrow. Minister Ralston is definitely participating so that will hopefully make things simpler.

Thanks, Judy.

Hi Mira,

I just found out that we do not have video conference facilities in our office. The system in Cabinet office is a secure network only between cabinet chambers in Victoria.

We will need lead time to find a location. Jobs, Trade and Technology apparently have the ability and this of course would be used if Minister Ralston is participating as his office would arrange it.

Let me know what's happening soon so if we're participating on our own, we can make arrangements for a location either with JTT or elsewhere.

Thanks.

Hi Mira,

The updated PO meeting request list is attached.

Outstanding questions:

- Will PJH attend the pre-event gathering? Are there other PO staff who will attend?
- If answer to question above is yes, will PJH speak at the pre-event?
- Does the PO want their own timekeeper? Or MIRR provided? This would be for the 1:1 meetings
- Does PO want a Minister/DM to be in all of PJH's meetings?
- Will PJH do opening remarks? Closing remarks - MSF?
- Will PJH sit on the panels? Which other Ministers?

Thanks!

Hi Veronica,
Congrats on what looked like a great event today at Okanagan College.
Onwards to the next trades announcement, Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 p.m.
Approval timelines I am targeting:

1. As soon as you can:
 - ✓ Podium sign – as soon as you approve – we can get it produced.
Ideally before Monday morning. Our events lead will leave for the COTR Monday AM.

2. Monday morning:

- ✓ Guest list/invitation to go out midmorning; give potential guests approximately 24 hours before opportunity (invitations and RSVP handled by GCPE events); COTR will provide to their faculty and student groups.
- ✓ Media advisory: I'd like to issue late morning. That would allow the media to put it in their to-consider pile. I will do calls Monday afternoon to regional media.
- ✓ Itinerary: Let me know if you have any concerns.

3. Monday afternoon/or earlier if possible:

- ✓ News release. I'd like to prepare it for publication that afternoon and get the pdf to our events lead and the COTR communications manager.

Also please find attached speaking notes. Let us know if you'd like any changes.

Thanks,

R

Hello,

I have some questions for both of you with regard to media planning for the event and consulting with the FNLC leadership in the lead up to the agenda approval meeting with the FNLC on August 25th.

Jen has signed off on a preliminary media availability proposal, but we need to nail down some specifics.

Do you have some availability tomorrow for a discussion? My calendar is quite open.

Attached is a very draft communications plan sent from the Ministry today. It requires editing, but it provides a good picture of event.

Thank you,

Danielle

Hey Mira,

I'm going to be in Victoria on Tuesday for some meetings. I was wondering if you had some time to grab a coffee or connect.

There are over 200,000 British Columbians with Uber accounts, and we are looking forward to working with the new government being able to use the service here.

Fortunately, there's a path forward for the NDP to enable ridesharing in a way that has much less impact on taxi than what the Liberals had proposed. I'd like to talk through that with you and highlight some of the validators that we could help get on side this fall as you roll out your plan.

Hope we can find a time to connect.

Michael

Veronica,

Please find attached for your approval communication materials to support the event/announcement this Friday at Okanagan College:

Need approval by tomorrow morning:

1. Media advisory: As soon as I get approval, I can get it out to the newswire. The goal is to do targeted call-arounds to regional media tomorrow afternoon.
2. Invitation & guest list – Our events leads are ready to send the invitations as soon as you approve both the invitation and the guest list. Ideally, the invitations would go out tomorrow morning, given invitees 24 hours notice.
3. Itinerary – This is the proposed DRAFT itinerary. Our events lead will be onsite tomorrow afternoon to ensure the proposed run-of-show in this document will work within the designated time frame. Please let me know if you have any preliminary concerns.

Approval for tomorrow afternoon:

4. News Release: To prepare the news release for distribution and to provide the approved and final copy to our events leads who will be traveling tomorrow morning to Kelowna, I would ideally need to have this prepped and ready to go with our news release editors tomorrow afternoon.
5. Speaking notes/Key messages: Please let us know if you require any changes to the speaking notes and the one-page of key messages.

As an FYI: updated event plan.

Thanks in advance and I look forward to hearing from you when you can.

Hi All,

Below reflects our discussion today.

Harold as MC – Colin will reach out. Shawna will schedule a call for next week with Harold as well. – Done.

Proposed plenaries: Panels on UNDRIP implementation (with Federal govt & PJH/Ministers), Emergency preparedness (EMBC & FNESS & Community members who have gone through wildfires) and Mandate letters/ Govt commitment (PJH & Ministers). Action – Shawna will discuss this with MO/PO.

Action – Shawna to get a proposal from youth collective Action – FNLG staff to get agreement on the following potential breakout sessions:

- children and families (Matthew) (can we carve out 30 mins for DM AB to attend this panel)
- women in leadership (Maureen) – MACAW is interested in doing an industrial camps workshop if it fits in here?
- youth panel (Shawna)
- BCAFN Ec Dev report out (Maureen)
- Revenue Sharing (Who will organize?)
- Opioid Crisis (Who will organize?)

Opening remarks: Ed John, Maureen Chapman, Stewart Phillip. Action – Shawna will confirm govt reps.

Hi Leila,

Doug will be chatting with Greg D today to ensure they are working with BC Federation of Labour. To follow up to some of your & Moira's questions though, BCBC doesn't typically send a separate invite to FNs inviting them, but it is on our website and they are prompted to respond whether they will attend or not when they register for our event.

I haven't been able to confirm if they will invite caucus, green MLAs, MLA Ellis Ross & MIRR critic, but I have put the question out there.

BCBC sends invites out to their members, takes registrations, and then operates a separate check-in desk on the evening of the reception for their members.

In the past, BCBC has also gone out to their members for sponsorship, to cover the costs of the event. In return, sponsors are allowed to set-up an exhibit booth within the reception room.

s.16 Each member organization invited is allowed allocated two tickets, so they can bring a guest. In addition, sponsors are provided with a larger number of tickets congruent with their level of sponsorship. So its possible that some attending members and sponsors have s.16

BCBC does their own badges for their members but rely on ours for our guests.

Hi Geoff:

We will definitely need to ensure that we have a broad consultation process once the FWC begins its work.

At this point we are still collecting names and we expect that the Green Caucus will provide names as well. We will need to complete this by the 16th as it will form a part of the submission to CabOps.

We have now confirmed a meeting for Tuesday morning at 9am with the Green Caucus.

Hi Geoff:

Thanks for your note. My apologies if there is confusion on timing or our approach. I have spoken to Minister Bains again today on this and he supports where we are on this with respect to consultation and timing. I appreciate the opportunity to share with you exactly what we have been doing.

On the timing issues first, we have confirmed with CabOps a cabinet date of August 30 to present a submission on the Fair Wages Commission (FWC) which follows the discussion of August 1 at cabinet. The submission is due August 16 which means we must do all of the preparatory work before then. The timing for an announcement on the FWC is still not yet determined but is not going to be before August 30. We'd like to have a stand-alone Labour Day message which means a possible FWC announcement in mid-September (meaning nothing is imminent on the FWC).

On the consultation question, Minister Bains was directed at cabinet to consult his two colleagues (Ministers Ralston and Simpson) on draft terms of reference and suggested names for the FWC. This meeting occurred yesterday. We have consensus on the TOR and are doing some work to add to the list of names before the August 16 due date to CabOps.

We are working with CASA Secretariat on a consultation meeting with them and we are looking at August 14 or 15 to be able to incorporate any feedback or concerns in advance of the August 16 due date. We hope to be sharing documents before the end of today.

We are meeting the BCFED on Friday and had planned to discuss with them informally the FWC, but not the specifics of the TOR to avoid negotiations on elements of the TOR. In addition, we know employers will want to engage on the TOR and we are not likely to be able to bridge the gap between them and the BCFED on all of the elements of the TOR or in advance of the August 16 due date.

We have an announcement on the Minimum Wage for next Tuesday and are well aware that there will be questions about the FWC at that time, so we want to be able to say that we are working hard on this and will have an announcement in the near future.

I hope you find the above helpful in terms of our path forward. Let me know your thoughts on this.

Hi Karen,

The reason this was delayed earlier was to provide time for consultation with the labour movement, the Green Party, etc. Perhaps I missed something, but has this consultation occurred? I know it hasn't with the Green Party, although it emerged from the CASA. My assumption is that there would be a brief period of engagement, a month to six weeks, to resolve a number of design issues.

Hi Geoff. More on this one. I just spoke with Karen Cooling in Minister Bains' office. They intend to submit this item to Cab Ops next Wed Aug 16. I got the impression today that you were expecting a longer consultation period, with time to involve Green Caucus/reflect their input. Please advise. Meanwhile I'll work to set up a meeting with Green Caucus / Min Labour for early next week.

Hello Mira,

I hope you are well. s.22
s.22 Unfortunately, I do not have your office email so please excuse my connecting with you through your personal email.

I have reached out to Municipal Affaires and Housing Minister Selina Robinson with the goal to meet with her to discuss how we can collaborate to address the rental housing supply challenges and our shared legislative concerns. I know that she is extremely busy so this will take a little time to orchestrate. She has in her possession a briefing document we prepared for her (I can provide you with a copy if you are interested). One of the opportunities highlighted therein is the Minister making enrollment in the Landlord Registry™ mandatory for all landlords. Enhancing the knowledge of secondary market landlords is critical and we're best-positioned to handle that.

The Minister and I also need to discuss the Residential Tenancy Branch. We've been concerned (as have folks like TRAC and others) about the underfunding/understaffing of the Residential Tenancy Branch for some time. There are significant and ongoing problems with the Branch's adjudication services at all stages of the adjudication process, resulting in inconsistent and unreliable enforcement of the legislation. We have reached a point where neither landlords nor tenants can rely on the Branch to provide access to justice.

Anyways, this was a longer email than originally intended. Congratulations once again. I'm sure our path's will cross in the not-to-distant future.

Have a great weekend!

I am not sure if any of your MLAs are planning to attend this year, but I hope some will. We have a Canada-US Relations Committee that meets every year at the annual meeting, and I had the honor of attending a US-Canada trade summit in Calgary and a visit with provincial leaders in Edmonton earlier this year. Hi Layne,

I'm looking for your advice on how to seek leave for Minister Darcy from the BC First Nations Gathering on Thursday, September 7th from 8:30 to 1:30pm.

Minister Darcy has been asked to speak to 450 attendees at the Recovery Capital Conference at 8:30am in New West that day. Her address will be followed by Dr. João Goulão from Portugal. Dr. Goulão has become the face of Portugal's drug policy reform movement and was part of the expert panel that developed the initial recommendations for the 1999 Strategy, which included the decriminalization of drugs. Minister of Health Jane Philpott is in Portugal learning more about this initiative.

There is also an opportunity for Minister Darcy to meet with stakeholders from 11:00 to 12:30pm that same day. Approx 50 attendees are invited by City of New West Mayor Jonathon Cote to meet with Dr. Goulão, other local city mayors and key leaders of community organizations. The goals of the stakeholder meeting are:

As well, Minister Darcy will be spending time at Recovery Day activities in New West on Sept 9th. She'll be addressing the attendees at 2:45pm, then participating in the 3:00pm province-wide "Moment of Silence" for those we have lost to Mental Health and Addictions. Minister Darcy suggests the Premier may want to attend this event as some and 8,000 people attended last year and they expect a far greater turnout this year. The streets will be lined with over 65 Mental Health and Wellness Booths, making this Canada's largest addiction recovery event.

These events are pivotal in raising awareness of the need of our new Ministry of Mental Health and Addictions.

If you could please advise how I'd go about seeking leave and also inviting the Premier to attend on Recovery Day I'd appreciate it.

Thanks Layne.

Hi Danielle and Tom

As you may know, I am the contact for PSSG for the FNLG prep. Noting that so far, our list of meeting requests is all EMBC-related, I wanted to ask you how you prepared last year for the EMBC meetings, and what the plan is for this year. Time is tight this year for preparing so I want to be sure I am organized. I see also that some meetings are requested for the Parliamentary Secretary. I'm not clear on this – assuming that it would be EMBC call whether it would be the PS and/or minister taking the meeting.

FYI – I've coordinated PSSG materials and briefing for the FNLG for the past few years. We put together a binder with background info for each FN that had scheduled a meeting with the SG, and we included the meeting schedule (as well as a list of the AG meetings). We asked program areas to prepare the BNs. Most of the meetings last year were police-related, so Clayton Pecknold attended the minister briefing as well. My preference would be to have a section for the EMBC meetings and have all in one binder, but not sure yet how the PS meetings may factor in, and would like to get your input on this. Also, I am assuming that EMBC would coordinate the preparation of BNs for the EMBC meetings.

I am mindful of your time given the wildfire situation – so thought I would send an email to get the ball rolling – feel free to email back, or call me, whatever works best. Also, can you let me know who my main contact would be – is it Danielle?

Thanks.

Good afternoon,

Please find attached your ministry's requested FNLG 1:1 meetings to date.

As they continue to come in to the meeting request site, I'll periodically send you updates with your ministry's new meetings, at least weekly. Please keep in mind that, due to the event registration commencing far later than originally planned—it's likely that we'll receive many requests close to the event. Given this, we recommend that you begin preparing your minister's/executive's briefing materials as soon as possible.

Note we'll be connecting with your minister's office separately to coordinate on scheduling meetings. I also want to note that many meetings will become joint with other ministries. In those instances, it's likely that your minister/executive would still want his/her own briefing materials. Nevertheless, I just wanted to point out that some of the meetings on your list could, at this point, still be declined, deferred to another ministry, or identified as a joint meeting with another ministry as the lead.

Finally, if you wish to use it, I've attached a materials tracking template that I created. You'll see that the first six columns in the tracking template are identical to those of the meeting summary list.

Copy and paste the meeting summary list into the tracking template (when you paste, paste only "text"). The meeting ID number in the far left column will automatically populate the "Assigned?" column with a yellow-highlighted "No". This is to prompt you/staff to assign those materials. Once assigned, type "Yes" in that column, the colour will change, and the "Completed?" column will automatically change to "No" to now update the status of the briefing materials request. Once completed, type "Yes" and the colour will change to show it's now done. Also, on the far right you'll see a tally for all of your requests and where they are in the process.

As I monitor the meeting request site multiple times a day, as well as the FNLG meeting email inbox to which First Nations can email questions—please let me know if you ever have any questions/concerns about your ministry's meetings, or, even, other ministry's meeting. Thank you.

We asked Meagan to work throughout the weekend to clean up the list.

Susan Vasilev will be with us for next week to finish this off and to help with interviews. I have to start interviewing administrative coordinators the following week and I'm sure we will still be interviewing MAs.

I'm also going to ask the PSA to keep the VCO support staff on for a while longer until Judy Cavanagh starts her new role and can take care of staffing up there, per Geoff's direction.

I'm not available at all tomorrow ^{s.22} but perhaps we can connect on Monday.

Cheers,

Hi Mira,

I'm working on the new spreadsheet this weekend and hope to have it done and ready to hand off on Tuesday. Susan Vasilev, one of the LAs, is available to assist – but I'm not sure for how long. I've found many issues so far and I'm only at around 250 of the 1000 resumes. This process is time-consuming, but it'll help avoid missing people and it will be simple to hand off resumes to those who need them. I'll touch base on Monday with an update and will let you know if I have any questions or concerns before then.

Thanks

Subject: CVs - moving forward & next steps

Hi Mira & Maura,

Today I am going to go through and work on revamping our CV masterlist. I feel that how it has been done in the past was inconsistent (because of numerous people taking it on) and inefficient. I am starting my role as Communications Officer next week, but I would like to leave you with some kind of system that makes sense (and I can spend some time on it this weekend). I will not make any changes to our current system with my recommendations below until I hear from you. For now... I'm just going to make sure the inboxes are checked and the resumes are all saved into the correct folders.

Here's what I believe would help get everything on track:

Step 1:

We need an auto-reply message that's more specific and encourages anyone applying from here on out to follow certain instructions (such as apply directly to GCPE or public service website) – Maura has my recommendations on this in another email.

Step 2:

ALL CVs/cover letters need to be re-read and categorized appropriately according to what they have indicated they would be interested in. This will be crucial for us when it comes time to pass the applications along to the right folks.

For example:

ABCs – people that have specifically indicated interest in ABCs

ADM/Expert Public Service – people that have specifically indicated interest in ADM role OR with CV demonstrating senior level public service experience

Policy – people that have specifically indicated interest in policy (ANY LEVEL)

Communications – people that have specifically indicated interest in communications OR with CV demonstrating experience in communications (ANY LEVEL)

Political – people that have minimum 2 yrs experience on political campaigns, labour organizing or NGOs/nonprofits

Admin – people that have indicated they would like to be considered for an admin role

Entry Level (Not Indicated) – everybody else with no relevant govt/political/comms/policy background OR with very minimal (less than 2 yrs – maybe a volunteer? on campaigns)

Senior Level (Not Indicated) – everybody else with relevant experience, perhaps in many areas that have just not indicated what it is they would be interested in. These are recommendations just so some guidelines can be established... this is where a lot of the inconsistencies developed in our current system. Everyone will read a resume differently, so I think following the categories above will help.

Step 3:

Emails need to be sent to everyone who has applied with some kind of message regarding next steps – to simplify the process.. you could take ALL of the applicants who have applied for a communications job and respond with a generic greeting, thanking them for applying and directing them to the GCPE website to apply and indicate that we have also forwarded their applications directly to GCPE should there be some other opportunity not posted available and suitable for them.

Similar emails could go to everyone who applied for ABCs.. indicating that their CVs are with whomever it is that will be handling that moving forward.

Obviously we are trying to manage this situation the best we can – but a high volume of resumes are still coming in AND many people are now resending their applications and emailing questions about timelines etc..

Hi Mira,

I spoke to Kate just now -- she tells me you are now the person I need to speak to about the First Nations Leadership council meeting.

We've been working on some communications planning on the Cabinet Priorities team for this event. I thought we should connect to compare notes and make sure we're on the same page in terms of the comms opportunities, which will help shape the overall plan going forward.

Let me know if you have time to meet this week to discuss.

Thanks,

Thank you.

I'd like to move forward with getting all the additional Lower Mainland interviews scheduled so that everyone on the list has received a call by the end of the week. Ideally, we can then start scheduling outside of Vancouver calls by Monday.

I'm starting to hear from cabinet ministers frustrated by the timelines so I want to make sure we move this all ahead as quickly as possible.

Monica, I'm around tomorrow for any questions.

Hi there,

If you are receiving this email, I'm hoping you can help. Your Minister may not yet had their official photo done. Don Craig has been reaching out to try and schedule these daily.

Example of the official portraits:

The First Nations Leadership Gathering takes place Sept. 6- 7 and we need to lock down the program, which includes your Minister's portraits - no later than Aug. 30 in order to meet print deadlines.

Could you please make sure your Minister has a photoshoot booked with Don Craig on Monday or Tuesday?

If they don't, could you please provide us a high res version of the photo you would like us to use in its place?

Outstanding portraits:

- Minister Lisa Beare - TCA
- Minister Adrian Dix - HLTH
- Minister David Eby - AG
- Minister Melanie Mark - AEST
- Premier John Horgan (may be in the works)

To see your Minister's existing portrait please visit the cabinet page.

Hi Mira,

Could you advise where I can direct this correspondence? It's a letter from the Upper Nicola Band regarding topics that will be discussed at the FNLG meetings with the Premier and Cabinet. As you can see below it has been forwarded along to MIRR already. Just wanted to ensure it has been looked at by appropriate folks in PO in advance of the meetings.

Hello! I'm just sharing this as an FYI. It's a letter covering topics that will be discussed at the FNLG coming up w/ the Premier and cabinet. I'll be taking over IRR from now on so if you would like me to direct correspondence somewhere else please let me know! CCing Amber as she will likely be with the Premier during these meetings.

Hi Mira,

Attached is the list of meeting requests for the Premier as of today. On the left hand side you'll see which meetings MIRR suggests PJH should take. Please let me know by Sunday what you decide. We will be creating the premiers schedule first (Monday AM) and then Ministers will be based on that.

Thanks,

Hi Mira,

Doug Caul, Matt and I are going through the list of PJH meeting requests and we will provide recommendations for you, knowing the final decision is the POs! We need to nail down his schedule the quickest (by Friday preferably) so we can schedule all the other Ministers. Matt will send you our recommendations shortly.

For the meeting requests that PJH isn't taking, will there be someone else in the PO to take them? (ie. Don Wright, Geoff Meggs, someone else?) In previous years that's how it has been handled, Kim Henderson or someone else in the PO took some meetings.

Thanks,

Hi Danielle,
The meeting is happening at ^{s.15} from 1-3pm.

Attendees listed by organization below - I'm not sure who is attending from the PO though.

FNS:

Grand Chief Edward John

Cherly Casimer

Robert Phillips

Howard Grant (Exec. Director)

Stacey Edzerze-Fox (Legal/Policy)

UBCIC:

Grand Chief Stewart Phillip

Chief Bob Chamberlin

Kukpi7 Judy Wilson

Rachel Singleton-Polster

Taylor Carpenter

Don Bain

BCAFN:

A/Regional Chief Maureen Chapman

Curtis Bedwell (Policy Analyst)

MIRR staff:

MSF

Leila Farmer (MA)

Doug Caul (DM)

Neilane Mayhew (ADM)

Do you want to have a meeting with all the MIRR staff who are attending? Or yourself, me and Mira? I'm free on Thursday, so that works for me.

Lastly, I am feeling good about the event organization.

Dear Mira, I hope this note finds you well.

My name is Rob MacKay-Dunn and I'm excited to have joined UDI last week as our VP of Government and Public Affairs.

I wanted to take this opportunity to introduce myself (I think we may have briefly met when I was organizing the Greater Vancouver Board of Trade's All Candidates Reception in 2015?) and see if you might have time for a quick coffee with myself and our CEO in the coming weeks?

The new government has an aggressive Housing Affordability agenda and I wanted to make the connection to see how we may work together to achieve these objectives, as well as to brief you on our industry's issues and ideas to meet these mutually beneficial goals.

I recognize how incredibly busy your schedule is ahead of the government's Throne Speech and Budget, and would do my best to meet at the convenience of your schedule.

Best regards, Rob

Dear Premier,

On behalf of the United Way of the Lower Mainland, Canadian Labour Congress – Pacific Region, Vancouver District Labour Council and New Westminster and District Labour Council, we are pleased to invite you to be the keynote speaker for our jointly held 24th Annual Labour Appreciation Night, set for Thursday, November 30, 2017. The event will take place from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00p.m. at the Hilton Vancouver Metrotown, 6083 McKay Avenue, Burnaby.

The agenda includes each of the hosting bodies presenting an award to an individual trade unionist on behalf of the Labour movement in recognition of outstanding contributions in the area of community service. 2017 award recipients include BC Federation of Labour President Irene Lanzinger, who will receive the United Way of the Lower Mainland's Joe Morris Labour Community Service Award, MoveUp Secretary-Treasurer Lori Mayhew, who will receive the New Westminster & District Labour Council's Labour Community Service Award and BC Employment Standards Coalition Co-Chair David Fairey, who will receive the Vancouver and District Labour Council's Syd Thompson Award.

This popular evening is a key event in the labour calendar in BC and your presence will add to its success. This will be a significant Lower Mainland event for the labour community and we are expecting over 400 trade unionists and friends to attend again this year.

We understand the complexities of your schedule in the months to come and the work ahead for the province. We hope you will consider this event as a highlight of the fall season. We would appreciate a response to nicolah@uwlm.ca or 604-268-1329.

I'm planning to come to Victoria next week Monday – Wednesday so we can address staffing decisions in-person. I will reach out to Maura, Una (to join by phone or in person) and Amber regarding your calendar so that we can get time together.

By the end of the weekend, we will have a list of people to recommend for your review. I think we are 75-80% towards our goal of the number of people we need to hire. We will need to move on many of them quite quickly in order to get them started by early September.

Much more to follow on this over the weekend.

Thanks, Geoff.

Hi Karen

Thanks for reaching out.

My role has changed significantly since last we corresponded!

I am providing only a few hours of counsel a week with exclusively a communications focus.

I'm including a list of ministerial assistants so you can see who would be most relevant to the work of the Pembina Institute,

I'm also copying the directors in the premier's office who may also want to connect with you about your important work and how it can support the priorities of the government.

Thanks for staying in touch. I'm sure folks are excited about continuing to work with you and the Pembina Institute.

Hi Marie,
I'm following up on Josha's email to you from a couple months ago. Now that the dust has settled (not to say things are any less hectic), I'd like to see if I could arrange a meeting with you.

I will be in Victoria with our climate policy director, Max Kniewasser, on August 23rd (may be available the 22nd PM or 24th AM). Would you be available to meet? It would be great to discuss how the Pembina Institute can work with you and your ministry in support of the climate/energy policy commitments as outlined in the Green-NDP Agreement.

Warm regards,

As we move toward B.C.'s next government, I'd like to share with you our new Vision for Clean Growth in B.C.<<http://www.pembina.org/pub/cleangrowthbc>>

It's an action plan offering 20 recommendations under the following five priorities for securing B.C.'s economic prosperity in the changing world:

1. Build a strong clean tech sector
2. Position B.C. to be competitive in the changing global economy
3. Make clean choices more affordable
4. Stand up for healthy and safe communities
5. Grow sustainable resource jobs

Let me know if you'd be interested in meeting up to discuss these priorities (also outlined in a recent Times Colonist op-ed<<http://www.pembina.org/op-ed/clean-growth-lead>>) and how we can work together for a strong economy in tomorrow's B.C.

It would be great to meet you in person and establish a dialogue (I believe we may have met briefly many years ago at a reception in the legislature). I also have an opportunity to discuss for Premier Horgan to deliver remarks at an upcoming conference. (formal request is forthcoming).

Are you available to meet later this week or next for a coffee? I can be available in either Victoria or Vancouver.

Congrats again and looking forward to working with you in your new role.

I will connect with him directly today to find out more – i.e. does he want this meeting at the FNLG or separately? The meeting requests at the gathering all happen through the Ministry itself.

A quick note re Cabinet: I asked if the Ministry provided any information to cabinet members about 1:1's. It sounds like they get it shortly in advance and that a scribe will be sent to their members to follow up on any commitments made. It may be worth cabinet getting a heads up about all of this so they have a sense in advance of the structure/expectations.

Hi Geoff –

My apologies in advance for writing s.22 We have some quick decisions to make on the FNLG that I would welcome your thinking on.

First off, we have invited BC Federal ministers. PMJT is in Vancouver that week so the Ministry has come back to me asking if he should be invited. Given that he is in Vancouver, I think we would be wise to invite him. I will follow your direction on this.

Second, I have gathered significantly more information on the 1:1 meetings for PJH at the FNLG. The meetings are 15 minutes each. In the past they have worked as follows:

- The Premier accepted a total of 28 meetings. Three meetings (15 mins each) were done in a row followed by a 15 minute break. Typically, the COS or special advisor sat in on the meetings, along with a scribe and a timer. The Ministry provides a scribe and a timer, but in the past the PO have used their own staff as a scribe. I would welcome joining in these meetings.
- In some cases, the COS and DM took meetings on behalf of the Premier.
- The Ministry will provide written briefing notes and/or an in-person session if requested
- In the past, the Premier has not attended break-out sessions but did attend the Plenary's (start and end of the day)

Decision/Recommendations:

- Will PJH accept this number of meetings? My view is that he should. They could be merged when appropriate but the advice of the ministry is that because meetings are so short, it will make it more difficult to manage.
- Does PJH want Ministers with him in certain meetings? I can share the list of requested meetings in order for PJH to make this decision. If he would like Ministers with him, I need to tell the Ministry that ASAP for scheduling reasons.

Thanks very much, Geoff.

The EA interview looks great. I'm wondering if we should/can shorten it by 3-4 questions so that interviews can be 30 minutes instead of 45-50. The reason I feel okay about this is because the Minister is likely to have signifying say in the hiring.

Thanks for pulling this all together, Una!

Thanks, Maura. This is very helpful.

Given that we only have Susan for a few more days, I want to ensure the following:

- That we have access to all resumes, but particularly the resumes marked political ASAP (today if possible). This is needed because the masterlist is only names (no links or info) and I want to be able to see people's resumes to determine if we should move forward with them.
- That someone (perhaps admin here) knows how to check for resumes as they come in on an ongoing basis

Mira,

The most recent version is the one sent to us last week from Meagan. She didn't remove anyone from the list, she re-organized it and removed duplicates. This is the list I think we should be working from.

The plan for the master list that Susan has been working on and that Geoff signed off on is as follows:

- Send resumes by category to respective departments
- 300 communications resumes were given to Claudia Wilomovsky in GCPE last week and there is an email prepared but not signed off yet to send to all of those candidates informing them that GCPE now has charge of their application (we haven't sent it yet because I still want to review for potential political staff candidates)
- Resumes still need to go to Lynne Holt (Agencies, Boards and Commissions) and Suzanne Christensen and Shelly Canitz in the DM to the Premier's office (all public service)
- All of those applicants will then receive a note informing them of how their resume has been dealt with
- We have a draft auto-reply message prepared to shut down the central collection email, we can review that today
- I will work with Susan today to see if there are any new resumes since last week

I agree there are people falling through the cracks so on-going and thorough reviews of the list should be happening. I would recommend we start with the communications list as there is an overlapping skill set there.

I'm free to discuss this today.

Thank you,
Maura

Hi Nancy –

I finally have all of my paperwork complete, scanned and ready to be sent. It is all in one document though I now see that some of it must go elsewhere – which I will do. Can I send the full document to you?

Many thanks,
Mira

Hi Mira,

Your package should have included the attached forms.

The best way to return most of them is to scan them back to me. Be aware some of the benefits forms must go to different locations and must be paper. There should be instructions on those ones!

If you have any questions, let me know.

Have a great day!

Hi Nancy -

Thanks very much for the note. I received a package from Layne with many papers including one that I submitted a blank cheque with. I don't know if I have everything.

I am based in Vancouver. What is the best way to get the forms back to you quickly?

Many thanks,

Hi,

Sage asked me last week if we had an echo event planned for Vancouver on Wednesday, Aug. 9 following the ELL/ABE announcement with the Premier on Tuesday.

I've made a few inquiries and it appears we do not currently have a plan in place for an echo event involving Minister Mark.

The AVED comms director tells me that Minister Mark is starting a post-sec tour on Wednesday morning, beginning with UVic. The tour continues through most of August and includes major post-sec institutions as well as regional stops at:

- Northern Lights College
- UBC Okanagan
- TRU in Kamloops
- And many more
- VCC is planned for Aug. 24

I understand the Minister will also be doing some talk radio post-announcement, but we'll need to do more to amplify our message. Local MLA outreach? Digital outputs? Working with stakeholders?

Open to your thoughts on how we get this done.

Hi Maura & Mira,

Well... it's done! 650 resumes later! I've attached it so you can take a look at how it's broken down. Each tab is used to categorize applicants, and from there we can send out generic emails and/or send the names off. For example, communications is looking for a list of all applicants and their CVs. There were a lot of duplicates in that master list (hence the lower number).

The next step is to create folders with the corresponding CVs to send off – I'll chat to Susan about this tomorrow and hopefully she can help with that. We also need to go through the google doc to fill in the "communications" column detailing if we've been in touch with them yet (by phone, email, interview).

The "Senior Level" or "Entry Level" are applicants that didn't specify what they were looking for, or that their CV didn't provide much insight as to where they would be best. There's A LOT of lawyers in the "Senior Level" category! The "Entry Level" category also has some of our folks who may have volunteered or worked on 1 campaign, but don't have enough experience to fit a political job.

If anyone had 2 categories assigned, they were broken down so that each tab reflects all candidates that should be in that category.

Subject: Reaching out from Pembina Institute

Hi Mira,

You've been in touch with Josha in the past and also recently ^{s.22}. Congratulations on your new post in the Premier's office. I hope you're settling in; you're no doubt hitting the ground running. I'll be in Victoria with my colleague, Max Kniewasser, our climate program director, on August 23rd (possibly 22nd). We'd love to meet with you if you are available. Currently, 9.30-10.45 and 11.45 -1.45 are open. Is there a time in there that could work for you?

Warm regards,
Karen

Thanks for the note, Mira.

We are aware of the concerns expressed here.

MRF is working with the official trustee and the ministry to find a timely solution to resolve the concerns of these students and their parents.

Along with that, we are working to arrange a meeting between Minister Fleming, Minister Heyman and these very parents.

Im awaiting word back from Minister Hayman's offices as to when he can meet with the parents, and Im hoping to fit that meeting into Minister Flemings schedule as well.

Thanks for popping this back to the top of my pile.

Very much appreciated.

Cheers,

Thanks, Una. I'm finally sitting down with this on non-interview day (!) and wonder if we may want to adjust the supervision point for the senior MA's. I don't know where Geoff stands on this, but I'm a strong believer in hierarchies within the office so people know who to ask questions of/take direction from. Curious what you think.

Hi,

As promised, attached is a draft MA job description which integrates the MA profile into the job description template.

I am very far from the work, so the wording is offered as draft and will need critical eyes on it.

Mira and Maura, as we will both be in the ^{s.15} tomorrow, perhaps we could review this together - if time and schedules permit.

Thanks,
Una

Thanks for the reminder about the Monday holiday, building, etc. I'm comfortable with doing a set of interviews on Monday (perhaps 12-4pm) if we can find people who are available and letting them into the building ourselves.

Just a heads up that Monday...neither Joyce nor I would be here and the building is locked down so that individuals would not be able to come in the front doors or up the elevators.

I'm currently looking at scheduling for the rest of the week with a second panel being booked into rooms on the ^{s.15}
^{s.15} Can you advise Kate's last name as I've been informing candidates of the panel members that they'll be interviewing with?

Maura, assuming I can start scheduling interviews as early as Weds, Aug 9th at 9am for you and Kate?

Thank you,

Hi Mira
You will probably need to swap the simcard from old phone to new.. unless Ralph's sent a new one.
Please sign in with your iTunes account.
There may be a software update.
Settings -> General -> Software update. Install that.
I will get an activation created to sync new device.
You will need to install the airwatch app from the app store.
We can then setup over the phone

Cheers,
David

Hi – just a heads up that Mayor Robertson is in Victoria on Wednesday and is meeting with the Minister to discuss issues relevant to her ministry as they affect the City of Vancouver.

Please let me know if you need anything further on this.

Thanks,

Hi Mira

You will probably need to swap the simcard from old phone to new.. unless Ralph's sent a new one.

Please sign in with your iTunes account.

There may be a software update.

Settings -> General -> Software update. Install that.

I will get an activation created to sync new device.

You will need to install the airwatch app from the app store.

We can then setup over the phone

Cheers,
David

Subject: STEMCELL Meeting Request with Mira Oreck

Hi Mira,

I hope this email finds you well. I'm reaching out on behalf of STEMCELL Technologies to request a brief meeting with you.

The purpose of the meeting is to provide a status update on our Project Railway proposal with the federal government, City of Burnaby, along with the Governments of BC and Ontario.

Project Railway will create a world-leading, one-of-a-kind, clinical grade, advanced biologics manufacturing facility on target to be ready in 2019. Our preference is to build the facility in Burnaby, but we have gained positive reception from Ontario, as well.

Through Project Railway, STEMCELL will repatriate 450 manufacturing jobs, in addition to creating 3,500 new, permanent, high-paying knowledge-based jobs. We are proud of our track record on workplace diversity - women represent 57% of our workforce and more than half are under the age of 40.

Do you have 30 minutes in the next few weeks to meet in Vancouver or Victoria?

I plan to be in Victoria this Friday, August 25 to meet with officials in the Ministry of Jobs, Trade and Technology if you happened to be there as well.

Thanks for your consideration.

Regards,
Andrew

Just a few notes for you on today:

1. Geoff is going to two meetings with the Premier and all others he will take on his own. I think it makes sense for you to go with the Premier then, but will leave this up to you.
2. I am asking that all Caucus (if possible) get reserved seating at lunch. I have not heard if this is possible yet, but I am really looking to make this happen for unity with the group... also to ensure that they aren't wandering around. I am also following up to ensure that Caucus understands it is a Whip'd event – it looks like not all of them are registered yet.
3. There is some rumour that other Liberal MLAs are considering coming, hence the note from Geoff to the ED of the Opposition Caucus, Primrose
4. A decision was made for Ministers not to attend a Coastal Gas Reception during the gathering

I think that's all for today... I'll follow up with Shawna tomorrow if there are more outstanding items for decision by Geoff.

Thanks,

Hi Geoff –

s.22

I want to flag the issue of staffing at the FNLG.

With respect to the 1:1 meetings with the Premier, my understanding from Layne is that you would like to attend the majority (if not all) of the meetings with him. The Ministry has explained to me that in the past, the COS and DM to the Premier took meetings on the Premier's behalf given the number of meetings that have been requested. If you do not want to do this, we need to decide on an alternative plan. Some considerations:

- I can take meetings for those that are less politically sensitive, but this will mean that someone else will need to be in the meeting with the Premier to take notes. I would also want to have a note-taker with me.
- Don Wright can take meetings on behalf of the Premier, alongside a note-taker
- You take some meetings on his behalf (also with support)
- We turn down meeting requests

My recommendation is that we do a mixture – you, Don and I share meetings when possible. We pass on some requests to Ministers if for scheduling reasons it is not possible. I've cc'd Layne who I'm hoping can help manage this with the Ministry lead (Shawna) while I'm away.

Thank you,

Maura, Mira or Layne might have information about those hires.

Also there are some names that are still being considered for MA roles - but as not all decisions are final yet they are still in play. I have not included those names here.

I'd suggest sending the information in 2 batches to Tamarra. She will be able to produce hard copies for him. If you could send the second batch of "close" candidates quickly, that would be appreciated.

Dear Premier:

On behalf of the T̓silhqot'in Chiefs, we would welcome the opportunity to meet with you during the Leaders' Gathering in Vancouver on September 5-7.

As you know, we met with the Prime Minister on July 31 to share the experience of our communities on the frontlines of the largest wildfires that this Province has ever seen. While your schedule didn't allow you to attend that meeting, we do look forward to sit down with you.

Your government has committed to implementing the Tsilhqot'in Nation judgment as a cornerstone of Indigenous relations in British Columbia. We commend you for that vision.

Since the Tsilhqot'in Nation judgment, we have made every effort to move beyond a long history of conflict and denial. The Nenqay Deni Accord is an attempt to chart a new path for our people and for the Province, based on true recognition and respect.

The Leaders' Gathering is an opportunity to reset relations with Indigenous peoples in this Province. We have no doubt that you and your colleagues will be fully occupied with that task.

At the same time, we believe it is important that you meet directly with the Tsilhqot'in Nation to renew and recharge the vision set out in the Nenqay Deni Accord and to set the stage for our work together.

We extend this invitation to the Ministers copied on this letter. All of us, together, have the opportunity—and responsibility—to transform this Province and unlock its full potential for the benefit of Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples.

Please have your staff contact Jay Nelson (Executive Lead, Negotiations) to make arrangements, at (778) 678-4699 or via email at jay@jaynelsonlaw.com.

Importance: High

Hi there,
If you are receiving this email, I'm hoping you can help. Your Minister may not yet had their official photo done. Don Craig has been reaching out to try and schedule these daily.
Example of the official portraits:

The First Nations Leadership Gathering takes place Sept. 6- 7 and we need to lock down the program, which includes your Minister's portraits - no later than Aug. 30 in order to meet print deadlines.

Could you please make sure your Minister has a photoshoot booked with Don Craig on Monday or Tuesday?

If they don't, could you please provide us a high res version of the photo you would like us to use in its place?

Outstanding portraits:

- Minister Lisa Beare - TCA
- Minister Adrian Dix - HLTH
- Minister David Eby - AG
- Minister Melanie Mark - AEST
- Premier John Horgan (may be in the works)

To see your Minister's existing portrait please visit the cabinet page.

Check back at the on the 30th, to see what is available. I won't have any of the high-res versions of photos that I haven't taken, so you may want to bug the respective ministerial offices for those. My photos will all have the dark grey background and you can access the high-res photo by clicking on the thumbnail image.

Jeff,

I am bugging MAs on a daily basis for a selection or to schedule photo sessions. I am photographing the Premier and Minister Sims next week. I may get Minister Farnsworth in later today.

What is your deadline for receiving portraits? Once we have reached that date, you should use what is available and they just won't all look the same.

Hi Don,

Sorry to be a pain but have you gotten any update on when the remaining new headshots will be uploaded? The ones I see missing are:

- Minister Lisa Beare
- Minister Mike Farnsworth
- Minister Adrian Dix
- Minister Jinny Sims
- Minister David Eby
- Minister Melanie Mark

· Premier

Just reviewing this. If a cabinet meeting is held on Sept 7th, it would have to be in Vancouver – where everyone will be. It will still be very tight in terms of getting to FNLG on time.

Hi Rick –

Thanks for touching base on this.

Sage and I just discussed it and landed on the following: holding 5-7 invites for people who will help tell our "story". And then reserving 6-8 for others (FN's leaders etc). Sage is just discussing this with Geoff. I'll let you know if that changes. Let me know what you think about it.

Hi all,

I thought that starting by not emailing the dozen people invited to the meeting might avoid clogging too many inboxes. We spoke at last week's throne meeting about sticking to our 15 invitees that are allocated to the Premier's office, and then talked for a while about potentially bringing them in from across the province, and I can't recall where we landed but I'm pretty sure I am supposed to find them. So I wanted to confirm that (A) we want several, possibly up to 15 real people who are benefitting from things we've already done to attend the throne speech and (B) we want to try further to find people from all parts of BC. We need to get a list of attendees to finance soon.

Let me know if I need to bring more people in or if you recall.

Thanks
Rick

Hey Shawna,
Based on several responses, you may wish to run this up the PO chain as well.

I'm not sure we are going to get them all done, but at least that way when we get complaints, we are covered and have made our best efforts.

Hi there,

If you are receiving this email, I'm hoping you can help. Your Minister may not yet had their official photo done. Don Craig has been reaching out to try and schedule these daily.

Example of the official portraits:

The First Nations Leadership Gathering takes place Sept. 6- 7 and we need to lock down the program, which includes your Minister's portraits - no later than Aug. 30 in order to meet print deadlines.

Could you please make sure your Minister has a photoshoot booked with Don Craig on Monday or Tuesday?

If they don't, could you please provide us a high res version of the photo you would like us to use in its place?

Outstanding portraits:

- Minister Lisa Beare - TCA
- Minister Mike Farnworth - PSSG
- Minister Adrian Dix - HLTH
- Minister Jinny Sims – CITZ (may be in the works)
- Minister David Eby - AG
- Minister Melanie Mark - AEST
- Premier John Horgan (may be in the works)

To see your Minister's existing portrait please visit the cabinet page.

Hi Mira,

Shelley found this information from the transition binders. It does show the complement of staffing for each office. Ministries have changed names and responsibilities now but it probably hasn't affected too many budgets.

Next step, is to see if there is a breakdown of the individual salaries. But, looking at the salary bands in these notes should give you a ball park range.

we can definitely work in the evening. We have a 5:30pm interview so could work from 7/7:30 - onwards. That should give us time to develop a structure and get started on slotting.

If we need to do weekend, we are both okay with that (during the day). But if we get enough done on Thursday, perhaps we can even do it by phone so you don't have to travel.

What do you think?

Good morning.

Sorry for delay getting back to you on this.

Here is what is suggested by ministry UBCM organizers for the Cabinet Panels:

- Wednesday 3pm – 4:15pm
- 4 concurrent panels
- 5 ministers/panel
- Each panel has a theme
- Each minister speaks 2 minutes then open to floor for discussion

This is how it has been done in the past. I expect we can shape it any way we want, staying within the designated timeframe.

My suggestion would be to select 4 topics and then include relevant Ministers along with Ministry staff and/or like-minded experts/consultants to facilitate a rich discussion.

Example: Building Environmentally Sustainable Communities (housing, transport, environment + experts)

Hi Mira

Thought I should send an update; I've been consumed with setting up Admin Coordinator interviews for Maura and have ten scheduled for today as well as an MA interview with ^{s.22} (with Kate and Maura). Maura decided she wanted someone to sit on AC interviews and had someone for the first two today but now I am scrambling finding others to sit in for the rest of the days' interviews. I'm halfway there! After I finish making up the rest of today's packages, I'll do more screening calls and send you a list of screening call results in a word document. Then Maura and I will look at who I need to set up interviews with in Vic tomorrow. Hope it's going ok on your end - onward and upward!

Please see names below. The long list is comprised of people I think we should interview. Maura, I welcome your thoughts on it. Danny, I'd like you to call these people on Monday.

Note: there may be people on this list already scheduled. Obviously they should be removed. It would be very helpful to have a full, updated list of everyone we've interviewed.

Susan, I have added two more for screening calls.

Thank you,

The original discussion was that we would not have these one off meetings. Rather we would pre set meetings for after the event. The worry being that there would be offence taken if did not meet with all. Not sure if direction has changed on this.

Okay. Re all the non political jobs - I'd like to connect with you/her about that as I've promised Don Wright a list.

Susan would be great re screening because I trust her judgement - and it's something so few people can do.

We have about 40 screening calls to go. And will need to do at least another 30 interviews based on the number of people we will still need to hire (we may be at best near 30). Who is left in Vic? I think Una was hoping to go on Monday to help with that. And I know Sage wants to do some with me as well.

Let's discuss tomorrow.

Hi, Jane

I hope this email finds you well.

Kate and I would like to speak with you and Minister Robinson about UBCM, particularly about the cabinet workshops that will be happening there. Is there a time late next week (perhaps Friday) that works for you?

Looking forward,

Mira

Thanks. I'll update the language in the News Release.

I can add "new Canadians" as an example of some of the people who will benefit, as part of the Premier's speaking notes.

Hi Cara –

Thx for sharing this. On ESL/ELL: the MoED officially adopted ELL but since then it is unclear whether Advanced Ed has or not (it seems like they use it interchangeably). Info here: <https://news.gov.bc.ca/stories/a-second-look-at-esl-education>. The recommendations came from Fresh Voices: <http://freshvoices.ca/>. Given that many of the students who made the recommendations were in high school in 2013, I think it would be a great signal to send to them (many of whom are now in Post Sec) to recognize their work by using ELL.

I also wonder if there is anywhere in the release to mention 'new Canadians' re ELL. Happy to leave that part to you – just an idea.

I'm excited about this. It will make a huge difference for so many communities!

Geoff –

Please see attached the meeting requests for the Premier at the FNLG. I asked the Ministry to make decisions on the meetings with two factors in mind: pressing issues and anything related his constituency. I also asked that they recommend if a Minister should be with him (and which one). For the meetings they did not recommend as priorities for him, they will make sure that meeting is accepted by a Minister (assuming the request was made).

Your lens on this would be very helpful. I need to confirm the list by Sunday evening.

Before the election, Fostering Change asked candidates to sign a pledge to #SupportThe700 youth that age out of care every year in Vancouver. Today, I am following up by planning a convening where youth will travel to Victoria to meet with ministers directly. We'll hold it with Indigenous tradition in mind, and provide dialogue opportunities where youth in care and their allies can directly engage in meaningful consultation with ministers responsible for their care.

Thank you:
For your patience
Names of people
Your amazing MA's to date

Goals/Philosophy

- To identify the best political staff to support all of you
- to hire people that both reflect but also understand the diversity of the province
- To follow our Premier's goal of identifying, supporting and empowering future leaders in our party
- To recruit people from all elements of our party
- Our thinking was all about building a team of political staff: people with experience in politics, rather than a specific area of policy expertise. Our goal was not to hire for one Ministry or another but rather to hire a team of people who will work with all of you, the Ministries, the Premier's Office and one another
- We aspire to develop a team that provide exceptional support to all of you but also people who learn and grow together

Objectives

- Hire a minimum of 2 MA's per Minister, and an EA , AC's

Process

- Engaged an HR professional and the PSA in this process to determine core competencies for the positions, a thorough interview process and assist with salary recommendations
- Recruited heavily from all sectors – we personally called people, particularly those who would not know how to apply, from equity seeking groups, people with significant networks all over the province and asked them for their strongest suggestions of people. We consulted and worked with the party
- Based on all of this, we received close to 500 resumes for political staff
- Did screening calls with over 200 of those people
- Interviewed close to 100 people in Victoria, Vancouver and over skype

The Hires

- We were overwhelmed in the possible way by the number and kind of people who applied. We had people from all over Canada. People who applied with cover letters written in their own Indigenous languages. We had people who have been involved in the party for decades and others who are recent immigrants and refugees, new to the country and party.
- We are proud of the people we are putting forward. And really hope they will help all of you – and us – move our governments agenda forward

Next Steps

- Get people started!

What do you think about connecting by phone/in-person Sunday afternoon around 4pm? I am planning to go to Victoria on Monday mid-morning through Wednesday afternoon. Geoff has availability on Tuesday and has held time for us from 10-12. Una, is there any chance of you being there as well? If not, perhaps we can bring you in over the phone.

It would be great to have a memo to bring forward to him with the names of our recommendations, resumes, and next steps on hiring/orientation.

Happy Friday – I feel lucky to be working with both of you on making all of this happen!

Hi,
I'm wondering if it would be helpful to have a quick phone call to discuss this.

As I mentioned in my Saturday email, I could be either in Vancouver or Victoria on Thursday or Friday. If I am not needed on Thursday in Victoria then I can do Vancouver interviews on Thursday and Victoria interviews on Friday

Before we settle on that, however, a quick chat might allow us to confirm the names and numbers of interviews to be held.

I am available this afternoon or evening for a call if you think that could be helpful.

Thanks,
Una

I'll call CFS back tonight or tomorrow. And make sure someone from FPSE knows (I assume they already do). And once it's out, I'll make sure folks from Fresh Voices know. Subject: UBCM

Hi, Roseanne –

I hope you are well. Kate and I would like to set a time to connect with you about UBCM and FNLG. Is there a good time for you late next week or early the week following?

Looking forward,
Mira

They don't appear to be on the invite list – lets discuss.

Just an FYI – they’ve approached me about doing an event with the Premier. It would be a semi-large scale public engagement effort. I have expressed interest to them in discussing it further, but told them our timeline is yet TBD. Lets discuss s.22

Is it going out? I'm not getting it. Trying to figure out what other daily emails go out and how I get on them. Thx

Okay – I will plan to be there for about 1pm. Does that work?

A couple of things: can you move s.22 r to a list for interviews? I'm going to have a few additional as well.

Tx!

Hi Meagan –

I have an 11am call. Shall we connect after? Where are you located?

Good morning,

I have the 2 people Maura wanted Mira to interview tentatively set (1 confirmed and waiting to hear back from the other) at 8:30am and 9:30am on Wednesday.

I know there's been a bunch of back and forth on this – so I'm looking for confirmation ASAP to get moving on scheduling. Would it work for Maura to go over to Vancouver to interview whoever Mira needs interviewed on Wednesday morning as well (instead of Thursday?). It would be ideal on our end for the swap to happen at the same time so interviews in Victoria can still continue on Thursday as planned.
