Kate, I'll leave it to you – probably some more comprehensive letter will be required at some point.

Should I send this off to environment for a draft for Premier's signature or should we hold off for the time being?

Jen advises that the Globe is asking if we've received this letter, as Notley said publicly last week she was sending it. I suggest we confirm we've received it unless there is a reason not to.

Subject: Invitation from Empire Club of Canada (Toronto)

Kate:

I'm writing on behalf of the Empire Club of Canada, based in Toronto.

First, I want to offer my congratulations on the BC NDP's forming of the government. I wish you the best of luck and hope that you experience a smooth start to the government's mandate.

The Empire Club would like to extend an invite to Premier Horgan to speak at an event in Toronto when he chooses to travel here for the first time. We think it would provide him with excellent an opportunity to lay out his vision for British Columbia, in particular the BC economy, as he embarks on his first months in office. We would expect several hundred people, mainly from the business community, to be interested in attending such an event. Our events are typically over lunch.

The Empire Club is a leading Speakers' Forum in Canada. We invite distinguished Canadians to speak on issues important to Canada. Premier Horgan would be a great addition to the public discourse.

A more formal letter will come in the future, but as you settle into your new role, we wanted to ensure you are aware we are very keen to have the Premier speak when he chooses to travel to Toronto for the first time.

In addition to my day job below, for one of Canada's large public sector pension plans, I am a Director on the Empire Club Board. I am a former Chief of Staff to the Ontario Premier, and assure you that we would make this event successful for your Premier.

Please don't hesitate to reach out should you want to discuss this further.
