Hi Don,

We did receive this incoming – it was a specific concern regarding s.22 s.22 I sent to SDPR and confirmed that they will be contacting the writer directly. We won't be sending anything from our office since it is such a specific case. I will let SDPR know that the writer followed up by phone, in case that helps to get him a quicker response.

Thanks!

It's a label put on an email in a specific email client, like you suspected. I've had people complain our email address is labelled 'Gordon Campbell' You can clear it out and just put it as 'Premier of BC' if they'd like, but that's generally too much effort for people.

Hi, Jake,

Every so often some caller advises me that the email link to the Prem shows up as Christie Clark when they compose an email.

Is this something you've encounter? I think it might be a default in their own Outlook email program, that they sent to the previous Premier and the CC name has been added to their contact list.

Do you get email that is actually addressed to Premier CC?

Did I ask you about this before?

And hey, try, querying a caller over this...

Hi Jake,
Thanks for helping with the flow of scheduling requests. I think we need to vet any requests to 'meet or discuss' that come in to the Premier, no matter how vague, and we can make a decision here to regret or close as needed.
Cheers,
Chris

Hello friends!

If Gary notices one of those vague scheduling requests on a letter. He will pass to us to log as correspondence and we will flip a copy to Chris in scheduling for her to decide if they want to treat it as a request or not. For instance, a two page letter with no mention of a meeting and then at the end they say "I would welcome an opportunity to discuss etc. Thanks for your cooperation!

Yes, yesterday.

She wanted to arrange a meeting with the Prem for her boss, Ken Mariash, and had an event request. I advised her to respond in writing, two separate emails.

She was coming on quite strong, I didn't know anything about the context of her requests, and I wasn't about to give out any staff names, so I encouraged her to write us.

Hi Danny,

Quick note to thank you for the CardScan device, which Tamarra brought to the office. I was waiting to note you after it was installed and working. Our nifty IT guy Dean spent most of yesterday afternoon working on the software and installation for Evan and I, and we're up and running like new.

Please let Judy (and anyone else associated with this acquisition) know we are grateful and pleased with our new card scanner.

As you may know Dymo has discontinued all CardScan models; but I heard caucus recently purchased a different brand, if we ever need to research another acquisition.

Cheers,

Don

Hi Robin,

We have acquired a card scanner from the Premier's Vancouver Office. We only received the scanner and USB cable, no box, software, etc.

It's is labeled CardScan 800c, which I believe is similar to the one below.

<http://www.dymo.com/en-CA/cardscan-executive-empty-card-scanner>

If you could advise or assist in the installation of this device, it would be appreciated.

No hurry on this, when you're available.

Thanks,

Don

Yes, it looks like the Dymo ones are discontinued. The other one seems to have good review is below and can export to Outlook and Excel. But you will be the very first one using it. All others are using the Dymo.

Subject: Card Scanner Devices

Hi Robin,

We're looking to purchase a card scanner. (We have an empty box for the Dymo CardScan Personal, but the machine has gone missing during the office transition.)

I just found out from online searching and a convo with Dymo Canada that they have discontinued their entire line of CardScan(ers).

Any experience here?, I guess I'll be searching for another brand.

Thanks,

Don

Okay, thx, sounds like Min Eby's group has it in hand.
I'll take it there was no separate letter addressed to the Premier and this person was assuming the PO would issue a response based on the mere inclusion of a cc to the Premier.
I'll confirm with s.22 whether only one letter was sent.
If he gets sticky, and only if, should I suggest to him that if he requires a response from the Prem direct, he should send another package addressed to the Premier with that specific request?
Also if he needs further follow up on the Eby letter that he contact the AG Min office?

Found it! It was a CC of a letter to Eby on a specific case. We have the original as well as the response from the AG's office. At the end of his letter, Eby said his office will not be responding to any aspect of the case.... So that's that I guess! I'll scan a copy and send it over to you just in case.

Sent a registered letter to the Prem via Canada Post, 'about 2-3 weeks ago.'

He (methodically) wants to know 1) was the letter received and 2) when can he expect a response from the Premier.

Without revealing the context, he makes the issue sound important.

It's two sessions so each group is approximately 10 individuals, allowing for more interaction and also giving them an option for the date.

Hey Don,

If the printer is working fine then probably ok to just get new cartridges. If any issue, would recommend a new one.
With the different colour paper need, definitely think a personal printer is way to go.

Do you need colour print or B/W?

Here are 2 good options:

Colour:

B/W:

David

Thanks David,
I'll look into ordering from Staples.
Would you recommend updating that printer? Or is the stand alone option a thing of the past?
Any suggestions for someone who wants to print regularly on various colored paper?

Good evening Don, that is quite the ancient workhorse printer! 😊

We don't have any cartridges for it. Yes, you can purchase cartridges for printers as required. Not sure what you mean by getting them from 'Tech'?

Print cartridges for non-network printers are normally purchased by office owning printer.
Staples is definitely a good option as they usually have a good variety.

Any questions/issues or assistance required don't hesitate to contact.

Subject: Stand-alone Printer Cartridge

Hi David,

Chris who inherited the workstation from Bev is using an HP Laserjet 1020 BW printer; it is beneficial to her because she prints on different coloured paper stock.

I wasn't involved when this printer was installed; although I know there was another standalone that was defective and replaced with this unit.

Her cartridge is near out, #Q2612A.

What's the policy on getting replacement cartridges for this printer? Are they common, Do you have any? Can we make a case for getting them from Tech?

Or, should we be looking at ordering replacements from a supplier, Staples or other?

Thanks,

Don

Hi Layne,

I'm going to send an invitation to Senior MAs at the end of the week to attend a training session on leadership development.

The sessions will be held in the evening from 7-9pm on Tuesday, March 6 and Tuesday, March 13. The sessions are being held while caucus is meeting.

It's two sessions so each group is approximately 10 individuals, allowing for more interaction and also giving them an option for the date.

After I send the invite I would like to discuss follow-up from yourself and/or Geoff to ensure maximum participation.

Thank you,
Maura

Hello Ms Markham,

Premier Horgan is completing his list of BC executives and would like to add and/or confirm the contact information for Mr. Giustra.

We have the following:

Frank Giustra, Fiore Capital Corp., President & CEO, Suite 3123, 595 Burrard Street, PO Box 49139, Vancouver BC V7X 1J1

We are absent a telephone number and email address, would you be able to compliment us with this information?

Direct information or c/o an assistant, whichever Mr. Giustra prefers.

In particular an email address, we are sending out information regarding the BC budget this week.

Via email or telephone at your earliest convenience.

Thank you and regards,

Hey Elizabeth,
Could I ask Don to order 2 – 3 printer cartridges for my printer at this price?
Also, as below, we are getting low on letter paper.
Thanks for giving us the OK for these purchases as I will need to get a cartridge pretty quick.
Cheers,
Chris

Hi Chris,

David says we're on our own regarding buying cartridges for that printer, an old but reliable model he says.

I looked up the replacements at Staples, pricey little devils

https://www.staples.ca/en/HP-12A-Q2612A-Black-Original-LaserJet-Toner-Cartridge/product_516331_1-CA_1_20001

We'll have to check with the purchasing gatekeepers about ordering a replacement, there might be a cheaper third party at eWay, I'll check.

FYI/Heads up

s.22 called once again today. She wants to know whether the Premier can or will meet with her to review her case and if not, can she receive a response in that regard, i.e., can she be informed that he will not be meeting with her. I suggested she send that request down in writing.

I think the reason she is so insistent in bringing her case to the Premier personally, is that she assumes (or she was led to believe by others, she claims) that the Premier is the only one (left) who can review and assist; and 2) (she claims) former Premier Gordon Campbell personally assisted her with other similar issues in the past.

Hi Sage,

Mark from building services brought over a couple wooden footrests; one I gave one to Chris who relinquished a lower wooden monitor riser she was using as a footrest.

I left both rests in your office.

Here's the scoop; we can have a building carpenter cut the footrest to suit your needs (angle and height), if you think this style will suit you.

Or we can research/order another style of footrest.

It will depend in part on what size and shape of chair you ultimately end up with.

I had a quick look at your chair—it definitely is substandard in ergonomic terms.

I'm going to research online the use of footrests, I'll forward what I find of interest.

Hi Chris,

I believe this is the guy, surname spelling varies.

Here's the story, fyi:

He called here several times late January to herald (or solicit)^{s.22}. I asked him to send something in writing to the PO, he did and Jake said it was nothing but a news clipping, so he closed the file without action.

I may have suggested he share his idea with the Ministry of Jobs, Trade (although he told me he'd already contacted several government offices); although he was quite motivated but didn't seem to have a clue about marketing.

He struck me as the kind of guy that might interpret our passing interest as a form of endorsement.

I was never sure whether he wanted Government to share in the news of his invention, or if he was expecting the government to buy or endorse the item.

Either way, I was careful not to show more than a polite interest; I assumed if the item was the miracle life-saver he described, he'd have no trouble attracting interest or selling it.

I haven't heard from him again since Jan 25.

Merely an FYI

Brief follow-up on this caller. (He slipped through my caller watch list—had his number listed wrong by 1 digit.) His trip to the Ombudsperson's office resulted in nothing and his refrain is still and consistently that he wants to sit down with his MLA s.22) or the Min of CFD in person to explain his case.

Who knows what else is in his file.

I've recommended that he let some underlings review his case (maybe a case worker supervisor or a rep in the MLA office) and that the PO can't interfere, etc.

Moe, thx for bringing this caller to my attention. Although I know she's called often, the only record I have dates back to Aug 17—my very first day on the phones!

I recorded that convo thus: "called to emphatically request a meeting with the PREM; she is distressed and angry over s.22

s.22 She has not spoken to any other representatives in government or elsewhere although she mentioned s.22 MLA."

We now know the last point is wrong.

And thanks for the phone number clarification; I triple checked using reverse call lookup and what you have is indeed right—the correction will save me some grief.

Hi s.22

FYI, on the chair front:

If you've not shopped for an ergo chair before it can be daunting, there are so many to choose from and prices are always higher than one would expect.

I spent weeks sourcing the chair for s.22 and didn't see much under $350; hers was a ~$670 chair we got at Staples for $389; that sort of thing happens. You never know what will crop up at Staples price-wise—on chairs in all price ranges.

Your best bet, s.22 is to stop in at Staples or Monks or Grand and Toy and peruse/try out the chairs in stock. That will give you a reference point about cost, construction and selection.

Regarding the footrest, I'll check around first to see what we have in surplus here in the office, and if nothing is available, check with Surjit. The ones we have in the building are generally of heavy construction, wooden or other, superior to new (reasonably priced) ones plastic, etc.

Regarding your chair, I'll come and have a look at it and see how it compares with what little surplus that exists; as you may know, we did extensive scrounging, research and shopping for a chair s.22 and resorted to a purchase from Staples for best value. Try as we might Building Services doesn't seem to have any more worthwhile chairs for the taking.

In terms of both items, I'm told we are on a spending freeze of sorts until next fiscal April 1; and it may have an impact on purchasing a chair or footrest if we have to resort to that.

Hi Jake,

I'm acting here in a messenger/assistant capacity for Kate (who's steering this project) and Evan (who's been working on it), the 500 greeting cards from the Premier in recognition of Chinese New Year, are signed sealed and ready for delivery.

Evan said that Kate said that you were the one to ask about having them processed from here: stamped and posted.

(One of concerns is to get them off my desk.)

Advice/assistance? Can we send them out with Gary?

Hi Chris,

Gary and Amber have initiated me to this new procedure of scanning the incoming requests and passing them to you.

s.22 and not knowing quite what I was doing, I started the process and have attached the scans as PDFs.

Can we meet when you have a moment to discuss how you actually want the process to unfold, scans and hard copies, to make it easiest for us to handle the items.

Thanks,

Letter sent via Email Feb 8 from their director; reportedly there is a sense of importance to the letter, maybe urgency

She is calling to see if it was received and check on the status of action.

Thx

If I may trouble you with one last check to see if anything arrived from this guy.
Amber has never heard of him.
Thought I'd see if you had anything before I followed up.
Thx,

Hi Danny, here's another mystery to solve, dating back to last spring.

I had a caller today from ^{s.22}) looking for two large maps (6' x 3') that he says he left in the old Vancouver Cabinet Office, 1055 West Hastings, last March 2017^{s.22}
^{s.22} where the maps were used and left behind. They are large color aerial maps of the Fraser Valley.

As an aside, Amber tells me there were some items here in the Caucus office, some that were transferred from the VCO, that I've got some queries out for.

Let me know if this means anything to you (or anyone else in the PVO) and if you can advise in any fashion, phone or email sufficient. I'll be here this aft till 4:30, lunch between 1 and 2ish^{s.22}

Victoria's First Delivery-Only Restaurant

We have been delivering food from restaurants in and around Victoria to happy customers since 2015. Unfortunately, most restaurant food isn't made to travel. So we thought, "Why not develop a menu specifically designed to be delivered?"

The Kitchen by Accio is our way of stepping up the home delivery game while maintaining the high standard of food quality that you deserve.

Our team of world-class chefs have created four incredible menus that are built for speed, affordability, and with delivery in mind. We use seasonal, local, and healthy ingredients to bring you food that not only caters to your dietary needs, but tastes great too.

Bistro

Head Chef: Sandi Irving

Sandi has honed her skills up and down the wild west coast. She spent the last 7 years as the executive chef of Nimmo Bay Wilderness Resort, located in a remote region of the Great Bear Rainforest. Now her food is available right to your door. It is light, healthful, and French-inspired fare, meaning you can treat yourself while treating yourself right.

Relish

Head Chef: Jamie Cummins

Jamie needs little introduction in Victoria. After making the rounds in the local restaurant scene, he opened Relish to rave reviews. Now he's bringing his Asian-inspired comfort food to our team, and man, are we glad to have him.

Burgers

Head Chef: Brian Kremer

Brian's burgers will blow your brain. After moving to Victoria, Brian landed at Brasserie L'Ecole, before moving over to Part and Parcel. His cooking is absolutely delicious, yet totally unpretentious - exactly as a burger should be. Now he has set his mind to building burgers for all, whether committed carnivores or virtuous vegans.

ItalianHead Chef: Duncan Booth

Duncan may not hail from out west, but he's an enthusiastic transplant. Before putting down roots on the Island, he traveled far and wide, refining his culinary repertoire all the while. Combining classic Italian flavours with a modern sensibility, Duncan's offerings are perfect for both everyday eating and special occasions.

FYI, I reported to the Premier that incoming calls were overwhelming supportive of the recent events relating to the bitumen study and it's backlash; there are some critical calls, from AB and BC, but we're running a 8 to 1 or higher ratio; and the positive calls are all enthusiastic. The negative calls are mostly ill-informed rants.

He said that Amber reported from Susan that the written correspondence is not as enthusiastically positive, sounds like you're not seeing the same numbers we are.

Good morning Elizabeth and Don,

I understand from Alison that one of you(?) will be submitting service request forms for tech needs for main floor?
These are for any new requests. Anything broken or not working should still be sent to s.17 of course and my team will action ASAP.

Are you setup with the form access? Link here:
http://www.fin.gov.bc.ca/camss/Service_Request/default.stm
Our IMB ServiceDesk is an excellent resource on how to use and can come by to show you how to use them (with some great tips and more).

Any questions/issues or assistance required don't hesitate to contact.

I'm just wondering if she has sent any new emails/information since this last correspondence Ashley mentions in her note below.

Also, do you have anything else pertaining this issue since Jan 2?

To jog your memory, this is the woman who raised a fuss over the holidays between our office and with Hans at the MLA office.

I will assume if there's nothing new, I'll be referring her to MCFD and the AG.

We did receive an email from s.22 this morning, and after a search we seem to have no other background or correspondence from this writer. Her email discusses an ongoing case she's involved in with MCFD, and her distrust of the ministry, s.22 As the Premier's Office can't directly step in, we'll be forwarding her email to MCFD as well as the AG for them to look into her case immediately and try to help resolve the issues surrounding. I can keep you posted on Ministry responses as soon as we receive them.

She called the PO Jan 2 at 10 am to ask if an email she sent over the past weekend was received.

She is dealing with a complex s.22 and has contacted Ministry staff, the PREM's MLA office, etc.

She asserts that she sent details of her dispute in the email to the PREM.

Of note: 1) she was told by an unidentified "ministry staff person" that if she took her issue to the Premier's office it would jeopardize her claim, and 2) she is under the assumption that the Premier's office is both the place of last resort, and in a position to assist in resolving this dispute.

Email received? Status? Action? Any background?

Thx,

The engagement site doesn't actually break down specific systems, but keeps it abstract (which people don't like). They also haven't said which systems they are considering... All sort of up in the air at the moment. No referendum being discussed yet.

Hi Jake,

Have you seen any government produced (not third party) source material that explains or summarizes the proportional representation issue?

There's some stuff on the engagement site, but it's not very friendly.

<https://engage.gov.bc.ca/howwewote/>

I had a guy from the North who wanted me to fax him some info on PR (quite confused as he mistakenly thought the referendum vote was Feb 28).

I've got some other queries out, and still searching online. Maybe it's early in the game.

Jake,

Just received a call from s.22 , the guy s.22 ' claimed sent us letters on his behalf, and the writer of that thing you copied me.

Apparently, he claims, the letters were mailed to Min of Indigenous Relations, Scott Fraser's office without a request to share them with us.

This was about three weeks ago.

They approached our office these past two days in an attempt to find out why a response was not issued.

I referred him to Min Fraser's office for follow-up.

Not likely the last we'll hear of this...to quote s.22 from P 5 of his letter, "sometimes I wonder if we are all crazy."

BTW, in that letter of Nov 6, 2017, the last paragraph, I see he does mention something about a response, unfortunately that's moot in that that paragraph, and most of the letter, as you note, is illegible.

I dont know if you are a money making scam but I can hope.

I sent a book I wrote to a few publishers who liked my writing but I didnt persue it and burnt it.

This book is my survival here in Canada s.22

It has to be documented because the brutality as a single womans survival in this hateful beautiful province.

Personally, I dont care if its published or not but for a history of hidden brutality and vicious behaviours from a people who strutt the planet as sweet peace keeping polite people...You would be astounded and think Im making it up as a crazy woman.

I am not s.22

British Columbia Canada and, its corrupt system of goverment coupled with the mentality of people here , has destroyed, criminalized, starved, terrorized and virtually destroyed me as a human being because... I am "NOT ONE OF US" and, God help me...a self supporting happy woman alone.

i will document ever inch of it with pictures to leave for my family when I die.

If you publish it, many will benefit and perhaps changes will come. If you dont I may have been able to make some sense of this.

Sue,
In case I forget, better make a note to yourself to confirm that plate number and let me know if it's correct. Don't want to cause a ticketing incident.
Thx
Don

Hi Sue,

I've sent the request in for processing and assigned a permit #.

You can come and pick up the permit card in our office anytime today or later, I go for lunch in a window between 1 and 3.

Come to the main door of the west annex and buzz security, tell them you're picking up a pass.

Alternately I can mail it through interoffice mail, just need to confirm the room #.

Hi Judy,

I said I would let you know, and In case you haven't heard elsewhere, the chair for ^{s.22} has arrived and she seems quite satisfied with it. It's a good quality chair with a ton of adjustments.

Thanks to you and Danny for your assistance in seeing this through to fruition.

Hey Jake can you take one more sweep pls to see if you have a phone number fo s.22

The number I have for him-s.22 isn't correct or he's changed it.

He slipped through a call this morning, I put him off, but I know he'll be back.

I tried looking via Canada411.ca, but nothing yet

Thx,

Don
