Hello,

Writing from CBC Radio in Vancouver. I have a request for interviews with Premier Horgan, re: today's event at the Board of Trade, and the Trans Mountain expansion project.

That would be at 4:50pm for Kelowna, and 5:10 for Vancouver.

One on one, no calls, for about 6 to 8 minutes - questions around a response to what was said at today's event at the Board of Trade.

If this is possible, please let me know.

I'm at 604 662 6957.

Good Evening Mrs. Holmwood,

I do apologize for the long wait, I noticed that my original reply didn't send correctly, if not at all. I hope the Premier is still open to doing this questionnaire.

Below is the original response I tried to send in reply to your Email on the 3rd of November.

I am amazed and happy to hear that the Premier is able (and has the time) to do this questionnaire. When I got your email, I ran all the way across our school to my Planning teacher just to show him that I actually got in contact with the Premier and his office and how surprised and happy I was about being gifted/given this opportunity.

Attached to this email is the questionnaire, I look forward to the Premier's answers and am very thankful for being given this opportunity.

Sincerely,

Hi Jen,

Could you take on changing the below text to something similar to the attached? A "business bio"? Is that possible for later tomorrow?

Premier John Horgan is the MLA for the new riding of Langford-Juan de Fuca. He was first elected to the Legislature in 2005 as MLA for Juan de Fuca, and has been re-elected three times. In 2014, he became the leader of the BC New Democratic Party, and on July 18, 2017, he became Premier of British Columbia. John is the first to tell you that much of his success in life comes from the faith others had in him — a generous gift he's committed to giving back to the people of BC.

As premier, he's working to deliver on the NDP government's priorities: making life more affordable, improving the services people count on, and creating good jobs for people throughout B.C.

Next week, while the house isn't sitting, the premier and ministers will be travelling throughout the province and abroad, talking to people about the work we've done to make life more affordable, deliver the services people count on, and grow good, sustainable jobs for people here.

A number of ministers will be visiting metro Vancouver, the interior, the Island, the North and internationally. A few of the highlights:

- Minister Fraser will be touring BC's North East speaking with Treaty 8 First Nations.
- Minister Donaldson will be on a forestry Trade Mission in Asia, promoting BC's high quality forest products.
- Premier Horgan and Minister Selena Robinson will be attending the Urban Development Institute (UDI) Luncheon to provide an update on the government's priorities for housing and transit.
- Minister Ralston will be at the official opening of B.C.'s new US Trade & Investment office in San Francisco promoting investment attraction to B.C. and to meet with international technology stakeholders in Silicon Valley and Los Angeles.
- Minister Heyman will be working with global leaders on ways to cut carbon pollution while growing a sustainable economy at the United Nations Climate Change Conference COP23 in Bonn, Germany.
- Minister Beare will be promoting BC's film industry in Los Angeles.

Hope this helps!

Hi Jen,

Next Tuesday, I'm doing my regular Early Edition column on the UDI Luncheon with the Premier and Selina Robinson: <http://udi.memberzone.com/events/details/udi-vancouver-luncheon-premier-john-horgan-minister-selina-robinson-1331>

Two questions I'm wondering if you could help me with.

1) Originally it was just Selina Robinson scheduled for the luncheon - was there any particular reason the Premier was added to the event at a relatively late date?

2) The UDI's description of the event says "Together, they will share an update on their first 100 days in government and future plans to address housing affordability and transit priorities."

On housing affordability, can the public expect the announcement of any new policies at the luncheon, or will it be a continuation of themes and priorities the government has previously spoken about?

If there's any information you can share with me, it would be greatly appreciated.

Regards,

Justin

In terms of cannabis tax- the Minister of Finance will be the lead response. I'd check in with her office.

Thanks.

Good Morning Jen,

Just following up on my voicemail and previous email that bounced back from your old BC NDP account.

Can you please confirm a Globe and Mail report that the government cabinet is looking at moving the costs of cancelling Site C from BC Hydro to the provincial debt?

<https://beta.theglobeandmail.com/news/british-columbia/bc-hydro-feels-revenue-squeeze-while-ndp-commits-to-rate-freeze/article36889306/>

Is it possible to get a response and statement by my deadline today -- 2 pm MST because of the Remembrance Day stat.

Thanks!

Hi Vivian,
Minister Mungall is the lead on Site C. I suggest getting in touch with her communications team to inquire.

Cheers,

Hi Jen,

Hope your day's going well. Just wondering if the Premier might be available for an interview on The Early Edition Friday morning to talk about the Site C report?

We can do 7:10 a.m. Friday.

Please let me know if that works. I'm at 604-662-6114.
