Think I got it...Feb 13 she sent a copy of a response that HLTH sent her—NOT a copy of a letter she prepared for someone else. BUT she did include some comments with her email to indicate she was unhappy.

AND, she assumed that that cc'd letter with her comments would be forwarded to and read by the Premier?

s.22 called to follow up on a Feb 13 letter that was sent to the Prem, perhaps a cc to a letter to s.22 (?)

It's her reply to her response from Health, she is unhappy with what was sent her.

She wants to know if the Prem read her Feb 13 letter (?)

Enough to go on?

FYI/Update

Inadvertently spoke to s.22 again this morning, but it was good I did follow up. I informed him that the PO was unable to intervene in his dispute.

He is awaiting a final letter from the Ombudsman's office, but they told him they would not be perusing his case because MCFD followed all protocol in addressing his concerns.

He claims (in part) he has new info, and that's why he wants an Ministry staffer, MLA assistant, PO member, etc. to re-review his stuff—he's softened his stance in insisting to only speak to the Minister or MLA in person—but now no one will meet with him. He hinted he expected our office to persuade (instruct/force) a staffer to meet with him; I said no that can't happen. I think he's beginning to realize his dispute will have to go to litigation and it seems he's versed in that approach. I mildly inferred that he may have to eventually drop the case---he exclaimed sharply, "That ain't going to happen!"

I'm hopeful he won't be contacting the PO again (or at least any too soon).

Merely an FYI

Brief follow-up on this caller. (He slipped through my caller watch list—had his number listed wrong by 1 digit.)

His trip to the Ombudsperson's office resulted in nothing and his refrain is still and consistently that he wants to sit down with his MLA (Mizi Dean) or the Min of CFD in person to explain his case.

It looks like he's being rebuffed because of insisting only to talk to the top brass and s.22 s.22 Who knows what else is in his file.

I've recommended that he let some underlings review his case (maybe a case worker supervisor or a rep in the MLA office) and that the PO can't interfere, etc.

I had a caller from the Lower Mainland<sup>s.22</sup> looking for two large maps that he left with staff in the old Vancouver Cabinet Office, 1055 West Hastings, last March 2017.

Amber tells me there were some items in the Caucus office, some that were transferred from the VCO, that recently were dealt, with some being moved into storage?

Let me know if this means anything to you (or someone else in your office) and if you can advise in any fashion, phone or email sufficient.

Purely FYI

Received another call from this fellow from BC HEROS regarding his attempts to alert "the government" about problems with the BC Ambulance/Air Ambulance Service.

He is upset that his concerns are not being addressed to the satisfaction of him and his colleagues, particularly MIN HLTH, and is convinced that this issue is so grave it will "sink the government."

He said he's a 35 year veteran of seeking forms of government redress--s.22

She has sent the same message to the PM three times and to the fed opposition leader twice... We can't do anything for her. If she believes a crime has been committed she can contact the RCMP, if she wants to pursue some sort of legal action she should consult a lawyer. She has written extensively about this issue in the past.

Dear John Horgan, the premier of BC,

I make a request for having an appointment with the premier, John Horgan. In fact, I have made a complaint for s.22 s.22 but nothing was done about my complaint, except they tried to waste my time because they might want me to give up. s.22 because of that issue, they do not care about my complaint. I would like to speak with you about this issue and tell you that what happen in some places of British Columbia and nobody might care about it. My complaint is at the final step, and if they want to play me again, I might miss , again, lots of time that I would not be able to handle my situation, especially under s.22

Hi Jake,

FYI

Hans just called to say s.22 showed up at the MLA office today early this afternoon. He had a pointed discussion with her for about 10 minutes, attempting to teach her some protocol and point her in the right direction for help.

She insisted on wanting to see the Premier, so he gave her a map to the Leg and sent her on her way.

He put in a few calls to Protective Services and told me to watch for a tussle on the front steps.

Don't know if she'll really come after Hans was through with her. We'll see.

Here's one for you.

She called to say she'd emailed the Premier this morning.

She is insisting on meeting with the Prem. If she doesn't get a reply within a few days she will be showing up at the office in person.

She was quite private, something to do with<sup>s.22</sup>

She said she is not interested

Maybe you can trace it via her number:

I politely told her four times pls don't show up here without a scheduled appointment.

G'day Jake,

FYI

Hans just called to say s.22 showed up at the MLA office today early this afternoon. He had a pointed discussion with her for about 10 minutes, attempting to teach her some protocol and point her in the right direction for help.

She insisted on wanting to see the Premier, so he gave her a map to the Leg and sent her on her way.

He put in a few calls to Protective Services and told me to watch for a tussle on the front steps.

Don't know if she'll really come after Hans was through with her. We'll see.

Don

Here's one for you.

She called to say she'd emailed the Premier this morning.

She is insisting on meeting with the Prem. If she doesn't get a reply within a few days she will be showing up at the office in person.

She was quite private, something to do with <sup>s.22</sup> . She said she is not interested in speaking to her MLA or the Ombudsperson until after she speaks to the Prem.

s.22

Maybe you can trace it via her number:
s.22

Received? and any context you can supply appreciated, name if she provided it.

I politely told her four times pls don't show up here without a scheduled appointment.

Thx

Hi Don,

The Hemlock room has a very large television, and if you bring a laptop you can plug into a connection box (situated at the tv end of the main table) that will project whatever is on the laptop onto the tv. There are instructions in the room. If you are bringing a Mac laptop or iPad, you can either plug into the connection box or project to the television over Wifi using Airplay.

Hope this helps,
Angela

Hi Layne,

I'm going to send an invitation to Senior MAs at the end of the week to attend a training session on leadership development.

The sessions will be held in the evening from 7-9pm on Tuesday, March 6 and Tuesday, March 13. The sessions are being held while caucus is meeting.

It's two sessions so each group is approximately 10 individuals, allowing for more interaction and also giving them an option for the date.

After I send the invite I would like to discuss follow-up from yourself and/or Geoff to ensure maximum participation.

Thank you,

Here's one for you.

She called to say she'd emailed the Premier this morning.

She is insisting on meeting with the Prem. If she doesn't get a reply within a few days she will be showing up at the office in person.

She was quite private, something to do with s.22 . She said she is not interested in speaking to her MLA or the Ombudsperson until after she speaks to the Prem.

s.22

Maybe you can trace it via her number:
s.22

Received? and any context you can supply appreciated, name if she provided it.

I politely told her four times pls don't show up here without a scheduled appointment.

Thx

Acknowledged. Thx.

She did not appear threatening in any way, just seriously misguided in her understanding of protocol.

Her insistence on showing up without an appointment may just be bluster.

If I speak to her next, I will again dissuade her from coming uninvited.

I'll provide an update if further information is received.

Hi all,

Thanks very much for your hospitality in Victoria and for meeting with us Vancouver support staff. It was lovely to be over there and working alongside all of you in person!

As discussed on Tuesday afternoon, I'm attaching the Word document of VCO's Standard Operating Procedures Manual that we've developed over the past few months as an example for you all to go by if you decide to produce something similar for Victoria. It's our sixth draft (!) but it has come pretty close to being finalized. With that said, we believe it's a "living document" and could be updated at any point.

If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to me.

Thanks again and have a nice rest of your week!

Morning Jake,

s.22 Update: definitely the most persistent of the persistent, can't wear this guy down.

He's taking another serious run at us, 4 or 5 VMMsgs this week.

His refrain, stated emphatically, and I quote from the VMM: s.22

He adds that he will continue to call and write the PO until he receives this statement—he will not back off.

I'm not suggesting you need to be involved, just an FYI.

In an effort not to engage him, I've been sending his calls to voice mail—now he's added complaining about that!

I may need to take a strong line of disengagement, can you suggest a brief statement should I end up speaking with him?

I guess nothing I say to him will dissuade him from continuing to write and/or call. Only the winds of time will wear him down

Hi Alison,

I keep a record of incoming calls to the PO in a MS Word table format—date, name, locale, phone number, briefest description, action taken.

There are a few calls from citizens on the speculation tax, and a few on the wine issue request, is this something you want forwarded?

I can simply send the lines from the table that correspond.

Thanks,

Don

She noted that she met with Min Farnworth recently and is again angling to engage with the Premier.
Her resume has grown a bit in the last 5 months, she says.
I advised her to email her requests (meetings, events, etc.) and her recent accolades, and we would look over her stuff.

Further to our conversation, there are two ways Jen's number can be changed in the GAL.

The quickest way is for her to change it herself by going to <https://77000.gov.bc.ca> and click on "Update GAL Info" on the upper left

A new window will open up that has her current GAL information, and she can make the edits directly.

If she is having trouble accessing the link, or would prefer that we make the change for, please reply back with her cell phone number and I can assist with submitting an iStore order to have it correct. That usually takes about 1 business day to take effect, after the order is submitted.

If you or Jen have any additional questions, please let me know.

Thanks,
Bonnie

Remember months ago when my landline was going to be moved to my new office? Somehow, it never happened and it's been brought to my attention that it is listed as the number in the government directory.

The phone at my current desk says "953-4623." Is it easier to just have this switched to my name? Or should we try to reschedule Telus to come move the "387-1369" number to this office.

Subject: CALLER - s.22

Hi Greg,

Regarding:

I received a call at 3:30 today from s.22 She tried to engage me in a lengthy rambling conversation about her cause in the hope that, in the oral tradition as she put it, I could provide her with answers or advice, or invoke some action on the part of the PO or a ministry official.

She was professing ideas and trying to elicit feedback on her next direct action campaign—where to go, what actions to take, who to target, s.22, but she is refusing to connect with the PO in writing, as I advised is protocol, because she did not receive a response to her previous emails to the PO.

What she's really seeking, I believe, is to provoke further response or a meeting with a provincial government official(s) relative to her campaign.

I engaged minimally with her. I was able to disengage politely when I offered to enquire about her previous emails.

To my knowledge, this is the first time she has called the PO, I have no record of previous calls or emails.

I am alerting LAPS as she offered she may elect to come to the Legislative grounds, or the Langford MLA office, perhaps even chain herself to the front door of the Legislature—she said, in her next round of action; she did not suggest a timeframe.

I've cc'd Correspondence and Maureen of the MLA office.

I wonder if this is the problem:

The "bill to" address you entered did not match your credit card info exactly.

Address and phone number must match credit card statement.

I have my phone number listed, and is the address an exact match to the credit card info?

Sent emails in Fall and December 2017

This is s.22

She tried to engage me in a lengthy conversation about her cause in the hope that, in the oral tradition, I could invoke some action on the part of the PO or elsewhere.

She is professing ideas and seeking feedback on her next direct action campaign (?) but refuses to connect with the PO in writing, as I advised, because she did not receive a response to her previous emails.

What she's really seeking, I believe, is a response or a meeting with a provincial government official(s) relative to her campaign.

Were these emails received and how were they processed?

To my knowledge, this is the first time she has called the PO, I have no record of previous calls or e-mails.

I will be alerting LAPS as she said she may elect to come to the Leg grounds, or the Langford MLA office, maybe chain herself to the front door, in her next round of action, I'll cc you.

Subject: CALLER . s.22

Hi Greg,

Regarding:

I received a call at 3:30 today from s.22 . She tried to engage me in a lengthy rambling conversation about her cause in the hope that, in the oral tradition as she put it, I could provide her with answers or advice, or invoke some action on the part of the PO or a ministry official.

She was professing ideas and trying to elicit feedback on her next direct action campaign—where to go, what actions to take, who to target, s.22 , but she is refusing to connect with the PO in writing, as I advised is protocol, because she did not receive a response to her previous emails to the PO.

What she's really seeking, I believe, is to provoke further response or a meeting with a provincial government official(s) relative to her campaign.

I engaged minimally with her. I was able to disengage politely when I offered to enquire about her previous emails.

To my knowledge, this is the first time she has called the PO, I have no record of previous calls or emails.

I am alerting LAPS as she offered she may elect to come to the Legislative grounds, or the Langford MLA office, perhaps even chain herself to the front door of the Legislature—she said, in her next round of action; she did not suggest a timeframe.

I've cc'd Correspondence and Maureen of the MLA office.

Hi, Jake,
s.22 called about a letter he sent to the Premier 1st week of February, complaining about the Ministry of Health and AG, etc.
You shared with me the letter he sent to Min Eby's office (cc'ed to the Prem) with Min Eby's response, s.22 , but I wasn't sure that he sent a letter addressed to the Premier after this.
(Maybe you were referring to both letters below.)
The letter to the Prem was sent registered mail.
Received and the context/status of to-the-Premier letter?

Okay, thx, sounds like Min Eby's group has it in hand.

I'll take it there was no separate letter addressed to the Premier and this person was assuming the PO would issue a response based on the mere inclusion of a cc to the Premier.

I'll confirm with s.22 whether only one letter was sent.

If he gets sticky, and only if, should I suggest to him that if he requires a response from the Prem direct, he should send another package addressed to the Premier with that specific request?

Also if he needs further follow up on the Eby letter that he contact the AG Min office?

Sent a registered letter to the Prem via Canada Post, 'about 2-3 weeks ago.'

He (methodically) wants to know 1) was the letter received and 2) when can he expect a response from the Premier.

Without revealing the context, he makes the issue sound important.

Hi Moe,

We had this complaint about once every 3 months, rarely now. We've not been able to source the problem or duplicate, so I'm wondering if it's something at the callers end--on his device (remember the main number and email has not changed), his note was vague.

I had a call s.22 this afternoon from a s.22 upset about losing the World Cup.

Don

For Immediate Release

March 14, 2018

Ministry of Tourism, Arts and Culture
STATEMENT

Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture's statement on 2026 FIFA World Cup bid VICTORIA - Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture, has made the following statement about Vancouver potentially hosting the FIFA World Cup in 2026:

"The prospect of hosting the FIFA World Cup is exciting for soccer fans, and has the potential to bring significant economic and cultural benefits to British Columbia. For the past several weeks, our government has been working diligently with the United Bid Committee - consisting of Canada, the United States and Mexico - to bring the 2026 cup to Vancouver, as one of the committee's Canadian host cities.

"While we support the prospect of hosting the World Cup, we cannot agree to terms that would put British Columbians at risk of shouldering potentially huge and unpredictable costs.

"Throughout this process, we have been in regular contact with the bid committee and other levels of government to support this bid, while protecting taxpayers. Through these conversations and our submissions to the bid committee, we have made numerous attempts to clarify the risks and obligations faced by British Columbians.

"So far, the bid committee has rejected our requests to clarify how much British Columbians could be expected to contribute. And they have declined to negotiate with the province regarding the concerns we raised.

"Should the bid committee reconsider, our door remains open to bringing some of the 2026 World Cup games to Vancouver."

I think I may know what she was talking about. She thought, or expected, that when you click on the hyperlink to premier@gov.bc.ca that the original message she sent to the MLA address would automatically be forwarded (as it is, it merely opens up a new message).

I'm not sure it would satisfy someone like her, but what if you replaced the word "redirect" with "address" or "re-address" (your email to)... for my money it's fine the way it is.

The notice looks great, btw.

Hi Don:

The portable printer doesn't mean for volume printing and that's why any of those accessories don't last for many pages. We don't use any portable printers as often now.

But for the maintenance box, I recommend to replace it as soon as you can. For the ink, I myself have no problem use it until the end of it. We use compatible replacement product too but of course the quality may vary.

Thanks,

Hi Robyn, if you could provide some advice to me from your experience.

Evan's WF-100 portable printer is issuing a warning notice for consumables. He asked me to look into the two items; I did some research.

A. Ink Maintenance Box for WorkForce WF-100 T295000

<https://epson.ca/Accessories/Printer-Accessories/Ink-Maintenance-Box-for-WorkForce-WF-100-T295000/p/T295000>

Comments:

- I can order from Epson Canada, but currently out of stock ($8.39)
- Not stocked at eWay, Staples, or Best Buy
- Available at Amazon Canada in Epson brand ($18.14 including shipping, or Compatible $11 ea or 2 for $20)
https://www.amazon.ca/AQree-Compatible-Maintenance-WorkForce-Printer/dp/B075H877N8/ref=pd\_cp\_229\_1?encoding=UTF8&psc=1&refRID=JZQGJNHM3BG251248TXK

Questions: 1) How soon should this item be replaced after warning issue? What if you postpone replacement? 2) Would you recommend a compatible replacement product for this particular item? 3) This item didn't seem to last long, I guess you'd recommend ordering multiples?

B. Epson 215, Black and Colour Ink Cartridges, C/M/Y/K 2-Pack BCS

Comments:

- I just realized I should ask him which cartridge is running low, the colour or BW before I order; last time I order the two pack (colour/blackwhite)
- The two pack Epson OEM sells for $53.39 (plus $5 shipping) at Epson Canada, $73.99 at Staples Canada, $71.75 at Amazon Canada
- Two pack compatibles range in price from $20 at Amazon to $31 at Best Buy; reviewers seem equally divided on the use of compatibles: 5-star reviews say work great; 1-star reviews say avoid

https://www.amazon.ca/Compatible-Maintenance-WF-100W-Printer-T295000/dp/B0788M5KJY/ref=sr\_1\_1?s=office&ie=UTF8&qid=1520880115&sr=1-1&keywords=T295000

Question: Do you have any experience with compatible cartridges such as these for the WF-100 or other printers? Would you recommend using compatibles—a particular brand or source?

At your convenience. Thanks,

Don

Here's the best I could gather from him regarding context: Quebec has something called the Immigrant Investors Program. Under the program, immigrants are admitted to Quebec (which has its own immigration policy) and after a term, 90% relocate to mostly Ontario and BC. He states that the previous BC government had urged the PQ government to abolish this program (?). He wants to know the position of the current government towards this program.

Some background here:

(Makes a lot more sense after I read these articles—I was unfamiliar with the issue.)

Hi Jake,
Voice mail message this morning from s.22 wanting to know when to expect a reply from the Premier (I never got around to informing him that there would be no response).
But, you suggested (below) you'd pass along a copy of the letter, pretty sure I didn't receive it; I'm just curious of the context.
At your leisure, no rush.

Our office will never comment on a specific legal case so I don't they'll be getting anything from us. Eby's response also makes it pretty clear that they can't respond either. They have to file a report with the RCMP if they believe a crime has been committed...

Okay, thx, sounds like Min Eby's group has it in hand.
I'll take it there was no separate letter addressed to the Premier and this person was assuming the PO would issue a response based on the mere inclusion of a cc to the Premier.
I'll confirm with s.22 whether only one letter was sent.
If he gets sticky, and only if, should I suggest to him that if he requires a response from the Prem direct, he should send another package addressed to the Premier with that specific request?
Also if he needs further follow up on the Eby letter that he contact the AG Min office?

Found it! It was a CC of a letter to Eby on a specific case. We have the original as well as the response from the AG's office. At the end of his letter, Eby said his office will not be responding to any aspect of the case.... So that's that I guess! I'll scan a copy and send it over to you just in case.

Sent a registered letter to the Prem via Canada Post, 'about 2-3 weeks ago.'

He (methodically) wants to know 1) was the letter received and 2) when can he expect a response from the Premier.

Without revealing the context, he makes the issue sound important.

I could potentially push it up further in the day, but the only other time is in between cabinet and qp.

It's with an external stakeholder that has been REALLY hard to pin a time down with. Would you be able to check about alternate arrangements? We had been planning to host at VCO but now everyone is in Victoria for the day. Sorry for the short notice and thanks for looking into it!

Hi Charlotte,

I'll look into arrangements...just to confirm: 3 attendees? And 'next' Wednesday is that March 21?

Hi Don,

Don Bain and I are going to be having a meeting with Alex Neve from Amnesty International next Wednesday from 3:00-3:45 while we are in Victoria at the Leg. Kate said you were the best person to ask about getting a meeting space at the leg. Would you be able to help me with that?

Thanks,
Charlotte

Hi again Alison,

One quick clarification (which will help for future reference): if the email I send doesn't mention the words Kinder Morgan, but I received a reply from someone else with the words KM, do you want those?
E.g., I send a mail follow-up query to Correspondence about an incoming letter (without details) and Jake replies that it was received and put in the KM file.

Subject: RE: Call for Records OOP-2018-80475 Records Due: ASAP

Hi Alison,

I have a few emails I sent to Correspondence, queries regarding Callers following up on material they sent that may or may not refer directly to Kinder Morgan (some address pipelines, Salish Sea, etc).

Is that something applicable you want to look at?

Dear s.22 :

Thank you for your request to meet with Premier Horgan on various government priorities. We appreciate your taking the time to write.

Unfortunately, the Premier is unable to meet with you at this time. As your concerns largely involve the transportation of bitumen in British Columbia, we would recommend you share a copy of your message with the Honourable George Heyman, Minister of Environment and Climate Change Strategy. The minister can be reached at the following address:

ENV.Minister@gov.bc.ca

You also mention various partisan concerns. As you have reached the Premier's government email address, it would be inappropriate for our office to respond to any questions regarding partisan political activities. We can, however, recommend you direct those suggestions to the BCNDP directly at:

contact@bcndp.ca

Thank you, again, for writing. We hope you find this information useful.

March-28/2018.

Honourable Premiere: John Horgan,
Parliament Buildings,
Victoria, B.C.

Dear Premier: Horgan,

I am writing you today to request a formal meeting with you in your Victoria office: ASAP. I am reaching out to you as a concerned New Democrat and British Columbian during this period of difficult and stressful political turmoil and to follow up and elaborate on the correspondence that I hand-delivered to you s.22

I wish to discuss the following issues and offer your government what I believe are the missing pieces of a winning political strategy that will bolster the political fortunes of your government and that of Alberta-Premiere: Rachel Notley and greatly enhance the economies of both BC and Alberta:

1. Kinder Morgan (KMPEP) Pipeline Expansion Project:

~ the BC NDP Government must reject this KMPEP and stand firm in their opposition to this corporate wet-dream to export raw bitumen and at the same time defend our coastal waters, provincial economy and the interests of all British Columbians. Your failure to do so is political suicide for your government and could quite possibly destroy the BC NDP. It is truly a sad state of affairs when you have 3 NDP leaders: the Premiers of BC and Alberta at political odds with each other fighting it out in public over this Kinder-Morgan Pipeline issue and the Mayor of Burnaby taking on the Federal Government with a Supreme Court of Canada law suit over local by-laws. The Conservatives, Liberals, the oil industry executives and the media must be having hysterical-convulsions watching the NDP self-destruct in public.

Therefore, I want to share with you my win, win strategy that involves these same NDP leaders banding together to say "No" to raw bitumen exports through BC and "Yes" in support of the oil industry stepping-up to the challenge and building a "New" oil refinery/upgrader in Alberta to process this raw bitumen into Crude oil. This crude oil can then be refined further in Alberta and BC (Husky Oil in Prince George) into finished low-carbon transportation fuels that are produced by blending this oil-sands derived crude oil with renewable liquid fuels such as ethanol and turpines derived from the forest industry, agriculture and the municipal solid waste stream.

These same finished low-carbon transportation fuels: E-85 gasoline, Bio-Diesel, bio-bunker and aviation fuels can then be exported at a much lower environmental risk.

The bottom line is that:

a. No raw bitumen exports through B.C. = political stability and public approval.

b. Increased economic activity investment and jobs in new-technologies to produce value-added renewable fuels from the residuals in the BC and Alberta forest and agricultural industries and organics from the MSW stream.

c. Such a political initiative with help the NDP rise above the current political no-win situation, gain political favour with the electorate and the oil industry. If you all play your respective political cards right, the NDP can win this fight.

d. BC and Alberta will take a huge step forward together in the right to meet their respective Climate Change commitments by greening up the oil- sands resource and growing our economies through investments and jobs producing low-carbon renewable transportation fuels for domestic consumption and export.

2. A strategy to win s.22 riding for the NDP:

"Spend some public money in the s.22 riding" and give us what we need and deserve in the form of public investments in roads, bridges and the restoration of the health care services that were cut by the Liberals.

3. Site-C vs "Power BC ?

I look forward to meet with you and your staff as soon as possible to consider these ideas and strategies in more detail, early April works for me.

Okay...thx for the skinny, I'll see what I can learn from Chris...although it makes sense from what you say to refer this to FIN; and I simply need to refer him to MO FIN as she said, but I am curious why no response, no regrets from the PO...Kelowna could simply be told the Prem will not be attending any meeting with them next week...see what she says...

For ministry specific issues they tend to defer to the minister. If a stakeholder requests a meeting they will generally take it so idk why they haven't in this case.

Thx, let me get your take on this before I ask Chris---It'll help me know how the wheels turn.

His email reads as a direct request to the PO for a meeting. Why are we passing it to FIN (which is not mentioned), why did she say "they will be asked to send in a separate request to meet [the Premier]" when this is what this email appears to be, why isn't the PO responding? I'm confused...and yes, I'll check with Chris--s.22

Jake and Don,
There will be no response from this office.
It will be handled by FIN and I have sent them the email.
If West Kelowna still wishes to meet with the Premier they will be asked to send in a separate request to meet.
We will review at that time.
If they call again you can give them the MO FIN number to follow up.
Thanks,

Hi Jake,
Bit of background on a fax you'll be receiving from this guy; I've looked at it. He's called and left long convoluted voice mail messages 2 or 3 times.
s.22

His phone messages are two minutes non-stop, he mentions MLAs, the federal government, Min Eby, provincial government staff, lawyers, judges, criminal offences, etc.
One issue he eludes to is that he's being bounced from office to office; Liberal MLAs won't deal with him, they refer him to the AG. The AG says it's an MLA issue.
I'm not sure what you'll make of it; I'm sharing this in the event you're able to decipher it and action it somehow, so I'll have something to tell him next time he calls for follow-up.
Thx,

No rush, but let me know if it shows. All this and I doubt he'll get a speedy meeting or any at all.

Says he spoke to the Prem at s.22 so that's the reason he's stoked. It all boils down to building refineries---not that that option hasn't been rolled over numerous times.

Hi Surjit,

We seem to have an ongoing problem with the security alarm button in Geoff's office. He has inadvertently bumped it on 2 or 3 occasions over the past several months.

Would it be possible for it to be relocated to a better position?

Assuming you are the one we should be taking this up with.

Thx,

Ideally, the daily temperature should be sitting between 15 and 20 degrees Celsius for at least two weeks before beginning to reseed. This will have allowed the soil to warm up to approximately 10 to 18 degrees Celsius, which is the best temperature range for cool grass seed varieties to germination.

Hello Don and Don!

You have both been granted CLIFF access. To access cliff simply put the following address into your address bar, put 'prem' as your organization and log in with your regular government login:

s.15

To find correspondence from an individual or organization, click on the magnifying glass icon next to 'Logs' and you can search by keyword, name, company or date created (same as date received for us). Once you search you will find a list of correspondence from the writer. The search range is one year by default, but you can go all the way back to 1997/8. Click on the six digit string of numbers next to the author's name (called a log ID) and it will open the full content of the email along with any notes our staff has made.

If you're having any trouble in Vancouver, I've given Charlotte a crash course on CLIFF and she should be able to at least help a little bit. If you're having any trouble in the West Annex, Chris and I can give you a hand. Let me know if you have any questions or concerns! Cheers.

NOTE: The 'company' field will also be where you can search by government or indigenous group. For instance, 'Government of Ontario' or 'T'sou-ke First Nation'

Robin,

Do you want to hold off on the visit; Tamarra says she fixed the jam/error and I found instruction on checking the toner via the control panel:

<https://support.hp.com/ca-en/document/c02492500>

We'll get in there at the first opportunity and try the procedure, and I'll let you know how it goes.

Hi Robin,

Can you or someone else stop by and look at Geoff's HP printer...he's getting an error msg and possibly a paper jam. Also we've received his new toner cartridges and we are wondering how to check the ink supply to tell us which and when to replace the cartridges.

He's here today, with meetings off and on in his office, so maybe check with me to see when is the best time to come.

Morning Don, yes, I have been monitoring them as well. When I drove by on Sunday there was a truck packing them up and on Monday morning they were gone. This morning the six foot fencing is scheduled to be delivered. My tarp is down and the blinds are open! Thank you for checking in! Moe

Hi Don,

I was able to find the email from Mr. Wright in our cc folder. Because it was just a cc, it doesn't look like any further action was taken. It was also fairly specific concerns about trying to schedule a meeting with Minister Mungall, so not something we would normally comment on. Jake is away until Monday, but I've flagged Mr.

Wright's email for his reference in case Mr. Wright sends an email directly to the Premier. Let me know if you need anything further!

Hi David,

I've been asked to look into toner cartridges for Geoff's office printer, an HP Laserjet CP1525nw color, running low on black.

This looks like the same printer that Bev had in her office last fall. That printer proved inoperable and was replaced, but not before we located a dozen cartridges throughout the office cupboards, which I believe were removed when the printer was taken away.

My questions would be, do you still have those cartridges in stock somewhere—assuming it's the same printer? And/or, that was a common printer at one time I believe, do you by any chance still supply cartridges for those printers?

I thought I'd check with you before I went about looking into ordering cartridges on our own.

Perhaps, and I haven't, we need to ask Geoff how often he uses that printer, and if he still needs to continue to use it

The cartridges numbers:

CE 320A black

CE3 21A cyan

CE 322A yellow

CE 323A magenta

Thx,

Her resume has grown a bit in the last 5 months, she says.
I advised her to email her requests (meetings, events, etc.) and her recent accolades, and we would look over her stuff.

Ok, thx, that should take care of it, and be all I need to disengage her if she calls.

She's just a very frequent correspondent about s.22 . Scheduling advised they do not want a meeting so we will be sending regrets and providing her with info to contact caucus if she'd like.

Hi Jake,
Anything yet from this gal? Background might aid in dealing with her next (generally civil) phone call...

She has been inundating various city councils with requests to send us letters. I think we have received about five so far? Very unlikely she'll get a meeting. Although her cause is obviously righteous, s.22

Hi Jake,
FYI/Heads Up, just had a call from this woman, whom we haven't heard from since last October (and I'd forgotten the context until I re-read these emails).
She noted that she met with Min Farnworth recently and is again angling to engage with the Premier.
Her resume has grown a bit in the last 5 months, she says.
I advised her to email her requests (meetings, events, etc.) and her recent accolades, and we would look over her stuff.
Cheers,
Don

Jake,
Thanks for the background.
Let's say I hope that she gets a satisfying response from PSSG; failing that all I can do is tell her it was passed on.

We have a fairly decent history with the writer. We don't usually respond directly but we have in the past.
s.22 We tend to let PSSG take the lead on s.22 - anyways so s.22 would fall under them. Not quite sure what you would want to say if she follows up. My guess is that PSSG will send an email response rather than book a meeting but I can't be sure.

Ran this one by Amber and she didn't want it referred to scheduling. I believe it was sent to PSSG but I'll double check.

Sorry Moe, that last note sent by accident.

Got a lone support call from s.22 asking the Matriarch at your office be treated with respect, not roughed around...

How are things unfolding out there since we last heard from you?
