Hi Susan,

If you receive correspondence on the topic of the changes to the Public Service Pension Plan (details here: <https://pspp.pensionsbc.ca/board-communique-march-16-2018>), could you please redirect it to the Public Sector Employers' Council Secretariat (PSEC Secretariat)? Kelsey Bridges is the person it should be sent to. PSEC Secretariat is coordinating responses on behalf of government.

Please let me know if that works for you.

Thanks,

Hello again - thank you for advising of the continued issues with these letters.

I've reached out to the Minister's office & they have resent the letters again via email this morning with a read receipt notification to ideally confirm their arrival. The representative in the BC Trade Office in Beijing has also been included on the emails to be aware that they've been resent (he was cc'd on the letters). The email addresses being used have been confirmed that they're what's listed on the letterhead, so they should be going through.

If they haven't arrived by tomorrow, please let me know.

Susan,

Good morning from Beijing.

I regret to inform you that as of today, 0800 Monday on April 23, 2018, neither Chairman Zhang Chun of CMEC, nor Chairman Zhang DongNing of Bank of Beijing has received the response letter from Minister Ralston.

I am reaching out for your help.

For CMEC am copying Mr Bai ChuanDong, the GM of CMEC Division 1 and the author of a Q1 2017 letter to Minister Bonwin Ma on the transit topic and will allow Mr. Bai/you to communicate directly to try and get an e-copy or courier version of the letter from Minister Ralston or his staff to Chairman Zhang Chun before a very important meeting we have planned on 28 April with regards to BC Transit, Translink and the Mayor's Council.

Mr. Bai speaks and reads English very well and can advise on the best methods for Minister's Ralston staff to get his boss the Letter of Reply.

We thank-you in advance for assistance and patience.

Respectfully,

WT Patryluk

Hi Amanda – GCPE has a secured version of the Premier's signature in a variety of formats. Andrew Pratt can be contacted about getting access to it. Please note, though, that the preference is that their staff embed the signature into the file vs sharing it (there are stipulations that would accompany sharing the signature).

I've cc'd Andrew here, so that he's aware that permission is being granted for the signature to be used for this publication. Ideally, his office can look after inserting the signature, but Tasha can follow up with him about it.

Hi Amanda,

Much appreciated
