Hi Rob,

This is the last list I have in my files (see attached). I haven't started building a new one, but have lists that I plan to work from.

Two questions:

- Do we know what the room capacity is?
- Do we know if there is a date for invites to be sent out?

Tx.

Subject: budget lock up list

Robyn, Rob –

I hope you are both well and possibly still enjoying time away.

My head is deep into stakeholder engagement for the budget. I'm wondering if you have an updated budget lock up list. I'd like to update it based on a number of meetings the Premier has had and also based on the contents of the budget (making sure we have as many related stakeholders as we can).

I'd be happy to get working on it from my end and then share an updated version or jump on the phone to discuss the best process.

Please let me know what works best for you.

Many thanks,

Mira,

I hope you had a great holiday weekend. Thank you for your time last week, it was great to connect with you, and provide you with a glimpse of what types of initiatives SAP is focused on with our Public Sector clients across North America.

- As we had discussed, it was be our pleasure to invite Premier Horgan to the SAP Vancouver office, and align his visit to the job announcements in early 2018. As soon as we have a more clear line of sight to timing, I will be sure to let you know, in hopes of securing time on the Premier's calendar.
- We had discussed at a high level some of the work SAP had done related to the opioid crisis in the State of Indiana. The link below provides some additional details regarding this solution, and the benefits the State of Indiana have realized. We would like to explore this further with the Government of BC, and determine how we can replicate a similar solution, made in BC, for British Columbians.

<https://www.wired.com/story/indiana-reeling-from-opioid-crisis-arms-officials-with-data/>

Hopefully following our meeting, you were able to develop a greater understanding of the depth of investments SAP has made in British Columbia today, and will continue to make going forward. We would welcome the opportunity to further explore where SAP could best align with the BC government, and their citizens.

Thank you in advance, I look forward to your reply.

Frustrating news – as you know, we have been holding times on Feb 7th and 8th for the FNLC meeting but I just spoke to MIRR and it turns out the First Nations Summit has a gathering of their own both of those dates and therefore is not available. I think it would be wise to hold this meeting in February if possible. I'll leave that decision to others, but would like to suggest both Feb 16th (Lunar New Year, so not ideal) or the Feb 23rd.

Please let me know what you think before I ask MIRR to check dates with members of FNLC.

I know their first recommendation is in the works and I believe their second happens in some form in Grade 12 curriculum (there is an anti-racism portion of it) but it may be worth inquiring with the Ministry and the BCMA (on their sense of things).

Subject: Budget Activities Working Group
Importance: High

Hi All,

Further to what was discussed in the meeting just now, we are the Budget Activities Working Group. I would like to schedule a first meeting, and it needs to happen rather quickly, but I am aware of how busy everyone is, and also of the fact that most of you are on one or more of the other working groups as well.

So, how about Monday, at either 10am, 1pm or 4pm. Let me know if any of those work, and if you want to reply about those times and suggest a few other times that could work for you if those don't work, PLEASE REPLY JUST TO ME, so we all don't get several dozen emails about this. I'm also open to meetings that are later in the day if that's necessary.

At this first meeting I would like to discuss:

- Schedule for meetings going forward and general tasks/assignments
- Start a discussion of a timeline of meetings, events and social products that we want to happen certainly or possibly before Budget Day and when – and brainstorm new ideas.
- Figure out who among us should be involved in discussion of the events of Budget Day itself, as I expect it need not be everyone here.
- Possibly start a discussion of what should be done in the immediate aftermath of the budget, though that will likely also be influenced by the discussion about events prior to the budget and can be more directly dealt with in future meetings.

So again, let me know if any or all of those times work on Monday, and if not, when on Mondays would work for you regularly. Also, I suspect given that many people will be on vacation after next week, we should also discuss at our meeting on Monday when it would be possible to meet again on Thursday or Friday if that is possible.

Thanks
Rick

From the half dozen responses so far the clear preference is Wednesday between 12:15 and 2:30pm. If somewhere in that window does not work for you please let me know – barring multiple conflicts I will send a calendar invite for a meeting at 1pm tomorrow in the next few hours with call in info and a room.

Hi all

After hearing back from most of you, the majority says late afternoon. I know that 4pm doesn't work for everyone, but if you could reply, again just to me, and let me know all the time windows in the late afternoon on Monday that could work for you, hopefully we can find a time that works for all or most. We might have to look at Tuesday but I would very much prefer to do this on Monday so we have a chance to get to work on things.

Let's say from 2pm onwards, let me know all the times that could work for you.

And as I should have mentioned in the first email, also let me know if you want something else added to the agenda.

Thanks

Subject: Budget Activities Working Group

Importance: High

Hi All,

Further to what was discussed in the meeting just now, we are the Budget Activities Working Group. I would like to schedule a first meeting, and it needs to happen rather quickly, but I am aware of how busy everyone is, and also of the fact that most of you are on one or more of the other working groups as well.

So, how about Monday, at either 10am, 1pm or 4pm. Let me know if any of those work, and if you want to reply about those times and suggest a few other times that could work for you if those don't work, PLEASE REPLY JUST TO ME, so we all don't get several dozen emails about this. I'm also open to meetings that are later in the day if that's necessary.

At this first meeting I would like to discuss:

- Schedule for meetings going forward and general tasks/assignments

- Start a discussion of a timeline of meetings, events and social products that we want to happen certainly or possibly before Budget Day and when – and brainstorm new ideas.
- Figure out who among us should be involved in discussion of the events of Budget Day itself, as I expect it need not be everyone here.
- Possibly start a discussion of what should be done in the immediate aftermath of the budget, though that will likely also be influenced by the discussion about events prior to the budget and can be more directly dealt with in future meetings.

But if a call is useful to let him know we are well aware of the federal funding deadlines etc that is no problem.

JM!

Welcome to BC and to the new role! I'm thrilled you are here and look forward to connecting in person. We should definitely set up a time for a chat.

Now that we are not starting from scratch with overall systems, we are working on exactly the question the Minister has – tracking and centralizing information from meetings. I'll share with them and then will be happy to share with you where we are at with all of this.

Are you in Vancouver this week or Victoria? If you are in Vancouver, let me know and we will connect. I'm supposed to be in Victoria on Friday, but am likely going to reschedule until next week.

Thanks!

Hey Mira,

I just wanted to send a quick note to let you know that the day has finally come, I've arrived in Minister Ralston's office!

It's been months since we last spoke, so I just thought I'd send you a quick note to say that it's so great to finally join the team. We've got a huge job ahead of us, but I feel really lucky to be here.

I'm not sure if we'll cross paths in your new role – but I know the Minister is really keen to figure out a good system for following up with all the people he's been meeting. I think he's scheduled to sit down with you today, so I'm sure you'll hear about it from him 😊

If you ever have a few minutes to hop on a call, I'd love to connect just to say hi and see what I (and the Minister) can do to help your team.

Cheers,

JM

Hi Mira,

Here are a few items for Cara related to the Jan 29 anniversary:

- 1) Condolences letter from PJH and MHB in 2017: <http://bcndpcaucus.ca/wp-content/uploads/sites/5/2017/01/Condolences-letter.pdf>
- 2) Language from the NCCM in 2017 (attached)
- 3) Language from the NCCM's 2018 call to have the day designated a national day of action (attached)
- 4) She probably already has the Prime Minister's statement from 2017, but here it is just in case:
<https://pm.gc.ca/eng/news/2017/01/29/statement-prime-minister-canada-fatal-shooting-city-quebec>

Would it be useful to include community statements if they had particularly strong phrasing? I can drum up two or three quickly.

Both dates we suggested work for them (Feb 16th and 23rd; 1-3). They would prefer sooner rather than later - I think we would all agree. Please let me know what date is best for the Premier and I'll confirm.

I was speaking to Jonathan Sas s.22 about preparation for the FNLC meeting in February. We would both like to get a meeting booked soon so there is time to prepare (particularly on the commitments document). I know you are back the week of Jan 15th and that MSF is in Vancouver on Monday, Jan 15th. Is there any chance you may be available that day for a meeting? If you'd prefer it be later in the week, please let me know.

Robyn, Rob –

I hope you are both well and possibly still enjoying time away.

My head is deep into stakeholder engagement for the budget. I'm wondering if you have an updated budget lock up list. I'd like to update it based on a number of meetings the Premier has had and also based on the contents of the budget (making sure we have as many related stakeholders as we can).

I'd be happy to get working on it from my end and then share an updated version or jump on the phone to discuss the best process.

Please let me know what works best for you.

Many thanks,

Hi, Kate –

I don't have a complete list of places I think the Premier needs to go. I was hoping to start with collective thinking around the story we want to tell of where the Premier is going, who he is meeting with and why, and then fill in events/travels from there. Perhaps it's worth pulling together a meeting discuss the overarching strategy behind a tour? I'd be up for doing that together or putting thoughts down about it as it relates to outreach for our collective discussion.

Hi all,

Following up on a conversation with Mira this morning about planning activities for the Premier for the upcoming months. I am hoping to have a draft plan with movable pieces for Geoff to review before he goes to Asia so we can start the actual work of getting these events moving. Mira, you mentioned that there are certain goals that you have for travel, outreach and stakeholder relations for the coming months. I also have a list of "promised" tours from the Premier as well as incoming requests. Mira, are you able to provide me with your list by Monday morning and I can then integrate that and have for review and input by both you and Geoff? Tamarra, in my dreams I hope to get 30 mins with Geoff to review next week.

Hi Amanda,

As per voice mail, here is updated guest list for Arrow Lakes. IH would like to get the invite and media advisory out as soon as they can as Nakusp is a 2hr trip for some folks. Thanks and when you have a sec maybe we can chat about the emcee role and whether you envision MLA doing both the emcee role and speaking on behalf of minister. That would be unusual, but doable if that is the preference.

Thx.

Hi Brad –

Nice to hear from you – Happy New Year! The Premier is barely in town next week (24 hours) before his trip to Asia. I'd be happy to discuss the potential for a meeting in March, following the budget.

I meant to ask if you have attempted to meet with Minister Ralston. If not, I can provide him with context and explore that possibility.

Best,
Mira

What about conducting an MA digital survey in the lead up to the workshops so we get a sense of:

- 1) Who has stakeholder engagement staff?
- 2) Who has tech infrastructure to ensure they are responding and following up on stakeholder outreach?
- 3) Who regularly engages in:
  - a. Calling/emailing stakeholders after a decision?
  - b. Responding to community petitions/events/calls to action?
  - c. Convening stakeholders through their ministry? IE: roundtables
  - d. Ensuring there are digital assets attached to their announcements that can be shared with social followers?
    - i. Including blogs and direct statements from their ministers
  - e. Etc.

This would give us a good lay of the land going into the meeting, and help MAs see who is already doing a great job and where things can be improved.

Hi Mira,

As usual, It was lovely to meet with you yesterday morning. We covered a lot together and I look forward to working on the initiatives we discussed.

As per your request, I am sending you the call out for the #WeRemember campaign. We would be honoured if the Premier would join and participate. Here is a link to the post the Premier and the BCNPd caucus did for the #WeRemember campaign last year:
<https://twitter.com/jjhorgan/status/825116288754319360>

CIIA in partnership with the World Jewish Congress has launched the second annual #WeRemember campaign in commemoration of International Holocaust Remembrance Day, on January 27.

Through this initiative, we are reaching out to millions of people across the globe to encourage them to partake to inspire conversation and help ensure that a new generation will learn the story and lessons of the Holocaust.

We are asking you to photograph yourself while holding a sign with the words "We Remember", and post the image to social media using the hashtag #WeRemember and tagging @cijainfo in your post so we can amplify your message.

The campaign will run through International Holocaust Remembrance Day, January 27, culminating with a live projection of all participant photos on the grounds of Auschwitz-Birkenau January 24-27.

Best Regards,
Nico

Here is all the info I got!

link to the info online: <https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/governments/celebrating-british-columbia/proclamations>

Here are the overall guidelines for what's suitable:

Suitable occasions or events for proclamations are those that:

- Have significance or general application to BC
- Observe milestones, recognize achievements or direct attention to a worthy cause
- Are apolitical
- Would not be considered offensive or frivolous by the public

They say that these requests must be received at least 6 weeks prior to the date of the event/occasion to be proclaimed. And they get reviewed by the appropriate ministry to determine approval.

Changing the lights is free, anyone from the public can request it, it's easy to make happen and it offers a nice way to publicly commemorate a day.

Hi, Haroon –

I hope this email finds you well on this mysteriously foggy and now sunny day.

I'm writing to follow up from our discussions last week. I can now confirm that both Minister Bains and Parliamentary Secretary Ravi Khalon are available on January 29th before noon. We welcome your suggestions in terms of timing and location but have tentatively held between 10:30 – noon. The Minister is interested in following the lead of the community in terms of how the day is commemorated. We are open to a vigil type gathering or a discussion amongst community leaders and the Minister (or both). Please let us know if you have had further discussions with other community leaders regarding the day.

We would ideally like to send out invitations early this coming week. Is there a good time for you to speak tomorrow?

All the best,

Hi Mira,

As usual, It was lovely to meet with you yesterday morning. We covered a lot together and I look forward to working on the initiatives we discussed.

As per your request, I am sending you the call out for the #WeRemember campaign. We would be honoured if the Premier would join and participate. Here is a link to the post the Premier and the BCNPd caucus did for the #WeRemember campaign last year: <https://twitter.com/jjhorgan/status/825116288754319360>

CIJA in partnership with the World Jewish Congress has launched the second annual #WeRemember campaign in commemoration of International Holocaust Remembrance Day, on January 27.

Through this initiative, we are reaching out to millions of people across the globe to encourage them to partake to inspire conversation and help ensure that a new generation will learn the story and lessons of the Holocaust.

We are asking you to photograph yourself while holding a sign with the words “We Remember”, and post the image to social media using the hashtag #WeRemember and tagging @cijainfo in your post so we can amplify your message.

The campaign will run through International Holocaust Remembrance Day, January 27, culminating with a live projection of all participant photos on the grounds of Auschwitz-Birkenau January 24-27.

Best Regards,
Nico

Morning all,

Spoke with the speaker's office and they provided the following details:

- 1) Invitations are handled through their office. An email will go from them to all MLA's with the information that they will have 2 tickets each. The MLA's must respond with their guests names and email addresses by January 29th.
- 2) Once we know how many guests the MLA's are bringing we can then send to the Speaker's office the list of guests the Premier would like to invite. This list MUST have email addresses as all invites are electronic. The list should be 50 people large (40 for Premier specifically and 10 for const office use)
- 3) We should have a reserve of 20 extra invites ready to go in case we are short people
- 4) The Gallery holds 150 guests and the floor has 28. Priority of floor seats are to previously elected. If there are other specific people we would like on the floor we must note that in the invite list we send to the Speaker.
- 5) The post reception is hosted by the Speaker's office. They are responsible for tea, coffee and snacks all sourced from the Leg dining room.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Kate

I'm happy to develop the list of stakeholders for us to work from and manage the list of requests.

I think we should get the process nailed down so everyone knows where to send requests.

Hi, all –

The YWCA will be launching a campaign in the coming weeks urging the government to invest in childcare in the 2018 budget. Their marketing is quite compelling (see attached) and will be up as of the end of the month around Metro Vancouver. Their website (childcareNOW.ca) is still in draft, but is an interesting contrast to the $10/day brand. I really like their language of “taking the next step” towards universal childcare.

I know there will be a lot of attention to childcare the next few days because of the anniversary of Baby Mac's passing, so the timing of these ads will likely get attention.

Hi Mira,

I've had to move the Canadian Solar Meeting previously scheduled on Feb 9th s.22
s.22 Unfortunately the folks from Canadian Solar are coming in from Japan the day before and the only other time available for this falls in the block of time I'm holding for Van stakeholder meetings. I'd like to confirm this meeting for 4pm – but wanted to connect with you first. Will this time be ok?

Thanks Meaghan! No central plans. I was just trying to make sure that Feb 14 memorial march had a strong presence, and then all women's marches got sucked up in the planning.

Min Darcy is the first I've heard attending in Vancouver so that is great.

Hi Nico,

Thank you very much for sending this. It's really helpful.

A couple of quick updates:

- Government communications is now looped into the process regarding the planning of the day. I am speaking to them later today and will have the event lead be directly in touch with you as needed.
- The Hall of Honour is booked.
- Unfortunately, our Digital team does not have the capacity to webcast (fb live) the event. It's purely a technical issue, but we are certainly able to record it and make a video from it.

- Minister Darcy's calendar has been held for the time, as has the Premier's.

Our next major priority is getting the Save the Date together, which should happen in the next couple of days.

More soon - and many thanks, again -
Mira

Hi Mira,

Connecting to catch up on the Yom Hashoa commemoration at the BC Legislature sounds like a great idea. As an FYI, the commemoration has been going for a number of years and certainly for the last 2 years since I have been with CIJA. This year there was no commemoration due to the election. CIJA has been coordinating the community side of this event and liaising with partner organizations, we will be happy to continue in this role. In the previous government, Ministers Wat and Stilwell were the Ministers sponsoring the event at the legislature.

Please meet us know when it would be a good time to have the call.

Greetings Mira,

As you may already know, I am the new Community Relations Manager of CIJA's Pacific Region. I very much look forward to continuing our collaboration with BC Legislature on annual Yom HaShoah commemorations; the next taking place on Thursday, April 12, 2018.

Nico Slobinsky (Cc'd here) has been taking the lead on this project and now that I'm on board I was hoping you could bring me up to speed and to see if there are any updates on Holocaust Remembrance at BC Legislature for 2018.

I saw social media postings of Premier Horgan's attendance to the Victoria Shoah Project's Kristallnacht commemoration at Congregation Emanu-El last week, which had it's highest attendance yet (200+). As one of the co-founding members of the Victoria Shoah Project, I must say that it is very heart-warming to see all the support and continued growth, and that I plan to carry on in kindred spirit at our upcoming Yom HaShoah commemoration.

Thank you for your consideration and hope to hear from you soon, Carmel

Hi Rick –

A quick note to follow up on Norouz.

The actual date of Norouz is March 20th. The suggested date for the event is March 14th. The table doesn't have to be up for 2 weeks – it can be up for a week and can also be moved to the West Annex, or elsewhere if the rotunda is challenging for various reasons.

I have requested an updated (less ambitious) proposal and will send it to you when I have it.

That's the update for now!

Thanks for following up on this. My recollection is that we were going to pass it back to a Ministry, but there may in fact be an opportunity coming up in which it could work. Do you have any additional information about it?

Many thanks,

Hi Mira –

Was there any interest in this from the PO? Garry Begg has been asking our Minister again... Let me know if there is any info we can pass on.

We also bumped into the CEO of Air Canada last week who said he was interested in possibly sponsoring. So working to set up that connection as well.

Hi Mira,

See the attached PDF for a BC program geared towards getting young girls into STEAM programs. This is a flight based program called "The Sky's No Limit – Girls Fly Too!".

Garry Begg brought this to the attention of MRF but there isn't a real tie in with our ministry besides the STEAM component. This organization has received funding previously from the Jobs, Skills and Training Ministry since 2015.

Their annual event is in March and our previous Premier never attended – there is an open invitation for PJH and the new GC will be attending.

Passing this over to you to look into as it's not in our purview over in Education.

Best,
Will

Hello folks – for your review. Good on my end – good by you?

Statement from Premier John Horgan on International Holocaust Remembrance Day

VICTORIA—Premier John Horgan has issued the following statement in recognition of International Holocaust Remembrance Day on Jan. 27, 2018:

“Today, the world remembers the victims of the Holocaust, the six million Jewish men, women and children who were murdered, along with the millions of others because of their religious beliefs, ethnicity, sexual orientation, or their political views.

“On this day, British Columbians stand with the citizens of the world when we say: never again.

“We condemn all acts of hate and anti-Semitism. And we resolve to work together to eliminate violence, intolerance and all forms of prejudice.

Statement from Premier Horgan on the anniversary of the terrorist attack on the Centre Culturel Islamique de Québec

VICTORIA--Premier John Horgan issued the following statement recognizing the one year anniversary of the terrorist attack on the Centre Culturel Islamique de Québec on Jan. 29, 2017:

“One year ago, Canadians joined together in shock and horror in the aftermath of an attack that claimed the lives of six men at a Quebec City mosque, and injured many others.

“We honour the memories of those who were cruelly taken from their friends, their families and their communities in this act of terror: Ibrahima Barry, Mamadou Tanou Barry, Khaled Belkacemi, Abdelkrim Hassane, Azzedine Soufiane, and Aboubaker Thabti.

“These men were murdered because they were Muslim. This attack was the first time in Canadian history people who were gathered in a place of worship were targeted with violence. We must make sure it is the last.

“We stand with the Muslim community and every British Columbian attending vigils, sending prayers and taking action to fight hate, bigotry and Islamophobia. Together, we will build a stronger province and stronger communities, united in love and compassion, not divided by hatred and fear.”

On Jan. 29, 2018 from 5:00pm to 11:59pm, the B.C. Legislature archway and fountain will be illuminated green, a traditional colour of Islam, to honour the lives lost in Quebec City and to raise awareness about the impact of Islamophobia.

Subject: Day Against Islamophobia

Hi, all –

As you know, we have been raising the issue of the Day Against Islamophobia for some time based on the ongoing discussion/debate in Quebec and across the country. In advance of our meeting on Monday, we have been tracking the issue quite closely. Our meeting and the question of marking the day is now news: (<http://www.metronews.ca/news/vancouver/2018/01/23/b-c-muslims-call-for-a-day-of-remembrance-and-action.html>). Both Noor Fadal (lead in this article) and the chair of the National Council of Canadian Muslims will be at the meeting with Minister Bains and PS Ravi Kahlon.

Knowing that they will be directly asked about this, I think it's important we have a process underway for discussion. I am unclear where a decision about whether or not to name this day can be made/is made.

Is it possible for caucus or cabinet to have a discussion about this? I think it's really important we are responding to the community request. It would definitely be showing leadership across the country.

All advice most appreciated

Thank you,
Mira

Good Morning Mira,

The province sent out the News Releases on the Premier's statement on International Holocaust Remembrance Day. Are we good to post this? I have been looking for a social media post and I could not find one. We would not want to go ahead of the Premier unless you give us the go ahead.

Statement from Premier Horgan on International Holocaust Remembrance Day

Link: <https://news.gov.bc.ca/releases/2018PREM0009-000093>

Premier John Horgan has issued the following statement in recognition of International Holocaust Remembrance Day on Saturday, Jan. 27, 2018:

"Today, the world remembers the victims of the Holocaust, the six million Jewish men, women and children who were murdered, along with millions of others because of their religious beliefs, ethnicity, sexual orientation, or their political views.

"On this day, British Columbians stand with the citizens of the world when we say: never again.

"We condemn all acts of hate and anti-Semitism. And we resolve to work together to eliminate violence, intolerance and all forms of prejudice."

Nico

Also, Norouz: I am working with Amir on a possible event date for Norouz at the Legislature (also discussing with Rick). He's proposing March 14th. That date looks difficult to me but I just want to make sure you are aware of it as a flag.

Hi!

Okay – this is great. Thanks for sending it to me.

Re the survey: I would make two minor tweaks. I think it's best to remove the digital question – while totally relevant, this squarely lives in digital and I don't want to appear to be creeping into their work. And I would add a question about EA/MA's – perhaps something about how relationships are managing internally amongst political staff. The survey should go to all MA's and EA's. I'd like to send it out (or discuss with Layne re her sending it out) because it's part of the workshop she is organizing, so I'd like to be respectful of that.

Re the doodle: I know it's easier to communicate this way, but I worry you will have very little pick-up and I want to make sure you meet with people. All attempts with meeting schedules this way so far have not been successful! I think it's best to email 5-10 MA's re setting up times. I'd be happy to tell you who I think would be worthwhile based on my experience. My recommendation is to begin with Senior MA's.

Let me know if all of this makes sense!
M

Charlotte – anything you want to add before I send this off?

Hi Premier, Geoff –

I hope this email finds you well.

I'm writing to let you know that we held a really meaningful discussion with Muslim faith and community leaders today to commemorate the one-year anniversary of the mosque shootings. There were about 25 people present for the meeting – an interesting mix of younger and older people, women and men. The meeting was facilitated by Minister Bains and supported by Ravi Kahlon. All Surrey MLA's were invited to join.

Everyone present was pleased by the ways in which our government commemorated the day, especially with your statement which was read out loud in the meeting. They also really liked that we changed the colour of the lights at the legislature to green and white to mark the day. In the meeting, Ravi reviewed initiatives our government is undertaking (anti-racism education, the BC Human Rights Commission, multiculturalism grant programs, etc).

The primary asks from the meeting included:

- Strong support for a Muslim Advisory Committee (a few people in the meeting are working on a proposal to this end)
- a universal call for stronger anti-racism curriculum in K-12
- a recognition that hate-related crimes are significantly on the rise towards the Muslim community and there was a request for sensitivity training for police
- there was talk of wanting a Muslim candidate, Muslim staff both on the political and civil-service side
- Finally, there was a specific ask of our government to support the National Council of Canadian Muslims in their ask of the federal government to hold a National Day against Islamophobia.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Subject: Re: day ahead overview

Hi folks -

I noticed that the Muslim community-faith leaders meeting we have today with Minister Bains and PSRK in light of the one-year anniversary of the mosque shootings is not in the day-ahead or in the corporate calendar. What's the best way to make that happen in the future?

Thanks,
M

Hi folks -

I had an excellent meeting with Evan Wood from the BC Centre for Substance Use yesterday. Just as an FYI (I'm sure you've seen it for one reason or another) attached is their budget submission.

Evan is very likely to reach out for meetings in the weeks ahead. He is obviously really connected to MJD but I really think it would be worthwhile taking the time to get to know him and their work.

Thanks,
Mira

Hey –

FYI – this meeting with D-Wave has been long in the works. Minister Ralston is also very eager to do a tour. I was going to coordinate to go when he goes, but now I'm thinking we should coordinate the entire thing because I know it's on your list as well. March break?

Let me know – I can also go in advance and scope it out/develop the relationship in advance.

Hi Mira,

Happy New Year! How are you?

As we head into 2018 I wanted to inquire about when we could organize a tour of D-Wave for yourself and the premier in the coming months.

D-Wave has received federal support and given they are expecting some provincial innovation funding as well, we want to demonstrate the unique work we are doing in the space of quantum computing and commitment to working with our provincial government in B.C.

Please let us know any potential dates for a tour, and I'd be glad to help facilitate and organize that with you.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Thanks,

Sorry to hear that! Is there another time in the coming weeks that work for you? Perhaps a time when you are available to come by for a tour of the D-Wave facilities in Burnaby?

I can try to arrange our schedule to accommodate your available times.

Navjot,

I was holding off on writing in the hopes I wouldn't have to reschedule, but I now need to be in Victoria tomorrow late-morning. I'm sincerely sorry to have to reschedule the meeting. I would genuinely be pleased to meet with D-Wave at their location or ours, but unfortunately I can no longer make tomorrow work.

Please let me know if you would like to schedule another date – and again, my sincere apologies to you and your client.

Best,

Hi Mira,

Apologies for the delayed response, I've been in a conference for the past couple hours- what a nutty day!
Yes I've spoken to the VPs Warren and Tanya and they also think the best thing would be to postpone to a better day.

Do Tuesday November 21st or Thursday November 23rd work instead for you?

Thanks and no worries,

Dear Ms. Oreck,

On behalf of D-Wave I wanted to connect about setting up a meeting with you in Vancouver at your earliest convenience to introduce the important work D-Wave is doing in the realm of innovative technology as the world's only quantum computing system (please see the attached meeting request).

Based in Burnaby, B.C., D-Wave Systems quantum computers aim to integrate new discoveries and research in physics, engineering, manufacturing, and computer science into breakthrough approaches to computation to help solve some of the world's most complex challenges.

We would welcome the opportunity to meet with you in the coming weeks and provide you a tour of D-Wave's facilities. In the meantime if you have any questions please feel free to contact me.
