Hi ACs - I am setting up (small group) phone calls regarding proportional representation during the week of January 8-12. MLAs know told that the call details will be put in calendars. The call may not take 1.5 hours but we want to ensure there is enough time for a comprehensive discussion.

Please let me know if your Minister is available for the call during any of these times below. Once I confirmed the call times, I will send details to you for your Ministers' calendars. Let me know if you have any questions (or give me a call).

January 8 – 9:30am – 11:00am

Dear friends,

As the Legislature slows down for the Christmas break, I'd like to thank all of you for the tremendous contribution you made to our government's success during the past five hectic months. I won't repeat all the reforms our New Democrat MLAs have already implemented, but they have changed politics in BC for the better and forever.

What's to come is even more important so I hope everyone takes time to relax, catch up with friends and family, and get ready for the new session. By the time most of us return, at the end of the first week of January, we'll be just weeks from a new budget, the Kelowna West byelection and a new session.

Thanks again and happy holidays,

Geoff

Hi Everyone,

I just wanted to say thanks to everyone for joining today's staff meeting. I'm sorry for the confusion with the time in my e-mail!

It was great to hear from so many of you about the work this government is doing to make life better for British Columbians. It is truly amazing how much has been accomplished in such a short amount of time.

As I mentioned earlier, I'm going to work with Deputy Minister Don Wright on setting up a technical briefing on Site C. Based on his availability, it will likely be next Wednesday. For those unable to attend, we can set up an alternate time to do a debrief on what was discussed.

As for other meetings, the MA meeting next week will be cancelled. There will be the Senior MA Planning session this Friday though.

If I don't see you – happy holidays and I hope you all enjoy a well-deserved break!

Hi Ed,

Here's every interview I could find in TNO and online.

I can tell there was a Postmedia interview that doesn't seem to have been published in full (only a few quotes). And the same goes for Les Leyne's interview.

Thanks,

Hi Sage and Roseanne – before I reply to folks about this I wanted to double check with you. The ask is that these government engagement materials on preventing sexual violence get distributed to MLA constituency offices.

- 1) I assume you would agree to distributing to government caucus constit offices, and that should be done through caucus (similar to the marijuana and human rights materials)?
- 2) Are you okay with the team here reaching out to the 2 opposition caucuses and asking that they distribute to their MLA offices? I see no reason why we wouldn't.

If no concerns, I'll suggest that the team reach out directly to you Roseanne, and to Primrose for the Liberals and Liz for the Greens.

Hi Mike;

Checking in with you at the suggestion of the public engagement folks – Amy Bronee and Tanya Twystra.

As part of the sexual violence public engagement (engage.gov.bc.ca/preventsexualviolence) we're working to get posters and stickers into student union buildings and throughout campuses.

We'd also like to distribute to all MLA constituency offices. Before we do that, wanted to check with you to ensure no concerns.

Plus, if you have any suggestions on how to go about it with all three parties? Happy to approach folks directly.

If you're not sure on the logistics, happy to dig.

Dear friends,

As the Legislature slows down for the Christmas break, I'd like to thank all of you for the tremendous contribution you made to our government's success during the past five hectic months. I won't repeat all the reforms our New Democrat MLAs have already implemented, but they have changed politics in BC for the better and forever.

What's to come is even more important so I hope everyone takes time to relax, catch up with friends and family, and get ready for the new session. By the time most of us return, at the end of the first week of January, we'll be just weeks from a new budget, the Kelowna West byelection and a new session.

Thanks again and happy holidays,

Geoff

Hello.

With the approaching holiday season, this is a reminder that if you are planning to travel outside of Canada you should obtain a roaming pass for your Legislative Assembly cell phone. This will ensure you do not receive unexpectedly large bills for voice and data usage while travelling.

If you require a roaming pass, or further information on this subject, please contact Graham Caverhill at 250.952.0663 graham.caverhill@leg.bc.ca or Maureen Ramsay at 250.356.1655 maureen.ramsay@leg.bc.ca.

Regards

Graham Caverhill

Hi all,

Two overlapping items that need to be all calendars:

- 1) FNLG: November 28-30, 2018, Vancouver Convention Centre
- 2) BCFed Convention: November 26-30, Old Vancouver Convention Centre

We will be working on a bit of a plan for how we coordinate caucus and cabinet at these two events early in the new year.
