Hi premier's office comms.

PJH's Constituency Report airdate is May 5 & 6

The taping would need to be about 2 weeks before that.

So, 2 questions:

1 – Will it happen, or does he want to opt out? We would need to know now if he is to opt out, because a cancellation later will mean a re-broadcast of an opposition show.

2 – who will host?

Hey Sheena,

That is a bit too tight for us... is there a day on that last week of March that he is available instead?

We would like to look at doing it during the day (as opposed to the regular time) so that some of our contributors could be here in person to wish Vaughn well.

Would appreciate it if you could go back to them once more and see if a day the week of March 26 would work.

Cheers, K

Vaughn has been hosting Voice of BC for the past 20 years, I would like to take the opportunity for the last show in March to celebrate this milestone.

Since it could technically be our LAST show (ever), was wondering if the Premier would be interested in appearing on the show that week?

Looking to pre-tape the day before (March 28) and get a cake to bring on set and invite the MLAs and contributors to swarm the set at the end.

That way if it is our last show, we can at least go out with a bang!

Can you run it by Horgan and see if he is interested?

Recommendation: Send this response from the Ministry of Education:

The ministry will be releasing the results of the consultation and findings of the rural education engagement shortly.

We have been confirming we will be releasing these results with media for the last two weeks.

Last week, Minister Fleming also confirmed to school board chairs in a phone call that the rural schools public consultations and findings will be released on the ministry's website within the coming weeks.

The rural education engagement process was initiated in 2016 – under the previous government when schools were closing in some communities. The previous government developed a report as a result of that engagement that they chose not to release.

The ministry will consider all input into the engagement process as part of the public education funding model review that is currently underway.

The Review Panel will use the input from the rural consultations – along with other research and upcoming engagements with key stakeholders – to develop recommendations for government.

Also, Minister Fleming was asked about this today at the Legislature and here is what Minister Fleming's response was:

Minister Fleming: "We're going to use it as a resource for the comprehensive K-12 education review that we have ongoing right now. Understand that the report that's being referred to was never completed. It was not completed when the writ was dropped before the last election, so it's not a government report. It was not released even during the interregnum in the summer when the government had an opportunity to do so."

The themes would be: a personal profile plus (this being a business magazine) a look at the government's relationship with the business community. What have been the issues between the NDP and the business community in the past, what are the premier's views about that history, and what will be the premier's approach going forward?

Good Morning Geoff and Sheena:

As a result of BC Premier Horgan's very positive and welcome statement in the BC Legislature on Monday, Alf Barrios (Rio Tinto Aluminium CEO) would like to request a 10 min phone call with the Premier either today (Wednesday March 7th) or on Thursday before 11:00 am (PT).

Is that at all possible, it would be a productive 10 minutes for both parties.

Please let me know if a short phone call is possible.

Thank you.

Hi Sage,

As the Premier's scrum is now part of the women's day event, wondering if we want a call in line. The event is now on the front steps at 1. We could do a listen only. It would be hard/awkward to take questions on the phone. But please let me know your preference.

At the Canadian Red Cross, we have been privileged to manage the BC fire fund and have appreciated the opportunities to report back to the BC Government Task Force on the operations. There is no doubt of the positive impact on people and communities both socially and economically now and into the future. Thank you.

Our President and CEO of the Canadian Red Cross, Conrad Sauve, is in BC on March 26th and 27th and would certainly welcome an opportunity to update the Premier as well as outline Canadian Red Cross disaster operations nation-wide and around the world, particularly given our risk for catastrophic disasters. Conrad not only brings the experience as the head of the Canadian Red Cross, but as someone who has traveled widely to support Canadian Red Cross operations in Myanmar, the middle east, Haiti and many other areas.

It was suggested that I contact you directly to explore any availability for this or future dates.

Thank you for your consideration.

Many of the examples use high EHT cost figures to suggest a major impact, but they would mean very high payrolls ($5M+). The EHT is just 1.95% of payroll, and even smaller as a proportion of total operating costs.

Hey guys,

Just wanted to set the record straight on some misleading information in Question Period today when Todd Stone raised an employer health tax example.

- He said that Nature's Fare Markets will see an increase of $2 million as a result of the employer health tax and that it employs 450 people.
- Because the top EHT rate is just 1.95%, an increase of $2 million would mean a payroll of more than $102.5 million
- Based on the fact that he says they have 450 employees, that would mean an average salary of more than $227,000.

I just wanted to point out that many of the examples use high EHT cost figures to suggest a major impact, but they would mean very high payrolls ($5M+). The EHT is just 1.95% of payroll, and even smaller as a proportion of total operating costs.

Hello Jen

Checking to see if you are the one who needs to approve this MA. If so, it needs a contact person at the bottom, whatever is your preference. Also, information about the flower presentation can be provided to the media later. Still waiting on who it will be, her back story, likely from Help Fill a Dream, and their willingness to talk to the media. Once approved, we will need to have it translated into French, which takes 3 days, and then send a courtesy copy to the GG. If this isn't for you, can you politely tell me where to go.

Thank you.

March 6, 2018

Dear Premier Horgan,

It was great to connect with you during the US Consulate event at the Vancouver Aquarium shortly after the provincial election. A lot has happened for both of us since that time, so I hope we can find an opportunity to get together to discuss shared priorities. Yasmin, my Assistant, copied here can help find some time.

In the meantime, I would like to formally invite you to be a founding signatory of Ocean Wise's #BePlasticWise pledge campaign.

We are inviting prominent leaders, in Canada and internationally, to sign this major pledge to enable widespread awareness and action on solutions to the problem of ocean plastic pollution.

As you know, ocean plastics is a growing global crisis and has serious implications for coastal health in B.C. We are inspired to see your and the Government of British Columbia's commitment to taking a global leadership position on curbing avoidable plastic waste. We believe that this campaign will help support this leadership by creating a solutions-focused avenue for consumers and the public to be involved – which is a critical constituency to enable provincial, national and global action.

Our goal with the #BePlasticWise campaign is to inform and empower the public with tangible actions – a critical constituency to complement action by governments and businesses. Individuals will pledge to #BePlasticWise by entering their email address on ocean.org. They will then receive twelve monthly challenges to reduce their use of avoidable plastic waste, with each month being a different theme (e.g. restaurants, household products, etc) and each week people receive an email with a new specific action people can take. As part of this initiative, we will also be working with researchers at the University of British Columbia to evaluate how this campaign changes plastic waste behaviour.

We would be grateful if you would allow us to display your name on our #BePlasticWise pledge site on ocean.org as a founding signatory. We are also hoping you would be open to joining our press conference when we announce this campaign at the GLOBE conference, at 10:30am on March 14th in Room 16 at the Convention Centre (East).

Current confirmed signatories include National Geographic Photographers Paul Nicklen and Cristina Mittermeier, ECCC Minister Catherine McKenna, visual artist and writer Douglas Coupland, and Co-Founder of Nature's Path Foods Ratana Stephens, among others.

Thank you for your consideration, and your leadership on this important global conservation challenge.

We look forward to hearing from you, and happy to discuss in more detail.

Best,
John

Hello,

Polina here with Canada's Business News Network in Toronto. We are interested in setting up some remote interviews from the Globe Forum today/this week. We understand B.C. Premier Horgan is also attending the event.

Any chance we'd be able to set up an interview with him on Canada's energy future & sustainability? We are looking into sending a camera to the event or otherwise it would be from our CTV Vancouver studio (below):

Suite 500 - 969 Robson St
Vancouver BC
V6Z 1X5

Could you let me know what may be possible? We are looking for 6-7 minutes on-camera (live or pretaped, as per his availability).

Cheers,

Hello,

In our upcoming issue, we are including a feature on Prime Minister Justin Trudeau's visit to India and we would like to include inputs from Premier John Horgan in it.

Below are some questions we would like his opinion on. Kindly send the answers by Friday.

QUESTIONS

What is your opinion about the Indian government's response and welcome to Prime Minister Justin Trudeau and his family in India?

Do you feel there was a lack of planning by the Indian and Canadian governments with regards to the visit?

How do you see this visit strengthening or harming India-Canada relations?

Inviting a convicted terrorist, Jaspal Atwal, at the formal dinner led to a lot of backlash. Will this ruin Trudeau's stand in the upcoming election and his relationship with India?

A lot of people and media feel that Trudeau's visit to India was mostly to bank of Indo-Canadian votes in the upcoming election. What is your comment on it?

Kindly acknowledge this email.

Subject: Green private member ever bill tomorrow

The greens are putting forward an amendment to FOIPA tomorrow, which would include transgender names as part of the redaction clause (currently lesbian, gay and bisexual peoples names are redacted, but not transgender members names).

There is a group of transgender youth coming to the legislature for this, and the greens are wanting to know if we would like anyone from govt to participate?

I think this is a good idea!

STATEMENT

Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture's statement on 2026 FIFA World Cup bid VICTORIA - Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture, has made the following statement about Vancouver potentially hosting the FIFA World Cup in 2026:

"The prospect of hosting the FIFA World Cup is exciting for soccer fans, and has the potential to bring significant economic and cultural benefits to British Columbia. For the past several weeks, our government has been working diligently with the United Bid Committee - consisting of Canada, the United States and Mexico - to bring the 2026 cup to Vancouver, as one of the committee's Canadian host cities.

"While we support the prospect of hosting the World Cup, we cannot agree to terms that would put British Columbians at risk of shouldering potentially huge and unpredictable costs.

"Throughout this process, we have been in regular contact with the bid committee and other levels of government to support this bid, while protecting taxpayers. Through these conversations and our submissions to the bid committee, we have made numerous attempts to clarify the risks and obligations faced by British Columbians.

"So far, the bid committee has rejected our requests to clarify how much British Columbians could be expected to contribute. And they have declined to negotiate with the province regarding the concerns we raised.

"Should the bid committee reconsider, our door remains open to bringing some of the 2026 World Cup games to Vancouver."

Hi Sage and Jen,

I know some other staff are working with our office here about logistics for the Premier's visit to the BCTF AGM on Tuesday, but I'd like to give you a heads up that we will be putting out our agenda to the media later today.

Not sure if you are planning to promote his speech more than that, but we are always fully set up for media to tape, record, etc the meeting. Also, the meeting will carry on quickly with its business once the Premier finishes. So, if you're planning a scrum, it will have to be outside the conference room somewhere.

Let me know if you need to talk more about anything to do with the AGM.

Thanks

Hi Geoff – just wanting to be sure you were aware that this letter was drafted. It has not yet been formatted onto the Premier's letterhead – this is just the draft (& incoming) that are attached.

Please advise if this is okay to go & whether PJH should review & sign vs e-sig.

Adding Sheena.

What does the agenda look like now? Having asked, I don't think we should allocate time on the agenda. And how big is the table?

My preference is low-key photos, and we should describe it as "a casual opportunity to interact with the Premier and community members during a lunch celebrating Nowruz."

So not pitching it as a media availability, per se.

I've dummied up a media invite below, to go the following 5 outlets:

Majid Mahichi & Sherry Soltani (Parvaz TV)	parvazfilm@gmail.com

Thanks Sage. I'm just working on some event details, but wanted to confirm what the expectations are from the media? Will they be joining for the sit-down lunch portion, or are they there to take some photos and record the interactions happening? Is this an opportunity for them to interact with the Premier also, and if so, should I include them at the table or have them set up in a separate area, and should I build them into the agenda?

Thanks,

Marlene

Cory Callaghan is a news reporter for CFTK television in Prince Rupert. He's asked our office if he can attend the young entrepreneur event Premier Horgan is hosting at the Wheelhouse Brewery on Monday March 26.

He's covered a lot of Jennifer Rice's Parl Sec work relating to emergency preparedness and we find his coverage fair and informative.

- Go to Sent Items folder and scroll down to date range
- Option 1: Drag and drop emails into a separate email to send to me. Depending on how many emails you have within this date range, you may need to break them up and send them in multiple parts
- Option 2: Highlight all emails, click on File – Save as Adobe PDF. The conversion can take a few minutes. I would recommend doing this in 2 or 3 sections
- Option3: Drag all responsive emails onto a USB stick and provide the stick to me

For text message records:

- Take screenshots of all conversations containing responsive records. Please see attached instructions for this

If you have any issues with compiling these records, please let me know and I will be happy to help!

---

Records of any and all emails (excluding attachments), text messages, BBMs, slack messages, and WhatsApp messages sent from Sheena McConnell.

(Date Range for Record Search: From 09/01/2017 To 09/30/2017) Date Format is MM/DD/YYYY

---

If you think that the search for records will take you over 3 hours and/or the total volume of records will exceed 200 pages, please let me know as soon as possible.

Thank you for your assistance with this request!

Hi Sheena,

I received another voice mail message from Wilford Victor this morning at 9:30, he directed the message specifically to you.

He said Donna Bellingham received a call back from our office, but he has heard nothing further on his request to speak with or meet the premier on “a rather large issue in Hope.”

He requested that follow up calls be referred to Donna Bellingham or John Fordlawski.

I don't have any other background on this. Was it referred to someone else? Do you want me to do anything further on it?

Attached is a briefing note from FLNRO RD on the alliance. s.13

- The Northwest BC Resource Benefits Alliance (RBA) is a group of local governments committed to achieving fair revenue sharing for the region through negotiations with the provincial government
- The RBA consists of 21 local governments across the Northwest from Masset to Vanderhoof and was formed in 2014 by the Regional District of Kitimat-Stikine, the City of Terrace, the Districts of Kitimat, Stewart and New Hazelton, the Village of Hazelton, and all RDKS Electoral Area Directors, the Regional District of Bulkley-Nechako and the North Coast Regional District, as well as all of their member municipalities and Electoral Areas.
- RBA believes a regional approach is needed because development is incredibly industrially diverse, projects can affect several communities at once but don't fiscally benefit any and the whole region deserves a share of the wealth generated in the region.
- RBA was seeking to start negotiations in Sept 2017 and met with Premier Horgan on Sept 29, 2017.
- The RBA website notes over $13B has been spent on capital projects within the region noting the provincial government has earned at least $500 million in incremental revenue associated with these projects;
- Projects identified on the site included Banks Island North Wind Energy Project, Kitimat LNG Terminal, Pacific Trails Pipeline, Blackwater Gold, Kitimat Clean Oil Refinery and Pipeline and Kerr, Sulphurets Mitchell and Iron Cap.
- On March 14 2018, a news release states that the RBA released its submission to the provincial government's Rural Development Strategy public engagement process.
- Though the RBA fully supports the development of this strategy, it does point out that to be effective, the Rural Development Strategy must provide real solutions to the challenges faced by rural communities and those solutions must be flexible enough to respond to unique challenges in different rural regions

- The Northwest BC Resource Benefits Alliance (RBA) is a group of local governments committed to achieving fair revenue sharing for the region through negotiations with the provincial government
- The RBA consists of 21 local governments across the Northwest from Masset to Vanderhoof and was formed in 2014 by the Regional District of Kitimat-Stikine, the City of Terrace, the Districts of Kitimat, Stewart and New Hazelton, the Village of Hazelton, and all RDKS Electoral Area Directors, the Regional District of Bulkley-Nechako and the North Coast Regional District, as well as all of their member municipalities and Electoral Areas.
- RBA believes a regional approach is needed because development is incredibly industrially diverse, projects can affect several communities at once but don't fiscally benefit any and the whole region deserves a share of the wealth generated in the region.
- RBA was seeking to start negotiations in Sept 2017 and met with Premier Horgan on Sept 29, 2017.
- The RBA website notes over $13B has been spent on capital projects within the region noting the provincial government has earned at least $500 million in incremental revenue associated with these projects;
- Projects identified on the site included Banks Island North Wind Energy Project, Kitimat LNG Terminal, Pacific Trails Pipeline, Blackwater Gold, Kitimat Clean Oil Refinery and Pipeline and Kerr, Sulphurets Mitchell and Iron Cap.
- On March 14 2018, a news release states that the RBA released its submission to the provincial government's Rural Development Strategy public engagement process.
- Though the RBA fully supports the development of this strategy, it does point out that to be effective, the Rural Development Strategy must provide real solutions to the challenges faced by rural communities and those solutions must be flexible enough to respond to unique challenges in different rural regions

Hi Suntanu,

I am unsure to to approach about this. The story below came down the wires this morning and I am looking for Provincial reaction. The story below came down the wires this morning, and it's making fun of the Premier and the provincial government for wanting lower gas prices, while fighting Kinder Morgan. Kenny is aiming his comments at the Premier, but I think this is more about where we get our gas from. But if you think I should approach the Premier's office please feel free to forward this :

PR12 – (Alta-Notley-Energy)

Alberta's Opposition leader is poking fun at BC Premier John Horgan for asking for help from the federal government to keep gasoline prices down....

at the same time as opposing the Kinder Morgan oil pipeline expansion.

Jason Kenney from the United Conservative Party says Horgan's views are ludicrous....

" You can't make this stuff up. It's like ccomedy hour coming out of Victoria. They're trying to shut down their major source of oil, they are increasing their carbon tax, while telling ordinary British Columbians they are concerned about high gas prices?"

TAG: Kenney says many BC residents travel cross border to Washington state to fill their cars in order to avoid the BC carbon tax.

Also – is there anyone on the province's side that can clarify what exactly would be flowing down an expanded Trans Mt pipeline? If it's bitumen, how does that lower gas prices? Or are the Alberta politicians pandering to the ignorant?

Thanks for your help!

Dear Jen,

I wanted to follow up on the contact Amber kindly provided earlier today regarding the joint media release which announces the 2018 BC Community Achievement Awardees. We would very much appreciate receiving a quote from the Premier acknowledging and celebrating the 2018 awardees and their achievements. As per my email to Amber, I have attached an example in the 2017 media announcement along with the list of 2018 awardees and their respective backgrounders (still in draft form as they are awaiting awardee approval). Note that the selected 2018 awardees remain confidential until the media announcement.

Thank you for your help and please let me know if you have questions. We plan to release the announcement the week of March 26th. If it's possible for you to provide the Premier's quote by March 23rd that would be wonderful. We will ensure that the final version of the release is sent to your attention.

Please let me know if you have questions or concerns. My colleague Gaylean Davies is copied into this email as I am away from the office for the next while so please respond with reply all!

Thanks so much for your help and assistance - it's greatly appreciated.

Kind regards,

Cathryn

I'm concerned about releasing the numbers only because the premier has quoted 15,000 numerous times in the media.

The most updated numbers we have are 101 want to keep the change back and forth, 3491 want to change to either PST all the time or PDT all the time. There is a general confusion about what the 'question' is, but that's the best we could suss out. I did a quick tally of the 2018 batch and I'd say only about 10 of the 366 are in favour of keeping the current system.

Hi Sage!
Our 2018 numbers are about 366 so far (most came just after the time change). In comparison, we received 3628 in 2017. That's just for emails, so if you're looking for total correspondence there might be a few more but probably not more than 10 or 20. The 2018 batch contains a good amount of 'form letters' whereas the 2017 batch does not (so they are mostly if not entirely original). Let me know if you need anything else! Cheers.

Not much else to add here yet - we have very preliminary information regarding a guided snowmobile tour resulting in the death of a mother and daughter (daughter is reported to be approximately 11 years old).

We will be investigating but not sure when we'll be officially on site. I am happy to take calls if they come your way regarding the deceased.

Greetings,

I'm hoping to speak to the Premier or his staff about Appurtenancy and what we can expect over the coming year.

There are so many questions, I'll start with just a few:

What is the process for reconnecting communities to their resources?

What is the timeline?

Cheers,
