Subject: Response to question on Speculation Tax

Premier Horgan, I am writing to confirm my interpretation that the Ecoasis request for exemption of the Bear Mountain Resort Community from the proposed Speculation Tax and the Foreign Buyer's Tax can be achieved without creating any adverse precedents for the Provincial Government based on its current zoning.

As a resort community within an urban municipality, Bear Mountain enjoys a distinct resort zoning that will imminently be renamed Resort Community of Bear Mountain (RCBM1 and RCBM2 zones). This simple renaming process will provide distinction between Bear Mountain and other areas within British Columbia. The City of Langford obtained, from its Municipal solicitors, a legal opinion that the Provincial Government has the authority to exempt the designated resort area (RCBM1 and RCBM2 zones) of the City from the proposed taxes. Mr. Matthews, principal of Ecoasis, provided your office with a copy of the solicitors letter for your reference.

In addition, the Ecoasis properties located in the District of Highlands are currently zoned Bear Mountain Comprehensive Development zoning (BMCD), likewise unique in British Columbia and we believe therefore also eligible for exemption.

Please be mindful that Ecoasis and the City are available for a meeting to discuss this or other issues or to provide further information as required. I sincerely appreciate your personal interest in this sensitive matter.

Thank you,

Bob Flitton

Alison,

I was just cleaning out my inbox and I came across a whole whack of emails from you and wanted to take this moment, in case I didn't say it last year, to say how grateful I am for the help you provided during transition. I could not have taken care of all of those details at the end without you and I'm so grateful I could rely on you to help with all of that! Thank you! And You have my sincerest apologies for not acknowledging that earlier.

Lori, grateful to you as well for all of the help with contracts. That was not an easy time in terms of paper work and all the emails we had to exchange but I'm so grateful that I could count on you to help with all of that and that you were so patient with all of my questions. Heartfelt gratitude to you both.

Have a wonderful weekend.

Dear Minister Conroy,

Following-up on my email to you on July 3rd, IGRS has identified a number of American elected officials for you to consider meeting with while at the PNWER Summit. The main purpose of the meetings is to ensure influential Americans understand B.C.'s position on critical cross border issues such as the Columbia River Treaty and trade.

IGRS reviewed each American elected official that is registered and identified those with the most value in terms of influence, involvement in issues of importance to B.C., and/or economic connections with Canada. We then matched them with elected members from the B.C. delegation considering portfolio and looking for a reasonable balance of meetings for each official, while giving Ministers and the Parliamentary Secretary priority.

The list of suggested meeting is attached. IGRS, working with your Ministry, will provide you with briefing material.

To ensure coordination across the B.C. delegation and to assist with the meeting room, we are asking your scheduling staff to please connect with Nicole Vinette (Nicole.Vinette@gov.bc.ca) and Anika Sparling (Anika.Sparling@gov.bc.ca) from IGRS and cc them on correspondence with the U.S. officials.

In addition to the meetings above, IGRS will be working with your office to arrange for a meeting between all B.C. elected officials and the three representatives from Alaska that are attending the summit.

More details on PNWER will be provided at our meeting on July 16. In the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact me directly or have staff reach out to Nicole Vinette or Anika Sparling.

Sincerely,

Okenge Yuma Morisho

Subject: PNWER Briefing

Ministers and Parliamentary Secretary –

Don Wright has asked me to travel to New Brunswick next week to attend the annual FPT Clerks and Cabinet Secretaries meeting. Unfortunately, this means I will be on a flight during our scheduled PNWER briefing Monday at 9:00 AM.

I'd like to offer two options for how to proceed:

1. Proceed with the meeting as scheduled and have Jeremy Hewitt, Executive Director for U.S. Relations in my office, lead the briefing. Jeremy is the subject expert, is leading our PNWER strategy and will be on the ground in Spokane
2. Reschedule the briefing for Friday this week so that I can participate along with Jeremy

Of course feel free to call me directly if you'd like to discuss this directly in addition to the formal briefing.

I apologize for the inconvenience and hope one of the two options above will work for you.

Sincerely,

Okenge Yuma Morisho

Hello,

CFFS is undertaking a review and clean-up of the all Expense Authority listings as a result of numerous 3CMB exception findings in the Authorization/Approver category.

Please find attached a current listing of Expense Authorities for your area, and please complete the following:

1. Please review the attached the list:
  - a. Are there any new or existing EAs who are missing from this list?
  - b. Have all employees that have been terminated or moved along had their EAs rescinded?
  - c. Are there new/old Responsibility Codes for your area that need to be added/removed from EA cards?
  - d. Do applicable EAs have a designated alternate set-up?
  - e. Has each EA on this list completed PSA learning course FM111? (see column M, #N/A indicated a non-completion)
  - f. Verify name and position title are correct for all listings
2. With summer vacations approaching. Please remind Expense Authorities to set an alternate and turn on routing if they are going on vacation

For compliance purposes it is important that your EA listings are up to date, all transaction involving a non-compliant Expense Authority will be flagged by 3CMB and reported on the ministries detailed findings report.

Please indicate any changes needing to be made directly on the spreadsheet (highlight changes). Please respond to Perveen.Khan@gov.bc.ca by Monday August 27th in order to update your listing.

Thank you for your assistance. CFFS will be undertaking a review and clean-up twice yearly in June and again in December.

Best,

Nice to get a scholarship. I am wondering if this falls under Education advance. Does she have to pay it back if she does not complete the course?

Did she win a scholarship or she applied for one

Hi Alison

It's when you have a business trip and you have to borrow money from work to go, and then submit a travel claim when you're back to clear the advance similar to petty cash but not for purchases, used for travel

Hi Alison - we are in the planning stages of the next Consular Corps Briefing which will take place in Vancouver on Sept. 24th. In addition to 1-2 briefing provided by our DMs (TBD) It will also involve participation by our colleagues from Global Affairs Canada (GAC) who will provide briefings on privileges & immunities as they apply to members of the Consular Corps of BC. The information that GAC will provide is directly relevant to the day-to-day operations of the Consulates and a rare opportunity for the Consular Corps of BC to be briefed directly by GAC.

We expect the event to run from 10 am – 3pm with a lunch hosted by MBR in-between. Can you advise if Okenge will be able to participate?

Thanks.
